The amendment made by section 307 of the Revenue Act of 1943 of section 2406 (a), terminating the exemption with respect to the sale of articles for the exclusive use of the United States, becomes effective on June 1, 1944.

PAR. 7. Immediately preceding § 320.3, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 302. INCREASES IN RATES. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

(a) In general. Chapter 9A is amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 9A—WAR TAXES AND WAR TAX RATES

* * * * *

SEC. 1652. LEASES, CONDITIONAL SALES, EXISTING CONTRACTS, ETC.

(c) Existing contracts—(1) Tax payable by vendee. If (A) any person has, prior to the effective date of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1943, made a bona fide contract for the sale on or after such date, of any article with respect to the sale of which a tax is imposed by that Act or an existing rate of tax is increased by that Act, and (B) such contract does not permit the adding to the amount to be paid under such contract of the whole of such tax or increased rate of tax, then (unless the contract prohibits such addition) the vendee shall, in lieu of the vendor, pay so much of the tax as is not so permitted to be added to the contract price.

(2) Tax paid to vendor. Taxes payable by the vendee shall be paid to the vendor at the time the sale is consummated, and shall be collected and paid to the United States by the vendor in the same manner as provided in section 3467. In cases of failure or refusal by the vendee to pay such taxes to the vendor, the vendor shall report the facts to the Commissioner who shall cause collection of such taxes to be made from the vendee.

PAR. 8. Section 320.3 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following paragraphs:

Under section 1652 (c), as added by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, if certain conditions exist, the liability for the retailer's tax on luggage, etc., and the increases in existing retailers' taxes, imposed by the Revenue Act of 1943, is shifted from the retailer to the vendee. (See § 320.10.)

The conditions under which such liability is shifted are as follows: first, there must be a bona fide contract made by a retailer prior to April 1, 1944, for the sale on or after such date of an article with respect to which a retailers' excise tax is imposed, or the rate of an existing retailers' excise tax is increased, by the Revenue Act of 1943; second, the contract must not provide for the addition of such tax or increase in tax to the amount payable under such contract; and third, the contract must not expressly, or by implication, prohibit such addition to the contract price. Where these conditions are present the vendee becomes liable for the tax or additional tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1943. In all other cases, the liability remains upon the retailer and the full amount of the tax is payable by him.

A contract which provides that the tax shall be paid by the vendor or otherwise negatives any addition to the contract price, is regarded as prohibiting an addition of the tax to such price.

A vendee who is required to pay the tax shall make payment thereof to the vendor at the time the sale is consummated, and the tax shall be returned and paid to the collector by the vendor. (See § 320.70.) In case of a failure or refusal by the vendee to pay the tax to the vendor, the vendor shall report the facts to the Commissioner for direct collection of the tax from the vendee.

PAR. 9. Immediately preceding § 320.10, there is inserted the following:

(b) Cases where new tax imposed. In the case of (1) a lease, (2) a contract for the sale of an article wherein it is provided that the price shall be paid by installments and title to the article sold does not pass until a future date notwithstanding partial payment by installments, (3) a conditional sale, or (4) a chattel mortgage arrangement wherein it is provided that the sales price shall be paid in installments, no tax shall be imposed under section 1651 on the sale of any article if with respect to such article the lease, contract for sale, conditional sale, or chattel mortgage arrangement was made, delivery thereunder was made, and a part of the consideration was paid, before the effective date of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1943.

In the case of articles taxable under section 1651 of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1943, (relating to luggage, etc.), the tax does not apply if (1) the lease, or installment sale, or conditional sale contract, or chattel mortgage arrangement, (2) delivery of the article under the contract, and (3) payment of a part of the consideration, were made prior to April 1, 1944.

SEC. 303. PERSONS MAKING FUR ARTICLES FROM PELTS FURNISHED BY CUSTOMER. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title III, effective April 1, 1944.)

Section 2401 (relating to the retailers' excise tax with respect to fur articles) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following: "Where a person, who is engaged in the business of dressing or dyeing fur skins or of manufacturing, selling, or repairing fur articles, produces an article of the kind described in this section from fur on the hide or pelt furnished, directly or indirectly, by a customer and the article is for the use of, and not for resale by, such customer, the transaction shall be deemed to be a sale at retail and the person producing the article shall be deemed to be the person selling such article at retail for purposes of this section. The tax on such a transaction shall be computed and paid by such person upon the fair retail market value, as determined by the Commissioner, of the finished article."

PAR. 22. Section 320.41 is renumbered § 320.42, and a new § 320.41 is inserted to read as follows:

§ 320.41 Fur articles made from pelts furnished by customers. On and after April 1, 1944, where a person, who is engaged in the business of dressing or dyeing fur skins or of manufacturing, selling, or repairing fur articles, produces

The tax applicable to such transactions is to be computed upon the fair retail market value of the finished article, as determined by the Commissioner. Generally the fair retail market value may be considered as the retail sales price for which the same or a similar finished article is sold by retailers generally in the ordinary course of the retail trade.

PAR. 23. Renumbered § 320.42, is amended by adding at the end thereof a sentence as follows:

For the war period the rate of tax is 20 per cent of the price for which such articles are sold.

PAR. 24. Immediately preceding § 320.50, there is inserted the following:

PAR. 25. Section 320.50, is amended by striking out the third paragraph.

PAR. 26. Section 320.51, is amended by adding at the end thereof a sentence as follows:

For the war period the rate of tax is 20 percent of the price for which such articles are sold.

PAR. 27. The heading "Subpart G—Miscellaneous Provisions" following § 320.52 is amended to read "Subpart H.—Miscellaneous Provisions", and the sections thereof are changed as follows: 320.60 to 320.70; 320.61 to 320.71; 320.62 to 320.72; 320.63 to 320.73; 320.64 to 320.74; 320.65 to 320.75; 320.66 to 320.76; 320.67 to 320.77; and 320.68 to 320.78.

PAR. 28. Immediately after § 320.52, there is inserted a new Subpart G, as follows:

SUBPART G—LUGGAGE, ETC.

to meet his heating requirements during the 1944–1945 coal year (April 1, 1944–March 31, 1945, inclusive).

Among the solid fuels to which this regulation applies, certain sizes and kinds will be considerably scarcer than others. Consumers will not be able to obtain as much of these scarcer solid fuels (namely, certain domestic sizes of bituminous coal produced in District 7 and District 8, western coke, briquettes and packaged fuel) as they will want. More stringent limitations must be placed upon the retail dealer distribution of the scarcer solid fuels, in order to secure their equitable distribution. Up to October 1, 1944, no retail dealer may deliver to a consumer, and no consumer may receive from all sources combined, a tonnage of the scarcer solid fuels which exceeds 75 percent of the consumer's annual requirements, less his April 1, 1944 inventory.

In areas where alternative and less scarce solid fuels, such as Districts 4, 9, 10, 11 or 12 coals, are available, it is estimated that not more than 75 per cent of the consumer's annual requirements to March 31, 1945, less his April 1, 1944 inventory, will be met by the scarcer solid fuels (certain sizes of District 7 and 8 coal, western coke, briquettes and packaged fuel). Therefore, consumers in such areas must, unless they wish to go through the winter with less than an adequate tonnage of solid fuels, put the alternative and less scarce solid fuels into their bins during the spring and summer to the extent of not less than 25 per cent of their annual requirements. Dealers, in the area in which Districts 4, 9, 10, 11 or 12 coals are obtainable, must, therefore, in the interest of protecting the communities which they serve, arrange to have available an adequate supply of those alternative and less scarce solid fuels for delivery during the spring and summer to their customers. Moreover, retail dealers may refuse to deliver the scarcer fuels to consumers whose burning equipment permits the use of an alternative solid fuel, provided that the dealer is ready, willing and able to provide the consumer with such other solid fuel.

If retail dealers and consumers cooperate with one another and SFAW in the early delivery of the alternative and less scarce solid fuels and if the utmost conservation is practiced by consumers, it is estimated that there will be sufficient usable coal of one kind or another for everyone. The responsibility of dealers under this regulation is to spread their available supply equitably among all consumers; the responsibility of consumers under this regulation is to refrain from duplicating or inflating their orders for coal and to conserve their fuel supply; it is the responsibility of both the retail dealers and the consumers to obey all provisions of this regulation.

§ 602.411 Definitions. (a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or organized group of persons.

(b) "Coal" or "bituminous coal" means, unless otherwise specifically indicated, bituminous and subbituminous coal produced in Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 13, as described in the Annex to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended.

(c) "Solid fuels" include any form of anthracite, semianthracite, bituminous, subbituminous or lignitic coals or coke (including packaged and processed fuels such as briquettes).

(d) "Coke" means coke which is produced from bituminous coal.

(e) "Eastern coke" means coke delivered by retail dealers to consumers in the District of Columbia, and the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, and that portion of Pennsylvania which is east of a straight line drawn from the southern to the northern boundary of Pennsylvania through the western boundary of Gettysburg, in Adams County, and Lock Haven, in Clinton County.

(f) "Western coke" means all coke, except eastern coke, delivered by retail dealers to consumers.

(g) "Scarcer kinds of solid fuels" means (1) all lump, egg, stove, nut, pea, domestic mine run or straight mine run bituminous coal produced in the low volatile fields of District 7 or District 8, (2) all lump, egg, stove or nut bituminous coal produced in the high volatile fields of District 7 or District 8, (3) western coke and (4) packaged fuel or briquettes.

(h) "Alternative solid fuels" means all forms of bituminous coal other than the scarcer kinds of solid fuels.

(i) "Retail dealer" means any person (including the retail outlet, branch or department of one who is also a producer, wholesaler or dock operator) to the extent that he acts in the capacity of a supplier, shipper or seller of solid fuels in any transaction involving a shipment, sale, or sale and delivery, of broken bulk solid fuels physically handled in a truck, wagon or other less than carload facility, without regard to quantity or frequency of delivery.

(j) "Equipped retail dealer" means any retail dealer who has both storage facilities and truck scales.

(k) "Unequipped retail dealer" means any retail dealer except an equipped retail dealer.

(l) "Consumer" means any person who acquires solid fuels for space heating, domestic hot water or domestic cooking except to the extent that he acquires such solid fuels for space heating incidental to an industrial process or the production of power.

(m) "Space heating incidental to an industrial process or the production of power" denotes a set of circumstances under which the annual tonnage of solid fuels consumed for space heating does not exceed 40 percent of the total annual tonnage of solid fuels consumed in the industrial process, the production of power and the space heating.

(n) "Industrial process or the production of power" includes without limitation any manufacturing or commercial processing, the generation of electrical energy for resale or otherwise, and the operation of a commercial bakery or laundry. Industrial process or the production of power does not include the ordinary operations of the following, among others: apartment houses, hotels, schools, and office buildings.

(o) "Consumer's annual requirements" means the number of tons of solid fuels burned at the premises of a consumer (and if such premises has two or more units of heating equipment which customarily burn different sizes of solid fuels, the number of tons burned in each unit) during the period April 1, 1942, to March 31, 1943, inclusive; or, in the event solid fuels were not burned as the principal fuel in such premises (or in such heating units) during such period, the number of tons of solid fuels which were burned in other premises (or units) similar thereto in the same locality during the same period.

(p) "Consumer's inventory" means the number of tons of solid fuels in storage at the consumer's premises, or under the consumer's control, on April 1, 1944.

(q) "Deliveries to mine employees" means sale or deliveries of bituminous coal to such employees of producers of bituminous coal as are engaged in mining operations or functions directly connected therewith in the vicinity of the mining operations.

(r) "Regulation" means a regulation, order, direction or instruction of the Solid Fuels Administration for War unless otherwise specifically indicated.

(s) "SFAW" means Solid Fuels Administration for War.

§ 602.412 Responsibility of retail dealers distributing bituminous coal, western coke, briquettes or packaged fuel must be faithfully discharged. (a) Each equipped or unequipped retail dealer who has or receives any bituminous coal, western coke, packaged fuel or briquettes has the responsibility for distributing such solid fuels equitably in strict accordance with the provisions of this regulation. Any dealer who does not discharge that responsibility faithfully may be precluded in whole or in part by SFAW from receiving bituminous coal and other solid fuels.

(b) It is anticipated that retail dealers generally will receive from their sources of supply considerably less of the scarcer kinds of solid fuels (such as certain sizes of District 7 and District 8 coal) than consumers in the aggregate would like to purchase. No equipped or unequipped retail dealer should undertake to deliver, in the aggregate, to the consumers he serves a tonnage of the scarcer kinds of solid fuels which exceeds the tonnage of such fuels he reasonably expects to receive in view of applicable regulations and such advice as he may receive from his sources of supply.

§ 602.413 Restrictions upon retail dealer deliveries and consumer receipts of bituminous coal, western coke, briquettes and packaged fuel. (a) During the period April 1, 1944–March 31, 1945, inclusive, no equipped or unequipped retail dealer may deliver, and no consumer may receive from all sources combined, any bituminous coal, western coke, packaged fuel or briquettes, or any or all of them in combination, in an amount which when added to (1) the consumer's inventory of solid fuels as of April 1, 1944, and (2) the tonnage of solid fuels received by the consumer after April 1, 1944, exceeds 100 per cent of the consumer's annual requirements for solid fuels.

(b) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, during the period April 1, 1944 to October 1, 1944, inclusive, no equipped or unequipped retail dealer may deliver, and no consumer may receive from all sources combined, the scarcer kinds of solid fuels (certain sizes of District 7 and District 8 coal, western coke, briquettes, packaged fuel, or any or all of them in combination) in an amount which when added to (1) the consumer's inventory of such solid fuels as of April 1, 1944, and (2) the tonnage of such solid fuels received by the consumer after April 1, 1944, exceeds 75 per cent of the consumer's annual requirements for solid fuels.

(c) In applying the percentage of permissible shipments under provisions of this regulation, the retail dealer may, in respect to one-half ton or a larger fraction, deliver, and the consumer may receive, a full ton; and conversely, in applying the percentage of permissible shipments under provisions of this regulation, the retail dealer may disregard a fraction of less than one-half ton. For example, if application of the percentage of permissible shipments indicates that two and one-half tons may be delivered, the dealer may deliver three tons; if the application of the percentage of permissible shipments indicates that two and one-third tons may be delivered, the dealer may disregard the one-third ton and deliver two tons.

(d) In the practical application of the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, a retail dealer may deliver to a consumer, and such consumer may receive, one load or three tons, whichever is less, of bituminous coal, western coke, briquettes or packaged fuel if it is necessary to do so in order to assure maximum effective utilization of transportation facilities available to the retail dealer: Provided, however, That the tonnage so delivered shall not, when added to (1) the consumer's inventory of solid fuels as of April 1, 1944, and (2) the tonnage of solid fuels received by the consumer after April 1, 1944, exceed the consumer's annual requirements for solid fuels.

§ 602.414 Procedure governing deliveries by retail dealers of bituminous coal, western coke, briquettes and packaged fuel. (a) No equipped or unequipped retail dealer may deliver to a consumer, and no consumer may receive from any person, the scarcer kinds of solid fuels (certain sizes of District 7 and District 8 coal, western coke, briquettes and packaged fuel) if the consumer inflates, duplicates or pyramids his orders for solid fuels.

(b) No equipped or unequipped retail dealer shall discriminate in the delivery of bituminous coal, western coke, packaged fuel, or briquettes, as between or among consumers who are equally entitled to receive such solid fuels under this regulation, provided, however, that retail dealers shall accord first preference in the delivery of such solid fuels to consumers who have less than a five days' supply of usable solid fuel on hand.

(c) Nothing in this regulation shall be deemed to require any retail dealer to deliver the scarcer kinds of solid fuels (certain sizes of District 7 and District 8 bituminous coal, western coke, briquettes and packaged fuel) to a consumer whose burning equipment permits the use of alternative solid fuels, provided that the retail dealer is ready, willing and able to supply such consumer with such other alternative solid fuels.

§ 602.415 Restrictions upon deliveries and receipts of bituminous coal, western coke, briquettes and packaged fuel when used in conjunction with or in addition to certain other solid fuels. During the period April 1, 1944–March 31, 1945, inclusive, some consumers may want to use some of the solid fuels to which this regulation applies in conjunction with or in addition to other solid fuels (anthracite and eastern coke) to which SFAW Regulation No. 17 (9 F.R. 3193) applies. For example, some consumers may wish to receive bituminous coal, western coke and anthracite; or bituminous coal, eastern coke and anthracite; or certain of the scarcer kinds of solid fuels, as defined in this regulation (certain sizes of District 7 and District 8 coal, briquettes or packaged fuel) and anthracite or eastern coke. However, no equipped or unequipped retail dealer wherever located may deliver to a consumer, and no consumer may receive from all sources combined, an aggregate tonnage of the different solid fuels in excess of the amounts permitted to be delivered and received under this regulation and SFAW Regulation No. 17, as indicated by the following illustrative table:

Solid fuels to be delivered or received	Maximum percentage of consumer's annual requirements which may be delivered or received to Oct 1, 1944 (appropriate deduction to be made for consumer's Apr. 1, 1944 inventory).
(1) Certain sizes of Districts 7 and 8 coals, western coke, briquettes, packaged fuel (or any of them) and (2) anthracite.	75 percent (not more than 50 percent may be anthracite).
(1) Certain sizes of District 7 and 8 coal, briquettes, packaged fuel (or any of them) and (2) anthracite or eastern coke (or both of them).	75 percent (not more than 50 percent may be anthracite or eastern coke or both).

§ 602.416 General restrictions upon retail dealer deliveries of bituminous coal for industrial use or production of power. No equipped or unequipped retail dealer may deliver and no person may acquire from all sources combined during the period April 1, 1944–March 31, 1945, inclusive, bituminous coal for use in an industrial process or for the production of power or for space heating which is incidental thereto in an amount which when added to solid fuels in the possession or under the control of such person exceeds the amount needed to meet annual requirements to March 31, 1945.

§ 602.417 Consumer declarations. (a) Unlike SFAW Regulation No. 17 (which regulates retail dealer deliveries of anthracite and eastern coke), this regulation does not now require the filing of consumer declarations by consumers of bituminous coal, western coke, packaged fuel or briquettes.

(b) However, the SFAW may, after considering such recommendation as may be made, prior to SFAW action, by any SFAW Area Advisory Committee on Local Distribution or Community Committee on Emergency Distribution, require the filing with retail dealers of consumer declarations by consumers in certain areas before bituminous coal, western coke, briquettes or packaged fuel may be delivered or received.

§ 602.418 Limitations upon applicability of this regulation. This regulation does not apply to deliveries of bituminous coal, western coke, briquettes and packaged fuel to, or to the acquisition of such solid fuels by:

(1) The United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, the Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration;

(2) Any person, including a governmental agency, who acquires such solid fuels for export to and use in any foreign country;

(3) Commercial fishing vessels or water-borne vessels engaged in the commercial transportation of cargo or passengers;

(4) Mine employees; or

(5) Except as provided in § 602.416, any person to the extent that he acquires such solid fuels for use in an industrial process or for the production of power or for space heating which is incidental thereto.

§ 602.419 How consumers who need solid fuels may obtain assistance. (a) A consumer who has received less solid fuels than is permitted under § 602.413 of this regulation and who (1) has less than five days' supply of solid fuels on hand, (2) is unable to obtain a supply of solid fuels either from his retail dealer or other retail dealers, and (3) is willing to accept any solid fuel which may reasonably be used in his burning equipment may obtain assistance from one of the following:

(1) The nearest local representative or any State Fuel Administration functioning under a plan of cooperation proposed by the Governor of the State and approved by SFAW. (Such plans have heretofore been proposed for the States of Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island and have been approved by SFAW); or

(ii) The nearest SFAW Area Advisory Committee on Local Distribution to be appointed pursuant to SFAW Order No. 12 (9 F.R. 2206). (A list of such committees will be published prior to September 15, 1944); or

(iii) The nearest SFAW Community Committee on Emergency Distribution to be appointed pursuant to SFAW Order No. 12 (a list of such committees will be published from time to time); or

(iv) The nearest regional or field office of SFAW.

(b) A consumer also may advise with any of the representatives, committees or officer, referred to in paragraph (a) of this section, in regard to any complaint as to the operation of this regulation.

§ 602.420 Records. Each retail dealer shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of the details of any transaction to which any portion of this regulation applies.

§ 602.421 Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this regulation shall upon request be submitted for inspection, copy and audit by duly authorized representatives of SFAW.

§ 602.422 Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this regulation or who by any act or omission falsifies records kept or information furnished in connection with this regulation is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both; and such person may also be prohibited from delivering or receiving any material under priority control.

§ 602.423 Damages for breach of contract. No retail dealer shall be held liable under any contract for damages or penalties for any default which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with this regulation.

§ 602.424 Application for modification and exception; inquiries and communications. Any application by a retail dealer for modification of or exception from any provision of this regulation shall be filed in triplicate with the appropriate Regional Office of SFAW for the area in which the dealer is engaged in business. The application shall set forth in detail the provisions sought to be modified or from which an exception is sought, and the reasons and data in support of the request for modification or exception. The Regional Representative, Area Distribution Manager, or other person in charge of the Regional Office of SFAW shall, after considering the recommendation of the SFAW Area Advisory Committee on Local Distribution, send such application and his recommendation thereon, to the Solid Fuels Administration for War, Washington 25, D. C., for appropriate action.

Any other person subject to or affected by this regulation should address inquiries and communications or requests for relief in respect to any provision of this regulation to the nearest office of SFAW.

§ 602.425 Official interpretations. Official interpretations shall be given only in writing, signed by the Administrator, the Deputy Administrator or the General Counsel of SFAW.

§ 602.426 Regulations revoked hereby. Solid Fuels Administration for War Revised Regulation No. 7 (8 F.R. 15442), as amended, is hereby revoked as of the effective date of this regulation: Provided, however, That civil or criminal liabilities incurred under the provisions of that regulation shall not be affected by this revocation.

Issued this 31st day of March 1944.

[Order 66-A]

PART 8—RULES GOVERNING SHIP SERVICE[1]

EXTENSION OF SEVEN-YEAR LIMITATION PROVISION FOR AUTOMATIC ALARM RECEIVERS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held on the 28th day of March 1944, at its offices in Washington, D. C.;

It appearing that by Commission Order No. 66 (5 F.R. 1285), dated April 1, 1940, certain types and models of automatic alarm receivers were approved as meeting the Commission's Auto Alarm Requirements and Type Tests, promulgated under date of October 1, 1935,

"Provided, That approval of a particular individual automatic alarm receiver of any one of the above-mentioned types, installed on a ship for the purpose of complying with treaty or Title III, Part II of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, shall not extend beyond the date seven years following the date when the particular alarm in question was first put into service aboard a ship.";

and it further appearing that subsequent to the adoption of Order No. 66, certain other types of auto alarms which constitute modified models of those originally approved, have been approved from time to time by the Commission; and

It further appearing that nearly seven years have elapsed since auto alarms of certain types and models approved by the Commission were first placed in service on board ships; and

It further appearing that because of conditions brought about by the war in which the United States is now engaged, no new specifications for automatic alarm receivers have been drawn by the Commisson to supersede the Auto Alarm Requirements and Type Tests, promulgated under date of October 1, 1935;

Therefore, it is ordered, That the seven year limitation contained in the above-cited proviso of Commission Order No. 66, dated April 1, 1940, be, and it is hereby extended until further order of the Commission.

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E. O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 13, as Amended Apr. 1, 1944]

§ 944.34 Priorities Regulation 13—(a) Purpose of this regulation. This regulation, in general, describes the rules under which materials may be sold by persons who are not in the regular business of selling such materials. While most sales of this kind will be sales of frozen, idle, or excess materials the regulation also covers any sale from inventory by such persons. For example, a person who has idle materials on hand because his business has been converted to war work, or because the business he used to carry on has been stopped or limited by War Production Board orders, or whose contract has been cancelled or changed, may sell off the idle or excess materials only under the rules in this regulation and, if he follows this regulation, he does not have to look at any other order or regulation except in a few cases which are described in paragraph (f) (2) below. This regulation also controls liquidation sales, bankruptcy sales, general auction sales, and other special sales, as defined in paragraph (b) (1).

(b) Special definitions used in this regulation. This regulation deals only with "special sales" of "industrial materials" or "finished products." As used in the regulation, those terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Special sale" means a sale of a material or product by a person who does not, in the regular course of his business, sell it in that form. For example, if a manufacturer sells the raw material he has bought to use in making his regular product, it is a special sale because selling raw material is not his regular business. Or, if a contractor has bought building materials and equipment to build a building and cannot finish it and sells them, that is a special sale because his business is building houses, not selling lumber and nails and lighting fixtures. Liquidation sales by trustees in bankruptcy, receivers and other kinds of liquidators (unless they are continuing to operate a business) and sales by general auctioneers are special sales as that type of person is not considered to be regularly in the business of selling any particular products.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind. It includes both "industrial materials" and "finished products."

(3) "Industrial materials" means the simple kinds of materials that finished products are made out of. It includes simple material forms like pipe, metal sheet and rod, wire, lumber, chemicals, nails, nuts and bolts. These are things that are bought for use in making something else, or are to be put together with other things to make a finished product.

(4) "Finished products" means completed articles which are ready for use just as they are and which do not need to be put together with something else before they can be used. It includes wrenches and hammers, assembled parts, replacement parts and products like tools, machinery, motors, valves, drums and fabricated industrial, agricultural or household equipment. Other examples of what it includes are clothing, furnishings, light bulbs, etc.

(5) "Used materials" means any industrial materials or finished products which have been put into actual use.

(6) Materials not covered by this regulation. There are three types of materials which are not covered by this regulation. They are the following:

(i) Scrap. This includes both scrap normally generated in production and other material which is sold as scrap. There are special orders covering certain types of scrap and except in those cases scrap may be sold to a scrap dealer.

(ii) Rationed products which are controlled by another government agency.

(iii) Foods for humans or animals, medicines, tobacco, oils and fats, petroleum and petroleum products including natural and liquefied petroleum gases.

(c) Kinds of special sales which may be made. If a person wants to make a "special sale" (as described above), the rules in this regulation apply and only these rules. There is no need to look at any other order or regulation, and these rules must be followed, no matter how the material was bought, and no matter what any other order or regulation provides. The only exceptions to this rule are stated in paragraphs (f) (2) and (3). The types of special sales which may be made are the following:

(1) Materials not on Lists A or B. (i) Industrial materials not on List A may be sold freely to anyone.

(ii) Finished products not on List B may be sold to anyone who makes or produces such a product in the form in which the holder possesses it or to a wholesaler whose regular business is selling such a product in whole or in part from stock or inventory. They also may be sold to anyone on a rating of AA-5 or higher. A holder may also make a special sale of a finished product which is not on List B if he obtains permission from the War Production Board. The way to get this permission is explained in paragraph (c) (2) (iii) below.

(2) Materials on List A or List B. If the material that the holder wants to sell is one of the industrial materials listed on List A or is a finished product appearing on List B, the following are the only kinds of sales that can be made.

(i) Sales may be made in accordance with List A or List B. Those lists have four columns showing classes of buyers who might want to buy materials. Opposite each material on the lists in each column is shown whether, and under what conditions, sales can be made to the class of buyer described in the heading of the column.

(ii) A holder may sell freely to one of the following Government corporations, or to anyone buying as agent for one of them: Commodity Credit Corporation, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company or Rubber Reserve Company.

(iii) A holder may sell if he has been given permission by the War Production Board to make the particular sale. Form WPB-1161 (PD-470) should be used in applying for permission. It shows the information which is needed before permission can be given and it should be sent to the regional office of the War Production Board in the region where the material is located. Copies of this form can be obtained from district or regional offices of the War Production Board. There are two exceptions to this rule in which WPB-1161 is not to be used. These are controlled materials for which special rules have been provided in later paragraphs, and a few finished products where a note in List B states that another form is to be used.

(iv) A holder may sell freely to anyone if he has a total of not more than $100 worth of the particular material to be sold, unless it is one of the few materials for which special rules and amounts are stated in Column 6 of List A or List B. In deciding whether the holder has $100 worth he must count all material of the same type and composition. For example, all zinc sheet or cattle hides, or all cotton duck, or all shovels or hammers. This paragraph does not mean that a person may sell freely lots worth less than $100 if he has more than that amount. It only allows the sales if all he has of that kind of material is worth less than $100.

(v) If the material is copper, copper base alloy, aluminum or steel in a form described as a "controlled material" in CMP Regulation 1, the holder may sell it to a buyer who gives him an order bearing a CMP allotment symbol or number and this certification:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies that he is entitled under CMP regulations to place an authorized controlled material order for the above material.

Or the certification may be in the form set out in CMP Regulation 7 or in any other form which may be used in placing an authorized controlled material order. The buyer must charge material bought under this paragraph, against his CMP allotment account. If the material which the holder wants to sell is steel he may also sell it to steel warehouses, dealers or distributors on orders bearing the endorsements described in M-21-b-1 and M-21-b-2.

(vi) Special permission to sell controlled materials. The War Production Board may give special permission to sell idle or excess controlled materials for any use which is permitted under War Production Board orders or regulations either to a person who has no allotment or to a person who already has an allotment and an authorized production schedule under the Controlled Material Plan. This permission may be given only if the material has been reported to the War Production Board as idle or excess and if the material is iron, steel, aluminum, copper or copper base alloy in controlled material form. If this permission is given, the holder need not get from the buyer the certification provided in paragraph (c) (2) (v) above and if the buyer has an allotment he does not have to charge against his allotment account the amount of controlled materials bought under this special permission. In the case of copper and copper base alloy in controlled material form, the above permission may be given only if the buyer has a production schedule authorized under the Controlled Materials Plan and will use the material for the same purpose for which the production schedule was authorized. Either the buyer or the seller may apply for this permission in person or by writing, wiring or telephoning, giving full details about the size, shape, analysis, specifications and quantity of the material and the purpose for which it will be used. Requests for such permission should be directed to the Regional Office of the War Production Board for the region in which the material is located or to the appropriate materials division. If the material is being secured through the Copper Recovery Inventory Branch, then such request should be addressed to it at 350 Fifth Ave., New York 16, N. Y.

(3) Special orders. If the War Production Board, by an order or in any other way, has ruled that all persons engaged in a particular business may sell or exchange materials between themselves, they can do so.

(4) Used materials. Used materials may be sold freely to anyone unless there is a notation in List A or List B restricting the sale of the particular used material which the holder wants to sell.

(d) Transfers within a company. If a person wants to transfer material from one of his plants or operating units to another one which normally purchases separately, the transfer is considered equivalent to a sale and he may make it only under the same conditions as he could make a special sale under this regulation. In any other case where a person who has obtained material with priorities assistance wants to use it for another purpose, he should refer to § 944.11 of Priorities Regulation 1 or (in the case of controlled materials or Class A products obtained with an allotment) to paragraph (u) of CMP Regulation 1.

(e) Replacing material sold. If a person sells material under this regulation to someone who gives him a priority rating or a CMP allotment symbol or number, the seller cannot use this rating or allotment to replace the material he has sold. The effect of this rating or symbol or number stops when the seller receives it.

(f) Sales covered by this regulation. (1) This regulation applies only to "special sales" (as described in paragraph (b) (1)) and if the holder is regularly engaged in selling a material a sale of it by him is not a special sale and he is governed by all orders and regulations of the War Production Board which apply to the material he is selling.

(2) Provisions in any orders or regulations issued before April 1, 1944 which say that this regulation does not apply may be disregarded, except for Order U-1 affecting utilities, WPB Directive 16, which provides special rules for aircraft inventory transfers, and Order P-98-c, which applies to special sales in the petroleum industry. To find the rules for making a special sale there is no need to refer to any order or regulation other than Priorities Regulation 13, outside of the three exceptions stated. However, if another order or regulation issued after April 1, 1944 expressly mentions Priorities Regulation 13 and says that this regulation does not apply to a particular type of sale, then that order or regulation takes the place of this regulation.

(3) If any seller is allowed to make a sale under this regulation, the buyer is permitted to buy and accept delivery, except that:

(i) The buyer may not violate any regulation or order controlling the quantity of material which he may have or buy or receive or the amount of any product he may make or the use that he may make of any particular material. All the prohibitions in orders against the use of materials for particular purposes remain in effect.

(ii) If any order or regulation provides that a buyer of material must make any report or furnish any information either to the War Production Board or to the seller, this regulation does not excuse him from these requirements.

(iii) If any holder of material knows that a person who wants to buy it will use it for a prohibited purpose or would have more of it than he is permitted to have, the sale cannot be made.

(g) Records. Any person making a sale under this regulation must keep sufficient records so that he can show that the sale was permitted under this regulation.

(h) Listing materials with the War Production Board. If anyone has any excess, idle or frozen material that he wants to sell, he should report it to his nearest War Production Board office giving full details about its size, shape, analysis, specifications and quantity, and they will try to help him.

(i) Letters and questions. Any letters or questions about this regulation should be sent either to the Redistribution Division of the War Production Board in Washington, marked "Ref: P.R. 13", or to any of the field offices of the War Production Board.

(j) Revisions of Lists A and B. Lists A and B attached to this regulation will be revised on the first of each month, beginning April 1st, 1944. A person wishing to sell material under this regulation should be sure that he has the list which is in effect at the time of the sale. Copies may be obtained from any field office of the War Production Board.

Issued this 1st day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

LISTS A AND B

Explanation of Lists A and B: Column (1) of List A lists the industrial materials (as defined in paragraph (b) (3) that are restricted under the regulation. This shows in some instances the class or group of materials and does not always list all the trade names and related materials.

Column (1) of List B lists the finished products to which the general sales rules in paragraph (c) (1) (ii) do not apply because the finished product is either more or less restricted than the general rule.

Columns (2), (3), (4) and (5) each apply to a type of possible buyer. Opposite each material in each column is shown the conditions under which a special sale of the particular material may be made to the person described in the heading of the column.

Column (2) applies to persons who make or produce material in the form in which the holder bought it. This includes non-integrated producers. If the holder bought copper wire, column (2) refers to a wire mill, which makes copper wire. If he bought a machine tool, it refers to a company which makes that kind of a product.

Column (3) refers to persons who are permitted to buy and use the material for production, construction, maintenance, repair or operating supplies or for capital expansion or replacement.

Column (4) refers to persons who buy new, rejected or second grade materials and who rework them. This includes persons who change the form of the material by redrawing, rerolling, etc., except that it does not include controlled material producers.

Column (5) refers to persons who are wholesale dealers in the material the holder has like a wholesaler in chemicals or textiles. A wholesaler means anyone whose regular business consists in whole or in part of the sale from stock or inventory of the particular materials or products to other persons for the purpose of resale, or for fabrication or assembly into other products. It also includes persons who recondition or rebuild equipment and machinery for resale to industrial users. Such a person is not, however, relieved from compliance with any orders or regulations of the War Production Board which control the distribution of the material by him.

Column (6) contains notes which should be read whenever a star (*) or note shows on the list.

If the list shows "no," it means that the holder cannot sell to the class of person mentioned in the column head without special permission of the War Production Board except when a note in column (6) allows certain kinds of sales. Paragraph (c) (2) (iii) of the regulation tells how to get permission.

If the list shows "PR" followed by a letter and number, like "PR AA-5," it means that the holder can sell to anyone who gives him an AA-5 priority rating for the sale, or a higher rating.

If the list shows "W. O. P.," it means the holder can sell to the person at the head of the column without any priority rating or allocation.

If the list shows "X," it means that there are no persons who fall in the description at the top of the column so far as that particular material is concerned.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

IMPERIAL MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Joseph Reiter and Herbert Holmberg, co-partners, doing business under the name of Imperial Manufacturing Company, 2019 East Lake Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota, were engaged in the business of constructing and selling prefabricated houses. Between August 15, 1943, and November 1, 1943, they constructed two pre-fabricated houses, one at Spring Lake Park, Minnesota, and the other at New Brighton, Minnesota, and sold them without authorization of the War Production Board and in violation of Conservation Order L-41. The estimated cost and sale price of these structures was approximately $925 and $1,450, respectively, both of which exceeded the $200 limit permitted under Conservation Order L-41. Joseph Reiter and Herbert Holmberg had such knowledge of Conservation Order L-41 that their beginning these constructions constituted wilful violations of the order.

These violations of Conservation Order L-41 have diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.513 Suspension Order S-513. (a) Deliveries of material to Joseph Reiter and Herbert Holmberg, doing business as Imperial Manufacturing Company, or otherwise, their and its successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation or allotment shall be made to Joseph Reiter and Herbert Holmberg, doing business as Imperial Manufacturing Company, or otherwise, their and its successors or assigns, directly or indirectly, of any material or product the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Joseph Reiter and Herbert Holmberg, doing business as Imperial Manufacturing Company, or otherwise, their and its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on March 31, 1944, and shall expire on June 29, 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD.

Recording Secretary.

PART 1226 [1]—GENERAL INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT

[General Limitation Order L-111, as Amended Apr. 1, 1944]

HAND TRUCKS AND OTHER HANDLING EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of steel and other materials, for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1226.112 [2] General Limitation Order L-111—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who fabricates or assembles hand trucks, platforms, pallets, portable (platform type) elevators, or racks.

(3) "Hand truck" means any truck, lift truck, lift jack, dolly, or trailer, not self-power propelled, with one or more free running wheels or casters, designed or used for transporting material of any kind; except a hospital cart designed for moving materials in parts of hospitals customarily used by patients, or a trailer for use on the highway or for use in earth moving, mining, logging, or petroleum development.

(4) "Dolly" means any low platform or structure mounted on wheels or casters (or one or more of each), and designed primarily for moving bulky loads on floors.

(5) [Revoked, September 6, 1943].

(6) "Lift truck" means a hand truck designed or used to lift and support a platform or pallet in moving. "Lift jack" means a hand truck designed or used to lift and support a part of a semi-live platform in moving.

(7) "Two wheel hand truck" means a hand truck in which the load is partly carried or balanced by a person, even though such hand truck may be equipped with more than two wheels or casters.

(8) "Platform truck" means a hand truck consisting of a platform on wheels or casters or both, not self-power propelled.

(9) "Trailer" means a platform type truck designed to be towed.

(10) "Platform" means any platform, deck or skid, with or without box top or enclosure, standing on legs or other supports, and used or designed primarily for use in conjunction with hand or power operated lift trucks, portable (platform type) elevators, or similar devices. "Semi-live platform" means a platform with one or more wheels, or casters, and one or more legs or similar supports.

(11) "Pallet" means a single or double faced support designed primarily for the same purposes as a platform.

(12) "Portable (platform type) elevator" means any elevating device, mounted on wheels or casters (or one or more of each), with either power or hand operated lift, used or designed primarily for elevating or lowering material, for purposes of tiering, stacking, or access to elevated places.

(13) "Rack" means any rack or other structure used or designed primarily for the storage of pallets or platforms, or storage or draining (or both) of barrels, drums, carboys, or similar containers.

(14) [Deleted Apr. 1, 1944]

(16) [Deleted Apr. 1, 1944]

(b) Restrictions on acceptance of orders for hand trucks, platforms, and portable (platform type) elevators, and parts. (1) No manufacturer, dealer or other person shall accept any order for any new hand truck, platform, or portable (platform type) elevator, or any new parts for any such equipment, or deliver any such equipment or parts under any order tendered on or after April 13, 1943, unless such order bears a preference rating of AA-5 or higher.

(2) The foregoing requirements shall not apply to any order for parts to be delivered to a manufacturer or dealer for resale for repair purposes, or to any other person for use in the repair of any such equipment already owned by such person, if the purchaser furnishes his supplier with a certification in substantially the following form, on the purchase order or in a separate document:

I hereby certify that the above (or attached) order is for parts to be used for repair purposes only, in compliance with paragraph (b) (2) of General Limitation Order L-111.

---------- Company

By ---------- (Authorized Official)

Such certification shall in every case be signed by the purchaser or an authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. No person shall make delivery under any such order if he knows or has reason to believe that such certificate is false; and no person shall falsely furnish any such certification. Such certification shall constitute a representation to the War Production Board, as well as to the supplier, that the statements therein are true. Any supplier may rely upon the information therein, and shall not be responsible for any action taken by him under this order in reliance upon inaccurate or untrue statements therein, unless he knows or has reason to believe that such statements are inaccurate or untrue.

(c) Operation reports. On or before the 15th day of each calendar month, each manufacturer shall file a report with the War Production Board on Form WPB-2494 (formerly PD-845) showing his production capacity and such other information as may be required by said form. This reporting provision has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(d) Required specifications for hand trucks and other handling equipment. No person shall manufacture or deliver any new hand trucks, platforms, pallets, racks, or portable (platform type) elevators, or deliver any new wheels, or other parts for use on any such new equipment or for replacement on any such used equipment, except in accordance with the specifications and restrictions set forth below, and no person shall deliver, or accept delivery of, any such equipment which he knows, or has reason to believe, was manufactured, or is being delivered, contrary to such specifications and restrictions:

(1) [Revoked September 6, 1943].

(2) Restriction on the use of bearings and materials. No ball bearings or roller bearings shall be used in the manufacture of two-wheel hand trucks, platform trucks, dollies, or semi-live platforms, except where the normal load capacity is 2500 lbs. or more, and except also that ball bearings and other alloy steel may be used in the swivel bearings or casters. This restriction shall not be deemed to prohibit the use of pin bearings using unground steel pins of other than alloy steel.

(3) [Deleted Apr. 1, 1944]

(4) [Deleted Apr. 1, 1944]

(5) Restrictions on use of copper and copper base alloy. No copper or copper base alloy shall be used in the manufacture of hand trucks, pallets, or platforms, except in hydraulic packing washers, or where the use of other materials would create a definite explosion hazard as a result of the necessity of using such equipment in the same room with, or in other close proximity to materials subject to explosive reaction from sparks, such as black powder, lead azide, igniter composition, tracer mixtures, primer mixtures, incendiary composition, vapors from combustible substances, or dust from explosives. However, brass may be used in bearings where bearings are permitted under paragraph (d) (2).

(6) Restrictions on use of aluminum, tin, cadmium, zinc, and metallic plating and finishes. No aluminum, tin, cadmium, zinc, metallic plating or metallic finishes shall be used in the manufacture of hand trucks, pallets, or platforms, except that zinc may be used for galvanizing when required by regulations of the Department of Agriculture or other federal agency, or by a state law, or where it would be required if such federal regulations were applicable in intrastate commerce.

(e) [Deleted Apr. 1, 1944]

(f) Exemptions and exceptions. (1) [Deleted Apr. 1, 1944]

(2) The limitations and restrictions of paragraph (d) of this order shall not apply:

(i) To the manufacture, delivery and acceptance of parts which are to be used for repair and maintenance only and which cannot be used for replacement on existing equipment in a practical manner if made in conformity with such specifications and restrictions;

(ii) To the manufacture, delivery and acceptance of parts which on April 23, 1943, had been fabricated or processed to the extent that any other use would be impractical;

(iii) To the manufacture, delivery and acceptance of any hand trucks or other handling equipment in the process of manufacture on April 23, 1943, and to be used in filling any order accepted by the manufacturer prior to said date;

(iv) [Deleted Apr. 1, 1944]

(3) [Deleted Apr. 1, 1944]

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as issued and amended from time to time.

(2) [Revoked September 6, 1943].

(3) [Revoked September 6, 1943].

(4) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, materials under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(5) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. This letter must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(6) Communications. All reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-111.

Issued this 1st day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INTERPRETATION 1

Questions have arisen as to whether the term "hand truck", as defined in paragraph (a) (3), includes equipment of the following kinds:

So-called "carriers" of the types furnished for the use of customers in self-service grocery stores for carrying small quantities of groceries to the cashier's desk; equipment of similar design used in offices for moving light wire baskets of correspondence and the like about the office; and canvas covered baskets or hampers used for moving linens, trash, and other very light materials. Items of these kinds of equipment consist of a very light frame work mounted on small wheels or casters.

Equipment of these kinds is not included in the definition of "hand truck", and is not covered by Order L-111.

It is to be noted, however, that hand trucks of heavier construction, such as those used by the employees in retail stores for moving cases or boxes of merchandise about the store in restocking the shelves or for other purposes, are covered by the order along with other trucks of still heavier construction. (Issued Mar. 6, 1944)

[General Limitation Order L-111, Interpretation 2]

HAND TRUCKS AND OTHER HANDLING EQUIPMENT

Book trucks, dish trucks, food carts, laundry trucks and laundry truck tubs, linen trucks, and shelf trucks are within the definition of "hand trucks" in paragraph (a) (3), except for hospital carts of the kinds which are specifically excluded by that definition, and except for "carriers" of the kinds described in Interpretation 1. Neither are such hospital carts and carriers within any of the other classes of equipment which are covered by the order.

It is to be noted that the term "hand trucks" includes both two wheel hand trucks and other kinds which have more than two wheels or casters and that paragraphs (b), (d) (5), and (d) (6) therefore apply to hand trucks of all types which are covered by the order (as well as other kinds of equipment referred to in these paragraphs).

MASTER MANUFACTURING CORPORATION

Master Manufacturing Corporation of 119 Main Street, Sioux City, Iowa, was known at the time of the following occurrences as the Master Refrigerator Locker System, Inc., and is an Iowa corporation engaged in the business of manufacturing food lockers, as well as certain items which are of a military nature. The corporation admits the receipt of 644 tons of steel in excess of the quantity specifically authorized by its PRP certificates, between July 1, 1942, and February 11, 1943, in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 11. As to 474 of these tons, the corporation filed PD-25A forms in order to obtain steel and the forms contained a statement that the ratings assigned thereon were subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 11, and the War Production Board has otherwise found that the responsible officers of the corporation were aware of Priorities Regulation No. 11 or from their general business experience should have been aware of the regulation. These violations of Priorities Regulation No. 11 are deemed wilful, and they have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.512 Suspension Order No. S-512. (a) Master Manufacturing Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not, directly or indirectly, receive steel in any form in a total tonnage exceeding 650 tons, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Master Manufacturing Corporation, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 1, 1944, and shall expire on August 1, 1944.

SOILLESS GROWERS GUILD

Henry Phillips does business under the name of Soilless Growers Guild at 259 Jefferson Avenue S. E., Grand Rapids, Michigan, and is engaged in the assembly and distribution of Phillips Soilless Plant Balls of both flowers and vegetables. Soilless Growers Guild, during the months of September and October, 1943, applied preference ratings to obtain quantities of shipping containers in excess of the amount authorized by the War Production Board, in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3. During the months of September and October, 1943, Soilless Growers Guild duplicated purchase orders with one or more suppliers for deliveries of shipping containers, to which it applied ratings in such a manner that the amount of shipping containers ordered exceeded the amount authorized, in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3. Henry Phillips was sufficiently conversant with War Production Board Regulations so that he knew, or reasonably should have known, that his actions constituted violations of Priorities Regulation No. 3, and the violations must therefore be deemed wilful.

These violations of Priorities Regulation No. 3 have interferred with the War Production Board's system of priorities and allocations, and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.514 Suspension Order No. S-541. (a) Deliveries of material to Henry Phillips, doing business as Soilless Growers Guild, or under any other name, his or its successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priorities assistance, directly or indirectly, over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended, directly or indirectly, to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation, including allotments, of materials or products, the supply or distribution or which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, shall be made to Henry Phillips, doing business as Soilless Growers Guild, or under any other name, his or its successors or assigns, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Henry Phillips, doing business as Soilless Growers Guild, or under any other name, his or its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) The provisions of this order shall not be applicable to deliveries of materials upon orders bearing a preference rating of AA-1 or higher.

(e) This order shall take effect on April 1, 1944, and shall terminate on July 1, 1944.

Issued this 25th day of March 1944.

(viii) Construction of commercial establishments in existing houses, or the remodelling of or installations in those establishments.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L-227, as Amended April 1, 1944]

FOUNTAIN PENS AND MECHANICAL PENCILS

Section 3291.210 Limitation Order L-227 is hereby amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials and certain facilities used in the production of fountain pens and mechanical pencils for defense, for private account and for export, and it is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense to continue restrictions on the production of those articles but to modify the restrictions by assigning individual quotas to producers, instead of a general percentage of 1941 production, so as to give small producers a proportionately larger share in the production, to adjust production in the light of critical shortages of manpower in certain areas, and to adjust production on account of changes since 1941 with respect to location of plants and nature of products. At the same time materials restrictions are being somewhat relaxed to permit the use of certain materials which have become less scarce.

§ 3291.210 Limitation Order L-227—(a) Effect on outstanding authorizations. This order and the quotas assigned in Schedule A supersede all authorizations for the manufacture, assembly or delivery of fountain pens or mechanical pencils granted by the War Production Board, on appeal or otherwise, before April 1, 1944.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Fountain pen" means a writing device which can hold more fluid than that retained by capillary attraction on the surface of its pen nib. A dip pen is a fountain pen whether or not a pen nib is attached to it.

(2) "Mechanical pencil" means a writing instrument having a movable core of marking material encased in a housing.

(3) "Part" means any part made specifically for incorporation into a fountain pen or mechanical pencil.

(4) "Special order" means any purchase order, contract or subcontract calling for delivery:

(i) To or for the account of the Jersey City Quartermaster Depot of the United States Army, bearing Symbol No. W-1913-QM or 23-021-QM; or to or for the account of the Procurement and Accounting Division of the Office of the Secretary of War, or to or for the account of the Corps of Engineers of the United States Army for civilian functions;

(ii) To or for the account of the Navy (including ship service stores and Marine Post Exchanges);

(iii) To or for the account of the Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration;

(iv) Outside the United States, its territories and possessions if it bears an export license issued by the Foreign Economic Administration.

(5) "Civilian production" means production of fountain pens or mechanical pencils for any order, contract or subcontract not included in special orders. It includes production for inventory other than production for anticipated special orders as permitted by this order. It does not include production for direct orders from Army Post Exchanges, and such orders may not be filled at all.

(c) Restrictions on manufacture and delivery of fountain pens and mechanical pencils. (1) During the calendar quarter beginning April 1, 1944, and during each calendar quarter after that until further notice from the War Production Board, no manufacturer shall make, assemble, or deliver any fountain pens or mechanical pencils for any purpose, except that each manufacturer listed on Schedule A may make or assemble at the location listed on that schedule and may deliver the quota of pens and pencils indicated after his name on the schedule for special orders and civilian production respectively.

(2) Any manufacturer who is not assigned a quota on Schedule A but who actually produced fountain pens or mechanical pencils during the first calendar quarter of 1944, in compliance with applicable orders and regulations of the War Production Board, is hereby assigned a provisional production and delivery quota during the second calendar quarter of 1944 only, for combined civilian production and special orders of one-half the amount of fountain pens and mechanical pencils, respectively, actually made by him during the first quarter of 1944. Any such manufacturer, and any other manufacturer who is not assigned a quota on Schedule A, may file an application with the War Production Board for a quota. Also, a manufacturer who wishes a quota increased or who wishes to manufacture at a location other than the one listed on the schedule may make application.

(d) Materials restrictions for fountain pens, mechanical pencils and parts. No person shall use any copper, copper base alloy, or crude, reclaimed or synthetic rubber in the manufacture of fountain pens, mechanical pencils or parts except:

(1) Copper in the production of silver or 14 karat gold pen nibs; and

(2) Crude, reclaimed or synthetic rubber as permitted in Rubber Order R-1, as amended, or any relief granted on appeal under that order.

(e) Special restrictions on plating. No person shall use in the manufacture of fountain pens, mechanical pencils or parts, any plating, coating or other metal finish containing:

(1) Tin, cadmium or nickel; or

(2) Copper unless permitted by Order M-9-c.

(f) Distribution of civilian production. In any case where a distributor of fountain pens or mechanical pencils either under his own brand name or under the name of the manufacturer is unable to get what he considers an equitable share of the civilian production of fountain pens or mechanical pencils he may apply to the War Production Board on Form WPB-547 for a rating.

(g) Special restrictions on purchase and sale of fountain pen parts. No person shall buy or accept delivery of any fountain pen parts except for the manufacture, production and assembly of fountain pens (including dip pens) as permitted by this order or for use or resale as repair parts. No person shall sell or deliver any fountain pen parts if he knows or has reason to believe that the purchaser is getting them in violation of this provision.

(h) Reports. Each manufacturer who makes fountain pens or mechanical pencils shall file within 15 days after the close of each calendar quarter a report of his production on Form WPB-1600 in accordance with the filing instructions for that form.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form WPB-1477 (formerly PD-500) and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board of the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(k) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of fountain pens and mechanical pencils to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(l) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-227.

NOTE: The reporting requirements in this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 1st day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

(1) Pursuant to paragraph (b) of Limitation Order L-227, the following production and delivery quotas for fountain pens and mechanical pencils are hereby established for the calendar quarter beginning April 1, 1944, and for each calendar quarter after that until further notice from the War Production Board.

(2) Each manufacturer listed may make and deliver the number of fountain pens and mechanical pencils set forth opposite his name for special orders and civilian production respectively.

(3) Quotas for special orders, include special orders actually on hand and received and also anticipated special orders, but the amount made for anticipated special orders by any one manufacturer listed may not in any event exceed 50% of his quarterly production quota for civilian production.

(4) Manufacturers may make their quotas only at the locations stated on the Schedule.

(5) In assigning production and delivery quotas the War Production Board has been guided by the following general policies:

(i) Manufacturers in Group 1 and Group 2 labor areas and manufacturers whose facilities are substantially engaged in war work have not been assigned quotas which would permit them to increase their production above the amounts actually produced in the fourth calendar quarter of 1943.

(ii) Small manufacturers producing less than 100,000 units in 1940 have been given a larger percentage of their pre-war production than larger manufacturers.

(iii) The War Production Board has attempted to allocate production to fill special orders so that all manufacturers making a pen or pencil which will satisfy military requirements will have a chance to secure special order business.

PART 1226—GENERAL INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT

FOOD PROCESSING MACHINERY

The following interpretation is issued with respect to General Limitation Order L-292:

In accordance with paragraph (f) of General Limitation Order L-292, as amended, certain quota schedules have been established limiting the amount of controlled materials which may be used in manufacturing certain classes of food processing machinery during a specified quota period. The quota is a percentage of the average annual amount of such material consumed during a specified base period. The percentage applies to each controlled material (steel, copper or aluminum) separately. No part of the percentage of one controlled material shall be added to the total percentage of another. However, the permitted percentage of a particular controlled material may be divided in any way between the several categories of such material. For example: where a manufacturer is permitted to consume during the quota period 110% of the average annual amount of steel and copper he consumed during the base period, he is not permitted to apply part or all of his steel quota to his copper quota and thereby exceed his copper quota of 110%. However, he may consume during the quota period such amount of carbon steel and such amount of alloy steel as he chooses provided the aggregate does not exceed 110% of the average annual amount of steel consumed during the base period. This rule is subject to the restriction of any order of the War Production Board against the use of a higher grade or larger quantity of material than is necessary (for example, see paragraph (c) (1) of Order M-9-c, dealing with copper).

[General Limitation Order L-315 as Amended Apr. 3, 1944]

ENCLOSED SAFETY SWITCHES, ENCLOSED BRANCH AND SERVICE CIRCUIT BREAKERS, SERVICE ENTRANCE EQUIPMENT, PANEL AND DISTRIBUTION BOARDS AND KNIFE SWITCHES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials used in the production of enclosed safety switches, enclosed branch and service circuit breakers, service entrance equipment, panel and distribution boards and knife switches for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1226.132 General Limitation Order L-315—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Secondary electrical distribution equipment" means only the following new devices, rated at not more than 600 volts, which are intended to be used to provide control or protection for service entrance, branch, or feeder circuits:

(i) Enclosed safety switches rated from 30 amperes to 2400 amperes, inclusive;

(ii) Enclosed branch or service circuit breakers. This term includes only devices rated at not more than 600 amperes and in which the circuit breakers are of the type in which all current carrying parts except the terminals are completely enclosed by an insulating case;

(iii) Service entrance equipment;

(iv) Panel and distribution boards. This term includes only devices accessible from the front and designed to be supported in or against a wall;

(v) Knife switches rated from 30 amperes to 1200 amperes, inclusive.

Secondary electrical distribution equipment does not include power switchgear, as defined in Schedule IV of Limitation Order L–154, busway plugs, electric control equipment as defined in Limitation Order L–260, or snap and toggle switches of less than 30 ampere capacity.

(2) "Enclosures" means any steel enclosing cases designed to enclose current carrying parts of secondary electrical distribution equipment.

(3) [Deleted Apr. 3, 1944.]

(4) [Deleted Apr. 3, 1944.]

(5) "Manufacturer" means any enterprise to the extent that it is engaged in the business of manufacturing secondary electrical distribution equipment, or enclosures, and includes sales and distribution outlets and warehouses owned by any such person.

(b) Restrictions on manufacturers' sales and deliveries. No manufacturer shall sell or deliver any secondary electrical distribution equipment or enclosures unless the sale or delivery bears a preference rating of AA–5 or higher. However, this restriction shall not apply to repair parts for secondary electrical distribution equipment or enclosures.

(c) Conservation of materials. After December 16, 1943, no manufacturer shall put into process any material for the manufacture of secondary electrical distribution equipment or enclosures, or parts thereof, except in accordance with the restrictions contained in Schedule A of this order. Nothing in this paragraph or Schedule A shall prohibit a manufacturer from assembling into complete devices any parts which he has in stock on December 16, 1943.

GLASS CONTAINER AND CLOSURE QUOTAS

The following official interpretation is hereby issued with respect to Order L–103–b (§ 3270.36):

Paragraph (g) sets forth the method for computing a packer's quota of new glass containers or new metal closures. The first step in the process (subparagraph (1) of paragraph (g)) is to take the number of new glass containers or new metal closures used or accepted for packing that product during the named base period. In arriving at this number a packer may not include more containers or closures than he was permitted to accept or use under the provisions of the applicable order in existence at the time. New glass containers or new metal closures accepted or used pursuant to the grant of an appeal are properly included in making the computation.

PART 3274—MACHINE TOOLS AND INDUSTRIAL SPECIALTIES

[Limitation Order L-201 as Amended Apr. 3, 1944]

AUTOMOTIVE TIRE CHAINS, TRACTOR TIRE CHAINS, AND CHAIN PARTS

Limitation Order L-201 as amended July 10, 1943 (§ 3274.76) is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of critical materials entering into the manufacture of tire chains for use on passenger autos, commercial vehicles, and farm tractors for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3274.76 Limitation Order L-201—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Tire chain" means:

(i) A complete chain assembly, whether or not reinforced, made for use on a tire of a passenger auto, commercial vehicle, or farm tractor in order to increase the traction of the tire.

(ii) Any cross chain, lock, hook, plate, or side chain, whether or not reinforced, made for use in repairing a complete tire chain.

(iii) Any chain assembly of the strap-on or single-chain type.

(2) "Passenger auto" means any passenger vehicle propelled by an internal combustion engine and having a seating capacity of less than eleven persons.

(3) "Commercial vehicle" means any light, medium, or heavy motor truck, truck-tractor, truck trailer, off-the-highway motor vehicle, passenger carrier having a seating capacity of eleven or more persons, or tractor other than a farm tractor.

(4) "Consumer" means the owner or operator of the vehicle for which tire chains are required, or the user of such tire chains for any other purpose.

(b) Limits on types and sizes of tire chains. (1) A producer must not make any tire chains containing any metal other than low carbon steel, or any tire chains which are plated with metal.

(2) A producer must not make any tire chains except for use on the following sizes of tires:

(i) Tires for passenger autos: 6.00–16 (in "light car special" type only); 6.50–16; 7.00–16; 7:50–16.

(ii) Tires for commercial vehicles other than farm tractors: 6.00–16, 6.50–20/32 x 6; 7.00–20; 7:50–16; 7.50–17; 7.50–20/34 x 7; 8.25–20; 9.00–20; 9.75–20.

(iii) Tires for farm tractors: As required.

(3) All tire chain produced for passenger autos or commercial vehicles must be of the types called A, C, G, and M in Tire Chain Specifications No. 7140, copyrighted by The Chain Institute, Inc., Chicago, Illinois, published July 1, 1940.

(c) Production of specially sized tire chain. Tire chain in types and sizes other than those permitted by paragraphs (b) (2) and (b) (3) may also be made when individually ordered for delivery by the producer directly to the consumer. This is an exception to paragraphs (b) (2) and (b) (3).

(d) Limits on production—(1) For passenger autos. Between April 1, 1944, and March 31, 1945, a producer must not use in the production of tire chain for passenger autos more than 24 percent of the total weight of metals used in the production of all tire chain (whether for passenger autos or commercial vehicles) sold by him during the period April 1, 1941–March 31, 1942.

(2) For commercial vehicles. Between April 1, 1944, and March 31, 1945, a producer must not use in the production of tire chain for commercial vehicles more than 24 percent of the total weight of metals used in the production of all tire chain (whether for passenger autos or commercial vehicles) sold by him during the period April 1, 1941–March 31, 1942.

(3) For farm tractors. Between April 1, 1944, and March 31, 1945, a producer must not use in the production of tire chain for farm tractors more than the total weight of metals used in the production of all tire chain for farm tractors sold by him either during the year April 1, 1940–March 31, 1941, or the year April 1, 1941–March 31, 1942, whichever is greater.

(4) Increased production in critical labor areas and requirement for special authorization. Notwithstanding the increase in production permitted by this order, no producer's plant located in a Group I or Group II Labor Shortage Area as classified by the War Manpower Commission shall, during the period April 1, 1944–March 31, 1945, put into process for the production of tire chain under this order a total weight of metals in excess of that legally put into process during the period April 1, 1943–March 31, 1944, unless specific authorization to do so is obtained from the War Production Board. The policy of the War Production Board will be to authorize the using of an increased weight of metals for such production so as to avoid increasing requirements for labor in labor shortage areas. Any producer seeking specific authorization under this paragraph should file a written statement in triplicate with the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., explaining fully how labor requirements for the requested increase will be met.

(5) Exclusions in determining quota. In determining production quotas under this paragraph (d) sales of tire chain during the base period to or for the account of persons described in paragraph (e) below shall not be included.

(6) Scheduling of tire chain production. Each producer may schedule production of the quantity of tire chain which he is allowed to produce by this paragraph (d) regardless of preference ratings on orders for tire chain or other kinds of chain. An exception to this rule is that production of tire chain under this order shall not be permitted to delay the production and delivery of any order for tire chain or other kinds of chain rated AAA; or to delay the production or delivery more than thirty days beyond the required delivery date of any order for tire or other kinds of chain for delivery to or for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration.

(e) Exceptions to applicability of this order. With the exception of the restrictions contained in paragraph (b) (1), the restrictions of this order shall not apply to tire chains sold to or produced under contracts or orders for delivery to or for the account of:

(1) The Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, The Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Selective Service System, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, and the Treasury Department under Treasury Procurement Supply (TPS) contract.

(2) The government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, United Kingdom including its dominions, crown colonies and protectorates, and Yugoslavia.

(f) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board.

(g) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(h) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. This appeal should be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

DELIVERIES OF SOUTHERN YELLOW PINE TO PRODUCERS OF STEEL AND OTHER CONTROLLED MATERIALS

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order M-361.

(a) This direction which is issued in accordance with Order M-361, paragraph (g), tells how a person producing controlled materials may get the restricted Southern yellow pine lumber he needs without having to file on Form WPB 2720. A producer of controlled materials may use either the procedure outlined in this direction or file Form WPB-2720. It is not necessary for you to use one procedure to the exclusion of the other; that is, either procedure may be used from time to time as is most convenient to you.

(b) Any person who gets restricted Southern yellow pine lumber for the production of controlled materials, including maintenance or repair of his plant and boxing or crating controlled materials which he produces, must endorse the following certificate on his purchase orders:

All restricted Southern yellow pine lumber covered by this purchase order or contract is required in order to enable me to produce and deliver controlled materials which I have been directed or authorized to produce. Delivery may be made to me under Direction 5 to Order M-361, with the terms of which I am familiar.

Producer.

By ---

(c) Any producer may sell, ship, or deliver restricted Southern yellow pine lumber (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to fill any order or contract bearing such a certificate. The use of the above form of certificate by the buyer and delivery by the producer is subject to all the terms and conditions of M-361 with respect to certified orders, so far as applicable. No one may use the certificate to get more lumber than the minimum necessary to enable him to produce and deliver controlled materials he is authorized or directed to produce, including maintenance and repair of his plants producing controlled materials and boxing and crating the controlled materials for shipment. No one may use the certificate to get boxes, and no maker of boxes to sell to others can use the certificate to get lumber. "Captive plants" as defined in PR-3, Direction 3 may use the certificate to obtain lumber to make boxes. Lumber obtained under this direction by any person for maintenance and repair may not exceed 10% of the total he gets under the direction.

(d) Manufacturers who get any part of their lumber through the use of the above certification shall report to the Lumber Division, War Production Board, by letter within thirty days after the end of each calendar quarter stating the entire amount of Southern yellow pine lumber delivered to them during the quarter, whether obtained under this direction or in some other way and stating the percent of all lumber used during the quarter for maintenance and repair of plant. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) For the purposes of this direction "controlled materials" means steel, copper, and aluminum, as specified in CMP Regulation 1, paragraph (b) (1) and in the forms and shapes indicated in CMP Regulation 1, Schedule 1.

The following direction is issued in accordance with Order M-364, paragraph (g):

(a) This direction tells how a manufacturer of farm machinery may get the restricted hardwood lumber he needs for production material without having to file on Form WPB-2720.

(b) A manufacturer of farm machinery must endorse the following certificate on his purchase orders:

All restricted hardwood lumber covered by this purchase order or contract is required in order to enable me to fulfill an authorized production schedule for the production of farm machinery and equipment. Delivery may be made to me under Direction 1 to Order M-364, with the terms of which I am familiar.

(c) Any producer may sell, ship, or deliver restricted hardwood lumber (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to fill any order or contract bearing such a certificate. The use of the above form of certificate by the buyer and delivery by the producer is subject to all the terms and conditions of M-364 with respect to certified orders, so far as applicable. No one may use the certificate to get more lumber than the minimum necessary to fulfill his authorized schedules for the production of farm machinery, or to get lumber for any use except as production material: for example, no one can get lumber under this direction for boxing and crating his product. The inventory restrictions of paragraph (f) of Order M-364 are waived so long as the above restrictions are complied with.

(d) Manufacturers of farm machinery who get restricted hardwood lumber under this direction shall report by letter, ten days after the end of each quarter, to the War Food Administration, Office of Materials and Facilities, Washington 25, D. C., stating their inventories of restricted hardwood for production material at the beginning of the quarter, the amount delivered to them for production material during the quarter, and the amount used for production material during the quarter, whether obtained under this direction or in some other way. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Manufacturers of farm machinery do not have to get restricted hardwood lumber under this direction unless they want to. They may get it in any other way that is allowed under M-364. For example, a small manufacturer who buys from a mill producing less than 10,000 board feet a day may prefer not to change his arrangements. Manufacturers who buy from a limited number of sources may prefer to file on WPB-2720.

Issued this 3d day of April 1944.

ASH SPECIALISTS

Direction 3 to Order M-364 is amended to read as follows:

(a) This direction, issued pursuant to paragraph (g) of Order M-364 tells how "ash specialists" may obtain ash lumber, and what rules they must observe in disposing of it.

(b) Any producer may deliver ash lumber to an ash specialist without restriction, just as if he were another producer.

(c) Unless specifically directed, an ash specialist may deliver ash lumber only to fill orders supported by certificates as prescribed in paragraphs (d) (1), (d) (2), and (d) (3) of M-364, or as prescribed in Directions to M-364, and to fill orders approved on Form WPB 2720 as prescribed in paragraph (e) of M-364. In other words, in his deliveries of ash lumber, the ash specialist is subject to the same restrictions as if he were a producer.

(d) For the purposes of this direction an "ash specialist" is a person who operates a concentration yard dealing exclusively in ash lumber.

PART 3285—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

[Conservation Order M-364, Direction 5 as Amended Apr. 3, 1944]

DELIVERIES OF HARDWOOD LUMBER TO PRODUCERS OF STEEL AND OTHER CONTROLLED MATERIALS

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order M-364:

(a) This direction, which is issued in accordance with Order M-364 paragraph (g), tells how a person producing controlled materials may get the restricted hardwood lumber he needs without having to file on Form WPB 2720. A producer of controlled materials may use either the procedure outlined in this direction or file Form WPB 2720. It is not necessary for you to use one procedure to the exclusion of the other; that is, either procedure may be used from time to time as is most convenient to you.

(b) Any person who gets restricted hardwood lumber under this direction for the production of controlled materials, including maintenance or repair of his plant and boxing or crating controlled materials which he produces, must endorse the following certificate on his purchase orders:

All restricted hardwood lumber covered by this purchase order or contract is required in order to enable me to produce and deliver controlled materials which I have been directed or authorized to produce. Delivery may be made to me under Direction 5 to Order M-364, with the terms of which I am familiar.

Producer.

Duly authorized official.

ing such a certificate. The use of the above form of certificate by the buyer and delivery by the producer is subject to all the terms and conditions of M-364 with respect to certified orders, so far as applicable. No one may use the certificate to get more lumber than the minimum necessary to enable him to produce and deliver controlled materials he is authorized or directed to produce, including maintenance and repair of his plants producing controlled materials and boxing and crating the controlled materials for shipment. No one may use the certificate to get boxes and no maker of boxes to sell to others can use the certificate to get lumber. "Captive plants" as defined in PR-3, Direction 3 may use the certificate to obtain lumber to make boxes. Lumber obtained under this direction by any person for maintenance and repair may not exceed 10% of the total he gets under this direction.

(d) Manufacturers who get any part of their lumber through the use of the above certification shall report to the Lumber Division, War Production Board, by letter within thirty days after the end of each calendar quarter stating the entire amount of hardwood lumber delivered to them during the quarter, whether obtained under this direction or in some other way and stating the percent of all lumber used during the quarter for maintenance and repair of plant. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) For the purposes of this direction "controlled materials" means steel, copper, and aluminum, as specified in CMP Regulation 1, paragraph (b) (1) and in the forms and shapes indicated in CMP Regulation 1, Schedule 1.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

ENAMELED WARE

§ 3291.155 Limitation Order L-30-b—(a) What this order does. This order states the rules governing the manufacture of household, cooking and hospital articles made of vitreous-enameled iron and steel. The kinds and sizes of enameled ware which may be made are described, including hospital ware which was formerly covered by Schedule I to Order L-214. Quotas are placed on the use of iron and steel. Special provisions are made for military and export orders.

(b) Definitions. When used in this order:

(1) "Enameled ware" means any of the articles listed on Table A when made of vitreous-enameled iron or steel. It does not include any furniture, electrical or gas appliance or power-driven equipment.

(2) "Preferred orders" means any purchase order or contract for enameled ware which will be ultimately delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, the U. S. Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration.

(3) "Export orders" means any purchase order or contract for enameled ware for delivery outside the United States, its territories and possessions.

(4) "Civilian orders" means any purchase order or contract other than a preferred order or export order.

(c) What enameled ware may be made. (1) No manufacturer shall produce or assemble any enameled ware that does not conform to Table A. Exceptions to this rule are stated below.

(2) A manufacturer may complete the following operations on enameled ware which was otherwise completed by December 31, 1942; making and attaching handles, bails, spouts and ears; welding together fabricated parts; applying a vitreous-enameled or other coating.

(3) The War Production Board may authorize on Form WPB-1319 (formerly PD-556) enameled ware not conforming to Table A to fill export orders.

(4) The provisions of Table A do not apply to enameled ware which is produced to fill preferred orders or for experimental use in a scientific laboratory in connection with the development of enameled ware standards.

Quota Restrictions

(d) General. No manufacturer shall use more iron and steel in making enameled ware than the amounts stated below. Each manufacturer has a quota for civilian orders and a separate quota for preferred orders and export orders. In each calendar quarter a manufacturer is limited to a percentage of the iron and steel he used in his total production of enameled ware in the twelve months ending June 30, 1941, the "base period." The gross weight of iron and steel when first put into production, whether in the form of raw materials or as purchased parts, is considered the amount of iron and steel used and to be used in figuring out the quotas. A manufacturer who purchases black shapes and covers them with an enamel coating should include the weight of these black shapes in his "use" of iron and steel, while a manufacturer who fabricates the black shapes should consider the gross weight of the sheets he cuts up as part of his "use" of iron and steel.

(e) Civilian quotas—(1) General rule. In his production for civilian orders of all enameled ware (except roasters), a manufacturer is limited in each calendar quarter to one-fourth of 70% of the iron and steel which he used for all enameled ware (except roasters) in the base period. No manufacturer may produce during any calendar year more enameled roasters than 15% of the number he produced in the base period.

(2) Optional quotas for manufacturers of hospital ware. Instead of following the general rule any manufacturer may use in any calendar quarter in producing hospital enameled ware (See Table A) not more than one-fourth of 100% of the iron and steel which he used for that ware in the base period. If he does this, however, his civilian quota for non-hospital ware (except roasters) is reduced to one-fourth of 60% of the iron and steel he used for that ware in the base period. Any manufacturer who chooses this alternative or who later decides to follow the general rule stated in the preceding paragraph shall notify the War Production Board by January 15, 1944 or before the first day of the quarter in which he intends to do this.

(3) Division of quota among different articles. In allocating his iron and steel among the items listed in column (2) of Table A, a manufacturer should use his best efforts to divide his quota of iron and steel among all the articles which he customarily makes in such a way as to meet the essential needs for those articles. If it is found that an undue shortage exists in certain articles or that production is being concentrated too much on other articles, the War Production Board may issue written instructions to any manufacturer directing him to allocate a specified share of his production to articles which are considered most essential. Failure to comply with a specific direction shall be deemed a violation of this order.

(f) Quotas for preferred orders and for export. In addition to his civilian quota, a manufacturer may use during any quarter in producing enameled ware to fill preferred orders and export orders not more than one-fourth of 55% of the iron and steel which he used in the base period for all enameled ware.

(g) Unused quotas. A manufacturer may use for civilian orders during any calendar quarter, in addition to his quota for that quarter, any unused balance of his previous quarter's civilian quota. A manufacturer may also use to fill preferred orders and export orders during any calendar quarter, in addition to his quota for that quarter, any unused balance of his previous quarter's quota for such orders.

(h) Special permission to exceed quotas. The War Production Board from time to time may permit manufacturers to exceed their quotas. This will only be done in special cases and for limited periods of time. For example, if one or more manufacturers are unable to use their full quota in any quarter, other manufacturers may be permitted to use the unused amount in addition to their own quotas. Similarly, if additional iron or steel becomes available at any time, the War Production Board may authorize its use in addition to the quotas. As far as practicable increases will be permitted for all manufacturers of the articles to be made in proportion to their quotas. Permission will be granted either in the form of individual letters or of published directions supplementary to this order.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(i) Overruns, rejects and cancellations. Enameled ware made to fill a preferred order, which, because of overruns, rejects, cancellations of orders or any other reasons cannot be used to fill that order, may be used or disposed of only as allowed in § 944.11, paragraph (b) of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

(j) Reports. (1) [Deleted Apr. 3, 1944]

(2) Each manufacturer shall file with the War Production Board on or before January 20, April 20, July 20, and October 20 of each year, a report on Form WPB-1600 (formerly PD-655), showing his production, shipments, and inventory of enameled ware for the preceding quarter.

(3) These reporting provisions have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(k) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other order of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of enameled ware to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(l) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(m) Appeals. Any appeal from this order should be made on Form WPB-1477 (formerly PD-500) and should be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(n) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-30-b.

Issued this 3d day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Allocation Order M-291, as Amended April 3, 1944]

POTASH

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of potash for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3293.386 Allocation Order M-291—(a) Definitions. (1) "Potash" means the following primary potash salts: muriate of potash, sulfate of potash, sulfate of potash-magnesia and run-of-mine potash.

(2) "Potassium oxide" (hereinafter referred to as "K_2O") means the highly caustic oxide of potassium. As such it does not exist commercially but is used as a standard unit of measure in determining the relative value of potash salts.

(3) "Muriate of potash" means the chloride salt of potassium. In commerce it is offered in two grades: muriate of potash containing 48 to 52 per cent K_2O, and high grade muriate of potash containing 58 to 62.7 per cent K_2O.

(4) "Sulfate of potash" means commercial potassium sulfate, a potash salt containing approximately 48 per cent or more K_2O, chiefly as sulfate. It does not include recrystallized salt.

(5) "Sulfate of potash-magnesia" means a potash and magnesia salt containing from approximately 18 to 25 per cent K_2O and 18 to 25 per cent sulfate of magnesia.

(6) "Run-of-mine potash" (also known as manure salts and kainit) means potash salts containing a high percentage of chlorides and containing more than 18 and less than 48 per cent K_2O.

(7) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of potash and includes any person who has potash produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(8) "Distributor" means any person who, for his own account or as agent or broker for any producer, sells potash in any form. The term includes importers but does not include any manufacturer (including any fertilizer manufacturer) to the extent that he uses potash as one of his raw materials, any person who purchases potash exclusively for sale at retail, or any governmental agency which delivers fertilizers to farmers.

(9) "Supplier" means a producer or distributor.

(10) "Period" means one of the five periods specified in paragraphs (a) (11), (12), (13), (14) and (15).

(11) "Period One" means April 1, 1943, through May 31, 1943.

(12) "Period Two" means June 1, 1943, through March 31, 1944

(13) "Period Three" means April 1, 1944, through May 31, 1944.

(14) "Period Four" means June 1, 1944, through March 31, 1945.

(15) "Period Five" means April 1, 1945, through May 31, 1945.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries and use. (1) On and after April 1, 1943 no supplier shall deliver potash to any person, and no person shall accept delivery of potash from a supplier except as specifically authorized or directed by the War Production Board.

(2) Authorizations or directions with respect to quantities of potash which may be received in any period will be issued by the War Production Board as soon as possible after the receipt of the applications called for by paragraph (c) (1) hereof. Thereafter, after persons so authorized to receive potash have placed with producers or distributors their orders for potash within the totals provided in such authorizations and such producers and distributors have made application pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) to make delivery to such persons, the War Production Board will issue to each producer or distributor authorizations with respect to deliveries to be made. The War Production Board may, however, at any time, at its discretion, and notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) hereof, issue directions with respect to deliveries to be made or accepted or with respect to the use or uses which may or may not be made of potash to be delivered or then on hand. Insofar as authorizations or directions relate to the quantities of particular grades of mixed fertilizer to be manufactured from potash or to the quantity of potash to be made available for direct application to the soil, such authorizations or directions will so far as practicable be issued in conformity with needs for grades of mixed fertilizer or for potash as determined by the Director of Food Production of the Department of Agriculture.

(3) Each person specifically authorized to accept delivery of potash shall use such material for the purpose authorized and only for such purpose except as otherwise specifically directed by the War Production Board.

(c) Exceptions to requirement for specific authorization. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, specific authorization of the War Production Board shall not be required for:

(1) Acceptance of delivery by any person from all sources in any period of not more than 5 tons of potash for each month of such period, in terms of K_2O content;

(2) Delivery by any supplier in any period to any person who shall have furnished to such supplier a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies that the potash hereby ordered to be delivered in Period ---------- [insert Three, Four or Five] does not, taken with all other potash delivered or to be delivered from all sources in such period, exceed 5 tons for each month of such period, in terms of K_2O content.

---------- Name of purchaser

By---------- ---------- Authorized official Title

---------- Date

The above certificate shall constitute a representation to (but shall not be filed with) the War Production Board. Such certificate shall be signed by an authorized official, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7. The receipt of such certificate shall not authorize the delivery of such potash by a supplier where he knows or has reason to believe the same to be false, but in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe, he may rely on the certificate;

(3) Delivery by any supplier to any person in any period prior to the receipt of any specific authorization or direction of the War Production Board with respect to deliveries to be made in such period of not more than 20% of the quantity of any potash salt delivered by such supplier to such person during the corresponding period in the 12 months ending March 31, 1944. Any person delivering or receiving potash delivered in any period pursuant to this paragraph (c) (3) shall charge the amount so delivered or received against the amount which he is or may be specifically authorized or directed to deliver or receive in such period, and against any amount which may be delivered or received pursuant to paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2);

(4) [Revoked Apr. 3, 1944]

(5) [Revoked Apr. 3, 1944]

(d) Transportation and storage directions. For the purpose of conserving transportation and storage facilities, the War Production Board may issue directions to any person respecting deliveries or storage of potash which may or may not be made, and respecting form of transportation and shipping routes.

(e) Applications and reports. (1) Each person requiring authorization to accept delivery of potash in any period, whether for own consumption or resale, shall file application therefor on Form WPB–2945 (formerly PD–600) in the manner prescribed therein, subject to the following special instructions:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account and for export of the materials entering into the manufacture of sterilizer equipment; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3296.91 General Limitation Order L–266—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Steriliser equipmept" means the following types of sterilizers, as each is hereinafter defined, and includes heating elements when such elements are an integral part of such sterilizers: Pressure sterilizers, bulk pressure sterilizers, pressure water sterilizers, non-pressure water sterilizers, non-pressure instrument sterilizers, non-pressure utensil sterilizers, baby bottle pasteurizers and sterilizers, bedpan steamers, boiling type bedpan sterilizers, laboratory pressure sterilizers, bedpan washers and field sterilizers. The term shall not include used or rebuilt sterilizer equipment, nor any parts or materials for the repair or maintenance of existing sterilizer equipment, nor shall it include any pressure cooker designed for processing foods.

(2) "Pressure sterilizer" means a sterilizer having a volumetric capacity of less than 40,000 cubic inches which is designed to utilize steam under pressure in order to free articles from living pathogenic microorganisms.

(3) "Bulk pressure sterilizer" means a sterilizer having a volumetric capacity of 40,000 cubic inches or more which is designed to utilize steam under pressure in order to free articles from living pathogenic microorganisms. It may or may not include attachments for fumigating purposes.

(4) "Pressure water sterilizer" means a sterilizer which is designed to heat water to a temperature higher than 212° F. in order to free it from living pathogenic microorganisms.

(5) "Non-pressure water sterilizer" means a sterilizer which is designed to free water from living pathogenic microorganisms by means of boiling.

(6) "Non-pressure instrument steriliser" means a sterilizer which is designed to free surgical, medical and dental instruments and similar articles from living pathogenic microorganisms by subjecting them to a boiling liquid. The term shall not include any such sterilizer which contains metal in no part other than the heating element, lid and essential hardware.

(7) "Non-pressure utensil sterilizer" means a sterilizer which is designed to free hospital or medical utensils and similar articles from living pathogenic microorganisms by subjecting them to boiling water.

(8) "Baby bottle pasteurizer and steriliser" means equipment designed to free baby bottles from living pathogenic microorganisms and to pasteurize baby milk formulas. The term shall not include any such equipment having a capacity of twelve bottles or less.

(9) "Bedpan steamer" means a sterilizer designed to free bedpans, urinals and similar articles from living pathogenic microorganisms by subjecting them to live steam.

(10) "Boiling type bedpan sterilizer" means a sterilizer designed to free bedpans, urinals and similar articles from living pathogenic microorganisms by subjecting them to boiling water.

(11) "Laboratory pressure sterilizer" means a sterilizer which is designed to free articles from living pathogenic microorganisms by utilizing steam under pressure and which is specially designed for use in a laboratory.

(12) "Bedpan washer" means apparatus designed to wash (and, in some cases, to sterilize) bedpans, urinals, and similar articles, and which may or may not be equipped with flushing mechanism.

(13) "Field sterilizer" means any sterilizer which is designed for use in the field and which is manufactured for delivery to or for the account of (i) the Army or Navy of the United States, or (ii) any agency of the United States Government for delivery to or for the account of the government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(14) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the manufacturing, fabricating or assembling of sterilizer equipment.

(15) "Distributor" means any person who purchases sterilizer equipment solely for the purpose of resale without further fabrication.

(b) Restrictions on the manufacture of sterilizer equipment. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (b), no manufacturer shall manufacture or continue the manufacture of any sterilizer equipment other than the permitted sizes of the permitted types set forth in Schedule A attached to this order.

(2) Any sterilizer equipment which was in the process of fabrication on February 24, 1943, and which cannot be completely fabricated within the restrictions of Schedule A, attached to this order, may be further fabricated after said date only to the extent specifically authorized by the War Production Board. Any manufacturer requesting such specific authorization shall file a statement in duplicate with the War Production Board setting forth in detail the number of units of each type in process of fabrication on February 24, 1943, the extent of the fabrication, the amount of materials required to complete fabrication, the reasons why such units cannot be converted to the permitted types and sizes set forth in Schedule A, and any other facts supporting the request for specific authorization.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 3,[1] Amdt. 7]

SUGAR

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised R. O. 3 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1407.69 is revoked.

2. Section 1407.73 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1407.73 Consumer handicapped by transportation difficulties. A consumer who, because of transportation difficulties, finds it a hardship to take delivery of sugar at the time, and in the amounts specified in § 1407.243 may apply to the Board for a certificate or ration coupons for 5, 10 or 15 pounds of sugar. The application must be made, in person or by mail, on OPA Form R-315, by the consumer personally, an adult member of his family unit, or an authorized agent. The Board, in its discretion, may grant the application. Before issuing a certificate or ration coupons, however, the Board shall detach from the book of the consumer a "sugar stamp" for each five pounds granted. (Stamps applicable to expired ration periods shall not be detached for this purpose.)

3. Section 1407.74 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1407.74 Growers of sugarcane and sugar beets. A consumer who has delivered sugarcane or sugar beets produced by him to a primary distributor for processing into sugar may apply to the Board for a certificate or ration coupons authorizing him to take delivery of sugar in an amount not in excess of 25 pounds for himself and 25 pounds for each member of his family unit. (Application shall be made for 5, 10, 15, 20 or 25 pounds.) The application must be made on OPA Form R-315 by the consumer personally, an adult member of his family unit, or an authorized agent. The Board, in a proper case, shall grant the application. At the time of granting the application, the Board shall detach from the Book of the consumer, and from the Book of each member of his family unit for which application is made, a "sugar stamp" for each 5 pounds of sugar granted to such person. (Stamps applicable to expired ration periods shall not be detached for this purpose.)

4. Section 1407.74a is added to read as follows:

§ 1407.74a Sugarcane and sugar beet growers may get sugar without giving up evidences. (a) A consumer who produces sugarcane or sugar beets and delivers them to a primary distributor for processing into sugar may, without giving up ration evidences, acquire from the primary distributor, for himself and the members of his family unit, an amount of sugar not in excess of the smaller of the following:

(1) 25 pounds for each member of his family unit; or

(2) 25 pounds for each acre of sugarcane or sugar beets grown on a farm where he resides more than six months a year and harvested from the "1944 crop". However, if, at the time of harvest, more than one consumer eligible under this section is entitled to a share of that crop, the per acre allowance for such consumer may be no greater than the proportion of 25 pounds that his share of the crop bears to the total shares of all eligible consumers. (For example, if two share-cropping tenants, both living on a farm on which sugar beets are produced from the "1944 crop" entitled to 40 percent and 60 percent respectively of the crop, their per acre allowances would be 10 and 15 pounds respectively.)

(b) For a consumer to be eligible to get such sugar, the following conditions must be met:

(1) The sugar must be sugar manufactured tax-free under section 402 (d) of the Sugar Act of 1937.

(2) The sugarcane or sugar beets must have been produced on a farm where he resides more than six months a year.

(3) The sugarcane or sugar beets must have been harvested from the 1944 crop grown on that farm. (As used in this section, the "1944 crop" of sugarcane means sugarcane harvested between October 1, 1944, and September 30, 1945, inclusive, and the "1944 crop" of sugar beets means sugar beets planted for harvest in the calendar year 1944, except that with respect to sugar beets grown in Yuma County, Arizona, in Imperial County, California, and in those parts of the Imperial and Coachella Valleys which are included in Riverside County, California, the "1944 crop" of sugar beets does not include sugar beets planted for harvest in the calendar year 1944 but includes sugar beets planted for harvest in the calendar year 1945.)

(c) A primary distributor may deliver an amount of sugar, not in excess of the amount permitted under paragraph (a) of this section, to an eligible consumer in exchange for a statement signed by him showing:

(1) His name and address and the date;

(2) Facts indicating that he is eligible under paragraph (b) of this section;

(3) The number of acres of sugarcane or sugar beets harvested from the 1944 crop grown on a farm where he resides more than six months a year; (if, at the time of harvest, more than one consumer, eligible under this section is entitled to a share of that crop, the applicant must state the proportion that his share bears to the total shares of all such consumers);

(4) The number of persons in his family unit (including himself);

(5) The amount, if any, he or any member of his family unit has previously obtained under this section. (This amount when added to the amount stated under (6), must not exceed the total amount which the consumer may obtain under paragraph (a));

(6) The total amount of sugar he wishes to obtain.

The representations made in this statement constitute representations made to the Office of Price Administration.

(d) The primary distributor shall note on the statement delivered to him under paragraph (c) the amount of sugar delivered against the statement and shall retain all such statements at his principal business office until further order by the Office of Price Administration.

(e) Sugar may be obtained under this section only for the personal use of the consumer who obtains it or for the personal use of the members of his family unit. The consumer or the members of his family unit may not sell, transfer, or deliver such sugar to any other person.

5. Section 1407.120 (d) is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: In addition, he shall, when sending such check to the Washington Office, include a statement as to the amount of sugar delivered under § 1407.74a without getting evidences.

This amendment shall become effective April 6, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[Rev. RO 13,[1] Amdt. 20]

PROCESSED FOODS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 13 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2.5 (a) is amended by substituting for the last sentence the following:

The statement must contain a specific diagnosis of the applicant's illness or condition, and must show why the applicant must have more processed foods, the amounts and types he needs during the next ten weeks (or a shorter period if the illness is of shorter duration), and the probable duration of the illness.

2. Section 2.5 (b) is amended to read as follows:

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[1] 9 F.R. 3, 104, 695, 574, 843, 765, 1393, 1727, 1817, 1903, 2233, 2234, 2240, 2567.

(b) If the diagnosis is diabetes mellitus or active tuberculosis, and if the board finds that the applicant's health depends upon his getting more processed foods, it shall issue to him one or more certificates for the number of points necessary to get the additional processed foods which he needs during the next ten weeks. If the diagnosis is any illness other than diabetes mellitus or active tuberculosis, or if the applicant requests more processed foods during this period than the board is authorized by the Washington Office to grant to him, the board shall send the application to the district office for decision. (However, in emergency cases, if the board finds that the applicant needs additional processed foods, it may issue to him one or more certificates to enable him to get those additional foods during the next two weeks.) If the district office is unable to pass on the application, it shall send it to the regional office for decision, or take such other action as the regional office may authorize or direct.

3. Section 2.5 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) An applicant who requires additional processed foods for a period longer than the ten weeks for which points are granted to him, may apply for additional points (in person or by mail) to the board at the end of the ten-week period. However, the statement certifying the diagnosis of his illness need not be renewed more often than once a year, in cases of diabetes mellitus and active tuberculosis. In cases where the statement certifying the diagnosis of the applicant's condition need not be renewed with each application for additional rations, his application for such additional rations shall be deemed to be a certification that he knows, or has reason to believe, the diagnosis of his condition remains the same as set forth in the written statement attached to his original application. If the applicant changes his residence before the time when he would have to renew the statement certifying the diagnosis of his illness, he may obtain the statement from the board where it is filed and file it with the board for the place where he will live.

This amendment shall become effective April 6, 1944.

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 16 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2.4 (a) is amended by substituting for the last two sentences the following:

The application (on OPA Form R-315) must contain a written statement signed by a person licensed by the laws of the State in which the certification is made to prescribe for human medication all internal drugs which may be prescribed within that State. However, if the consumer is pregnant, a Public Health Nurse employed by a federal, state or community public health agency, may sign such a statement instead. However, in emergency cases, if the board finds that the applicant needs additional foods covered by this order, it may issue to him one or more certificates to enable him to get those additional foods during the next two weeks. If the district office is unable to pass on the application, it shall send it to the regional office for decision, or take such other action as the regional office may authorize or direct.

3. Section 2.4 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) An applicant who requires additional foods covered by this order for a period longer than the ten weeks for which points are granted to him, may apply for additional points (in person or by mail) to the board at the end of the ten week period. However, the statement certifying the diagnosis of his illness need not be renewed more often than once a year, in cases of diabetes mellitus, active tuberculosis, chronic nephritis (nephrotic type), cirrhosis of the liver, and severe hepatitis. A statement certifying to the applicant's pregnancy need not be renewed during the term of the pregnancy. In cases where the statement certifying the diagnosis of the applicant's condition need not be renewed with each application for additional rations, his application for such additional rations shall be deemed to be a certification that he knows, or has reason to believe, the diagnosis of his condition remains the same as set forth in the written statement attached to his original application. If the applicant changes his residence before the time when he would have to renew the statement certifying the diagnosis of his illness, he may obtain the statement from the board where it is filed and file it with the board for the place where he will live.

ARTICLE 1—EXPLANATORY AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1.1 What this regulation covers. Exceptions of commodity transactions from the General Maximum Price Regulation are collected in this regulation. It brings together, restates and reclassifies the exceptions of commodity transactions (other than those which have become obsolete) previously contained in § 1499.9 of the General Maximum Price Regulation and in Supplementary Regulation No. 1 (Exceptions for Certain Commodities, Certain Sales and Deliveries, and Certain Services) and Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 4 (Exceptions of Sales to United States Agencies). It incorporates two exceptions which are also stated in Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 12 (Sales and Deliveries of Imported Commodities). Other exceptions of commodity transactions may be added from time to time.

SEC. 1.2 What this regulation does not cover. This regulation being limited to exceptions from the General Maximum Price Regulation, does not incorporate exceptions which are stated in other price regulations. The commodity transactions listed in subsequent articles of this regulation, while excepted from the General Maximum Price Regulation, are of course subject to any other price regulations which apply to them. Services excepted from the General Maximum Price Regulation are not within the scope of this regulation but are collected in Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 7, being obsolete, is also hereby revoked. § 1499.9 of the General Maximum Price Regulation is not being revoked but is being amended simultaneously herewith so as to remove therefrom the exceptions now incorporated herein.

Reference in any price regulation or other document to any such provision shall be deemed reference to its counterpart, if any, in this or any other regulation.

NEWSPRINT PAPER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 130 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1347.281 (a) (2) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) Rolls. Rolls shall be not less than 15 inches wide nor less than 28 inches in diameter.

2. Section 1347.283 (c) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Light weight quality. There may be added to the maximum prices hereinabove established, a price differential not in excess of $4.00 per ton for light weight newsprint paper, as hereinbefore defined, Provided, however, That with respect to newsprint paper manufactured outside the Continental United States, such light weight differential may, during the period from April 1, 1944, through July 31, 1944, inclusive, be an amount agreed upon between the individual seller and purchaser. Such differential shall not exceed an amount computed as follows:

The manufacturer of the newsprint involved shall in accordance with his customary accounting methods determine his total production cost per ton for the standard newsprint customarily produced by him. He shall then estimate what his total production cost per ton for the particular light weight newsprint will be during the four-month period; using the same accounting methods. The total production cost per ton for the standard newsprint shall then be subtracted from the estimated total production cost per ton for the particular light weight newsprint involved. The difference is the maximum allowable differential for the particular weight of light weight standard newsprint.

This amendment shall become effective April 1, 1944.

NON-RETAIL SERVICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new subparagraph is added to § 1499.114 (f) to read as follows:

(8) Application by purchaser who buys services from numerous sellers. Where the purchaser buys non-retail services from sellers too numerous to make recourse to other provisions of this paragraph (f) practicable, he may apply for an adjustment of the charges made to him by letter addressed to the Chief, Service Trades Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. Such letter should show that the facts set forth in subparagraph (1) (ii) of this paragraph exist; the general nature and extent of the sellers' cost increases; and, where practicable, the names and addresses of the sellers and the maximum prices of each. A price increase under this subparagraph may not become effective until the applicant is advised in writing of OPA approval, which will be given only where it is clear that there is no practicable recourse to other provisions of this paragraph (f) and where granting of such approval will not interfere with the price control program.

This amendment shall become effective April 8, 1944.

I. Notice of eleventh call for partial redemption, before maturity, of 2¾ percent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund debentures, Series B. The Federal Housing Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, has issued the following notice of call for partial redemption and offer to purchase with respect to 2¾ percent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund debentures, Series B:

Pursuant to the authority conferred by the National Housing Act (48 Stat. 1246; U. S. C., title 12, sec. 1701 et seq.) as amended, public notice is hereby given that 2¾ percent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund debentures, Series B, of the denominations and serial numbers designated below, are hereby called for redemption, at par and accrued interest, on July 1, 1944, on which date interest on such debentures shall cease:

Denomination:	Serial numbers (all numbers inclusive)
$100	5,710 to 5,765
$500	1,808 to 1,828
$1,000	6,918 to 7,007
$5,000	508 to 514

The debentures first issued, as determined by the serial numbers, were selected for redemption by the Commissioner, Federal Housing Administration, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

No transfers or denominational exchanges in debentures covered by the foregoing call will be made on the books maintained by the Treasury Department on or after April 1, 1944. This does not affect the right of the holder of a debenture to sell and assign the debenture on or after April 1, 1944, and provision will be made for the payment of final interest due July 1, 1944, with the principal thereof to the actual owner, as shown by the assignments thereon.

The Commissioner of the Federal Housing Administration hereby offers to purchase any debentures included in this call at any time from April 1, 1944, to June 30, 1944, inclusive, at par and accrued interest, to date of purchase.

Instructions for the presentation and surrender of debentures for redemption on or after July 1, 1944, or for purchase prior to that date will be given by the Secretary of the Treasury.

II. Transactions in eleventh-called debentures. 1. The debentures included in the foregoing notice of call for partial redemption on July 1, 1944, are hereby designated eleventh-called 2¾ percent Mutual Mortgage Insurance Fund debentures, Series B, and are hereinafter referred to as eleventh-called debentures.

2. Transfers and denominational exchanges in eleventh-called debentures will terminate at the close of business on March 31, 1944.

III. Redemption or purchase. 1. Holders of eleventh-called debentures will be entitled to have such debentures redeemed and paid at par on July 1, 1944, with interest in full to that date, at the rate of $13.75 per $1,000. Interest on eleventh-called debentures will cease on July 1, 1944.

2. Holders of eleventh-called debentures have the privilege of presenting such debentures at any time from April 1 to June 30, 1944, inclusive, for purchase at par and accrued interest, at the rate of $0.075549 per $1,000 per day from January 1, 1944, to date of purchase.

IV. Rules and regulations governing redemption and purchase. 1. The United States Treasury Department is the agent of the Federal Housing Commissioner for the redemption and purchase of eleventh-called debentures. In accordance with regulations adopted by the Federal Housing Commissioner and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, the assignment, redemption, and purchase of eleventh-called debentures will be governed by the general regulations of the Treasury Department with respect to United States bonds and notes, so far as applicable, except as otherwise provided herein.

2. Eleventh-called debentures presented for redemption on July 1, 1944, or for purchase from April 1 to June 30, 1944, inclusive, must be assigned by the registered payee or assignee thereof or by their duly constituted representatives in the form indicated in paragraph 3 hereof, and should thereafter be presented and surrendered to any Federal Reserve Bank or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C., accompanied by appropriate written advice. (Use Form PD 1920 attached hereto.) The debentures must be delivered at the expense and risk of the holders. (See paragraph 8 of this section.) In all cases checks in payment of principal and final interest will be mailed to the address given in the form of advice accompanying the debentures when surrendered.

3. If the registered payee or an assignee holding under proper assignment from the registered payee desires that payment be made to him, the debentures should be assigned by such payee or assignee or by a duly constituted representative to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for redemption" or to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for purchase," according to whether the debentures are to be presented for redemption on July 1, 1944, or for purchase prior to that date. If it is desired for any reason that payment be made to some other person without intermediate assignment, the debentures should be assigned to "The Federal Housing Commissioner for redemption (or purchase) for the account of _____"

inserting the name and address of the person to whom payment is to be made.

4. An assignment in blank or other assignment having similar effect will be recognized, but in that event payment will be made to the person surrendering the debenture for redemption or purchase since, under such an assignment, the debenture becomes in effect payable to bearer. Assignments in blank or assignments having similar effect should be avoided, if possible, in order not to lose the protection afforded by registration.

5. Final interest on any eleventh-called debentures, whether purchased prior to or redeemed on or after July 1, 1944, will be paid with the principal in accordance with the assignments on the debentures surrendered.

6. All assignments must be made on the debentures themselves unless otherwise directed by the Treasury Department. Detached assignments will be recognized and accepted in any particular case in which the use of detached assignments is specifically authorized by the Treasury Department. Any assignment not made upon the debenture is considered a detached assignment.

7. An eleventh-called debenture registered in the name of, or assigned to, a corporation, will be paid to such corporation on or after July 1, 1944, upon an appropriate assignment for that purpose on behalf of the corporation by a duly authorized officer thereof. An assignment so executed and duly attested in accordance with Treasury Department regulations will ordinarily be accepted without proof of the officer's authority. In all cases coming under this provision payment will be made only by check drawn to the order of the corporation. Proof of the authority of the officer assigning on behalf of a corporation will be required, in accordance with the general regulations of the Treasury Department, in the case of assignments for purchase prior to July 1, 1944, and in case of assignments for redemption on or after July 1, 1944, for the account of any person other than the corporation.

8. Debentures presented for redemption or purchase under this circular must be delivered to a Federal Reserve Bank or to the Division of Loans and Currency, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C., at the expense and risk of the holder. Debentures bearing restricted assignments may be forwarded by registered mail, but debentures bearing unrestricted assignments should be forwarded by registered mail insured or by express prepaid.

[Region I Rev. Order G-10 Under RMPR 122]

PREPARED BITUMINOUS COAL IN BOSTON REGION

Revised Order No. G-10 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Prepared bituminous coal.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region I of the Office of Price Administration by § 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, Region I Order No. G-10 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 is revised and amended and is hereby issued as Revised Order No. G-10, to read as follows:

(a) Pricing rules established by this order. This order specifies the manner in which dealers in Region I (Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut) who are not subject to an area pricing order under § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 which fixes specific maximum prices for prepared bituminous coal, and who cannot price prepared bituminous coal under Rule 1 in § 1340.254 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, shall establish their maximum prices for such coal, and contains provisions for reporting prices determined hereunder. Any dealer who can price a particular prepared bituminous coal under said Rule 1 shall do so, and shall not use this Revised Order G-10 except for prepared bituminous coals which he cannot price under Rule 1.

(b) Maximum prices for prepared bituminous coal which cannot be priced under Rule 1—(1) Dealers who have Rule 1 prices for one or more prepared bituminous coals. Any dealer who delivered one or more kinds of prepared bituminous coal during December, 1941, and so can calculate a maximum price under Rule 1 in § 1340.254 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 for prepared bituminous which is the same as that which he delivered during that month, shall price any prepared bituminous which is not the "same fuel" (as that term is defined in § 1340.255 (a) (3) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122) as one for which he has a Rule 1 price by the use of Rule 3 in § 1340.254 (b), and shall not use any of the other provisions of this order: Provided, however, That such a dealer may apply to the Regional Office for Region I for permission to use one of said other provisions and, in appropriate cases, such permission will be granted by letter.

(2) Dealers who have no Rule 1 prices for any prepared bituminous coal. Any dealer who did not deliver any prepared bituminous coal during December, 1941, and so has no maximum prices under Rule 1 in § 1340.254 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 and is not required to use the preceding subparagraph of this order, may elect to price prepared bituminous coal in either of the following ways:

Option 1. The maximum price shall be the sum of:

First. The per net ton cost to the dealer of the bituminous coal, f. o. b. supplier's shipping point;

Second. The actual transportation cost from supplier's shipping point to the dealer's yard, dock or other terminal facility (exclusive of any tax on such transportation); and Third. The margin over delivered cost on the dealers similar sale of Pennsylvania anthracite coal most nearly like the sale of the bituminous coal for which a maximum price is being calculated hereunder, taking into account class of purchaser, method of delivery and terms of delivery.

Provided, however, That a dealer eligible for compensatory adjustment on bituminous coal under Revised Compensatory Adjustment Regulation No. 1 shall, in place of the item marked Second, substitute the lowest transportation cost he would have incurred during December, 1941, in bringing the bituminous coal to his terminal facility: And provided further, That when the bituminous coal is purchased f. o. b. truck and delivered directly to the purchaser, the item marked Second shall be eliminated and the price arrived at by adding items First and Third.

Option 2. If the coal is low volatile coal from Producing District 7, the maximum price shall be calculated in accordance with Option 1, except that the following specific amounts shall be substituted for the item marked First in Option 1:

	Per net ton
For pea or nut size, or any mixture thereof	$3.50
For lump, egg or stove size, or any mixture thereof	4.10

Provided, however, That a dealer who obtains lump coal by screening or forking run of mine bituminous coal at his yard or dock so as to remove all coal smaller in size than 1¼" may price such lump coal under Option 2 by use of $4.10 as item First, and the transportation cost of the run of mine coal as item Second, regardless of the option selected by said dealer for use in pricing bituminous coal which is screened at the mine.

The dealer shall evidence his election of either option 1 or option 2 by a letter to his State Office of the Office of Price Administration within five (5) days after his first purchase of prepared bituminous coal after the effective date of this order, in which letter the dealer shall specify that he did not deliver any prepared bituminous coal during December, 1941, and state which option he had elected. All purchases of prepared bituminous must thereafter be priced under that option, and the dealer may not change his election and use the other option without receiving permission in writing from the Regional Office for Region I. Any dealer who fails to evidence his election within the period specified, in the manner specified, shall be deemed to have elected option 1 and may not thereafter use option 2 without receiving such permission in writing. However, any dealer who has prepared bituminous coal on hand on the effective date of this order which he has priced under order G-10 may complete the sale of that particular coal at the price so established without prejudice to his right to elect either option 1 or option 2 as to coal subsequently received by him.

(c) Pricing in certain special cases. If the dealer does not himself handle Pennsylvania anthracite and so has no actual margin from his own experience for use under paragraph (b) hereof, he may nevertheless price hereunder. In such case, the margin to be used shall be determined as follows:

(1) If there is an area price order under § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 which establishes specific maximum prices for the type of sale of Pennsylvania anthracite which is similar to the proposed sale of prepared bituminous the margin shall be that which the dealer would obtain were he to deal in Pennsylvania anthracite.

(2) If there is no such area price order in effect, the dealer shall apply by letter to his State Office of the Office of Price Administration, stating that he does not handle Pennsylvania anthracite and giving the name and address of his most closely competitive dealer of the same class who does handle it. The State Office will then notify the dealer by letter of the margin he may use.

(3) If no margin is available from an area price order, and the dealer cannot find a closely competitive dealer who handles Pennsylvania anthracite, the dealer shall apply to his State Office of the Office of Price Administration stating why he is unable to price under the other provisions of this order, and a margin for his use hereunder will be supplied by letter.

(d) Records and reports. (1) Every dealer who prices prepared bituminous coal under paragraph (b) of this order shall preserve all invoices and other records of his purchases of said coals, and shall keep a record of all sales showing the date, the name and address of the buyer (if known), the price charged and the coal sold. The record shall also separately state each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(2) Every dealer who prices prepared bituminous coal under subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b) of this order, under option 1 in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) or by the special use of option 2 which is permitted for lump coal obtained from run of mine, shall within ten days after he determines or redetermines any maximum price thereunder file a report with his State Office of the Office of Price Administration containing a description of the particular coal, the maximum price thereof to each class of purchaser to whom it is sold and a detailed showing of the method of computation of said maximum prices, including each item entering into such computation. Separate reports must be filed for each purchase which varies in mine price or transportation cost from any prepared bituminous previously reported by the dealer.

(3) Every dealer who prices prepared bituminous coal under option 2 in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) shall, at the same time that he files the notice of his election of said option 2, also file with his State office a statement listing (a) The amount of the item marked "Second" in option 2 on each of the prepared bituminous coals which he is currently receiving, describing said coals and listing the suppliers shipping point; and (b) the amounts of the margins which he is using as the item marked "Third", listed separately for each class of purchaser and for each of the two main classifications of prepared bituminous coal (i. e., pea or nut and stove or egg). Thereafter, additional reports shall be filed by such dealer whenever the item marked "Second" changes as a result of purchases of prepared bituminous coal which have a different transportation cost from supplier's shipping point to dealer's yard than those originally reported; and whenever the anthracite margin which he uses changes for any reason. Said additional reports shall also describe the coals and specify the supplier's shipping point, and shall include a statement of the reasons for any change in the anthracite margin which the dealer is using.

(e) Terms of sale and charges for services. Terms of sale and charges for services shall be those applicable to the sale of the coal which is used as a basis for the determination of the margin to be used in calculating maximum prices under this order. When an anthracite margin is used, for example, the terms of sale and charges for services shall be those applicable to the sale of the anthracite, whether such anthracite is priced under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 itself or under an area price order under § 1340.260 thereof.

(f) Transportation tax. Any dealer subject to this order may collect, in addition to the specified maximum prices established herein, provided he states it separately, the amount of the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by him, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of his prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from the dealer by his supplier: Provided, however, That no part of that tax may be collected in addition to the maximum price on sales of lesser quantities than one-quarter ton: And provided, further, That the dealer need not state separately from his selling price the amount of said tax on a sale to the United States or any agency thereof, any state government or any political subdivision thereof.

(g) Definitions. When used in this Revised Order G–10, the terms:

(1) "Prepared bituminous coal" means bituminous coal which has been prepared at the mine by passing over a screen or by double screening, and which has again been forked or screened at a dealer's yard for the removal of undersized coal, and shall, to the extent indicated by the terms of this order, include lump coal obtained by forking or screening run of mine bituminous coal.

(2) "Pea size" is double screened coal with a top size of ¾" and a bottom size smaller than ⅜".

(3) "Nut size" is double screened coal with a top size larger than ¾" but not over 1¼" and a bottom size smaller than 1¼".

(4) "Stove size" is double screened coal with a top size larger than 1¼" but not exceeding 3" and a bottom size smaller than 3".

(5) "Egg size" is double screened coal with a top size larger than 3" and with no limit as to the bottom size.

(6) "Lump size" is single screened coal all of which passes over a screen with openings not less than 1¼" in size.

(7) A dealer's "State Office of the Office of Price Administration" shall mean the respective State offices in the case of dealers located in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut, and the Regional Office for Region I, Boston, Massachusetts, in the case of dealers located in Massachusetts.

(8) "Margin over delivered cost on the dealer's similar sale of Pennsylvania anthracite coal" shall mean the difference between (a) the dealer's maximum price of Pennsylvania anthracite of the most nearly similar size to the same class of purchaser, and (b) the total of (i) the dealer's supplier's maximum price for that anthracite (gross, before any cash or other discounts), and (ii) the actual transportation cost to the dealer's yard, dock or other terminal facility (net after compensatory adjustment if the dealer is eligible for compensatory adjustment on anthracite coal under Revised Compensatory Adjustment Regulation No. 1. In the case of prepared bituminous purchased f. o. b. truck at the yard of another dealer and delivered direct to the purchaser, the margin used shall be the margin available on anthracite which is so purchased and delivered. "Taking into account class of purchaser, method of delivery and terms of delivery" means, by way of illustration, that there shall be taken into consideration differences in maximum prices for sales of anthracite delivered to consumers, sold at the yard to consumers, and sold at the yard to other dealers, both equipped and unequipped; and differences in margins available on sales of anthracite purchased f. o. b. mine and received by rail or barge at the dealer's yard or dock, and on sales of anthracite purchased at the yard of another dealer and delivered to the consumer. In no case, however, shall the dealer use a margin available on a Pennsylvania anthracite coal which has a mine price higher than those set forth in § 1340.200 (a) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 112, if that margin differs from his margin on anthracite which is priced under that section at the mines; nor shall he use any higher margin which is available on any separately named and priced anthracite which is priced under that section at the mines.

(9) Except as is otherwise specifically provided herein, and unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.235 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(h) Lower prices permitted. Lower prices than those provided for herein may be charged, paid or offered.

(i) This order may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time.

NOTE: The reporting and record keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This Revised Order No. G–10 shall become effective April 10, 1944; Provided, however, That it shall become effective immediately as to any dealer who elects to price hereunder prior to said date.

[Region II Rev. Order G–8 of RMPR 122]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN BURLINGTON, CAMDEN, AND GLOUCESTER COUNTIES, N. J.

Revised Order No. G–8 under §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Pennsylvania anthracite delivered by dealers in Burlington County, Camden County, and Gloucester County, State of New Jersey, Coal Area 1.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is hereby ordered:

(a) What this order does—(1) Dealers' maximum prices; area covered. If you are a dealer in "Pennsylvania anthracite", this order fixes the maximum prices which you may charge, and if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may pay, for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania anthracite" (hereunder called simply "anthracite") delivered to or at any point in the zones comprising State of New Jersey—Coal Area I. That area consists of four zones, as follows:

Zone 1: Zone 1 includes the following portions of the State of New Jersey: All of Camden County north of Evesham Road; the City of Beverly, the Boroughs of Medford Lakes, Palmyra, Riverton, and the Townships of Cinnaminson, Chester, Mount Laurel, Evesham, Medford, Moorestown, Delran, Riverside, Delanco, Edgewater Park, Willingboro in Burlington County; the City of Woodbury, the Boroughs of Westville, Woodbury Heights, Wenonah, Paulsboro, and the Townships of West Deptford, Deptford, Greenwich and East Greenwich in Gloucester County.

Zone 2: Zone 2 includes the following portions of the State of New Jersey: The City of Bordentown, the Borough of Fieldsboro and the Townships of Bordentown and Chesterfield in Burlington County.

Zone 3: Zone 3 includes the following portions of the State of New Jersey: The City of Burlington, the Boroughs of Pamberton and Wrightstown and the Townships of Florence, Mansfield, Burlington, Westampton, Hainesport, Lumberton, Mount Holly, Southampton, Eastampton, Pemberton, Springfield, North Hanover, and New Hanover in Burlington County.

Zone 4: Zone 4 includes the following portions of the State of New Jersey: All of Camden County and all of Gloucester County not included in Zone 1, and all of Burlington County not included in Zones 1, 2, and 3. Geographically, Zone 4 covers all of Camden County south of Evesham Road; the Boroughs of Swedesboro, Pitman, Glaseboro, Clayton, Newfield, National Park, and the Townships of Logan, Woolwich, South Harrison, Harrison, Mantua, Washington, Monroe, Elk, and Franklin in Gloucester County; and the Townships of Shamong, Tabernacle, Woodland, Bass River and Washington in Burlington County.

(2) Schedules of prices, charges and discounts. The applicable prices, authorized charges, and required discounts, from which you shall determine the maximum prices for designated sizes and quantities of anthracite delivered within Zones 1, 2, 3 and 4 are set forth in Schedules I, II, III and IV, respectively.

(3) To what sales this order applies. If you are a dealer in anthracite you are bound by the prices, charges and discounts, and by all other provisions of this order for all deliveries within Zones 1, 2, 3 and 4.

You shall determine the maximum price for "direct-delivery" sales, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate schedule of this order covering the zone to which delivery is made, whether or not you are located in one of the four zones.

You shall determine your maximum price for a "yard" sale, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate schedule of this order covering the zone in which the purchaser takes physical possession or custody of the anthracite.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligations, you shall not:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities set forth in the schedules herein, at prices higher than the maximum prices computed as set forth in paragraph (c) of this order, although you may charge, pay, or offer less than maximum prices.

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by:

(i) Changing the discounts authorized herein, or

(ii) Charging for any service which is not expressly requested by the buyer, or

(iii) Charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by this order, or

(iv) Charging a price for any service higher than the Schedule price for such service, or

(v) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him, except that a dealer may comply with requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by an agency of the United States Government.

(vi) Using any other device by which a higher price than the applicable maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) How to compute maximum prices. You must figure your maximum price as follows:

(1) Use the schedule which covers your sale. (Schedule I applies to sales on a "direct-delivery" basis, "yard sales", and "sales in 18 lb. paper bags" within Zone 1. You will find Schedule I in paragraph (d). In like manner, Schedules II, III, and IV apply to similar sales in Zones 2, 3 and 4 respectively. You will find Schedule II in paragraph (e), Schedule III in paragraph (f) and Schedule IV in paragraph (g).)

(2) Take the dollars-and-cents figure set forth in the applicable schedule, for the sizes and quantity you are selling.

(3) Deduct from that figure the amount of the discount which you are required to give, as specified in each schedule. Where a discount is required you must state it separately on your invoice.

(4) If, at your purchaser's request, you actually render him a service for which this order authorizes a charge, you may add to the figure derived from the preceding subparagraphs no more than the maximum authorized service charge. You must state that charge separately on your invoice. The only authorized service charges are those provided for in the schedules.

(5) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, even less than one-half ton, and the applicable schedule provides a discount on the basis of one ton or one-half ton, you shall allow a proportionate discount, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if you are required to deduct 50¢ per ton for cash payment, you shall deduct 38¢ for three-quarters of a ton and 13¢ for one-quarter of a ton.

(6) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, but not less than one-half ton, and the applicable schedule provides a service charge on the basis of one ton, you shall add no more than a proportionate service charge, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if the transaction permits a service charge of 50¢ per ton, you shall not add more than 38¢ for performance of that service in connection with the delivery of three-quarters of a ton.

(d) Schedule I. Schedule I establishes specific maximum prices for certain sizes of anthracite, in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Zone 1. There is a separate table of prices for "direct-delivery" sales, "yard sales," and "sales of bagged coal."

Where a purchaser requests that two or more sizes of anthracite be commingled in one delivery, then and in that event, if those sizes are separately weighed at the point of loading, or when bagged, the dealer may commingle those sizes in the truck or other vehicle, or in the bags, in which the delivery is made. The price for anthracite so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price, or, in the case of bagged coal, on the basis of the applicable bagged price, for each size in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size in the combination.

(i) Ex Parte 148 freight rate increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December 1941. Therefore, you may not increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(j) Addition of increase in suppliers' maximum prices prohibited. You may not increase the specific maximum prices established by this order to reflect, in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to you in your supplier's maximum prices occurring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in your supplier's maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(k) Taxes. If you are a dealer subject to this order you may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided you state it separately, the amount of the Federal tax upon the transportation of property imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by you, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased. On sales to the United States or any agency thereof, you need not state this tax separately.

(l) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the anthracite has been completed; but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(m) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(n) Right of amendment or revocation. The Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator may amend, revoke or rescind this order, or any provision thereof, at any time.

(o) Applicability of other regulations. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you are governed by the licensing provisions of Licensing Order 1. Licensing Order 1 provides, in brief, that a license is required of all persons making sales for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the license. The license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If your license is suspended, you may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(p) Records. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a record of every sale of anthracite hereunder, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the net net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in the order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(q) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall post all your maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable Schedule or Schedules of this order) in your place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall, except for a sale of less than one-half ton, give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing your name and address, the kind, size, and quantity of the anthracite sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts which must be deducted from, and the authorized service charges and the taxes, which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of all other sales, you shall give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requested by such purchaser or if, during December 1941, you customarily gave purchasers such sales slips or receipts.

(r) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Camden District Office of the Office of Price Administration, or with the Price Panel of the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board.

(s) Definitions and explanations When used in this Order No. G8, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political sub-divisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(7) "Direct delivery", except with respect to sales in 100 lb. lots, means delivery to the buyer's bin or storage space by dumping or chuting directly from the seller's truck or vehicle, or, where such delivery to the buyer's bin or storage space is physically impossible, by discharging at the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space and at which the coal can be discharged directly from the seller's truck. "Direct delivery" in 100 lb. lots shall mean depositing in buyer's bin or other storage space designated by buyer.

(8) "Carry" and "wheel" refer to the movement of coal to buyer's bin or storage space in baskets or other containers, or by wheelbarrow or barrel, from seller's truck or vehicle, or from the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space at which the coal is discharged from the seller's truck in the course of "direct delivery".

(9) "Yard sales" means sales accompanied by physical transfer to the buyer's truck or vehicle at the yard, dock, barge, car, or at a place of business of the seller other than at seller's truck or vehicle.

(13) Except as otherwise provided herein, or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(t) Effect of order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. This order shall supersede Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, except as to any sales or deliveries of solid fuels not specifically subject to this order.

(u) Effect of order on Order No. G–8 as originally issued and on Order No. G–23. Order No. G–8 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as issued on July 21, 1943, is hereby revoked in full as of the effective date of this order. This order also supersedes Order No. G–23, issued under that Regulation on November 24, 1943, to the extent that Order No. G–23 is applicable to Order No. G–8.

[Region II Rev. Order G–14 under RMPR 122]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN RICHMOND COUNTY, N. Y.

Revised Order No. G–14 under §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Pennsylvania anthracite delivered by dealers in Richmond County, (Borough of Richmond, City of New York) State of New York, Coal Area II.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does—(1) Dealers' maximum prices; area covered. If you are a dealer in "Pennsylvania anthracite", this order fixes the maximum prices which you may charge, and if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may pay, for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania anthracite" (hereinafter called simply "anthracite") delivered to or at any point in State of New York, Coal Area II. Coal Area II comprises all of Richmond County in the City and State of New York.

(2) Schedules of prices, charges and discounts. The applicable prices authorized charges, and required discounts, from which you shall determine the maximum prices for designated sizes and quantities of anthracite delivered within Coal Area II, are set forth in Schedules I, II and III hereafter.

(3) To what sales this order applies. If you are a dealer in anthracite, you are bound by the prices, charges and discounts, and by all other provisions of this order for all deliveries within Coal Area II, whether or not you are located in Coal Area II.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligations, you shall not:

(1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities set forth in the schedules herein, at prices higher than the maximum prices computed as set forth in paragraph (c) of this order, although you may charge, pay, or offer less than maximum prices.

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by:

(i) Changing the discounts authorized herein, or

(ii) Charging for any service which is not expressly requested by the buyer, or

(iii) Charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by this order, or

(iv) Charging a price for any service set forth in Schedule I higher than the schedule price for such service, or

(v) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him, except that a dealer may comply with requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by an agency of the United States Government.

(vi) Using any other device by which a higher price than the applicable maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) How to compute maximum prices. You must figure your maximum price as follows:

(1) Use the schedule which covers your sale. (Schedule I applies to "Direct Delivery" sales of anthracite. You will find Schedule I in paragraph (d). Schedule II applies to "yard sales". You will find Schedule II in paragraph (e). Schedule III applies to sales of bagged coal in 50 lb., 25 lb. and 12 lb. paper bags. You will find Schedule III in paragraph (f).)

(2) Take the dollars-and-cents figure given in the applicable Schedule for the size and quantity you are selling.

(3) Deduct from this figure the amount of the discount which you are required to give as specified in the Schedule. If the Schedule makes no reference to any discount, you need give no discount. Where a discount is required, you must state it separately on your invoice.

(4) If, at your purchaser's request, you actually render him a service for which this order authorizes a charge, you may add to the figure obtained as above no more than the maximum authorized service charge. You must state that charge separately on your invoice. The only authorized service charges are those provided for sales under Schedule I.

(5) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, even if less than one-half ton, and the applicable Schedule provides a discount on the basis of one ton or one-half ton, you shall allow a proportionate discount, making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if you are required to deduct 50¢ per ton for cash payment, you shall deduct 38¢ for three-quarters of a ton and 13¢ for one-quarter of a ton.

(6) If you deliver a fraction of a net ton, but not less than one-half ton, and the applicable schedule provides a service charge on the basis of one ton, you shall add no more than a proportionate service charge making your calculation to the nearest full cent. For example, if the transaction permits a service charge of 50¢ per ton, you shall not add more than 38¢ for performance of that service in connection with the delivery of three-quarters of a ton.

(d) Schedule I: Sales on a "direct-delivery" basis. Schedule I establishes maximum prices for certain sizes of anthracite in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Coal Area II.

You shall deduct from the prices set forth above in this schedule, on sales and deliveries of all sizes except screenings, a discount of 50¢ per net ton and 25¢ per net ½ ton, where payment is made within ten days after delivery. Nothing in this subparagraph requires you to sell on other than a cash basis.

In addition, you shall deduct a discount of 50¢ per net ton, on sales and deliveries of broken, egg, stove, nut and pea sizes, and a discount of 25¢ per net ton on sales and deliveries of buckwheat, rice, and barley sizes, to consumers purchasing from one dealer, for delivery at one point, a quantity of 50 tons or more, within a period of twelve months.

You shall not break up a single order in an attempt to avoid this discount.

You must grant this discount whether the purchaser has received 50 tons or more pursuant to a single purchase order, or several purchase orders, and whether there was delivery at one time or at intervals of time, the sole basis of the discount being the annual purchase of 50 tons or more for delivery at one point.

You must deduct this discount at or before the delivery of the fiftieth ton and continue to grant the discount on every subsequent delivery during the same twelve-month period.

(g) Commingling. If one size of anthracite is sold commingled with another size of anthracite, the maximum price for the combination shall be the maximum price established in this order for the smallest of the sizes so commingled, whether the sale be a "delivered sale", "yard sale", or a "sale of bagged coal", except in the following situation: Where a purchaser requests that two or more sizes of anthracite be commingled in one delivery, then, and in that event, if these sizes are separately weighed at the point of loading, or when bagged, the dealer may commingle those sizes in the truck or other vehicle, or in the bags, in which the delivery is made. The price for anthracite so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price or, in the case of bagged coal, on the basis of the applicable bagged price, for each size in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size in the combination.

(h) Ex Parte 148 freight rate increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December 1941. Therefore, you may not increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(i) Addition of increase in suppliers' maximum prices prohibited. You may not increase the specific maximum prices established by this order to reflect, in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to you in your supplier's maximum prices occurring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in your supplier's maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(j) Taxes. If you are a dealer subject to this order you may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided you state it separately, the amount of the Federal tax upon the transportation of property imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by you, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased. On sales to the United States or any agency thereof, you need not state this tax separately.

(k) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the anthracite has been completed; but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(l) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(m) Right of amendment or revocation. The Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator may amend, revoke or rescind this order, or any provision thereof, at any time.

(n) Applicability of other regulations. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you are governed by the licensing provisions of Licensing Order 1. Licensing Order 1 provides, in brief, that a license is required of all persons making sales for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the license. The license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If your license is suspended, you may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(o) Records. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a record of every sale of anthracite hereunder, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the per net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in the order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(p) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall post all your maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable schedule or schedules of this order) in your place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall, except for a sale of less than one-half ton, give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing your name and address, the kind, size, and quantity of the anthracite sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts which must be deducted from, and the authorised service charges and the taxes, which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of all other sales, you shall give each purchaser a sales slip of receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requested by such purchaser or if, during December 1941, you customarily gave purchasers such sales slips or receipts.

(q) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the New York District Office of the Office of Price Administration or with the Price Panel of the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board.

(r) Definitions and explanations. When used in this Order No. G–14, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency or any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale", "selling", "sold", "seller", "buy", "purchase" and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) "Dealer" means any person selling anthracite of the sizes set forth in the Schedules herein, and does not include a producer or distributor making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, or a briquette plant.

(4) "Pennsylvania anthracite" means all coal produced in the Lehigh, Schuylkill and Wyoming regions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(5) The sizes of Pennsylvania anthracite described as broken, egg, stove, nut, pea, buckwheat, rice, barley and screenings shall refer to the same sizes of the same fuel as were sold and delivered in the State of New York—Coal Area II, with such designation during December, 1941.

"Screenings A" are screenings derived from the primary or initial screening of egg, stove, nut, pea, and buckwheat sizes of anthracite before any of these sizes have been reclaimed from screenings.

"Screenings B" are the resultant screenings after buckwheat and larger sizes of anthracite have been reclaimed from "Screenings A".

(6) "Direct delivery", in all situations except those involving "carrying upstairs" more than five steps, shall mean delivery to the buyer's bin or storage space. Where delivery involves "carrying upstairs" more than five steps, and such carrying service has not been requested by the purchaser, "direct delivery" means discharging the coal at the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space and at which the coal can be discharged directly from the seller's truck. "Direct delivery" in 100 lb. lots shall mean depositing in buyer's bin or other storage space designated by buyer.

(7) "Carrying upstairs" refers to the movement of coal to buyer's bin or storage space in baskets or other containers, from seller's truck or vehicle, or from the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space at which the coal is discharged from seller's truck in the course of "direct delivery."

(8) "Yard sales" means sales accompanied by physical transfer to the buyer's truck or vehicle at the yard, dock, barge, car, or at a place of business of the seller other than at seller's truck or vehicle.

(9) "Delivered at dealer's yard" as applied to sales of bagged coal in 50 lb., 25 lb., and 12 lb. paper bags, means physical transfer at the dealer's yard to the purchaser's truck or other vehicle.

(10) "Delivered to retail stores" as applied to sales of bagged coal in 50 lb., 25 lb., or 12 lb. bags, means deposit in that part of the store designated by the purchaser.

(11) "Sales to ultimate consumers" as applied to bagged coal in 50 lb., 25 lb., or 12 lb. bags, means sales by dealers other than sales at the dealer's yard, whether or not delivered to the consumer's premises.

(12) Except as otherwise provided herein, or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 122 shall apply to terms used herein.

(s) Effect of order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. To the extent applicable this order supersedes Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(t) Effect of order on Order No. G–14 as originally issued and on Order No. G–23. Order G–14 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as issued on October 9, 1943, is hereby revoked in full as of the effective date of this order. This order also supersedes Order No. G–23 issued under that Regulation on November 24, 1943, to the extent that Order No. G–23 was applicable to Order No. G–14.

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN NEW YORK CITY

Amendment No. 1 to Revised Order No. G–3 under § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Pennsylvania anthracite delivered by dealers in the boroughs of Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens, City of New York, State of New York.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, Revised Order No. G–3 is amended in the following respect:

1. Paragraph (s) is amended to read as follows:

(s) Automatic roll-back pursuant to Amendment No. 3 to Order No. G–3 as originally issued. Amendment No. 3 to Order No. G–3, issued on October 21, 1943 and effective October 22, 1943, by its terms provided that all dealers subject thereto would, on April 1, 1944, revert to the schedules of prices in effect immediately prior to the amendment. Since that amendment increased "delivered sales" prices by 30¢ per net ton and 15¢ per net ½ ton, and "yard sales" prices by 10¢ per net ton, all dealers subject to this revised order were required, on and after April 1, 1944, to reduce their maximum prices for "delivered sales" as set forth herein by 30¢ per net ton and 15¢ per net ½ ton, and their maximum price for "yard sales" as set forth herein by 10¢ per net ton. The time at which such reduction must go into effect is extended to midnight April 30, 1944. No such reduction is required for sales under ½ ton. This roll-back shall be in addition to any further roll-back that may be occasioned by a reduction in supplier's maximum prices.

This Amendment No. 1 to Revised Order No. G–3 shall become effective March 31, 1944.

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING ON AMENDED PLAN AND ON AMENDED DECLARATION AND APPLICATION AND ON OTHER MATTERS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 31st day of March 1944.

In the matter of Northern States Power Company (Delaware), File No. 54–54; and Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), File No. 70–559; and Northern States Power Company (Delaware) and each of its subsidiaries, File No. 59–50.

Northern States Power Company (Delaware), a registered holding company which owns all of the common stock of Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), having, on June 3, 1942, filed a plan for its liquidation and dissolution pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for the purpose of enabling that company to comply with the provisions of section 11 (b) of said act (File No. 54–54), and Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), a subsidiary of Northern States Power Company (Delaware) which is also a registered holding company, having, on June 5, 1942, filed a declaration and application pursuant to sections 6, 7, and 12 of the act relating to various transactions incident to said plan (File No. 70–559), and the Commission having, on June 5, 1942, issued an order instituting proceedings pursuant to sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f), and 20 (a) with respect to the Northern States Power Company (Delaware) and each of its subsidiaries (File No. 59–50), which order also set the issues raised by the plan, the declaration and application, and the proceedings so instituted for consolidated hearings; and Hearings having been held on the matters so consolidated from time to time commencing on July 8, 1942, and ending on August 5, 1943;

Notice is hereby given that on March 31, 1944, Northern States Power Company (Delaware) filed an amended plan for its liquidation and dissolution pursuant to the provisions of said section 11 (e). All interested persons are referred to said amended plan (File No. 54–54), which is on file at the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which may be summarized as follows:

1. Northern States Power Company (Delaware), (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Delaware Company), proposes to discharge the open account indebtedness in the amount of $7,530,852.08 owing by it to Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) by (a) the surrender to the latter company of 481,111 shares of the presently outstanding 4,000,000 shares, without par value, of common stock of Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Minnesota Company), for a credit of $7,457,220.00 against such indebtedness, and (b) an assignment by the Delaware Company to the Minnesota Company of claims for federal income tax refunds for a credit of $73,632.08 against such indebtedness. (The sum of $7,457,220.00 at which the 481,111 shares are proposed to be surrendered is equivalent to about $15.50 per share and is stated to represent the approximate cost of such shares to the Delaware Company as determined by it for the purposes of the federal income tax laws. The stated capital represented by the 481,111 shares is $10,824,997.50, or $22.50 per share.)

2. In connection with the foregoing, the Minnesota Company proposes to agree, pursuant to an order of this Commission, to annually retain in its earned surplus over a period of 16¾ years commencing April 1, 1942, an amount equivalent to equal annual installments on the sum of $7,457,200.00 (namely, $333,905.44 in the year 1942 and $445,207.16 in each of the years of the period thereafter), which retained surplus shall not at any time be available for the declaration of dividends on any class of its stock.

3. Concurrently with the aforesaid surrender, the Minnesota Company proposes to credit its paid-in surplus with the excess, namely, $3,367,777.50 of the stated capital represented by the 481,111 shares over the amount at which such shares are to be accepted by the Minnesota Company and to then transfer such paid-in surplus credit to the stated capital represented by the then remaining 3,518,889 shares of its common stock. After such transfer the aggregate stated value of the 3,518,889 shares would be $82,542,780.00.

4. The Delaware Company proposes to take the corporate action necessary to cause the Minnesota Company to reclassify the remaining 3,518,889 shares of the common stock of the Minnesota Company then having an aggregate stated value of $82,542,780.00 into 8,216,228 shares of common stock, without par value, having a stated value of $6.75 per share or an aggregate stated value of $55,459,539.00. It is proposed to transfer the amount by which the stated value of the common stock of the Minnesota Company will be thereby reduced, namely, $27,083,241.00 to paid-in surplus. (The proposal with respect to the resulting paid-in surplus of the Minnesota Company is related hereinafter in the summary of the amended declaration and application filed by that company.)

5. The Delaware Company proposes, at or prior to the effective date of the amended plan, to pay in cash the dividends accumulated, but not paid, during the years 1942 and 1943 on its 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock and 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock. Such payment will require the sum of $2,542,066.50 and will amount to $3.50 and $3.00 per share on the 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock and 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock, respectively.

6. The Delaware Company proposes to retire its outstanding capital stock of all classes by a distribution to the holders thereof of the 8,216,228 shares of the reclassified common stock of the Minnesota Company as follows:

10 shares of the reclassified common stock for each share of 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Delaware Company and all remaining accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon, or an aggregate of 3,910,770 shares, representing 47.60% of all of the reclassified stock, to the holders of the 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Delaware Company;

9 shares of the reclassified common stock for each share of 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Delaware Company and all remaining accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon, or an aggregate of 3,519,891 shares, representing 42.84% of all of the reclassified stock, to the holders of the 6% Cumulative Preferred Stock of the Delaware Company;

2 shares of the reclassified common stock for each share of Class A Common stock of the Delaware Company, or an aggregate of 683,102 shares, representing 8.32% of all of the reclassified stock, to the holders of the Class A Common stock of the Delaware Company;

0.1405 share of the reclassified common stock for each share of Class B Common stock, or an aggregate of 102,465 shares, representing 1.24% of all of the reclassified stock, to the holders of the Class B Common stock of the Delaware Company;

In lieu of fractional shares of common stock, scrip certificates of the Minnesota Company will be issued representing rights to such fractional shares and exchangeable, when accompanied by other scrip certificates representing one or more full shares of stock, for certificates for such full shares, but entitling the holders thereof to no rights as stockholders of the Minnesota Company until so exchanged. If not so exchanged, all scrip certificates will become void in five years from the effective date of the amended plan.

7. The Delaware Company proposes to transfer, without consideration, any assets remaining after the distribution of the reclassified common stock and the payment of the expenses incident to the consummation of the amended plan to the Minnesota Company. These assets will consist of only a relatively small amount of net current assets.

8. The Delaware Company proposes to dissolve upon the consummation of the amended plan.

If this Commission should approve the amended plan for the liquidation and dissolution of the Delaware Company, that company requests that this Commission apply to a United States District Court pursuant to sections 11 (e) and 18 (f) of said act to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the amended plan.

Notice is further given that on March 31, 1944, Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) filed an amended declaration and application relating to transactions incident to carrying out the amended plan of its parent. All interested persons are referred to said documents (File No. 70-559), which are on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which may be summarized as follows:

1. The Minnesota Company proposes to accept the payment of the open account indebtedness owing to it by the Delaware Company in the manner and under the terms and condition outlined in paragraphs numbered 1 and 2 above.

2. The Minnesota Company proposes to credit its paid-in surplus with the sum of $3,367,777.50 and thereafter to transfer such amount to the stated capital represented by its then remaining shares of common stock as related in paragraph numbered 3 above.

3. The Minnesota Company proposes to then reclassify its remaining 3,518,889 shares of common stock having, after the aforesaid transfer, an aggregate stated capital of $82,542,780.00 into 8,216,228 shares of common stock, without par value, having a stated value of $6.75 per share or an aggregate stated value of $55,459,539.00; to transfer the amount of the reduction in stated capital, namely, $27,083,241.00, to paid-in surplus, and to transfer the present balance sheet account, "Reserve for Possible Adjustment of Intangibles," in the amount of $3,398,908.57 to paid-in surplus. After such adjustments the paid-in surplus of the Minnesota Company will be in the amount of $33,286,903.08.

4. The Minnesota Company proposes to then create a "Reserve for Possible Adjustment of Utility Plant Accounts and Other Balance Sheet Accounts" in the amount of $29,500,000.00 by a charge against its earned surplus and to eliminate the deficit in the latter account resulting from such charge, namely $28,297,895.61, by a charge to its paid-in surplus.

5. The Minnesota Company proposes to charge the "Reserve for Possible Adjustment of Utility Plant Accounts and Other Balance Sheet Accounts" with (a) the sum of $6,557,219.54 now lodged in its "Plant and Equipment—Intangibles" account, which sum allegedly represents the amount of discounts on securities and profit to affiliated interests in connection with acquisitions of property, and (b) the sum of $80,490.50, which sum allegedly represents the excess of the cost to the Minnesota Company of 2,303 shares of the 7% and 6% Cumulative Preferred Stocks of the Delaware Company owned by it over the stated capital of $149,809.50 to be represented by the 22,194 shares of the reclassified common stock that the Minnesota Company will receive under the amended plan in exchange for such preferred stocks.

6. The Minnesota Company proposes to amend its Articles of Incorporation so as to provide: (a) For an increase in the voting rights of its Cumulative Preferred Stock, $5 Series, from one to three votes per share; (b) that in the event of defaults equivalent to four quarterly dividends on any series of preferred stock at the time outstanding, the preferred stock shall have the right, voting as a class, to elect, at the next meeting following such defaults, the smallest number of persons necessary to constitute a majority of the Board of Directors and such right once obtained shall continue until all dividends in default are paid; (c) that without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in number of the shares of preferred stock at the time outstanding, the company cannot create additional unsecured debt unless certain standards with respect to secured indebtedness, capital and surplus are met; and (d) that without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in number of the shares of preferred stock at the time outstanding, the company will not merge or consolidate with or into any other corporation unless such merger or consolidation shall have been approved by this Commission or by any successor Commission or regulatory authority of the United States of America having jurisdiction over the merger.

The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11 (e) of the act to find, after notice and opportunity for hearing and before approving any plan filed thereunder, that such plan, as submitted or as amended, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b), and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby; and it appearing appropriate that notice be given and a hearing held on the amended plan to afford all interested persons an opportunity to be heard with respect thereto; and

It being appropriate that notice be given and a hearing held with respect to the amended declaration and application of Northern States Power Company (Minnesota); that said amended declaration and application shall not become effective or be granted except pursuant to the further order of the Commission; and

It appearing that the common issues of fact and law arising in connection with the amended plan, the amended declaration and application, and the proceedings pursuant to sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f) and 20 (a) heretofore instituted and now pending make it appropriate that hearings on said matters be consolidated; It is hereby ordered:

(a) That the hearings on the amended plan of Northern States Power Company (Delaware), on the amended declaration and application of Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), and on the pending proceedings pursuant to sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f) and 20 (a) with respect to Northern States Power Company (Delaware) and each of its subsidiaries be consolidated, subject to a reservation of jurisdiction to separate, whether for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions or matters hereinbefore set forth or which may arise in these proceedings, or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to said amended plan or to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economical disposition of the matters involved;

(b) That the consolidated hearings be held on the 26th day of April, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 16th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on such date by the hearing room clerk in Room 318. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner provided by its Rules of Practice, Rule XVII, on or before the 21st day of April, 1944.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That notice of this hearing be given to Northern States Power Company (Delaware) and Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) and to all other persons; such notice to be given to Northern States Power Company (Delaware) and Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under said act; and

It is further ordered, That Northern States Power Company (Delaware) mail a copy of the amended plan and this notice and order at least fifteen days prior to April 26, 1944, to each of its stockholders at his last-known address; and

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of issues presented by said amended plan, by said amended declaration and application, or by the pending proceedings instituted pursuant to sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f) and 20 (a) of said act, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the amended plan as proposed or as modified is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

2. Whether the accounting adjustments proposed by Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) are appropriate and in accordance with sound accounting principles and practice;

3. Generally, whether the proposed transactions of Northern States Power Company (Minnesota) are in all respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the act and the rules thereunder, and, if not, what modification should be required to be made therein and what terms and conditions should be imposed to satisfy the statutory standards.

4. What orders, if any, should be entered pursuant to sections 11 (b) (2), 15 (f) and 20 (a) of said act, to require Northern States Power Company (Delaware) or any of its subsidiaries to take such steps as the Commission may find necessary and appropriate to effect complete compliance with the provisions of said sections.

By the Commission.

Statement concerning information to be contained in orders for by-product and other special purpose coals, and for lake coals.

Since the issuance of Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulations Nos. 15 and 16, inquiry has been made as to whether industrial consumers of by-product and other special purpose coals, and lake coals are required to include in their orders for such coals the information specified in § 602.174 (a) of Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 10, as amended.

The information specified in § 602.174 (a) of Regulation No. 10 must be contained in orders for by-product and other special purposes coal regardless of method of transportation, notwithstanding that § 602.172 (b) excepts orders for such coals from the restrictions imposed by the regulation upon the basis of days' supply.

month thereafter, set aside a quantity of butter equal to such percentage as the Director may order of all butter produced by such person during each such subsequent calendar month, regardless of the quantity of butter produced by such person in each such subsequent calendar month.

(3) In the event of a change in ownership with respect to a creamery, the production record of the former owner with respect to such creamery shall be the basis for reporting and setting aside butter by the new owner; and the purchaser of the creamery shall so report and set aside butter if (i) the person from whom he purchased the creamery was obligated to report and set aside butter or (ii) such purchaser is required by other provisions hereof to report and set aside butter.

(4) Notwithstanding the restrictions in paragraphs (b) (1), (2), and (3) hereof, any person required by the provisions of such paragraphs to set aside butter may, at his option, sell and deliver all or part of the butter set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof to any authorized receiver who agrees to set aside, upon receipt of such set-aside butter, out of butter owned by him, a quantity of butter equal to the quantity of such set-aside butter so sold and delivered to him, and such authorized receiver shall so set aside such quantity of such butter. An authorized receiver may sell and deliver set-aside butter to another authorized receiver who agrees to set aside, upon receipt of such set-aside butter, out of butter owned by him and in addition to all other butter required to be set aside by him, a quantity of butter equal to the quantity of set-aside butter so sold and delivered to him. Each person who sells and delivers set-aside butter to an authorized receiver shall deliver, with each such delivery, a certificate, in duplicate, in substantially the following language (with the appropriate information inserted in the blank spaces):

This is to certify that of the ____ pounds of butter sold and delivered by me on ____, ____ pounds are butter set aside pursuant to the provisions of Food Distribution Order No. 2, issued by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States on January 5, 1943, as amended, and you are required, pursuant to the provisions of said order, as amended, to set aside, upon receipt of such set-aside butter, out of butter owned by you, a quantity of butter equal to the aforesaid quantity of set-aside butter. The balance of ____ pounds is butter free from the restrictions of said order, as amended. I ____

This will acknowledge receipt of the above indicated quantity of set-aside butter.

(Signature of authorized receiver)

The aforesaid certificate, in duplicate, shall be signed (i) by the person selling and delivering set-aside butter, and (ii) by the authorized receiver accepting such set-aside butter; and such authorized receiver shall retain, for two years, one copy of such certificate and return the other to the person who sold and delivered such set-aside butter.

(5) All butter set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be salted and shall be U. S. 90 score, or better, and shall be packed as bulk in domestic packages, unless

(i) Otherwise specified by the Director; or

(ii) The producer arranges with an authorized receiver to sell and deliver to such authorized receiver unsalted butter, butter below U. S. 90 score, or butter packaged other than as specified herein and such authorized receiver agrees to set aside, upon receipt of such set-aside butter, an equal quantity of butter which is salted, is U. S. 90 score, or better, and is packaged as specified herein; or

(iii) The producer or authorized receiver has previously arranged with a designated agency to sell and deliver to such agency unsalted butter, butter below U. S. 90 score, or butter packaged other than as specified herein; or

(iv) the producer manifests by butter grading certificates issued by the Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, or by other written evidence satisfactory to the Director, that the quantity of U. S. 90 score, and better, produced by such producer in the calendar month in which such butter is required to be set aside, is less than the quantity required to be set aside by such producer in such month, in which event the producer shall set aside all of the U. S. 90 score, and better, produced by him in such month and an additional quantity of U. S. 89 score produced by him in such month to the extent necessary to fulfill such producer's total set-aside requirements under the provisions hereof: Provided, That if a producer does not produce, during such month, an additional quantity, as aforesaid, of U. S. 89 score sufficient to fulfill such producer's total set-aside requirements, as aforesaid, he shall set aside all of the U. S. 89 score, and better, so produced by him, and thereupon he shall be deemed to have fulfilled the set-aside requirements, as aforesaid. Any authorized receiver who purchases and accepts delivery of any butter set aside in accordance with (iv) of this paragraph shall set aside, upon receipt of such butter, an equal quantity of butter which shall contain, at least, the same number of pounds of U. S. 90 score, or better, as that of U. S. 90 score, and better, contained in the quantity of butter so accepted by him, and the remainder, if any, thus set aside shall be U. S. 89 score. The Director may require any person who is required to set aside butter pursuant to the provisions hereof to submit butter grading certificates issued by the Office of Distribution or other evidences satisfactory to the Director relative to the grade of all butter produced or owned by such person.

(6) All butter set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof shall be stored under the same conditions of storage customarily observed to maintain the quality of butter.

(7) No person may serve as an authorized receiver unless he has received from the Director a letter of authority to serve as an authorized receiver. Any such letter of authority issued to become effective prior to April 1, 1944, shall not entitle the person to whom it was issued to serve as an authorized receiver on or after April 1, 1944: Provided, That any set-aside obligations incumbent on any such authorized receiver, with respect to butter acquired or butter produced by him on or prior to March 31, 1944, shall continue subsequent to March 31, 1944. Any person who desires to serve as an authorized receiver on or after April 1, 1944, shall file with the Director an application upon a form approved by the Director setting forth information requested in said form of application. Thereupon, the Director shall consider such application and issue a letter of authority if, in the opinion of the Director, the issuance of such letter of authority is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense. Any letter of authority, issued as aforesaid, may be revoked at any time by the Director and all letters of authority issued to become effective on or after April 1, 1944, shall expire on March 31, 1945, or on such other date as the Director may specify by order. No person shall represent himself to be an authorized receiver unless he holds a letter of authority issued by the Director pursuant hereto. No person other than an authorized receiver shall purchase and receive or, after purchase and receipt thereof, deal in butter set aside pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(c) Inventory restrictions. (1) No authorized receiver shall, during any calendar month, unless authorized in writing by the Director, buy, or contract to buy, and accept delivery of any quantity of set-aside butter which will cause the total quantity of set-aside butter owned by such authorized receiver on the last day of such calendar month to exceed an amount equal to the total quantity of butter required to be set aside by such authorized receiver during such calendar month and the immediately preceding calendar month.

(2) Each producer and each authorized receiver, respectively, shall retain in his possession at all times a quantity of set-aside butter which is equal to the total quantity of butter required to be set aside by each such person minus the quantity of set-aside butter (i) sold and delivered by each such person to authorized receivers or designated agencies, and (ii) released from the set-aside provisions hereof.

(d) Releases by Director. The Director may release any butter from the restrictions of this order if he determines that no designated agency has contracted for, or declared its intention or desire to contract for, such butter within such period as may be specified by the Director, or that such butter is not required for such agencies. The Director may issue such administrative rulings, regulations, interpretations, and exemptions, as he deems necessary to facilitate, expedite, and accomplish the purposes of this order.

(e) Existing contracts. The provisions of this order and of any regulation or order issued in pursuance hereof shall be observed without regard to contracts heretofore or hereafter entered into or any rights accrued or payments made thereunder. This order shall not, however, be construed as reducing the amount of butter which any person is required to offer or deliver, under existing contracts or contracts subsequently entered into with any designated agency, to any such agency.

(f) Records and reports. (1) The Director shall be entitled to obtain such information from and require such reports and the keeping of such records by any person, as may be necessary or appropriate, in the discretion of the Director, for the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(2) Every person subject to this order shall maintain, for at least two years, or for such period of time as the Director may designate, an accurate record of his transactions in butter.

(3) The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subsequent record-keeping or reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(g) Audits and inspections. The Director shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records, and other writings, premises or stocks of butter of any person and to make such investigations as may be necessary or appropriate, in the discretion of the Director, for the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(h) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional or unreasonable hardship on him may file a petition for relief with the administrator of this order. Such petition shall be addressed to Order Administrator, Food Distribution Order No. 2, Dairy and Poultry Branch, Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C. Petition for such relief shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Order Administrator may take any action with reference to such petition which is consistent with the authority delegated to him by the Director. If the petitioner is dissatisfied with the action taken by the Order Administrator on the petition, he shall, by requesting the Order Administrator therefor, obtain a review of such action by the Director. The Director may, after said review, take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final. The provisions of this paragraph (h) shall not be construed to deprive the Director of authority to consider originally any petition for relief from hardship submitted in accordance herewith. The Director may consider any such petition and take such action with reference thereto that he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(i) Violations. The War Food Administrator may, by suspension order, prohibit any person who violates any provision of this order from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using, butter, or any other material subject to priority or allocation control by the War Food Administrator, and may recommend that any such person be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using materials subject to the priority or allocation control of other governmental agencies. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(j) Delegation of authority. The administration of this order and the powers vested in the War Food Administrator, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director. The Director is authorized to redelegate to any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture any or all of the authority vested in him by this order.

(k) Communications. All reports to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, except as provided herein or unless instructions to the contrary are issued by the Director, be addressed to the Order Administrator, Food Distribution Order No. 2, Dairy and Poultry Branch, Office of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

(l) Territorial scope. This order shall apply only in the area included in the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(m) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., April 1, 1944. With respect to violations, rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said Food Distribution Order No. 2, as amended, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, all provisions of Food Distribution Order No. 2, as amended, in effect prior to the issuance of this order shall be deemed to continue in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, liability, or appeal.

Pursuant to Food Distribution Order No. 79 (8 F.R. 12426), dated September 7, 1943, as amended, and to effectuate the purposes thereof, Food Distribution Order No. 79-7 (8 F.R. 13371), relative to the conservation and distribution of fluid milk, milk byproducts, and cream in the Chicago, Illinois, metropolitan milk sales area, issued by the Director of Food Distribution on September 30, 1943, as amended, is further amended so as to read as follows:

§ 1401.40 Quota restrictions—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent hereof:

(1) Each term defined in Food Distribution Order No. 79, as amended, shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is set forth for such term in Food Distribution Order No. 79, as amended.

(2) The term "FDO 79" means Food Distribution Order No. 79, issued on September 7, 1943, as amended.

(3) The term "sub-handler" means any handler, such as a peddler, vendor, sub-dealer, or secondary dealer, who purchases in a previously packaged and processed form milk, milk byproducts other than cottage, pot, or baker's cheese, or cream for delivery, and does not operate facilities for the processing and bottling of fluid milk.

(b) Milk sales area. The following area is hereby designated as a "milk sales area" to be known as the Chicago, Illinois, metropolitan milk area, and is referred to hereinafter as the "sales area":

The city of Chicago and the entire area included in:

The townships of Waukegan, Shields, Deerfield, and West Deerfield in Lake County, Illinois; the counties of Cook and DuPage in Illinois; the townships of Aurora, Batavia, Dundee, Elgin, Geneva, and St. Charles in Kane County, Illinois; the townships of Calumet, Hobart, and North in Lake County, Indiana.

(c) Base period. The calendar month of June 1943 is hereby designated as the base period for the sales area.

(d) Quota period. Each calendar month subsequent to the effective date of this order is hereby designated as a quota period for the sales area.

(e) Handler quotas. Quotas for each handler in the sales area in each quota period shall be determined as follows:

(1) Divide the total deliveries of each of milk, milk byproducts, cream and butterfat in cream made in the sales area by such handler during the base period, after excluding the base period deliveries of the character described in (h) hereof, and after adjusting such deliveries for transfers made pursuant to (j) and for relief as granted pursuant to (k), by the number of days in the base period;

(2) Multiply the result of the foregoing calculation by the number of days in the quota period; and

(f) Quotas for handlers who are also producers. Quotas for handlers who are also producers and who purchase no milk shall be 100 percent of the total production of such handlers in the base period.

(g) Handler exemptions. Quotas shall not apply to any handler who delivers in a quota period a daily average of less than 400 units of milk, cream, and milk byproducts: Provided, That not more than 200 units of such total consist of cream or of any one milk byproduct. For the purpose of this order, a unit shall be the equivalent in volume of the following:

(1) One quart of milk;

(2) One-half pint of cream; and

(3) One quart of fluid byproduct, or one-half pound of cottage, pot, or baker's cheese.

(1) To other handlers, except for such deliveries to sub-handlers.

(2) To plants engaged in the handling or processing of milk, milk byproducts, or cream from which no milk, milk byproducts, or cream is delivered in the sales area.

(3) To the agencies or groups specified in (d) of FDO 79.

(4) To industrial users in their capacity as such users and as determined by the market agent to be manufacturing products which require as an ingredient, milk, cream or milk byproducts, which are disposed of primarily for resale to consumers off the premises where made, and

(5) To schools determined by the market agent to be at high-school level or below.

(i) Quota adjustments. Within each quota period, a handler may at his discretion:

(1) Increase the pounds of cream in his cream quota to the extent that the substitution of the figure 100 for the figure 75 set out in (e) (3) (ii) will permit as follows:

(i) By reducing the average butterfat test of his cream deliveries below the average butterfat test of his cream quota, with the result that for each such reduction of 1 percent, the pounds of cream he may deliver may be increased by 4.5 percent of the pounds of cream in his cream quota computed pursuant to (e);

(ii) By transferring byproducts quota to cream quota, with the result that for each reduction of one pound in byproducts quota, the pounds of cream he may deliver may be increased at the following rates:

1 lb. of byproducts quota=.36 lbs. of 19% cream quota.
1 lb. of byproducts quota=.37 lbs. of 18% cream quota.
1 lb. of byproducts quota=.38 lbs. of 17% cream quota.
1 lb. of byproducts quota=.40 lbs. of 16% cream quota.

1 lb. of byproducts quota=.47 lbs. of 12% cream quota.

or, (iii) by reducing the butterfat content of cream deliveries and transferring byproducts quota to cream quota through the use of a combination of (i) and (ii).

(2) Increase the pounds of milk byproducts in milk byproducts quota by transferring cream quota at the following rates:

1 lb. of 12% cream quota=2.14 lbs. of byproducts quota.

(3) Increase the pounds of milk in milk quota by:

(i) Transferring milk byproducts quota to milk quota at the rate of one pound of milk byproducts quota for each 0.75 pound of milk quota;

(k) Petition for relief from hardships. (1) Any person affected by FDO 79 or the provisions hereof who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may file with the market agent a petition addressed to the Director. (m) Records. Handlers shall keep and shall make available to the market agent such records of receipts, sales, deliveries, and production as the market agent shall require for the purpose of obtaining information which the Director may require for the establishment of quotas as prescribed in (b) of FDO 79.

(n) Expense of administration. Each handler shall pay to the market agent within 10 days after the close of each calendar month, an assessment of $0.005 per hundredweight of each of milk, cream, fluid milk byproducts, and skim milk equivalent of cottage, pot, or baker's cheese delivered during the preceding quota period and subject to quota regulations under the provisions hereof.

(o) Violations. The market agent shall report all violations to the Director together with the information required for the prosecution of such violations, except in a case where a handler has made deliveries in a quota period (other than a quota period during which offsetting deliveries below quota are to be made under this provision) in excess of a quota in an amount not to exceed 5 percent of such quota, and in the succeeding quota period makes deliveries below that quota by at least the same percent.

PART 1491—BEANS

RESTRICTIONS ON DELIVERIES OF BEANS

Food Distribution Order 45, as amended (8 F.R. 14880), is further amended as follows:

1. By amending (a) (3) thereof to read as follows:

(3) "Country shipper" means any person whose total deliveries of beans, exclusive of his deliveries thereof to another country shipper, during any calendar month subsequent to July 1, 1943, has exceeded or exceeds 20,000 pounds, and who (i) owns beans, in whole or in part, which he has caused to be screened, sorted, hand-picked, polished, or otherwise cleaned for delivery in the dry, uncooked state, whether for his own account or the joint account of himself and another; or (ii) purchases, for his own account or for the joint account of himself and another, beans from a grower who caused such beans to be screened, sorted, hand-picked, polished, or otherwise cleaned for delivery in the dry, uncooked state. Any person who once qualifies as a country shipper within this definition shall thereafter be deemed to be a country shipper and subject to the terms and conditions of this order, regardless of the volume of his deliveries in succeeding months, unless he obtains a release from the Director.

2. By amending (a) (7) thereof to read as follows:

(7) "Governmental agency" means (i) the Armed Services of the United States (however, for the purposes of this order, United States Army post exchanges, United States Navy ships' service departments, United States Marine Corps post exchanges, and similar organizations shall not be deemed a part of the Armed Services of the United States); (ii) The Office of Distribution, War Food Administration (including, but not restricted to, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation); and (iii) any other instrumentality or agency designated by the War Food Administration.

3. By adding at the end of (a) thereof the following new provision:

(9) "Deliveries into civilian channels" means the delivery of beans to persons other than governmental agencies, country shippers, and authorized purchasers in accordance with the provisions of (b) (4), or to any person for use as feed or seed, in accordance with the provisions of (b) (7).

4. By amending (b) (1) thereof to read as follows:

(1) Every country shipper shall during each calendar month set aside and thereafter hold for delivery to governmental agencies or authorized purchasers a quantity of Pea beans, Great Northern beans, Flat Small White beans, Cranberry beans, Small Red beans or Pinto beans equal to at least 25 percent of his total deliveries of such classes of beans into civilian channels during such calendar month, and a quantity of Small White beans, Light Red Kidney beans, Dark Red Kidney beans, Western Red Kidney beans, Pink beans or Baby Lima beans equal to at least 100 percent of his total deliveries of such classes of beans into civilian channels during such calendar month.

5. By amending (b) (7) thereof to read as follows:

(7) Nothing herein shall be applicable to beans sold and delivered exclusively for use as seed, in compliance with State and Federal seed laws, or for use as feed for poultry or livestock, provided that the person purchasing or accepting delivery of beans for such purposes shall execute and deliver to the country shipper a certificate in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit B. Such certificate shall be retained by the country shipper for inspection by and, upon request, delivery to the Director. The representations made in such certificates shall constitute representations to the War Food Administrator. A certificate shall be given for each specific delivery of beans exempted from the provisions of the order under the terms of this paragraph. One copy should be delivered to the country shipper and one retained by the purchaser. No country shipper shall, however, be entitled to rely on any certificate if he knows or has reasonable cause to believe it to be false.

6. By amending (h) thereof to read as follows:

(h) Releases. (1) The Director may, notwithstanding any of the provisions hereof, release any or all of the beans set aside pursuant to the provisions of this order.

(2) Upon application, the Director may release any person from the classification of a "country shipper" if the person seeking removal from such classification shows to the satisfaction of the Director (i) that his total deliveries of beans during each of the two calendar months next preceding the date of his application, exclusive of his deliveries to any country shipper, have not exceeded 20,000 pounds; (ii) that he is currently in compliance with the provisions of the order; (iii) that he has delivered or contracted to deliver to governmental agencies or authorized purchasers all of the beans required to be set aside except a quantity of less than a carlot; and (iv) that he does not intend to operate as a country shipper.

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., April 1, 1944.

With respect to violations, rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under Food Distribution Order 45, as amended, prior to the effective date of this amendment, all the provisions of said Food Distribution Order 45, as amended, in effect prior to this amendment shall be deemed to remain in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION BY VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION

The following amendment to regulations, Part 524 (Employment of Handicapped Persons Pursuant to section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938) is hereby issued. This amendment shall become effective upon my signing the original and upon publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 524.14 Vocational rehabilitation by Veterans' Administration. The following provisions, notwithstanding any other section of these regulations, shall govern the issuance of temporary and special certificates to veterans handicapped by a service-incurred disability (as determined by the Veterans' Administration) employed under any vocational rehabilitation program administered by the Veterans' Administration:

(a) Temporary certificates authorizing the employment of veterans handicapped by a service-incurred disability (as determined by the Veterans' Administration) under any vocational rehabilitation program administered by the Veterans' Administration at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act may be issued by such representatives of the Veterans' Administration as shall have been duly designated by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, as his authorized representatives for that purpose, whenever employment at such lower rate is necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. Requests for temporary certificates will not be favorably considered unless:

(1) Other opportunities for the desired training neither exist nor are available in the veterans' community and

(2) The trainees' disabilities preclude initial entrance into training at the minimum wage otherwise applicable.

(b) No wage rate shall be fixed in any temporary certificate authorizing the employment-training of a disabled veteran at less than 75 percent of the minimum wage applicable under section 6 save in exceptional and unusual cases. A certificate, however, will not necessarily be issued at a rate as low as 75 percent of the minimum. In each case the rate will be set at a figure designed adequately to reflect the individual trainee's earning capacity.

In establishments where nonhandicapped workers in the same occupation are employed on a piece-rate basis, the trainee shall be paid on the same piece-rate basis and in no case less than the hourly wage rate set forth in the certificate. If the wage rate established by a temporary certificate differs from that established by an applicable Federal or State law, or municipal ordinance, or order, or certificate, or license issued thereunder, the higher wage rate shall prevail.

(c) A temporary certificate shall be valid under the terms and conditions prescribed therein for a period of not longer than three months.

(d) Within 10 days after issuance of a temporary certificate, a copy thereof shall be forwarded by the authorized representative of the Veterans' Administration to the appropriate regional director of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, together with his recommendation covering the agreed subminimum rate or rates for the balance of the veteran's training period. The regional director may then issue a special certificate, prior to the expiration of the temporary certificate, authorizing the employment-training of the named trainee by the named employer at the subminimum wage rate or rates and for the length of time specified in the training agreement entered into by the Veterans' Administration and the employer. A special certificate, effective upon the expiration of the temporary certificate, shall be valid for such length of time as the regional director determines to be necessary to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, but in no case for a period in excess of nine months from the date of expiration of the temporary certificate.

(e) Where unusual conditions necessitate a period of employment-training at a subminimum wage rate in excess of one year, a renewal certificate may be issued by the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, upon the application and recommendation of the authorized representative of the Veterans' Administration.

(f) No employer shall employ any trainee under a temporary or special certificate at a wage rate lower than the rate applicable in such certificate. Each certificate issued under this section shall specify the wage rate or rates at which a trainee may be employed and the length of time for which such rate or rates shall be applicable.

(g) A temporary or special certificate may be revoked, in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 524.9 of these regulations, by the authorized regional representative of the Administrator for cause at any time.

(h) Each employer to whom a certificate may be issued under this section shall preserve such certificate in accordance with the requirements of § 534.5 of these regulations.

(i) The provisions of §§ 524.12 and 524.13 of these regulations are hereby incorporated in and made a part of this section.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of March 1944.

L. METCALFE WALLING,

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-478, Reinstatement]

JAMES A. GAVIN & SONS, INC.

James A. Gavin & Sons, Inc., a New Jersey corporation located at 310 Main Street, Paterson, New Jersey, was suspended on January 15, 1944, by Suspension Order No. S-478. It appealed from the provisions of the suspension order and, pending determination of that appeal, the suspension order was stayed by letter directed to the corporation on February 2, 1944. The appeal has been considered by the Deputy Chief Compliance Commissioner who has found that there were violations of Limitation Order L-219 of the War Production Board and that they were wilful, and he has recommended that the appeal be dismissed, the stay terminated, and the suspension order reinstated. The suspension order, which limited total receipts of consumers' goods during the first quarter, was in effect for eighteen days. Although there is no evidence that the corporation actually curtailed its total first quarter receipts as a result of the suspension order, in order to reinstate the suspension order and have it equitably apply for a full quarter, the Deputy Chief Compliance Commissioner has directed that the allowable percentage of receipts of consumers' goods be increased to eighty per cent., in accordance with the order, and that the order be reinstated for the whole of the second quarter for 1944. In view of the foregoing,

It is hereby ordered, That: § 1010.478, Suspension Order No. S-478 issued January 8, 1944, to take effect January 15, 1944, be and hereby is reinstated; the stay of execution issued by letter to the corporation on February 2, 1944, and confirmed by official stay issued February 9, 1944, be and hereby is revoked; and paragraphs (a) and (c) be and hereby are amended to read as follows:

(a) James A. Gavin & Sons, Inc., its successors or assigns, during the second quarterly period of 1944 (April 1 to July 1) shall compute its allowable receipts of consumers' goods in accordance with paragraph (d) (1) of Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219 as a controlled merchant whose mercantile inventory is greater than its inventory limit at the beginning of any quarterly period under and shall conform to paragraph (d) (1), (d) (2) and (e) of Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219; it shall not during the second quarter of 1944 receive consumers' goods in excess of 80% of the amount thus computed under paragraph (d) (1) of Consumers' Goods Inventory Limitation Order L-219, unless hereafter specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 1, 1944, and shall expire on July 1, 1944.

Issued this 1st day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 933—COPPER

[Conservation Order M-9-c, as Amended Apr. 4, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of copper for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 933.4 Conservation Order M-9-c—(a) Restrictions on manufacture of articles appearing on combined list. No manufacturer of any article on the combined list attached, or of parts (including repair parts [1]) for any such article, may, if such article or parts contain copper products, or copper base alloy products, continue their manufacture by means of processing, assembling or finishing.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture of articles not appearing on combined list out of inventory on hand on June 30, 1942. (1) A manufacturer of any article omitted from the combined list or excepted from that list, or of parts (including repair parts [1]) for such an article, may not continue the manufacture thereof by means of processing, assembling or finishing:

(i) Unless all copper products or copper base alloy products contained in such articles or parts were acquired by the manufacturer after June 30, 1942; or

(ii) Unless such articles or parts are being manufactured to fill a purchase order, existing or prospective,[2] bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher or, in the case of a controlled materials producer under the Controlled Materials Plan, to fill an authorized controlled material order; and no such article or part so manufactured shall be delivered except to fill such an order; or

(iii) Unless the manufacturer has been specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board, pursuant to an application on Form WPB-940 (formerly Form PD-426), or otherwise, to manufacture the article or parts in question with the copper products or copper base alloy products being used.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (b) (1) shall not apply to a manufacturer assembling a completed fractional horsepower electric motor into machinery of any kind omitted from the combined list or excepted from that list. The provisions of paragraph (b) (1) shall also not apply to the manufacturing of any machinery omitted from the Combined List or excepted from that list, or of parts (including repair parts) for such machinery, if the only copper products or copper base alloy products used which were in the inventory of the manufacturer on June 30, 1942 are bushings, bearings, nuts, bolts, screws, washers, and wire weighing in the aggregate less than 5% of the total weight of the article or part.

(c) General restrictions on manufacture and plating. (1) No manufacturer may continue the manufacture of any article or parts (including repair parts) if such article or parts are to contain copper products or copper base alloy products where the use of any less scarce material [3] is practicable. Furthermore, no manufacturer may continue the manufacture of any article or parts (including repair parts) if they are to contain more copper products or copper base alloy products than is necessary for the article's proper operation or a higher type or grade of copper or copper base alloy than is necessary for the article's proper operation.

(2) (i) The use of copper products or copper base alloy products for plating any article on the combined list or for plating any parts (including repair parts) of such an article, is prohibited unless such plating is expressly stated in the list to be permissible.

(ii) The use of copper products or copper base alloy products for plating any article omitted from the combined list or excepted from that list, and the plating of parts (including repair parts) for such an article, is permitted provided that:

(a) Such plating is not for decorative purposes, or part of a decoration, or an undercoating for lead or silver plating (however, a copper strike may be used as an undercoating for silver when silver is used as a substitute for cadmium in electroplating); and

(b) The use of, or the normal wear on, such article or parts would make impracticable any other form of coating.

(d) Restrictions on deliveries to manufacturers. No person shall hereafter deliver copper products or copper base alloy products to any manufacturer, directly or indirectly, if he knows or has reason to believe that such products are to be used in violation of the terms of this order.

(e) General restrictions on deliveries. The disposition of frozen and excessive inventories containing certain copper products or copper base alloy products shall be subject to the applicable provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13 (§ 944.34), as amended from time to time.

(f) Exceptions—(1) Applicability of order to certain Governmental agencies. The provisions of this order shall not apply to the use of copper products or copper base alloy products in the manufacture of any article on the "Military Exemption List", or part therefor, which is being produced for purchase by, or for the account of, or for use by, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, or the Coast Guard, where the use of copper products or copper base alloy products to the extent employed is required by the specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, or the Coast Guard applicable to the contract, subcontract or purchase order.

(2) Installation. The provisions of this order shall not apply to the installation of any article or part (including a repair part) for the ultimate consumer on his premises when any manufacturing of such article or part is incidental to the installation and is done on the consumer's premises. This exception does not, however, in any way affect or modify the provisions of Supplementary Conservation Order M-9-c-4 (restricting the installation of certain types of copper and copper base alloy pipe, tube, fittings, plumbing fixture fittings and trim, and building materials) or of any other order restricting installation.

(3) Repair. The restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (c)) shall not apply to the manufacture of repair parts to make a specific repair of a used article, or to a person repairing a used article, on or off the premises of the owner, if the manufacturer of the parts or the person making the repair does not use copper products or copper base alloy products weighing in the aggregate more than two pounds and when all manufacturing done by him is with knowledge of the particular used article to be repaired. The restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (c)) shall also not apply to the manufacture of repair parts to make a specific repair of a used article, or to a person repairing a used article, on or off the premises of the owner, even if the manufacturer of the parts or the person making the repair uses copper products or copper base alloy products weighing in the aggregate more than two pounds, when (i) the copper scrap or copper base alloy scrap derived from the article being repaired weighs within one pound of the copper product or copper base alloy product used, (ii) all such scrap is delivered to a scrap dealer or to any other person to whom such delivery may be made under the provisions of Supplementary Order M-9-b and (iii) all manufacturing done is with knowledge of the particular used article to be repaired.

(g) Special products; restrictions and exceptions—(1) Printing and publishing industries. After October 3, 1943, the provisions of this order shall not apply to the use of copper products and copper base alloy products in typography, engraving, photo-engraving, gravure plate making, electrotyping, stereotyping, and printing in the printing and publishing industries. In those processes, the use of bronze powder, bronze ink, bronze paste, and bronze leaf is controlled by Supplementary Conservation Order M-9-c-3. All other uses in those industries of copper products, copper base alloy products, copper scrap, and copper base alloy scrap are governed by Conservation Order M-339. Nothing contained in this paragraph (g) (1) shall affect the prohibition against the manufacture of powder containing copper products or copper base alloy products under paragraph (a) and the Combined List of this order.

(2) Insect screening. This order does not restrict the delivery, installation, or cutting of (i) used or second hand insect screening, (ii) insect screening in any roll which was initially cut before April 10, 1942, or (iii) insect screening in rolls which have been rejected by Copper Recovery Corporation or Metals Reserve Company, or their agent, before February 12, 1944 for any reason, or on or after that date for the reason stated in writing that the screening does not meet the specifications of the government buying program. However, no person shall deliver, install, or cut any other copper or copper base alloy insect screening (i) unless such screening is to be delivered to, installed for or cut on the order of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast Guard, any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), or Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Corporation or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (except Defense Plant Corporation) or any person acting as agent of any such corporation (except Defense Plant Corporation); or (ii) unless such delivery, installation, or cutting shall be with the specific authorization of the War Production Board. Applications for specific authorizations shall be made by letter addressed to the War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington 25, D. C. Reference: M-9-c. Nothing contained in this paragraph (g) (2) affects the prohibitions on the manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of insect screening with copper products or copper base alloy products under paragraph (a) and the Combined List. (See the item "insect screening" under the heading "Miscellaneous" on the combined list).

(3) Copper products not controlled by order. The provisions of this order shall not apply to the manufacture of the following articles and parts (including repair parts) even though they contain copper products, or copper base alloy products, since these articles are specifically governed by the following orders:

(4) Attachment and assembly work. (i) The provisions of this order do not apply to attaching finished slide fasteners, hook and eyes, brassiere hooks, sewon, machine attached or riveted snap fasteners, buckles, buttons, corset clasps, eyelets (other than eyelets usable as shoe eyelets), garter trimmings, hose supporters, insignia, jewelry, loops, mattress cottons, pin fasteners, pins, staples, slides, and trouser trimmings. The order does apply to the manufacture, processing, assembling and finishing of the closures and associated items listed above where the provisions of this order are more restrictive than other orders of the War Production Board.

(ii) The provisions of this order do not apply to the assembling of watch or clock movements finished prior to June 15, 1942, into cases not made of copper or copper base alloy. The provisions of this order do, however, apply to the manufacture, processing and finishing of watch and clock cases and of all other parts of watches and clocks and to assembling watches and clocks except as specifically exempted in this paragraph.

(h) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Copper" means unalloyed copper metal. It shall include unalloyed copper metal produced from scrap.

(2) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy metal in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40% of the total weight of the alloy. It shall include alloy metal produced from scrap.

(3) "Copper products" means products made of copper fabricated to the extent that they are plate, sheet, strip, rolls, coils, wire, rod, bar, tube, tubing, pipe, extrusions, ingot, powder, anodes, castings, or forgings, or fabricated to any greater extent.

(4) "Copper base alloy products" means products made of copper base alloy, fabricated to the extent that they are plate, sheet, strip, rolls, coils, wire, rod, bar, tube, tubing, pipe, extrusions, ingot, powder, anodes, castings, or forgings, or fabricated to any greater extent.

(5) "Manufacturer" means a person who manufactures, processes, assembles,

[1] See also paragraph (f) (3) permitting the manufacture of repair parts to make specific repairs of used articles under certain conditions.

[2] Priorities Regulation No. 1, § 944.14, prohibits the manufacture of more than a practicable minimum working inventory of articles or parts to fill prospective orders.

[3] The Conservation Division of the War Production Board issues, periodically, a publication showing the relative scarcity of materials entitled "Materials Substitutions and Supply."

or finishes. "Manufacture" includes processing, assembling, and finishing.

(i) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (c) of this order shall be made by filing Form WPB–1477 (formerly PD–800 revised) with the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–9–c. Relief granted pursuant to an appeal under this order shall remain in effect despite any amendment to this order, unless the grant of relief is specifically revoked or modified by the War Production Board.

(3) Communications. Any reports required to be filed under this order and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–9–c.

(4) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply irrespective of whether the articles or parts whose manufacture is governed hereby are being manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date of this order. Insofar as any other order of the War Production Board may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the manufacture of any articles or parts, the limitation of such other order shall be observed.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

USE OF COPPER IN THE MANUFACTURE OF CERTAIN DRAINS AND STRAINERS

Copper Conservation Order M-9-c, as amended December 10, 1941, specifically prohibited any person from using after March 31, 1942, any copper or copper base alloy in the manufacture of gutters, leaders or downspouts, or accessories thereto, and of all roofing items, to go on private buildings. These provisions have remained in the order without interruption.

In addition, since May 7, 1942, paragraph (d) (1) of Order M-9-c (relettered as paragraph (c) (1) when the order was amended on October 4, 1943), has provided that no manufacturer may continue to manufacture from copper or copper base alloy, any article the manufacture of which, with copper or copper base alloy, is not specifically prohibited by the order, if it is practicable to use any material less scarce than copper, brass or bronze to make the article.

For some time, many manufacturers have been making floor, roof, cesspool and shower drains and strainers out of galvanized steel or iron; and it has been demonstrated that the use for such purposes of this type of material instead of copper or copper base alloy is practicable for all uses to which these articles are put except their use in places where explosives are handled or stored or where explosive vapors may be present. Furthermore, the types of iron and steel used as well as zinc, are less scarce materials than copper or copper base alloy.

Accordingly, manufacturers are prohibited by Copper Conservation Order M-9-c from using brass or other copper and copper base alloy materials to make all roof, floor, cesspool and shower drains or strainers, even if the drains or strainers are not accessories to gutters, leaders or downspouts, or roofing items. An exception to the foregoing arises in the case of drains or strainers for floors in places where explosives are handled or stored or where explosive vapors may be present. (Issued Oct. 19, 1943.)

PART 1029—FARM MACHINERY

APPLICABLE EXPORT SCHEDULES OF QUOTAS FOR FARM MACHINERY, EQUIPMENT AND REPAIRS FOR EXPORT FOR THE CURRENT QUOTA PERIOD JULY 1, 1944, TO JUNE 30, 1945

§ 1029.18 Export Schedule X-11 through X-18 to Limitation Order L-257-a. In accordance with the provisions of Orders L-257 and L-257-a, the following are the "applicable export schedules" for the current quota period starting July 1, 1944. These are similar to the applicable export schedules for the current quota period ending June 30, 1944, with some minor changes and consolidations, and with certain changes in quota percentages.

The production quotas set forth in these export schedules should be used by producers as the basis for planning their production, establishing production schedules and ordering material under CMP. The War Production Board may establish a final distribution pattern which is not in accord with these quotas. Any additional controls or exemptions which may be desirable with regard to production quotas, and any modifications with respect to final distribution of completed machines, will be issued before the effective date of these schedules, which is July 1, 1944. In figuring his anticipated production, each producer must comply with the provisions of the basic Limitation Orders L-257 and L-257-a.

Quotas for countries listed on Schedules X-11, X-13, X-14, X-15, and X-16, below are expressed as a percentage of one-half the total net shipping weight of the 1940 and 1941 shipments of farm machinery and equipment and repair parts to all the countries in the particular group.

Quotas for countries listed on Schedule X-17 below are expressed as a percentage of one-half the total net shipping weight of the 1940 and 1941 shipments to each such country.

NOTE: A quota percentage is not established for countries listed in Schedule X-12 below. Quotas for these countries will be allocated specifically from time to time under paragraph (c) (4) of Order L-257-a.

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Conservation Order L–41, Interpretation 5]

DISTINCTION BETWEEN RESIDENTIAL AND FARM CONSTRUCTION

Under the terms of paragraph (c) (1) of L–41 not more than $200 may be spent on a house, including the entire residential property, over a year's period. Under paragraph (c) (2) of that order not more than $1,000 may be spent on a farm, "including the farm house". A property is not necessarily a "farm" because farm products are produced on it but only if it is used primarily for the raising of crops, livestock, dairy products, poultry, etc., for the market.

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF SIDINGS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Conservation Order L–41.

Paragraph (d) (1) of L–41 excepts maintenance and repair work necessary to keep a building or structure in sound working condition. If an existing siding or roof needs repair, the minimum amount of repair work may be done to put the siding or roof in suitable condition. Thus if a siding can be put in proper condition by putting on paint it should be done in this way. If, on the other hand, the siding has so deteriorated that a paint job will not provide adequate protection a new siding may be put on the building. The new siding need not be of the same material as the old siding. This interpretation is not applicable where asbestos materials are used for re-siding or re-roofing as the use of these materials is governed by Order L–41–d.

Recording Secretary.

PART 1076—PLUMBING AND HEATING SIMPLIFICATION

PLUMBING FIXTURE FITTINGS AND TRIM

§ 1076.6 Schedule V to Limitation Order L–42—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this schedule:

(1) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy metal in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40% of the total weight of the alloy.

(b) Limitations. Pursuant to Limitation Order L–42 the following limitations are established for the manufacture of plumbing fixture fittings and trim:

(1) No copper or copper base alloy shall be used in the manufacture of any plumbing fixture fittings or trim, except the items specified on List A.

(2) No zinc shall be used in the manufacture of any plumbing fixture fittings or trim other than the items specified on List B, except for plating, coating or galvanizing.

(3) No cadmium, chromium, or nickel shall be used for plating or coating.

(4) No metal shall be used in the manufacture of any plumbing fixture fittings or trim on List C.

(c) General exceptions. The restrictions of this schedule do not apply to the production of articles or parts not available in the producers inventory for use in ships, boats, planes or advance bases (when required by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, or Coast Guard, or by rules and regulations promulgated by the Coast Guard for merchant vessels), or for use in chemical and research laboratories, abattoirs, food packing and processing plants, hospitals, clinics, dispensaries and railroad cars.

[General Limitation Order L–157, Schedule III, as Amended Apr. 4, 1944]

MANUALLY-OPERATED WOOD AND SPECIAL PURPOSE SAWS

Section 1293.4 Schedule III to Limitation Order L–157 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1293.4 Schedule III to Limitation Order L–157—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures, stamps or otherwise fabricates manually-operated wood and special purpose saws.

(2) "Manually-operated wood and special purpose saws" means the following saws:

(i) Handsaws, crosscut and rip.
(ii) Mitre, cabinet, and back saws.
(iii) Compass and keyhole saws and nests of saws.
(iv) Special purpose handsaws of the kinds listed in Table 4.
(v) Pruning saws.
(vi) Cordwood (buck) and pulpwood saws.
(vii) Crosscut saws, two-man.
(viii) Crosscut saws, one-man.

(3) "Quota" means (i) 20 percent of the dollar sales value of the saws on a specified table of Appendix A manufactured by a producer during 1941, plus (ii) the dollar sales value of such saws manufactured by a producer in accordance with special authorizations (appeals) granted to him by the War Production Board during 1943.

(4) "Lend-Lease government" means the government of any foreign country entitled to receive material or equipment under the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(5) "Non-conforming saws" means any manually-operated wood and special purpose saws other than the types, grades, sizes and number of models set forth in Appendix A of this schedule.

(b) Simplified practices. Pursuant to Limitation Order L–157, no producer shall manufacture any manually-operated wood and special purpose saws other than the types, grades, sizes and number of models set forth in Appendix A. An exception to this rule appears in paragraph (c).

(c) Production of non-conforming saws. As an exception to the rule set forth in paragraph (b), non-conforming saws may be manufactured to fill orders (1) for a Lend-Lease government, (2) from any person holding an export license issued by the Foreign Economic Administration, or (3) from persons located in the Dominion of Canada. However, during the year 1944, and during every calendar year thereafter, no producer shall manufacture more non-conforming saws, by dollar value, than he manufactured to fill the above three kinds of orders during 1943 in compliance with this order. This limitation does not apply table-by-table to the saws covered by the tables in Appendix A but is merely an over-all limitation on the production of non-conforming saws.

(d) Limitations on volume of production of saws listed in Tables 2, 3, 4 and 5. During the year 1944, and during every calendar year thereafter, no producer shall manufacture more saws listed in Table 2, 3, 4 or 5 than his quota (as defined in paragraph (a) (3)) of saws in the respective table. Thus, he cannot manufacture more Table 2 saws than his quota of Table 2 saws. There are the following exceptions to this rule:

(1) Docking, dehorning and mine saws may be manufactured without charging their dollar sales value against the quota permitted for Table 4 saws;

(2) A producer need not charge against his quota the dollar sales value of saws produced to fill orders from or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration;

(3) A producer need not charge against his quota the dollar sales value of any non-conforming saws which he manufactures. (Restrictions on the production of non-conforming saws appear in paragraph (c) above.)

(e) Reports. Each producer of manually-operated wood and special purpose saws shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the Board shall from time to time require, subject to approval by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 4th day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX A

EXPLANATIONS AND LIMITATIONS

(1) "Model" as used in the following Tables 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, and 10 shall designate one combination of saw details. Such details as are not specified may be selected by the manufacturer, provided that the different combinations of details for a given kind and grade of saw do not exceed the number of models to which such saw is limited.

(2) "Gages" as referred to in the following Tables are Birmingham or Stubs' wire gages, and are subject to commercial tolerances.

(3) "Length & Width of Blades" as referred to in the following Tables 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7a, 8, 9, and 10 are subject to commercial tolerances, except where minima and maxima are specified.

(4) [Revoked Mar. 16, 1944]

GRADES OF HANDSAWS

A-Grade. Blades shall be of best quality selected saw steel, free from harmful dirt, segregation, and inclusions. The steel shall be either alloy steel or carbon steel, but both kinds may not be used. If carbon steel is selected, the steel shall be cross rolled and show a fine fracture grain; and the carbon content shall be not less than 0.80, or more than 0.95 per cent, phosphorus and sulphur not more than 0.035 per cent, and silicon not less than 0.15 per cent.

The blade shall be tempered to a Rockwell hardness of not less than 48 or more than 52 on the C scale.

The blade shall be true and full taper ground, i. e., uniform in thickness along the entire length of the cutting edge, tapered in thickness from the tooth edge to the back and along the back from the handle to the point. This taper is to be uniform and not less than 4 gages. The thickness of the cutting edge shall be not less than 0.032 in. or more than 0.042 in., and the thickness of the back at the handle not less than the cutting edge.

The teeth of cross cut saws shall be bevel filed, and the teeth of rip saws filed straight through. The teeth shall be set, but the set shall not extend more than one-half the depth of the tooth.

Handles shall be of suitable hardwood, properly seasoned, and free from cracks, checks, and other defects, and shall be given a protective coating to aid in preventing warping, swelling, or shrinkage. Handles shall be fastened to blades with not more than 5 steel screws.

The blade of each saw shall be permanently branded to permit its identification.

B-Grade. Blades shall be of standard quality steel free from harmful dirt and inclusions, and shall show a fine fracture grain. The carbon content shall be not less than 0.70, or more than 0.95 percent, phosphorus and sulphur not more than 0.040 percent, and silicon not less than 0.15 percent. The blade shall be tempered to a Rockwell hardness of not less than 46, or more than 48 on the C scale.

The blade shall be taper ground, uniform in thickness along the entire length of the cutting edge, tapered in thickness from the tooth edge to the back and along the back from the handle to the point. This taper is to be uniform and not less than 2 or more than 3 gages. The back at the handle shall not be thinner than the cutting edge.

The teeth of both cross cut and rip saws to be filed and set, but the set shall not extend more than one-half the depth of the tooth.

The handle shall be of seasoned hardwood, free from cracks, checks, or other defects, shall be given a protective coating to aid in preventing warping, swelling, and shrinkage, and shall be fastened to the blade with not more than 4 steel screws.

The blade of each saw shall be permanently branded to permit its identification.

C-Grade. No C-Grade handsaws shall be manufactured on and after the 28th day of December 1942 except to fill orders received by the manufacturers on or before the 21st day of December 1942, but no such C-Grade handsaws shall be manufactured on or after the 5th day of February 1943.

Private brands. The blades of all handsaws manufactured for distribution under private brands shall have the qualities specified above, and shall be permanently branded to permit their identification. The handles of such saws may vary in design from the manufacturers' standard: Provided, That no manufacturer shall make, for any saw distributed under private brands, more than 3 different designs of handles in addition to his standard handles.

[1] The figures in this column designate the maximum different combinations of characteristics in which a given class and length of saw may be made by a single manufacturer, subject to the qualifications given below. The characteristics referred to are (1) grade, (2) type of teeth, (3) amount of taper (including flat ground as zero taper), (4) gage of cutting edge, (5) width, and (6) breast.

In other words, any variation in any one of the above characteristics as between two saws of the same class and length would make them different saws. They might, of course, differ in all those characteristics.

Saws of classes 4, 5, and 7 are permitted to be made in two types of teeth, and saws of class 6, in three types of teeth. If a manufacturer elects to make them in only one type of teeth, he shall not make more than two different saws in each length in these classes. Thus, no saw shall be made in more than two different grades.

Saws of the same class and length and type of tooth, but of different grade or gage, may vary slightly in width, provided the total different saws of a given class and length does not exceed the figure given in column 6.

PART 3114—SIMPLIFICATION AND STANDARDIZATION OF PORTABLE TOOLS, CHUCKING EQUIPMENT, MECHANICS' HAND SERVICE TOOLS, FILES, HACK AND BAND SAWS, VISES, MACHINE TOOL ACCESSORIES

WRENCHES

§ 3114.3 Schedule II to Limitation Order L-216—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this schedule:

(1) "Wrench" means any wrench of any type specifically mentioned in Appendix A of this schedule, including any drive tools therefor. Wrenches of a type not specified in Appendix A of this schedule are not subject to its provisions.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of wrenches.

(3) "Distributor" means any person who purchases wrenches for purposes of resale, excluding persons who purchase wrenches for resale to their own employees and persons who purchase wrenches for resale as accessories for delivery with or use with items of their own manufacture.

(4) "Ultimate consumer" means any person who purchases wrenches other than a distributor.

(5) "Alloy steel" means only those alloy steels which are in the series listed in Exhibit B to General Preference Order E-6.

(6) "Nominal", when applied to any over-all length specification contained in this schedule, means that such over-all length specification is subject to a production tolerance or allowance of one-half inch over or one-half inch under the given specification; provided that a "nominal" specification does not permit the production of two different size wrenches under the one specification.

(b) Restrictions on production. (1) No producer shall commence processing any carbon or alloy steel for the production of any wrench unless such wrench when completed shall conform to all provisions of this schedule which are applicable thereto.

(2) Where any provision of this schedule prohibits the production of any wrench heretofore produced by a producer and such producer believes this imposes unreasonable hardship upon him, application for specific permission to continue the production of such wrench for the life of usable dies acquired by the producer prior to March 25, 1943 may be made to the War Production Board. Application for such permission may be made by filing a letter in triplicate setting forth a detailed description of the wrench for which permission to continue production is sought, the number of usable dies for such wrench on hand, the date of their acquisition, and the approximate number of wrenches or parts therefor which such dies are capable of producing.

[1] The figures in this column designate the maximum different combinations of characteristics in which a given class and length of saw may be made by a single manufacturer, subject to the qualifications given below. The characteristics referred to are (1) grade, (2) type of teeth, (3) amount of taper (including flat ground as zero taper), (4) gage of cutting edge, (5) width, and (6) breast.

In other words, any variation in any one of the above characteristics as between two saws of the same class and length would make them different saws. They might, of course, differ in all those characteristics.

Saws of classes 4, 5, and 7 are permitted to be made in two types of teeth, and saws of class 6, in three types of teeth. If a manufacturer elects to make them in only one type of teeth, he shall not make more than two different saws in each length in these classes. Thus, no saw shall be made in more than two different grades.

Saws of the same class and length and type of tooth, but of different grade or gage, may vary slightly in width, provided the total different saws of a given class and length does not exceed the figure given in column 5.

PART 3114—SIMPLIFICATION AND STANDARDIZATION OF PORTABLE TOOLS, CHUCKING EQUIPMENT, MECHANICS' HAND SERVICE TOOLS, FILES, HACK AND BAND SAWS, VISES, MACHINE TOOL ACCESSORIES

WRENCHES

§ 3114.3 Schedule II to Limitation Order L-216—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this schedule:

(1) "Wrench" means any wrench of any type specifically mentioned in Appendix A of this schedule, including any drive tools therefor. Wrenches of a type not specified in Appendix A of this schedule are not subject to its provisions.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of wrenches.

(3) "Distributor" means any person who purchases wrenches for purposes of resale, excluding persons who purchase wrenches for resale to their own employees and persons who purchase wrenches for resale as accessories for delivery with or use with items of their own manufacture.

(4) "Ultimate consumer" means any person who purchases wrenches other than a distributor.

(5) "Alloy steel" means only those alloy steels which are in the series listed in Exhibit B to General Preference Order E-6.

(6) "Nominal", when applied to any over-all length specification contained in this schedule, means that such over-all length specification is subject to a production tolerance or allowance of one-half inch over or one-half inch under the given specification; provided that a "nominal" specification does not permit the production of two different size wrenches under the one specification.

(b) Restrictions on production. (1) No producer shall commence processing any carbon or alloy steel for the production of any wrench unless such wrench when completed shall conform to all provisions of this schedule which are applicable thereto.

(2) Where any provision of this schedule prohibits the production of any wrench heretofore produced by a producer and such producer believes this imposes unreasonable hardship upon him, application for specific permission to continue the production of such wrench for the life of usable dies acquired by the producer prior to March 25, 1943 may be made to the War Production Board. Application for such permission may be made by filing a letter in triplicate setting forth a detailed description of the wrench for which permission to continue production is sought, the number of usable dies for such wrench on hand, the date of their acquisition, and the approximate number of wrenches or parts therefor which such dies are capable of producing.

(c) Limitation on the use of steel. Except where alloy steel only is specified, producers may make any of the permitted types of wrenches out of carbon or alloy steel. However, they must not make the same type in both carbon and alloy steel unless specifically permitted to do so by Appendix A of this schedule.

(d) Limitation on styles, grades and dimensions. Except where specifically permitted by Appendix A of this schedule, no producer shall:

(1) Make more than one style or pattern of any type of wrench.

(2) Make more than one grade of any type of wrench.

(3) Make any size wrench permitted by Appendix A of this schedule to more than one set of dimensions.

(e) Limitation on finishes. (1) Wrenches may have finishes applied to them only to the following extent: They may be coated with oil or grease compound or chemical black, or lacquered, parkerized, or lead or zinc coated.

(2) Polishing is prohibited except to the extent necessary to make the wrench usable for the purposes intended; in no event shall any wrench be polished on more than one wheel, or one belt, or one similar polishing device.

(f) Limitation on production and delivery of sets. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (f), no producer shall make for his own inventory and no distributor shall acquire for his inventory or shelf stock any sets of wrenches. Any number of wrenches in excess of one which have been grouped for purposes of sale as a unit shall be deemed a "set" for the purposes of this paragraph.

(2) Nothing contained in this paragraph shall prohibit:

(i) A producer from producing sets to fill a specific order placed directly or indirectly by an ultimate consumer, or

(ii) A distributor from making up a set or sets of wrenches to fill a specific order placed by an ultimate consumer, or

(iii) The production and placement of sets in either a producer's or a distributor's inventory or shelf stock of those ¼-inch drive detachable socket wrenches permitted to be produced and maintained in inventory by Appendix A and those open-end ignition (or electrical) wrenches permitted to be produced and maintained in inventory by Appendix A.

(g) Limitations on sizes and inventories. (1) No producer shall make any wrenches of any type specified in Appendix A of this schedule except in the sizes therein authorized and for the purposes therein set forth.

(2) If, with respect to any type of wrench, it is indicated that one or more sizes on Appendix A shall be selected, each producer shall select such sizes as he may desire to manufacture within the limitations prescribed, not to exceed the number so indicated and shall forthwith give notice of his selection in writing to the War Production Board, Tools Division, Reference: L-216, Schedule II. The producer may thereafter apply to the War Production Board for leave to amend his original selection, but unless and until such leave is granted by the War Production Board in writing, the original selection shall remain binding upon such producer.

(3) No producer or distributor shall maintain inventories of any wrenches of any type specified in Appendix A of this schedule except in the sizes in which inventories are specifically permitted by such Appendix A in the hands of either producers or distributors.

(h) Limitation on segregation by brand or trade name. Notwithstanding the provisions of any contract or purchase order, no producer shall hold or reserve wrenches for a particular customer if deliveries under orders from other customers entitled to preference will be delayed thereby, whether or not such wrenches are stamped or marked with a special brand or trade name.

(i) Exemptions. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this schedule, the following are exempt from the provisions herein contained.

(1) The production of any wrenches which has been commenced prior to May 31, 1943, provided such wrenches will be completed within ninety days after May 31, 1943.

(2) Wrenches for Whitworth and Metric bolts and nuts;

(3) Shanks, chucks, or sockets for power driven nut runners or impact power drivers.

(j) Applicability of other orders. All the provisions of General Preference Order E-6 which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this schedule shall apply to the production and delivery of wrenches.

Issued this 4th day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3285—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

DELIVERIES OF SOUTHERN YELLOW PINE LUMBER TO FARM MACHINERY MANUFACTURERS

The following direction is issued in accordance with Order M-361, paragraph (g):

(a) This direction tells how a manufacturer of farm machinery may get the restricted Southern yellow pine lumber he needs for production material without having to file on Form WPB-2720.

(b) A manufacturer of farm machinery must endorse the following certificate on his purchase orders:

All restricted Southern yellow pine lumber covered by this purchase order or contract is required in order to enable me to fulfill an authorized production schedule for the production of farm machinery and equipment. Delivery may be made to me under Direction 1 to Order M-361, with the terms of which I am familiar.

Purchaser

By ---

(c) Any producer may sell, ship, or deliver restricted Southern yellow pine lumber (either directly or through one or more intervening persons) to fill any order or contract bearing such a certificate. The use of the above form of certificate by the buyer and delivery by the producer is subject to all the terms and conditions of M-361 with respect to certified orders, so far as applicable. No one may use the certificate to get more lumber than the minimum necessary to fulfill his authorized schedules for the production of farm machinery, or to get lumber for any use except as production material: for example, no one can get lumber under this direction for boxing and crating his product. The inventory restrictions of paragraph (f) of Order M-361 are waived so long as the above restrictions are complied with.

(d) Manufacturers of farm machinery who get Southern yellow pine lumber under this direction shall report by letter, ten days after the end of each quarter, to the War Food Administration, Office of Materials and Facilities, Washington, D. C., stating their inventories of Southern yellow pine for production material at the beginning of the quarter, the amount delivered to them for production material during the quarter, and the amount used for production material during the quarter, whether obtained under this direction or in some other way. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Manufacturers of farm machinery do not have to get restricted Southern yellow pine lumber under this direction unless they want to. They may get it in any other way that is allowed under M-361. For example, a small manufacturer who buys from a mill producing less than 10,000 board feet a day may prefer not to change his arrangement. Manufacturers who buy from a limited number of sources may prefer to file on WPB-2720.

Issued this 3d day of April 1944.

Recording Secretary.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 289,[1] Amdt. 30]

DAIRY PRODUCTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 289 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1351.1501 (h) is added to read as follows:

(h) Condensed milk, condensed skim milk and condensed products containing milk solids in bulk, and canned sweetened condensed milk.

2. Section 1351.1526 is added to read as follows:

TABLE A

Product	Composition percentage (exclusive of moisture)			In cents per liquid pound (f. o. b. plant)
	Milk fat	MSNF	Sugar	In wooden barrels	In containers (except wooden barrels) and in tank cars or tank trucks
Item 1:
Plain condensed skim milk	0	20	0	----	4.06
Super-heated condensed skim milk	0	20	0	----	4.59
Item 2:
Plain condensed milk	8	22	0	----	8.28
Super-heated condensed milk	8	22	0	----	8.61
Sweetened condensed skim milk	0	20	42	8.08	7.33
Sweetened condensed milk	9½	19½	42	12.28	11.55

Item 3: Adjustments. (i) The maximum prices for products listed in Item 1 of Table A, in bulk or bulk packed, shall be adjusted up or down by adding or deducting $0.0014 per pound for each change of 1% in the composition percentage of milk solids not fat in the finished product, and fractions of 1% shall be adjusted proportionately.

(ii) The maximum prices for products listed in Item 2 of Table A and for any "miscellaneous condensed product", in bulk or bulk packed, shall be adjusted up or down by the amounts stated below for each change of 1% in the composition percentage of the ingredients in the comparable finished product, and fractions of 1% shall be adjusted proportionately (see examples).

Ingredient	Add or deduct per pound
Milk solids not fat	$0.00145
Milk fat	.0065
Sugar	.0006

Example A. If a product contains only 7% fat and 18% MSNF it is not "Plain condensed milk". However, if a processor wishes to supply such a "Miscellaneous Condensed Product" he would figure his maximum price as follows:

Find the price in Table A for the comparable finished product (Plain condensed milk) which is 8.28¢. Since the butterfat is 1% less and MSNF are 4% less than the stated composition of Plain condensed milk, he will deduct $0.0065 for reduction in fat and $0.0058 ($0.00145 x 4) for reduction in MSNF, resulting in a price of 7.05¢ per lb. for the "miscellaneous condensed product".

Example B. If "Plain condensed milk" should contain 8½% fat and 30% MSNF the price is figured by adding to the price in Table A, $0.00325 (½ of $0.0065) for ½% increase in fat and deducting $0.0029 ($0.00145 x 2) for 2% decrease in MSNF to obtain a price of 8.315¢ instead of 8.28¢ per pound.

(2) "Dry solids" means the number of pounds of dry milk solids not fat in a condensed liquid product.

(3) Records. The invoice which the seller is required to deliver to the buyer under § 1351.1505 of this regulation No. 289 shall also state the total net weight of the finished product together with the percentage content of dry solids not fat.

(4) F. o. b. and delivered prices. The processor's prices are f. o. b. the processor's plant, however, sales may be made on a delivered basis. If a sale is made on a delivered basis, the maximum delivered price, when delivery is made by a common or contract carrier, shall not exceed the f. o. b. price plus the established transportation charge of such carrier, and actual icing charge if any, incurred from the processor's plant to the buyer's receiving point. If the delivery is made by a vehicle owned or controlled by the processor, the transportation charge shall not exceed the lowest available published rate for contract or common carrier for such delivery. However, instead of the maximum delivered price as stated above, the processor may use, as a maximum delivered price on a delivery to the buyer's place of business, the f. o. b. price for the particular product plus $.0015 per liquid pound.

(5) Allowances and fees. The maximum prices established for processors shall not be increased by brokerage fees, commissions, or other charges.

(6) Calculations. Fractions of a cent remaining after the total price for the quantity sold has been calculated shall be dropped if less than ½ cent and increased to the next higher cent if ½ cent or more.

(b) Sales by brokers, jobbers and other persons, in bulk or bulk packed. The maximum prices on sales of condensed milk products, in bulk and bulk packed by brokers, jobbers and other persons to any class of purchasers shall not exceed the maximum prices set forth in paragraph (a) for processors.

(c) Sales by processors of canned sweetened condensed milk, in cartons. (1) Maximum prices for sales and deliveries by a processor of sweetened condensed milk (as defined in paragraph (d) (15) and containing 42% sugar), in cans, packed in cartons shall be either (i) the prices listed in Table B subject to adjustments for variations in composition and can weights as set forth in (c) (2) below, or (ii) the maximum prices to purchasers (other than the United States Government, or any agency thereof) established by processors under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation[9] whichever shall be the higher:

Prices are subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a) (5) and (c) (5)

[In dollars and cents per carton]

If delivered in	Carton of 48 14-oz. cans	Carton of 24 14-oz. cans	Carton of 48 15-oz. cans	Carton of 24 15-oz. cans
Carloads to the United States Government or any agency thereof, f. o. b. processor's plant or warehouse	$6.25	$3.12½	$6.89	$3.20½
Carloads to the customary receiving point of buyers other than the United States Government or any agency thereof	6.25	3.12½	6.89	3.20½

Less carloads to the customary receiving point of other buyers	6.30	3.15	6.64	3.32

(2) Composition adjustments. (i) The maximum prices for cartons of 48 cans, listed in Table B above shall be adjusted up or down for variations in the composition percentage or net weight per can of the finished product as set forth below:

	Per carton of 48 cans
Composition or can weight:
Milk fat for each ½ % variation	14¢	(add)
Milk solids not fat, for each 1% variation	6¢	(add or deduct)
Sugar, for each 1% variation	2½¢	(add or deduct)
Can weight, for each ½ ounce variation in net weight per can with standard composition as described in (c) (1)	17¢	(add or deduct)

(ii) Where a product contains added milk fat and increased or decreased milk solids and the net weight of the can is above or below 14 ounces the processor's maximum prices shall be figured as follows:

Find the prices per carton of 48 14-ounce cans, with the varied ingredients in (c) (1) and (c) (2) above and adjust the total amount for each ½ ounce variation above or below the 14 ounce can weight by adding or deducting,

⅓¢ for each ½ % of milk fat.
⅙¢ for each 1% of milk solids not fat.

(iii) The price for cartons of 24 cans shall be ½ of the price for cartons of 48 cans; other quantities in proportion.

(3) Where canned sweetened condensed milk is sold f. o. b. or delivered to any point other than the buyer's customary receiving point, the maximum prices established in paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2), shall be reduced by the cost of transportation between that point and the buyer's customary receiving point, computed in the same manner as delivery charges are computed in paragraph (a) (4).

(d) Definitions. (1) "Milk" means cow's milk.

(2) "Skim milk" means cow's milk from which substantially all of the milk fat has been removed.

(3) "MSNF" means milk solids not fat.

(4) "Sugar", except where otherwise specifically limited, means refined sugar (sucrose) or any combination of refined sugar (sucrose) and refined corn sugar (dextrose), or corn sirup.

(5) "Barrel" means a tight wooden barrel costing approximately 1 cent per pound of bulk sweetened condensed milk or of sweetened condensed skim milk.

(6) "Bulk" or "bulk packed" means packed or shipped in any form other than in hermetically sealed containers of one gallon capacity or smaller.

(8) "Customary receiving point" means that place, in the town or city where the buyer's place of business is located, at which the buyer customarily takes possession of condensed milk products. It may be either a railroad siding or the buyer's warehouse in that town or city.

[9] 9 F.R. 1385.

(9) "Processor" means a person who manufactures for sale any of the products described in this section.

(10) "Plain condensed skim milk, concentrated skim milk" is the product resulting from the evaporation of a considerable portion of the moisture from skim milk, and contains not less than 20 percent of the solids of milk or skim milk.

(11) "Super-heated plain condensed skim milk" is plain condensed skim milk in which live steam has been introduced at a stage of processing.

(12) "Plain condensed milk, concentrated milk", is the liquid food made by evaporating sweet milk to such point that it contains not less than 7.9 percent of milk fat and not less than 25.9 percent of total milk solids. It conforms to the definition and standard of identity for plain condensed milk, concentrated milk, promulgated by the Food and Drug Administration and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 2, 1940 (5 F.R. 2444).

(13) "Super-heated plain condensed milk" is plain condensed milk in which live steam has been introduced at a stage of processing.

(14) "Sweetened condensed skim milk" is the liquid or semi-liquid product resulting from the evaporation of a considerable portion of the moisture from skim milk to which refined sugar (sucrose) or a combination of refined sugar (sucrose) and refined corn sugar (dextrose) has been added. It contains not less than 24 percent of the solids of milk or skim milk.

(15) "Sweetened condensed milk" is the liquid or semi-liquid food made by evaporating a mixture of sweet milk and refined sugar (sucrose) or any combination of refined sugar (sucrose) and refined corn sugar (dextrose) to such point that the finished sweetened condensed milk contains not less than 28.0 percent of total milk solids and not less than 8.5 percent of milk fat. We are authorized to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this item under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422, or 423, you must refigure your ceiling price for this item on the first delivery of it to you from your customary type of supplier containing this notification after (insert effective date of this amendment). You must refigure your ceiling price following the rules in section 6 of Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, whichever is applicable to you.

WHOLESALERS' AND RETAILERS' MAXIMUM PRICES FOR AUTOMOTIVE PARTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 453 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 (c) (1) is amended by inserting after the words "storage batteries", and before the word "glass", the words "sheet or other non-processed".

2. The second sentence of section 2 (c) is amended to read as follows:

Such a sale, purchase or delivery is governed by the Maximum Import Price Regulation.[2]

3. The section headnote of section 5 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sales at wholesale and retail of new parts and rebuilt parts when the seller has been notified by his supplier of the applicable maximum price.

4. The headnote of section 6 is amended to read as follows: "Maximum prices for sales at wholesale and at retail of used motors and of new and rebuilt parts when the seller has not been notified by his supplier of the applicable maximum price."

5. The undesignated paragraph in section 6 prior to subparagraph (a) is amended by the addition of the words "subject to paragraph (d)".

6. Section 6 is amended by the addition of a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

(d) Limitation on maximum prices of rebuilt parts other than rebuilt motors. The maximum price established under this section 6 for a rebuilt part other than a rebuilt motor shall not exceed 85% of the manufacturer's suggested retail list price for the same part (or lacking the same part, the nearest equivalent part) when new.

7. Section 7 is amended by the addition of the following sentence: "However, any maximum price determined under this section for a rebuilt part other than a rebuilt motor shall not exceed 85% of the manufacturer's suggested retail list price for the same part (or lacking the same part, the nearest equivalent part) when new."

8. Article II is amended by adding a new section 7a to read as follows:

SEC. 7a. Maximum prices for sales at wholesale and retail of used parts other than used motors. The maximum price for the sale either at wholesale or retail of a used part other than a used motor shall not exceed a percentage of the manufacturer's suggested retail list price for the same part (or lacking the same part, the nearest equivalent part) when new. The percentage to be applied in establishing a maximum price in accordance with this section 7a is as follows:

(a) For the sale of a used part that is usable without rebuilding: 75%.

(b) For the sale of a used part which requires rebuilding before it can be used: 30%.

9. Section 8 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 8. Federal and state taxes—(a) Addition of actual amount of federal and state taxes. A wholesaler or retailer may add to the maximum price established under section 5, 6, 7, or 7a for a part, a tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, transportation or use of the part imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof if: (1) he pays the tax, or his supplier pays it and separately charges and collects it from him; and

(2) The tax is not included in the maximum price; and

(3) A statute or ordinance does not prohibit him from separately stating or collecting the tax; and

(4) He states and collects the tax separately from his maximum price; and

(5) Where the tax was in effect in March, 1942, and during that month he paid the tax, or his supplier paid it and separately charged and collected it from him, he stated and collected the tax separately, or stated and collected an allowance separately which included such tax, or, when his maximum price is established under section 5, his March, 1942, price included the tax and was greater than his present maximum price.

(b) Allowance that may be added instead of manufacturer's Federal Excise Tax. A wholesaler or retailer who is entitled to add to a maximum price a manufacturer's federal excise tax under the provisions of paragraph (a) instead of adding such a tax may add an allowance approximating it which shall not exceed 3% of that maximum price if he states this allowance on the invoice (1) separately from all other charges and (2) designates it as "special handling charge authorized by OPA". Wholesalers and retailers are cautioned against representing this allowance as the exact amount of the federal excise tax, since where it is in excess of this tax such a representation may be construed to be a violation of section 3325 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Transportation tax. A tax on the transportation of parts imposed by section 3475 of the Internal Revenue Code shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price, be treated as a cost of transportation. It shall not be treated as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price.

10. Section 17 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) "Manufacturer" means a producer of new automotive parts as defined in section 21 of Maximum Price Regulation 452, or a rebuilder of used automotive parts, or any person who sells automotive parts under his own trade name, or who issues to the automotive trade catalogs or price lists containing his parts or catalog numbers and his suggested resale prices for automotive parts.

11. The second sentence of section 17 (e) is amended to read as follows: "Adjustment must be made for all applicable extra charges, discounts or allowances included in the manufacturer's price list

FF WOOD ROSIN

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new section 4.24 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 4.24 Sales of FF wood rosin by certain persons.—(a) Sales by producers. The maximum price for a carload sale of FF wood rosin in drums, bags or barrels by a producer thereof, whose maximum price for the same sale under the General Maximum Price Regulation was under $3.18 per 100 pounds f. o. b. plant prior to April 8, 1944, shall be $3.18 per 100 pounds f. o. b. plant. Maximum prices for sales in other containers and quantities shall be established by applying to the above price the dollar and cent differentials established for those sales under the General Maximum Price Regulation prior to April 8, 1944. Discounts and allowances established under the General Maximum Price Regulation prior to April 8, 1944, shall be maintained.

(b) Sales by resellers. At his option, a reseller of FF wood rosin, acquired by virtue of this section 4.24 at a cost higher than that prevailing prior to April 8, 1944, may establish maximum prices for a sale of this rosin according to the following method, in place of the maximum prices established for such sales by the General Maximum Price Regulation:

(1) Determine from the invoice furnished to him, as required by paragraph (c) of this section 4.24, the amount of the increase per 100 pounds in the price of his supplier for the particular quantity of FF wood rosin permitted by this section 4.24.

(2) Add this increase (in dollars and cents) per 100 pounds to his maximum price per 100 pounds for the sale in question established under the General Maximum Price Regulation prior to April 8, 1944. The resulting figure is the reseller's maximum price under this paragraph (b).

(3) Show the increase per 100 pounds separately on his invoices, as required by paragraph (c) of this section 4.24.

(c) Invoices. The producer or reseller shall show as separate items on all invoices for such FF wood rosin the maximum price for the same sale under the General Maximum Price Regulation prior to April 8, 1944, and the adjusted selling price (not in excess of the maximum price under this section 4.24). An invoice containing the above required information shall be furnished the buyer prior to payment by him.

This amendment shall become effective April 8, 1944.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 15,[1] to GMPR,[2] Amdt. 23]

OLEOMARGARINE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

A new § 1499.75 (a) (13) is added to read as follows:

(13) Oleomargarine. The Office of Price Administration may, either on application for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] or on its own motion, adjust the maximum prices of a processor or manufacturer of oleomargarine where

(i) The processor's or manufacturer's maximum price is below the general price level prevailing for similar products, and

(ii) The processor or manufacturer is or will be unable to maintain his production at his maximum price or prices, and

(iii) The loss of his production would result in consumers having to pay higher prices for the most nearly similar substitute product available, and

(iv) An increase in his maximum price or prices will enable him to continue production, and

(v) The Administrator is of the opinion that an increase in his maximum price or prices would, under all the circumstances, be in furtherance of the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended.

The maximum price increase that may be granted to a processor or manufacturer under the provisions of this subparagraph (13) shall not cause his price to exceed the general price level prevailing for similar products. Subject to this limitation, an increase in price may be granted not to exceed the total cost of the product, or if the applicant's earnings from all operations before income and excess profits taxes are low in comparison with those of a "representative peace-time period", adjusted for subsequent changes in investment, and if in view of such over-all earnings a small margin of profit is reasonably necessary to permit production, an increase may be allowed estimated to yield such a profit margin.

A "representative peace-time period" means the period of the years 1936 to 1939, inclusive. When 1936 to 1939 does not represent a reasonably normal prewar (December 7, 1941) period, some other period may be used but its use must be positively justified in the application.

This amendment shall become effective April 8, 1944.

AUTHORITY: §§ 301.1 to 301.14, inclusive, issued under 80 Stat. 1351.

§ 301.1 Regulatory areas. (a) The convention waters shall be divided into the following areas, all directions given being magnetic.

(b) Area 1 shall include all convention waters southeast of a line running northeast and southwest through Willapa Bay Light on Cape Shoalwater, as shown on Chart 6185, published in July, 1939, by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, which light is approximately in latitude 46°43'17" N., longitude 124°04'15" W.

(c) Area 2 shall include all convention waters off the coasts of the United States of America and of Alaska and of the Dominion of Canada between Area 1 and a line running through the most westerly point of Glacier Bay, Alaska, to Cape Spencer Light as shown on Chart 8304, published in June, 1940, by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, which light is approximately latitude 58°11'57" N., longitude 136°38'18" W., thence south one-quarter east and is exclusive of the areas closed to all halibut fishing in § 301.9.

(d) Area 3 shall include all the convention waters off the coast of Alaska that are between Area 2 and a straight line running south from the southwestern extremity of Cape Sagak on Umnak Island, at a point approximately latitude 52°49'30" N., longitude 169°07'00" W., according to Chart 8802, published in January, 1942, by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, and that are south of the Alaska Peninsula and of the Aleutian Islands and shall also include the intervening straits or passes of the Aleutian Islands.

(e) Area 4 shall include all convention waters which are not included in Areas 1, 2, and 3, and in those areas defined in § 301.9.

§ 301.2 Limit of catch in each area. (a) The catch of halibut to be taken during the halibut fishing season of the year 1944 from Area 2 shall be limited to approximately 23,500,000 pounds of salable halibut, and from Area 3 to approximately 27,500,000 pounds of salable halibut, the weights in each or any such limit to be computed as with heads off and entrails removed.

(b) The catch of halibut to be taken from each area during the halibut fishing season of the year 1944 shall also be limited to halibut which with the head on are 26 inches or more in length as measured from the tip of the lower jaw to the extreme end of the middle of the tail or to halibut which with the head off and entrails removed are 5 pounds or more in weight, and the possession of any halibut of less than the above length or the above weight, according to whether the head is on or off, by any vessel or by any master or operator of any vessel or by any person, firm or corporation, is prohibited.

(c) The International Fisheries Commission shall as early in the said year as is practicable determine the date on which it deems each limit of catch defined in paragraph (a) of this section will be attained, and the limit of each such catch shall then be that which shall be taken prior to said date, and fishing for or catching of halibut in the area or areas to which such limit applies shall at that date be prohibited until after the end of the closed season as defined and modified in § 301.3 of these regulations, except as provided in § 301.5 thereof and in Article I of the Convention: And provided, That if it shall at any time become evident to the International Fisheries Commission that the limit will not be reached by such date, it may substitute another date.

§ 301.3 Length of closed season. (a) Under the authority of Article I of the aforesaid Convention the closed season as therein defined shall be modified so as to end at 12 midnight of the 15th day of April of the year 1944 and of each year thereafter and shall begin at 12 midnight of the 30th day of November of each year unless an earlier date is determined upon for any area under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, That the International Fisheries Commission may fix any date subsequent to the 1st day of November as the commencement of the closed season regardless of the catch which it deems will be attained by such date.

(b) Under authority of Article I of the Convention, the closed season as therein defined shall begin in each area on the date on which the limit is reached as provided in § 301.2 (c) and the closing of such area or areas shall be taken to have been duly approved unless before the said date either the President of the United States of America or the Governor General of Canada shall have signified his disapproval (the burden of proving any such signification being upon the person alleging it): And provided, That the closing date of Area 2 or of Area 3, whichever shall be later, shall apply to Area 4, and that the closure of Area 2 shall apply to Area 1.

(c) Nothing contained in these regulations shall prohibit the fishing for species of fish other than halibut or prohibit the International Fisheries Commission from conducting fishing operations as provided for in Article I of the Convention.

§ 301.4 Issuance of licenses and conditions limiting their validity. (a) All vessels of any tonnage which shall fish for halibut in any manner or hold halibut in possession in any area, or which shall transport halibut otherwise than as a common carrier documented by the Government of the United States or of Canada for the carriage of freight, must be licensed by the International Fisheries Commission, provided that vessels of less than five net tons or vessels which do not use set lines need not be licensed unless they shall require a permit as provided in § 301.5.

(b) Each licensed vessel shall carry this license on board at all times while at sea whether it is validated for halibut fishing or endorsed with a permit as provided in § 301.6 and this license shall at all times be subject to inspection by authorized officers of either of said Governments or by representatives of the International Fisheries Commission.

(c) The license shall be issued without fee by the customs officers of either of said Governments or by representatives of the International Fisheries Commission. A new license may be issued by the officer accepting statistical return at any time to vessels which have furnished proof of loss of the license form previously issued, or when there shall be no further space for record thereon, providing the receipt of statistical return shall be shown on the new form for any halibut or other species taken during or after the voyage upon which loss occurred. The old license form shall be forwarded in each case to the International Fisheries Commission.

(d) The license of any vessel shall be validated before departure from port for each fishing operation for which statistical returns are required. This validation of a license shall be by customs officers or by fishery officers of either of said Governments when available at places where there are no customs officers and shall not be made unless the area in which the vessel will fish is entered on the license form and unless the provisions of § 301.7 have been complied with for all landings and all fishing operations since issue of the license: Provided, That if the master or operator of any vessel shall fail to comply with the provisions of § 301.7, the license of such vessel may be validated by customs officers upon evidence either that there has been a judicial determination of the offense or that the laws prescribing penalties therefor have been complied with, or that the said master or operator is no longer responsible for, nor sharing in, the operations of said vessel.

(e) No license shall be validated for departure for halibut fishing in Areas 1 or 2 more than three days, and in Areas 3 or 4 more than five days before the end of the closed season as defined in § 301.3 (a).

(f) No license shall be valid for halibut fishing in more than one area, as defined in § 301.1, during any one trip nor shall it be revalidated for halibut fishing in another such area while the vessel has any halibut on board.

(g) The license shall not be valid for halibut fishing in any area closed to halibut fishing or for the possession of halibut in any area closed to halibut fishing except while in actual transit to or within a port of sale.

(h) The license shall not be valid for halibut fishing in any area while a permit endorsed thereon is in effect, nor shall it be validated while halibut taken under such permit is on board.

(i) The license of any vessel shall not be valid for the possession of any halibut in any area other than that for which validated, if such vessel is in possession of baited gear, except in those waters included within a twenty-five mile radius of Cape Spencer Light, Alaska.

§ 301.5 Retention of halibut taken with other fish under permit. (a) There may be retained in possession on any vessel which shall have a permit as provided in § 301.6 such halibut as is caught incidentally to fishing by that vessel in any area that is closed to halibut fishing under § 301.2 with set lines (of the type commonly used in the Pacific coast halibut fishery) for other species, not to exceed at any time one pound of halibut for each seven pounds of salable fish, actually utilized, of other species not including salmon or tuna, and such halibut may be sold as the catch of said vessel, the weight of all fish to be computed as with heads off and entrails removed.

(b) The catch of halibut taken and retained under such permit shall be limited to halibut which with the head on are 26 inches or more in length as measured from the tip of the lower jaw to the extreme end of the middle of the tail or to halibut which with the head off and entrails removed are 5 pounds or more in weight and the possession of any halibut of less than the above length or the above weight, according to whether the head is on or off, by any vessel or by any master or operator of any vessel or by any person, firm or corporation, is prohibited.

(c) Halibut retained under such permit shall not be landed or otherwise removed or be received by any person, firm or corporation from the catching vessel until all halibut on board shall have been reported to a customs, fishery or other authorized officer of either of said Governments nor shall any vessel receive it for transportation unless it shall be reported to the said officer prior to departure from port, and no halibut or other fish shall be landed or removed or be received from the catching vessel except under such supervision as the said officer may deem advisable.

(d) Halibut retained under such permit shall not be purchased or held in possession by any person other than the master, operator, or crew of the catching vessel in excess of the proportion herein allowed until such excess whatever its origin shall have been forfeited and surrendered to the customs, fishery or other authorized officers of either of said Governments. In forfeiting such excess, the vessel shall be permitted to surrender any part of its catch of halibut: Provided, That the amount retained shall not exceed the proportion herein allowed.

(e) Permits for the retention and landing of halibut in the year 1944 shall become invalid at 12 midnight of the 30th day of November of said year or at such earlier date as the International Fisheries Commission shall determine.

§ 301.6 Issuance of permits and conditions limiting their validity. (a) Any vessel which shall be used in fishing for other species than halibut in any area closed to halibut fishing under § 301.2 must have a license and a permit if it shall retain, land or sell any halibut caught incidentally to such fishing or possess any halibut of any origin during such fishing, as provided in § 301.5.

(b) The permit shall be shown by endorsement of the issuing officer on the face of the halibut license form held by said vessel and shall show the area for which the permit is issued.

(c) The permit shall terminate at the time of first landing thereafter of fish of any species and a new permit shall be secured before any subsequent fishing operation for which a permit is required.

(d) A permit shall not be issued to any vessel which shall have halibut on board taken while said vessel was licensed to fish in an open area unless such halibut shall be considered as taken under the issued permit and as thereby subject to forfeiture when landed if in excess of the amount permitted in § 301.5.

(e) A permit shall not be issued to, or be valid if held by, any vessel which shall fish with other than set lines of the type commonly used in the Pacific coast halibut fishery.

(f) The permit of any vessel shall not be valid unless the permit is granted before departure from port for each fishing operation for which statistical returns are required. This granting of a permit shall be by customs officers or by fishery officers of either of said Governments when available at places where there are no customs officers and shall not be made unless the area in which the vessel will fish is entered on the license form and unless the provisions of § 301.7 have been complied with for all landings and all fishing operations since issue of the license or permit: Provided, That if the master or operator of any vessel shall fail to comply with the provisions of § 301.7, the permit of such vessel may be granted by customs officers upon evidence either that there has been a judicial determination of the offense or that the laws prescribing penalties therefor have been complied with, or that the said master or operator is no longer responsible for, nor sharing in, the operations of said vessel.

§ 301.7 Statistical return by vessels. (a) Statistical return as to the amount of halibut taken during fishing operations must be made by the master or operator of any licensed vessel and as to the amount of halibut and other species by the master or operator of any vessel operating under permit as provided for in § 301.5 and 301.6, within 48 hours of landing, sale or transfer of halibut or of first entry thereafter into a port where there is an officer authorized to receive such return, except that when operating within any area in which the catch is not limited in amount by these regulations the master or operator of a licensed vessel shall make statistical returns at such times as are required by the customs officers or the International Fisheries Commission, but shall at all times keep with the license form such records as are necessary to make such return.

(b) The statistical return must state the port of landing and the amount of each species taken within the area defined in these regulations, for which the vessel's license is validated.

(c) The statistical return must include all halibut landed or transferred to other vessels and all halibut held in possession on board and must be full, true and correct in all respects herein required. A copy of such return must be forwarded to the International Fisheries Commission at such times as the latter shall require.

(d) The master or operator and/or any person engaged on shares in the operation of any vessel licensed or holding a permit under these regulations may be required by the International Fisheries Commission or by any officer of either of said Governments authorized to receive such return to certify to its correctness to the best of his information and belief and to support the certificate by a sworn statement. Validation of a license or issuance of a permit after such sworn return is made shall be provisional and shall not render the license or permit valid in case the return shall later be shown to be false or fraudulently made.

(e) The master or operator of any vessel holding a license or permit under these regulations shall keep an accurate

(b) First, that area in the waters off the coast of Alaska within the following boundary as stated in terms of the magnetic compass unless otherwise indicated: from the north extremity of Cape Ulitka, Noyes Island, approximately latitude 55°33'48" N., longitude 133°43'35" W., to the south extremity of Wood Island, approximately latitude 55°39'44" N., longitude 133°42'29" W.; thence to the east extremity of Timbered Islet, approximately latitude 55°41'47" N., longitude 133°47'42" W.; thence to the true west extremity of Timbered Islet, approximately latitude 55°41'46" N., longitude 133°48'01" W.; thence southwest three-quarters south sixteen and five-eighths miles to a point approximately latitude 55°34'46" N., longitude 134°14'40" W.; thence southeast by south twelve and one-half miles to a point approximately latitude 55°22'23" N., longitude 134°12'48" W.; thence northeast thirteen and seven-eighths miles to the southern extremity of Cape Addington, Noyes Island, latitude 55°26'11" N., longitude 133°49'12" W.; and to the point of origin on Cape Ulitka. The boundary lines herein indicated shall be determined from Chart 8157, as published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey at Washington, D. C., in June, 1929, and Chart 8182, as published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey at Washington, D. C., in March, 1933, and reissued March, 1939, except for the point of Cape Addington which shall be determined from Chart 8158, as published by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey in December, 1923: Provided, That the duly authorized officers of the United States of America may at any time place a plainly visible mark or marks at any point or points as nearly as practicable on the boundary line defined herein, and such mark or marks shall thereafter be considered as correctly defining said boundary.

(c) Second, that area lying in the waters off the north coast of Graham Island, British Columbia, within the following boundary: from the northwest extremity of Wiah Point, latitude 54°06'50" N., longitude 132°19'18" W., true north five and one-half miles to a point approximately latitude 54°12'20" N., longitude 132°19'18" W.; thence true east approximately sixteen and three-tenths miles to a point which shall lie northwest (according to magnetic compass at any time) of the highest point of Tow Hill, Graham Island, latitude 54°04'24" N., longitude 131°48'00" W.; thence southeast to the said highest point of Tow Hill. The points on the shoreline of the above mentioned island shall be determined from Chart 3754, published at the Admiralty, London, April 11, 1911: Provided, That the duly authorized officers of the Dominion of Canada may at any time place a plainly visible mark or marks at any point or points as nearly as practicable on the boundary line defined herein, and such marks shall thereafter be considered as correctly defining said boundary.

§ 301.10 Dory gear prohibited. The use of any hand gurdy or other appliance in hauling halibut gear by hand power in any dory or small boat operated from a vessel licensed under the provisions of these regulations is prohibited in all convention waters.

§ 301.11 Nets prohibited. It is prohibited to retain halibut taken with a net of any kind or to have in possession any halibut while using any net or nets other than bait nets for the capture of other species of fish, nor shall any license or permit held by any vessel under these regulations be valid during the use or possession on board of any net or nets other than bait nets which are utilized for no other purpose than the capture of bait for said vessel.

§ 301.12 Responsibility of master. Wherever in these regulations any duty is laid upon any vessel, it shall be the personal responsibility of the master or operator of said vessel to see that said duty is performed and he shall personally be responsible for the performance of said duty. This provision shall not be construed to relieve any member of the crew of any responsibility with which he would otherwise be chargeable.

§ 301.13 Supervision of unloading and weighing. The unloading and weighing of the halibut of any vessel licensed or holding a permit under these regulations shall be under such supervision as the customs or other authorized officer may deem advisable in order to assure the fulfilment of the provisions of these regulations.

§ 301.14 Previous regulations superseded. These regulations shall supersede all previous regulations adopted pursuant to the Convention between the United States of America and the Dominion of Canada for preservation of the halibut fishery of the northern Pacific Ocean and Bering Sea, signed January 29, 1937, except as to offenses occurring prior to the approval of these regulations. These regulations shall be effective as to each succeeding year, with the dates herein specified changed accordingly, until superseded by subsequently approved regulations. Any determination made by the International Fisheries Commission pursuant to these regulations shall become effective immediately.

REROUTING OF FREIGHT TRAFFIC BETWEEN YORK AND REFORM, ALA.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of April, A. D. 1944.

It appearing that due to high water on the Tombigbee River the Alabama, Tennessee & Northern Railroad Corporation (John T. Cochrane, Jr., Trustee) is unable to transport freight traffic over its line between York and Reform, Alabama; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action to best promote the service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people. It is ordered, that:

(a) High water on Tombigbee River; rerouting of freight traffic. The Alabama, Tennessee & Northern Railroad Corporation (John T. Cochrane, Jr., Trustee) is hereby directed to forward freight traffic routed over its line between York and Reform, Alabama, by routes most available to expedite its movement and prevent congestion without regard to the routing thereof made by shippers and by carriers from which the traffic is received, or to the ownership of cars, and that all rules, regulations, and practices of said carriers with respect to car service are hereby suspended and superseded only as conflicting with the directions hereby made; provided that the billing covering all cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Rates to be applied. Inasmuch as the routing of traffic pursuant to this order is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic routed pursuant to this order shall be the same as would have applied had the shipments moved as originally routed.

(c) Divisions of rates. In executing the orders and directions of the Commission provided for in this order, common carriers affected shall proceed, even though no division agreements are in effect, over the routes authorized; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; and upon failure of said carriers to so agree, the divisions shall be hereinafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act. If division agreements now exist on the traffic affected, over the routes herein authorized, they shall not be changed or affected by this order.

(40 Stat. 101, secs. 402, 418, 41 Stat. 476, 485, secs. 4, 10, 54 Stat. 901, 912; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)–(17), 15 (4))

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective immediately; that copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Alabama, Tennessee & Northern Railroad Corporation (John T. Cochrane, Jr., Trustee) and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

(v) Damage to or loss of vessel or cargo caused by War Department or Army stevedores, or stevedores under contract with the War Department or the Army, in the course of the loading or discharging of cargo on or from a vessel.

(3) Investigating officer. An officer designated pursuant to the provisions of Army regulations to investigate marine casualties.

(c) Action by claimant—(1) Claimant. Claims must be presented by the owner of the property damaged or the person injured, or his duly authorized agent or legal representative. The word "owner," as so used, includes bailees, lessees, mortgagors, and conditional vendees but does not include mortgagees, conditional vendors, and others having title for purposes of security only. The claim, if filed by an agent or legal representative, should show the title or capacity of the person signing and be accompanied by evidence of the appointment of such agent, executor, administrator, guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary.

(2) Form of claim. Claims should be submitted by presenting in triplicate a sworn statement in writing stating the claimant's address and setting forth the amount of the claim and, so far as possible, the detailed facts and circumstances surrounding the occurrence, indicating the date and place, the property and persons involved, the nature and extent of the damage or injury, and the agency which was the cause or occasion thereof. War Department forms will be used whenever practicable.

(3) Evidence to be submitted by claimant—(i) General. The amount claimed for damage to or loss or destruction of property, or for personal injury or death, must be substantiated by competent evidence.

(ii) Property damage. In support of claims for damage to or destruction of property which has been or can be repaired or replaced, the claimant should submit an itemized signed statement or estimate of the cost of repairs or replacements; if not reparable, the value thereof before and after the casualty occurred should be stated. Whenever a claim includes an item for detention during repairs of damage to vessel, proof establishing such item should be submitted and should include; the date when the vessel was disabled; date on which she was laid up for repairs, and name and location of repair works; date when repairs were commenced and completed; whether while laid up for repairs any other work was performed on the vessel and, if so, the amount and character thereof and the time required for performance; date on which the vessel was returned to service after completion of repairs and where put in service; whether there was opportunity to employ or hire vessel during time laid up for repairs; whether vessel was under charter and, if so, rate of charter hire; and the usual charter rate for the vessel and running expenses. All such statement or estimate should be in triplicate and, if possible, by disinterested competent witnesses, preferably reputable dealers of the type of property damaged or destroyed. Such statements and estimates should be certified as just and correct; if payment has been made, itemized receipts evidencing payment should be included.

(iii) Personal injury. In support of claims for personal injury or death, the claimant should submit in triplicate a written report by attending physician, showing the nature and extent of injury, the nature and extent of treatment, the degree of permanent disability, if any, and the period of hospitalization or incapacitation, and bills for medical, hospital, or burial expenses actually incurred.

(4) Signature. The claim and all other papers requiring the signature of the claimant should be signed by the claimant personally or by a duly authorized agent. The signature of such claimant or agent should be identical throughout.

(5) Place of filing. The claim should be submitted to the commanding officer of the War Department or Army installation under whose immediate control the vessel was operated, if known, otherwise to the commanding officer of any post, camp, station, or other military establishment, if practicable the one within which or nearest to which the casualty occurred.

(d) Claims of subrogees—(1) Included. Settlement will be made solely with the insured, rather than with the insurer or with both the insured and insurer, in cases of damage, loss, destruction, injury, or death covered by insurance. No inquiry will be made into, nor determination made of, the relative interests as between insured and insurer. The entire claim, including any portion thereof insured against, will be filed by or on behalf of the insured and payment of the entire amount allowed will be made in the name of the insured. Evidence of authority to file a claim on behalf of the insured may be established by a power of atttorney, insurance policy provision, or other documentary evidence. The foregoing provisions will be equally applicable in cases of subrogation based other than on insurance.

(2) Not included. Claims by subrogees in their own right are not within the scope of these regulations and will not be considered.

(3) Claims presented prior to 3 July 1943. The provisions of subparagraphs (1) and (2) will, however, be inapplicable to claims filed prior to 3 July 1943.

(e) Conditions of payment. Prior to payment of any claim within the provisions of these regulations, each of the following conditions must be fulfilled:

(1) Amount of the damage, loss, or destruction, or amount to be allowed on account of personal injury or death, must be determined.

(2) Award must not exceed $1,000 ($500 in time of peace).

(3) Claims must be within the scope of these regulations as outlined in paragraph (b) (2) of this section.

(4) Claim must be presented in writing, ordinarily within 1 year after the occurrence of the casualty out of which the claim arises.

(5) Claim must be approved by officials designated in Army Regulations or, on appeal, by the Secretary of War.

(6) Claimant must accept, in full satisfaction and final settlement, the amount allowed if less than the full amount claimed.

(7) Claims payable under the provisions of AW 105 (§ 36.25) are not payable under the provisions of this section.

(8) Personal claims payable under the provisions of § 36.27 are not payable under the provisions of this section.

(9) Claims of military personnel or civilian employees incident to their service are not payable under the provisions of this section.

(f) Claims in excess of $1,000. Claims in excess of $1,000 ($500 in time of peace) if otherwise within the scope of these regulations may be reported by the Secretary of War to Congress for its consideration. Any claim which is asserted in an amount in excess of $1,000 will be forwarded, with related files and recommendations, by or through the Chief of Transportation to The Judge Advocate General for appropriate action.

(g) Regulations not applicable. Marine casualties will not be investigated or processed or claims arising therefrom processed or disposed of, under the provisions of §§ 36.1–36.10, 36.12–36.23, or §§ 37.2–37.5. (Sec. 1, Act of July 3, 1943, Public Law 112, 78th Congress) [Pars. 1, 2, 19, 21, 23, 24, and 26, AR 55–500, dated 3 July 1943]

PART 37—CLAIMS ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED STATES

§ 37.6 Marine casualties; claims—(a) Definitions. See §§ 36.44 (b) and 37.3.

(b) Scope. Included within the provisions of this section are claims in excess of $100 for:

(1) Damage to or loss or destruction of Government property.

(2) Amount of pay and allowances paid or payable by the Government to military personnel for any period of incapacitation incident to injury to such personnel.

(4) Cost of funeral, burial, transportation, or other expense or loss to the Government incident to death of military personnel.

(c) Action by reviewing authorities. Upon receipt by the commanding general of a service command, or a command claims service, or the Chief of Transportation, as the case may be, each investigating officer's report will, unless the report is accompanied by a statement that payment in full has been made, be reviewed and, after any corrective action deemed necessary with relation thereto, appropriate administrative action will be taken. Such action, unless the investigating officer's report is accompanied by a statement that payment in full has been made or by a compromise offer which such reviewing authority deems it advisable to accept, will include a determination whether the defendant is legally liable to the United States and, if so, the amount of such liability. Upon a determination that the defendant is liable and of the amount of such liability, the commanding general of the service command, or the chief of the command claims service, or the Chief of Transportation, will cause a written demand to be made upon the defendant for payment of the claim. If such demand is complied with, the certified check or postal money order will be accepted and transmitted to the appropriate fiscal officer. If the defendant fails to comply with the demand within a reasonable time, and the amount involved, the financial responsibility of the defendant and other circumstances of the case appear to make advisable the institution of suit, or if the defendant has already made, or on such demand makes, a compromise offer accompanied by a certified check or postal money order, the commanding general of the service command, or the chief of the command claims service, or the Chief of Transportation, will forward the original and one copy of the file, including any compromise offer and certified check or postal money order, with his recommendation as to the advisability of acceptance of such compromise offer, if any, or, if none, as to the advisability of instituting suit, to The Judge Advocate General for appropriate administrative action. If the required use is shown, the exemption is applicable to imported derivatives of the products named in Public Law 211, as amended, such as feed flour, linseed cake or meal, and cottonseed cake or meal, and is applicable to products in chief value of one or more of the derivatives and/or the named products.

(b) Screenings or scalpings are not a product or a derivative of the grain or seed from which screened, but if the screenings or scalpings are in chief value of wheat, oats, barley, rye, flax, cottonseed, corn, or hay, and/or derivatives thereof, they may be admitted free of duty under the provision in Public Law 211, as amended, for products in chief value of the named products or derivatives thereof, provided they are used as, or as a constituent part of, feed for livestock or poultry.

(Public, No. 211, as amended, 78th Congress)

§ 58.2 Entry requirements. (a) There shall be filed in connection with the entry an affidavit of the importer that the merchandise, which shall be described by name, is to be used as, or as a constituent part of, feed for livestock or poultry.

(b) If the product is entered for consumption, there shall also be filed in connection with the entry a bond on customs Form 7551 or 7553, with an added condition, concurred in by the surety, for the payment of duty at the appropriate rate in the event that the proof of required use prescribed by § 58.3 is not produced within one year from the date of entry, or any lawful extension of that period. If the bond on file is on customs Form 7553, the merchandise may be charged against such bond after there has been added thereto, with the concurrence of the surety, the condition provided for herein. When such merchandise is entered for warehouse the regular warehouse entry bond, customs Form 7555, shall be given unless the merchandise is charged against a general term bond for the entry of merchandise, customs Form 7595, and in either case withdrawals shall be made on customs Form 7506. If the product has been substantially processed or manufactured in the United States, the importer shall submit an affidavit of the superintendent or manager of the manufacturing plant stating the use to which the product has been put in such manner as to indicate whether the article manufactured from the imported product is feed for livestock or poultry. If the importation was not used by the importer and was not substantially processed or manufactured, but was sold substantially as the imported product to the ultimate user, the importer shall submit, either before or after the product is actually consumed, either the affidavit of such user or the affidavit of the person making the final sale of the product to the ultimate user as to the use made or to be made of the product. An appropriate case affidavits as to the use of products covered by more than one entry may be included in one affidavit, but in this event the affidavit shall be filed in duplicate, one copy to be forwarded to the comptroller of customs.

The importer shall also comply, with appropriate modifications, with the provisions of § 58.2 (b) with respect to the filing of a bond in connection with the entry, and of § 58.3 (a) with respect to furnishing of proof of use. Such proof of use shall consist of proof that the oats have been manufactured into products for human consumption which are not to be exported. Upon satisfactory proof of use of the product for purposes of human consumption, the entry shall be liquidated free of duty. When such proof is not filed within one year from the date of entry or any authorized extension of the period of the bond, the entry shall be liquidated with the assessment of duty at the appropriate rate under the proper provision of the tariff act. Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter A—General Provisions

PART 903—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

[Directive 23 as Amended Mar. 30, 1944][1]

MILITARY RATING PROCEDURE

§ 903.35 Directive 23—(a) Purpose. The purpose of this War Production

[1] This document is a restatement of Amendment 1 to Directive 23, as amended January 7, 1944, which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 1, 1944, page 3490, and reflects the order in its completed form as of March 30, 1944.

Board directive is to provide for review by representatives of the War Production Board of certain priorities actions taken by the Army and Navy and other government agencies, and for approval of placement of certain purchase orders rated by such agencies; and to define the scope of such review.

(b) Requirement of War Production Board approval for ratings of capital equipment and machine tools. Every preference rating certificate on Form PD-3A, if such instrument assigns a rating to any delivery of capital equipment or machine tools (whether such delivery is to be made directly to the Army or Navy or other government agency or to a prime or subcontractor thereof), shall, prior to issuance, be approved by a duly authorized official of the War Production Board by endorsing thereon the statement "approved for issuance" duly signed, unless exempt under paragraph (e).

(c) Procedure for review of rating actions by War Production Board officials. (1) Instruments assigning a rating to the delivery of capital equipment and/or machine tools required in connection with a production project in a single plant, where the total cost of all tools and equipment required for the project is less than $100,000, shall be submitted after countersignature by the appropriate Service Officer to the War Production Board field office within whose jurisdiction the tools or equipment are to be located. The instruments shall be approved by a War Production Board official of such office only after he has determined that the item or items requested are required and that no existing equipment or subcontracting facilities are available which are suitable and appropriate for the purposes for which the items are requested, or that such determination cannot be made within ten days after receipt thereof. An exception to this is that instruments covering any machine tools produced under Defense Plant Corporation pool orders which remain unsold, may be approved if the machine tools are required, notwithstanding the availability of other existing equipment. Purchases shall not be divided for the purpose of coming within this paragraph (c) (1). The fact that the equipment and/or machine tools appear on a single preference rating application or on several such applications shall not determine whether the capital equipment and/or machine tools are in connection with a single given project, but the War Production Board field office shall determine this after full consideration of all the facts surrounding such application or applications. When an instrument which has been countersigned by the appropriate Service Officer under paragraph (c) (1) is disapproved by a War Production Board official in a War Production Board field office, the Service Officer may request the War Production Board field office to forward the latter's entire file in the matter, together with a statement of the facts, to the Facilities Bureau of the War Production Board, at the same time forwarding a copy of the statement of the facts to the Army and Navy Munitions Board in Washington and an additional copy to the Production Resources Division of the War Production Board. The Facilities Bureau of the War Production Board may in its discretion direct the issuance of the instrument in question.

(2) Instruments assigning a rating to the delivery of capital equipment and/or machine tools required in connection with a production project in a single plant, where the total cost of all tools and equipment required for the project is $100,000 or more, shall be submitted after countersignature by the appropriate Service Officer to the appropriate War Production Board field office specified in paragraph (c) (1) or the Routing and Issuance Branch of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., at the option of the sponsoring agency. If such instrument or instruments are submitted to the War Production Board field office under this paragraph, the field office shall not approve the same but shall recommend the granting or denying of approval and forward the same together with its recommendation to the Facilities Bureau of the War Production Board for approval or disapproval in accordance with prescribed procedure.

(3) The Tools Division of the War Production Board may from time to time specify certain machine tools as to which instruments assigning a rating to the delivery thereof shall follow the procedure specified in paragraph (c) (2) above, irrespective of whether the capital equipment and/or machine tools for the project in question may have a total cost of less than $100,000.

(d) Approval of placement of certain purchase orders by War Production Board officials. No person to whom a preference rating has been or is at any time assigned on Form PD-3 or PD-3A, covering deliveries of capital equipment and/or machine tools required in connection with a production project in a single plant where the total cost of all tools and equipment required for the project is $100,000 or more, shall apply the rating or any subsequent rerating to any purchase order unless a War Production Board official has approved the purchase order or it is exempt under paragraph (e). Approval of a purchase order may be obtained by submitting, to the War Production Board field office within whose jurisdiction the tools or equipment are to be located, the purchase order, or a true copy thereof, or a written document containing such appropriate parts of the order as the field office may specify. Before approving the purchase order the field office must determine that no suitable existing equipment or subcontracting facilities are available, or that their availability or unavailability cannot be ascertained within ten calendar days after its receipt of the order. If approval is refused, the person desiring to rate the purchase order may request the field office to forward its file together with its recommendation to the Facilities Bureau of the War Production Board in Washington for final approval or disapproval.

(e) Exemptions (1) Preference rating certificates countersigned under any of the following circumstances are exempt from the requirements of paragraph (b):

(i) Where the total value of the delivery or deliveries rated by the instrument does not exceed $500. Purchases shall not be divided for the purpose of making this exemption available.

(ii) Where the countersigning takes place outside of the forty-eight States, the District of Columbia and the Dominion of Canada.

(iii) A purchase made pursuant to approval given by a commanding officer, commandant, or the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts of the Navy, or by a commanding officer of a defense command of the Army, in an emergency where the degree of urgency is such that advance approval by a War Production Board official cannot be obtained, provided that in each such case a copy of the rating document is mailed within 24 hours after issuance to the appropriate Regional Office of the War Production Board.

(iv) Where the capital equipment or machine tools are for shipboard use (including floating dry docks), or are for use outside the forty-eight States and the District of Columbia for military operations.

(v) Where capital equipment, not including machine tools, is purchased by or for the account of the Army or the Navy for military operations, or where the purchaser intends to devote the items solely to administrative uses as distinguished from productive or operational uses.

(vi) Where the certificate assigns a rating to a command construction project of which the capital equipment and/or machine tools are only a part.

(2) Purchase orders placed under any of the following circumstances are exempt from the requirements of paragraph (d):

(i) Where the dollar value of the items covered by the purchase order does not exceed $500. Purchases shall not be divided for the purpose of making this exemption available.

(ii) Where the purchase order is being rated by a certificate which was exempted by paragraph (e) (1), or would have been exempted by paragraph (e) (1) if this directive had been in effect when the certificate was issued.

(iii) Where each unit of capital equipment or machine tools covered by the purchase order was listed either in the certificate originally assigning a rating thereto or in a certificate (such as Form PD-4X) subsequently rerating the same or listed in an appendix or its equivalent (an itemized list) attached to such a certificate approved by the Facilities Bureau after May 31, 1943, or expressly referred to therein.

(3) Purchases of jigs, fixtures, gauges and special tools designed for the individual job and made for a special application to standard machine tools are exempt from the requirements of paragraph (e).

(4) The requirements of paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) shall not apply to such cases as may be exempted in writing by the Facilities Bureau of the War Production Board.

(f) Rating of military construction. (1) All construction, other than command construction as defined below, will be rated only by the War Production Board, even though the facilities, when completed, will be owned, leased or operated by the Army, Navy or Maritime Commission.

(2) "Command construction" as used in this directive means the following types of projects ordered built by either the Chief of Staff, U. S. Army, or the Chief of Naval Operations, U. S. Navy, viz: air fields; military housing; alien housing; facilities for the repair of finished items of munitions; overseas or theatre of operations construction; seacoast fortifications; ports and depots; camouflage and other passive defense projects (whether or not owned and operated by the Army or Navy); emergency flood control projects having a value of less than $100,000; military hospitals; maneuver, training and staging areas and proving grounds.

(3) Command construction as defined above may be rated on PD-3A certificates by Army or Navy contracting and procurement officers. Review thereof by War Production Board officials is no longer required.

(g) Status of existing administrative orders and instructions. Except as otherwise provided herein, ratings on PD-3A certificates may be assigned by appropriate officials of the Army and Navy and other designated federal agencies as provided in Division Administrative Order No. 1 as heretofore supplemented, subject to existing and future Army and Navy Munitions Board Instructions, and subject to approval by a War Production Board official where required by paragraph (b) hereof.

(h) Priorities Directive No. 2 superseded. This directive as amended supersedes Priorities Directive No. 2.

Such emergency specifications shall be used only in the design, fabrication and erection of buildings to the extent stress grades of lumber are used and the contracts for which are placed on and after November 1, 1943, but such departments and agencies are empowered to put this directive into immediate effect wherever possible. As used herein, "stress grade" lumber means lumber which has been graded for strength by a recognized lumber grading or inspection bureau or agency.

L. PARISI ESTATE

James Parisi, Antonio Parisi, John Parisi, and Frank Parisi, as partners, are conducting under the name of L. Parisi Estate a wholesale grocery business in rented premises at 138 Spruce Street, Providence, Rhode Island. They live in quarters over the store. In the summer of 1943, a four-story building was bought opposite, at number 141 Spruce Street, with the intention that they should live in the upper quarters and that they would enlarge and remodel the ground floor into an office and storage room for their business. On October 28, 1943, the sons began such construction in violation of Conservation Order L-41 although they reasonably should have been aware of the order. On November 4th they were apprised by the War Production Board of Conservation Order L-41, and despite that notice and subsequent warnings, continued construction to an estimated cost exceeding $2500., although limited by the terms of the order to an estimated cost of construction of $200. This construction was begun and continued in wilful violation of Conservation Order L-41.

These violations of Conservation Order L-41 have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.517 Suspension Order No. S-517. (a) Neither James Parisi, Antonio Parisi, John Parisi, or Frank Parisi, doing business as L. Parisi Estate, or under any other name, nor any of them, their or its successors or assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the premises at 141 Spruce Street, Providence, Rhode Island, including putting up or altering the structure, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve James Parisi, Antonio Parisi, John Parisi, or Frank Parisi, doing business as L. Parisi Estate, or under any other name, their and its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 4, 1944.

DAVIS MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Zean W. Davis and Dorothy E. Davis are co-partners, doing business as Davis Manufacturing Company, 233 West Lee Street, Plano, Illinois, and engaged in manufacturing various articles of electrical equipment, including electric cords for flat irons. As a producer of replacement cord sets for flat irons the company, under General Limitation Order L-65, from June 17, 1943, through December 31, 1943, could not produce more sets than 25% of the number of such sets produced by it during the year 1940. This gave the company a quota of 5,162 sets, which the company exceeded by 44,800 sets during the period June 17, 1943, to December 20, 1943. Mr. Davis was familiar with order L-65 and the quota to which the company's production was restricted. Moreover, the company continued production in excess of its quota after the violation was called to Mr. Davis' attention by the War Production Board. The production of sets in excess of the quota limitation was a violation of the order, and the violation was with such reckless disregard of the wording of the order as to amount to wilful violation.

This excessive production has diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Zean W. Davis and Dorothy E. Davis, individually, or doing business as Davis Manufacturing Company, or otherwise, their successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 4, 1944, and shall expire July 4, 1944.

PART 1075—CONSTRUCTION

[Limited Preference Order P–55–c, as Amended Apr. 1, 1944) [1]

HOUSING CONSTRUCTION

§ 1075.13 Preference Rating Order P–55–c—(a) Purpose and scope of order and authorization. This order applies only to persons who have received approval of an application for housing as provided below. For the persons who have received this approval, it is an authorization for residential construction under Conservation Order L–41 and it assigns a preference rating and an allotment symbol for material necessary for housing construction, remodeling and installations. It covers all housing construction, remodeling and installations except construction of the types not included in the definition of housing (paragraph (j) (3)). Priorities assistance for maintenance and repair of residential property to the extent not covered by CMP Regulation 5, 5A, or 9A, or General Limitation Order L–79 is also provided by this order.

This order also applies to housing previously authorized under an application on Form WPB–2896 as explained in paragraph (g) below.

(b) Method of obtaining authorization of housing applications. Any person who wishes to construct, remodel, or make installation in a housing project should apply on Form WPB–2896 to the National Housing Agency. This paragraph does not apply to FPHA and HOLC construction.

(c) Authorization of housing construction. Approval of the application on Form WPB–2896 by National Housing Agency and approval by the National Housing Agency of FPHA and HOLC projects constitutes WPB authorization under Order L–41. The authorization includes only the buildings, structures, roads, installations and other construction work specifically listed and approved by the National Housing Agency and shown on the application Form WPB–2896 where this form is required subject to the following conditions and directions:

(1) Cancellation of authorizations on buildings not begun on time. In the case of construction of a new building or structure, if work on the building site preparatory to construction is not begun within sixty days of the approval of the project on WPB–2896, the National Housing Agency may cancel the authorization by giving written notice to the owner. Whatever buildings in the total authorized project have not been commenced by physically incorporating material into them by the last starting date specified in the construction schedule of the application will also be subject to cancellation in the way set forth above. These provisions do not preclude cancellation for any other reason. No person shall begin or carry on the construction of any building affected by a cancellation, and no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any material ordered for use in the construction of any building affected by a cancellation.

(2) Utilities connections. The builder must not begin construction of a housing project which requires the extension of utility or sewer lines unless both the builder and the utility operators are authorized to make the extensions. In any case where the applicable order of the U series (water, gas, and electricity) or P–141 (sewers) does not require specific authorization, then all required certifications must have been filed.

(3) Restrictions on use of materials. The builder must not incorporate any material into the housing project except of the kinds and minimum quantities needed for the project and permitted both by the War Housing Critical List and the War Housing Construction Standards (Schedules I and II to this order). If any schedule is amended after the housing project is approved, the builder may comply with any of the provisions of the schedule as amended or the schedule as in effect at the time the housing project was approved, as he may elect. Construction of temporary war housing by the FPHA must conform to these and such other requirements with respect to the use of material as may be imposed by the War Production Board.

(4) Liability of owner. The owner and any other person who holds or later acquires any beneficial interest in the housing project or any part of it, must abide by all the representations, certifications and promises made by the owner in the application, except to the extent he is relieved by regulation or order of the National Housing Agency or the War Production Board.

(d) Assignment of preference ratings and allotments. It is not necessary to show on Form WPB–2896 the quantity of controlled material or to specifically list products and equipment needed for construction. However, if the application is for an installation only the description of the work should clearly indicate what is contemplated. If the application is approved, the builder may use the allotment symbol of "H" with the program designation number shown on the application as approved and a preference rating of AA–3 to get materials permitted by the War Housing Critical List and needed to complete the project. Neither the owner nor the builder shall order or accept delivery of any material prohibited for incorporation in the project by subparagraph (c) (3) above.

(e) Use of allotment symbol. (1) The allotment symbol may be used to order controlled materials and Class A products by:

(i) The builder;

(ii) Manufacturers of Class A products or Class A components of Class A products to be incorporated in the project;

(iii) Contractors and subcontractors doing all or any part of the construction work.

The builder must not use the allotment symbol or give others the right to use it before his application is approved. A manufacturer, contractor or subcontractor may not use it or give others the right to use it unless he has received a statement in substantially the following form endorsed on the order or contract by the person placing it, signed manually or in the way explained in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

Serial No. (identifying project) ——
You are authorized to use the allotment symbol ———— to order controlled materials and Class A products needed to fill this order or contract.

It is not necessary to show the quantities of controlled materials in this statement. Its use shall constitute a representation by the person signing it to the person with whom the order or contract is placed, and to the War Production Board, subject to the penalties of section 35–a of the United States Criminal Code that he has the right to authorize the person with whom the order or contract is placed to use the allotment symbol to fill the order or contract. The standard form described in Priorities Regulation No. 7 cannot be used instead of the above statement.

(2) The preference rating may be used to order all materials other than controlled materials. If an applicant, contractor or subcontractor orders a Class A product the certificate described in Priorities Regulation 7 must be used in addition to the statement set forth in paragraph (d) (1) above. If a contractor or subcontractor needs a preference rating to buy materials the rating may be given him by use of the certificate set forth in Priorities Regulation 7. In using the rating to buy all products and materials other than controlled materials or Class A products the certificate in Priorities Regulation 7 must be used and the allotment symbol must be used along with the preference rating for purposes of identification.

(3) Each person using the allotment symbol or preference rating must maintain at his regular place of business for a period of two years records of the right to use the allotment symbol or preference rating, records, kept by serial number identifying the project, of the amount of controlled materials ordered with the allotment symbol or rating and showing that the materials so ordered were used for the purpose for which the right to use the symbol or rating was granted.

(4) The use of the allotment symbol assigned by this order will not be limited to any particular month or quarter and, therefore, no quarterly identification need be shown when using it. Authorized controlled material orders must, however, show the month in which delivery is requested. The allotment symbol or preference rating may not be used in placing authorized controlled material orders after the scheduled completion date of the project but delivery after such date may be specified on orders placed before then.

(5) The allotment symbol and preference rating must not be used to order controlled materials in greater quantities or on earlier dates than needed for the construction. It may be used not only to order materials needed for the construction but also to replace in inventory materials used for construction. Attention is called to CMP Regulation No. 2 which places a restriction on inventories of controlled materials which must be complied with.

(6) A person who has the right under this order to use an allotment symbol in ordering controlled materials must endorse the symbol on his purchase order and the form of certification set out in CMP Regulation No. 7, signed manually or in the way explained in Priorities Regulation No. 7. An order so endorsed is an authorized controlled material order (i) if it is a "delivery order" as defined in paragraph (b) (9) of CMP Regulation No. 6, (ii) if it is in sufficient detail to permit entry on mill schedules and (iii) if, when placed with a controlled materials producer, it is received by the lead time specified in Schedule III of CMP Regulation No. 1, or at such later time as the controlled materials producer may find it practicable to accept the same.

(f) Applicability of War Production Board orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to the applicable provisions of all regulations and orders of the War Production Board. When any such order excepts from its restrictions any person to whom an order in the P-55 series has been issued, the exception shall include any person who is authorized to build by this order.

(g) Projects previously authorized. Where a housing project has been previously authorized by the War Production Board and the authorization is still in effect, the owner may construct the project under the provisions of the authorization he received or, at his election, under the provisions of this order. If he elects to construct under this order he should maintain the construction schedule in the CMP–H–1, if any; otherwise he should maintain the construction schedule in his application form. The authorization to construct any such project may be cancelled under paragraph (c) (1).

(h) Appeals. Any builder who considers that the provisions of this order or the schedules to it would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board (by letter) setting forth the facts and the reasons why he considers he is entitled to the relief requested. This appeal should be addressed to the War Production Board and filed with the office which approved the application.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the War Production Board and may be denied permission to begin construction under General Conservation Order L–41.

(j) Definitions. (1) "Owner" means the person in whose name the application was filed.

(2) "Builder" means the owner and any building contractor or subcontractor with whom the owner has placed a contract pursuant to which such contractor or subcontractor has agreed to furnish material.

(3) "Housing" means the house, or houses, and its appurtenant buildings and related construction described in the owner's application as approved. This also includes projects converting any structure to residential use. It does not include construction of the following types:

(i) Farm housing and mobile farm labor camps.

(ii) Housing being built directly by or under the direct management of the Military Services.

(iii) Hotels and similar establishments of more than 10 rooms providing housing primarily for transients.

(iv) Institutional Housing—Dormitories and other housing owned and operated by and as an integral part of an "institution," as defined in paragraph (b) (2) of CMP Reg. 5A.

(v) Mobile housing units (trailers).

(vi) Residential construction built by an "operator" (as defined in P–98–b) under a Petroleum Administrative Order of the Petroleum Administration for War.

(vii) Housing built and owned by a producer, as defined in Utilities Order U–1, which consists of not more than 10 dwelling units and is accessory to and an integral part of a project undertaken primarily for the construction of an isolated plant addition such as a gas compressor station or hydro-electric plant.

(viii) Construction of commercial establishments in existing houses, or the remodelling of or installations in those establishments.

(4) "Application" means the owner's application on Form WPB–2896 as approved.

Issued this 1st day of April 1944.

PART 3201—MINING

MINES AND SMELTERS

§ 3201.11 Preference Rating Order P-56—(a) Purpose and scope. This order explains how operators of mines and smelters in the United States and in foreign countries may get the materials and products they need to carry on their operations. The materials covered include not only maintenance, repair, and operating supplies, including controlled materials, but also machinery, other kinds of materials, and equipment. This order does not apply, however, to an operator of a nonessential mine as defined in Limitation Order L–208.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Producer" means a person operating any of the following enterprises, whether in the United States, or any of its territories, or in a foreign country, but does not include any enterprise defined as a "nonessential" mine in Order L–208 or any like enterprise located outside the United States, its territories or possessions: (i) any plant actually engaged in the extraction by surface, open-pit, or underground methods, or in the beneficiation, concentration, or preparation for shipment of the products of mining activity;

(ii) any plant wholly engaged in the processing and burning of refractories; (iii) any plant producing any material listed below by smelting or refining processes, and to whom a serial number has been issued under Preference Rating Order P–73, or is hereafter issued as provided in paragraph (c):

Antimony	Nickel
Cobalt	Platinum
Copper	Tin
Iridium	Tungsten
Lead	Vanadium
Mercury	Zinc
Molybdenum

(iv) any prospecting enterprise for the discovery, exploration, or development of new or additional mining projects, including the construction of access roads; and (v) mines, concentrating mills, smelters, railroads, power plants, refineries, and appurtenances owned and operated by the companies holding serial numbers under Preference Rating Order P–56 on December 24, 1943.

(2) "District" means a mine supply control district of the Foreign Economic Administration.

(3) "Maintenance, repair, and operating supplies" means material used for the following purposes by producers in the conduct of enterprises described above in paragraph (b) (1): (i) minimum upkeep necessary to continue the working condition of essential property or equipment, and (ii) restoration of essential property or equipment to a sound working condition after wear and tear, damage, destruction or failure of parts, or the like have made the property or equipment unfit or unsafe for service; and supplies which are essential to and consumed or worn out in the conduct of such enterprises. In addition, except as hereinafter noted, the term "maintenance, repair, and operating supplies" includes minor capital additions normally necessary to the operation of the enterprise, but not exceeding in cost $500 (excluding purchaser's cost of labor) for any one complete capital addition. The term "one complete capital addition" includes a group of items customarily purchased together and all items which would normally be purchased as part of a single project or plan. No capital addition shall be subdivided for the purpose of coming within this paragraph.

Producers Holding Serial Numbers

(c) (1) Maintenance, repair, and operating supplies for domestic producers with serial numbers. Producers located within the United States, its territories and possessions (herein called "domestic" producers), holding serial numbers, which may be obtained in the manner specified in paragraph (f), are hereby assigned a preference rating of AA–1 for the purchase of maintenance, repair, and operating supplies, other than controlled materials. This rating may be applied by the producer by placing on his delivery order the endorsement described in paragraph (g). The producer may obtain controlled materials for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies by endorsing his delivery order with the endorsement described in paragraph (g) and inserting the allotment symbol "S–7" therein. An order bearing this endorsement constitutes an authorized controlled material order. No serialized producer shall order for delivery during any calendar quarter, with or without preference ratings, or allotment number, maintenance, repair, or operating supplies in an aggregate amount exceeding 120 percent of his aggregate expenditures for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1943. A producer who has several plants or other operating units which maintain separate records of maintenance, repair, and operating supplies may treat each of them separately for purposes of complying with the provisions of this paragraph (c) (1).

(2) Maintenance, repair, and operating supplies for foreign producers with serial numbers. Producers located outside the United States, its territories and possessions and outside of Canada,[1] (herein called "foreign" producers), holding serial numbers, which may be obtained in the manner specified in paragraph (f), may apply for priorities assistance for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies by filing the foreign mine quota application Form WPB–2937 with the Mining Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C.

(3) Machinery and equipment. Domestic producers, foreign producers, and Canadian producers holding serial numbers may apply for priorities assistance in obtaining machinery or equipment by filing Form WPB–1319 in accordance with the WPB–1319 instruction manual. If necessary, Form WPB–1319 may be accompanied by a letter giving any unusual relevant circumstances. No specific application is necessary in the case of minor capital additions as defined in paragraph (b) (3) unless a special form is required by another order of the War Production Board.

Foreign Producers Operating Under Mine Supply Control Districts

(d) Priorities assistance for certain foreign producers operating under mine supply control districts. To enable a producer not holding a serial number hereunder and located outside the continental United States and within the jurisdiction of a district to obtain priorities assistance, the following procedure is established:

[1] Producers located in Canada, whether or not they hold serial numbers issued under this order, may obtain maintenance, repair, and operating supplies in the United States under Canadian order PO6B.

(1) For maintenance, repair, and operating supplies a district may apply for priorities assistance by filing the foreign mine quota application Form WPB–2937 with the Mining Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. A producer not holding a serial number and located in a district may apply for priorities assistance by submitting to such district his purchase orders for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies, together with such information as may be required by the district. Within the limits of the priorities assistance granted to it pursuant to this paragraph (d) (1), such district may authenticate any such purchase order for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies by indicating the appropriate priorities assistance and countersigning the purchase order as follows:

Approved:

Name of district

Signature of authorized official

(2) For other machinery, materials, and equipment, a producer not holding a serial number and located within a district may submit to the War Production Board, Form WPB–1319, such application to be endorsed with the signed approval of the district within which the applicant is located.

(3) A distributor of maintenance, repair, or operating supplies or of other machinery, materials, or equipment used by producers, who is located outside the United States and within the jurisdiction of a district, may apply for priorities assistance in the same manner as prescribed in paragraphs (d) (1) and (d) (2) for producers not holding serial numbers and located within the jurisdiction of a district.

Other Producers Not Holding Serial Numbers

(e) (1) Priorities assistance for other producers not holding serial numbers. A preference rating of AA–5 is hereby assigned to delivery orders for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies (including minor capital additions as defined in paragraph (b) (3)), other than controlled materials, placed by domestic producers not holding serial numbers (other than operators of nonessential mines as defined in Limitation Order L–208). This rating may be applied by the producer by placing on his delivery order the endorsement described in paragraph (g). The producer may obtain controlled materials for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies by placing on his delivery order the endorsement described in paragraph (g) and inserting the allotment symbol assigned by this order shall order controlled materials for delivery during any calendar is placed to use the allotment symbol to fill the order or contract. The standard form described in Priorities Regulation No. 7 cannot be used instead of the above statement.

(2) The preference rating may be used to order all materials other than controlled materials. If an applicant, contractor or subcontractor orders a Class A product the certificate described in Priorities Regulation 7 must be used in addition to the statement set forth in paragraph (d) (1) above. If a contractor or subcontractor needs a preference rating to buy materials the rating may be given him by use of the certificate set forth in Priorities Regulation 7. In using the rating to buy all products and materials other than controlled materials or Class A products the certificate in Priorities Regulation 7 must be used and the allotment symbol must be used along with the preference rating for purposes of identification.

(3) Each person using the allotment symbol or preference rating must maintain at his regular place of business for a period of two years records of the right to use the allotment symbol or preference rating, records, kept by serial number identifying the project, of the amount of controlled materials ordered with the allotment symbol or rating and showing that the materials so ordered were used for the purpose for which the right to use the symbol or rating was granted.

(4) The use of the allotment symbol assigned by this order will not be limited to any particular month or quarter and, therefore, no quarterly identification need be shown when using it. Authorized controlled material orders must, however, show the month in which delivery is requested. The allotment symbol or preference rating may not be used in placing authorized controlled material orders after the scheduled completion date of the project but delivery after such date may be specified on orders placed before then.

(5) The allotment symbol and preference rating must not be used to order controlled materials in greater quantities or on earlier dates than needed for the construction. It may be used not only to order materials needed for the construction but also to replace in inventory

III of CMP Regulation No. 1, or at such later time as the controlled materials producer may find it practicable to accept the same.

(f) Applicability of War Production Board orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to the applicable provisions of all regulations and orders of the War Production Board. When any such order excepts from its restrictions any person to whom an order in the P–55 series has been issued, the exception shall include any person who is authorized to build by this order.

(g) Projects previously authorized. Where a housing project has been previously authorized by the War Production Board and the authorization is still in effect, the owner may construct the project under the provisions of the authorization he received or, at his election, under the provisions of this order. If he elects to construct under this order he should maintain the construction schedule in the CMP–H–1, if any; otherwise he should maintain the construction schedule in his application form. The authorization to construct any such project may be cancelled under paragraph (c) (1).

(h) Appeals. Any builder who considers that the provisions of this order or the schedules to it would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board (by letter) setting forth the facts and the reasons why he considers he is entitled to the relief requested. This appeal should be addressed to the War Production Board and filed with the office which approved the application.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the War Production Board and may be denied permission to begin construction under General Conservation

(ii) Housing being built directly by or under the direct management of the Military Services.

(iii) Hotels and similar establishments of more than 10 rooms providing housing primarily for transients.

(iv) Institutional Housing—Dormitories and other housing owned and operated by and as an integral part of an "institution," as defined in paragraph (b) (2) of CMP Reg. 5A.

(v) Mobile housing units (trailers).

(vi) Residential construction built by an "operator" (as defined in P–98–b) under a Petroleum Administrative Order of the Petroleum Administration for War.

(vii) Housing built and owned by a producer, as defined in Utilities Order U–1, which consists of not more than 10 dwelling units and is accessory to and an integral part of a project undertaken primarily for the construction of an isolated plant addition such as a gas compressor station or hydro-electric plant.

(viii) Construction of commercial establishments in existing houses, or the remodelling of or installations in those establishments.

(4) "Application" means the owner's application on Form WPB–2896 as approved.

Issued this 1st day of April 1944.

PART 3201—MINING

quarter in an amount exceeding 120 percent of his aggregate expenditures for controlled materials for use as maintenance, repair, and operating supplies during the corresponding calendar quarter of 1943. Such producers may apply for higher ratings for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies exclusive of minor capital additions by filing Form WPB–2910 with the Mining Division of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. Such producers may apply for priorities assistance for machinery or equipment and minor capital additions by filing Form WPB–1319 with the Mining Division of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. Foreign producers, not holding serial numbers and not located in a mine supply control district, may apply for priorities assistance for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies, exclusive of minor capital additions, by filing Form WPB–2910 with the Mining Division of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., and for machinery or equipment, including minor capital additions, by filing Form WPB–1319 with the Mining Division of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) [Deleted Apr. 5, 1944.]

Serial Numbers

(f) Issuance of serial numbers. Applications for serial numbers may, in the case of producers within the continental limits of the United States, be filed with the appropriate War Production Board Regional Office, Attention: Regional Technical Advisor, Mining Division; or with the appropriate State Coordinator of Mines for transmission to such Regional Advisor; or with the Mining Division, War Production Board, Washington, D. C. Serial number application by districts must be filed with the Mining Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. Applications by Canadian and all other foreign producers should also be filed with the Mining Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. In filing such application, the following forms shall be used:

Metal mines	Form WPB–1212
Coal mines	Form WPB–2784
Non-metallic mines	Form WPB–2756
Core or churn drill operators	Form WPB–2963

Smelters and refineries shall apply by letter. In issuing and cancelling serial numbers, the War Production Board will consider the importance to national defense of the present and prospective output of materials to be produced, the consumption of the critical material involved, and the importance to national defense of competing demands for such material, and competing demands for manpower and transportation. Serial numbers issued under Preference Rating Orders P–56 and P–73, and not cancelled prior to December 24, 1943, are hereby confirmed and shall be considered as having been issued under this Order P–56.

Use of Priorities Assistance; All Producers

(g) Application and extension of priorities assistance. The way to use preference ratings is explained in Priorities Regulation No. 3, and the way to use allotments, both in placing authorized controlled material orders and in making allotments, is explained in CMP Regulation No. 1. Instead of using the certification prescribed by those regulations or by any other regulation of the War Production Board, including Priorities Regulation No. 7, the producer may use the following endorsement signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7:

Allotment number .....
Order authorized under Preference Rating Order P–56, Serial No. .....

He shall not add the symbol "MRO" despite the certification instructions in CMP Regulation No. 5 or any other regulation. Requirements of other orders of the War Production Board as to special certifications remain applicable, but the foregoing endorsement shall be added to such certification. The use of the foregoing endorsement by a producer shall constitute a representation by the producer to the seller and to the War Production Board, subject to the penalties of section 35A of the United States Criminal Code (18 U. S. C. 80), that to the best of the producer's knowledge and belief he is authorized under applicable War Production Board orders and regulations to place the delivery order, to receive the item ordered for the purpose for which ordered, and to use the preference rating or allotment symbol for this purpose. Preference ratings assigned under this order for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies may not be used to obtain items on List A or List B of Priorities Regulation No. 3, except where that regulation permits the use of a P–56 rating for a particular item.

(h) Restrictions on receipts and inventories. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, including CMP Regulation 2, receipts and inventories of producers shall be subject to the following restrictions only: No producer shall receive any delivery of material which will increase his inventory of such material to an amount greater than the minimum necessary to sustain his current level of operations; and the ratio of such inventory to current production shall in no event exceed the ratio of average inventory to average production for the years 1938, 1939, and 1940.

(i) Restrictions on use and resale of material. Notwithstanding § 944.11 of Priorities Regulation No. 1, no producer shall use any material, whether or not obtained pursuant to this order, for any purpose other than that for which priorities assistance was granted to acquire it; nor may he sell any material (including machinery and equipment), which he has used in the conduct of any enterprise described in paragraph (b) (1), whether or not he obtained such material with priorities assistance under this or any other order, except:

(1) To a producer holding a serial number hereunder, or

(2) With the written approval of the War Production Board applied for by letter to the Mining Division, or

(3) With the written approval of a district if he is a non-serialized producer located within such district, or

(4) As permitted by Priorities Regulation No. 13.

Applicability of Other Regulations and Orders

(j) (1) CMP Regulation No. 5 and other regulations of the War Production Board. None of the restrictions contained in CMP Regulation No. 5 shall be applicable to producers, and no producer shall obtain any material under CMP Regulation No. 5. However, privileges under other orders and regulations of the War Production Board granted to persons on Schedules I and II of CMP Regulation No. 5 shall be considered as applicable to producers operating under this order. For example, Order E–5–a on gauges and precision measuring hand tools classifies a person on Schedules I and II of CMP Regulation No. 5 as an "approved user." Producers operating under Order P–56 are in the same position providing that certification clauses and all other provisions of such other orders are complied with.

(2) Restriction on use of priorities assistance. No foreign producer or district shall acquire maintenance, repair, or operating supplies through the use of any preference rating except after having received an approved application on the foreign mine quota application Form WPB–2937, from the Mining Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. No producer shall acquire any machinery or equipment (other than maintenance, repair, and operating supplies) through the use of any preference rating or any specific authorization of the War Production Board except after filing Form WPB–1319 in the manner above provided, which shall be accompanied by the special application form, if any, required by any other order, or except after filing a project application.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(k) Records and orders. Each producer and each distributor acquiring maintenance, repair, or operating supplies pursuant to this order shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than two years accurate and complete records of all such materials so acquired and used or disposed of which shall upon request be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(l) Reports. Producers shall file such report forms as may be required from time to time by the War Production Board, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942. The reporting requirements of this order have received the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(m) Additional assistance and appeals in individual cases. If the sound working condition of a producer is adversely affected by any provisions of this order or by inability to obtain material essential for repair, maintenance, or operating supplies, the producer may apply to the War Production Board for additional assistance by letter, in triplicate, giving the reasons why such assistance is essential. In case of breakdown, imminent breakdown, or other emergency, the application may be made by telegraph or telephone.

(n) Communications. All reports and applications hereunder and all other communications with respect to this order shall, except as otherwise specifically provided, be addressed to the Mining Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: P–56.

(o) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 5th day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INTERPRETATION 1

APPLICABILITY TO CUTTING AND POLISHING OPERATIONS AT THE QUARRY

The term "producer" as defined in Preference Rating Order P–56 includes persons operating a quarry and also persons conducting further cutting and polishing operations at the quarry site, such as the manufacture of building stone and tombstones. These latter operations are included in the phrase "preparation for shipment, of the products of mining activity" appearing in paragraph (b) (1) (i) (§ 3301.11) of the order.

Since paragraph (j) (1) of the order forbids "producers" from obtaining any materials under CMP Regulation 5, producers of tombstones or other stone products at the quarry site may not operate under this regulation but must get priorities assistance exclusively under Order P–56.

The manufacture of tombstones and structural stone at a separate plant away from the quarry is not covered by Order P–56, and priorities assistance for MRO supplies required in such operations may be obtained under CMP Regulation 5. Under CMP Regulation 5, a rating of AA–2 is assigned to persons engaged in the manufacture of structural stone, while persons engaged in the manufacture of tombstones and monuments may use the AA–5 rating which is assigned under that regulation to unlisted business. (Issued Nov. 13, 1943.)

[General Preference Order M–93, Direction 1]

PREFERRED STATUS OF CERTAIN DELIVERIES AND USES OF WOOD PULP

The following direction is issued pursuant to General Preference Order M–93:

(a) Reasons for this direction. A producer's output of wood pulp is allocated by the War Production Board for his own uses and for delivery to other consumers on the basis of the amount which he reports to the War Production Board as his estimated output. If he over-estimates his production, it is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense to assure that this does not result in cutting off wood pulp from the consumers to whom it was allocated and who have no other source of supply for the continuance of their minimum operations, and to assure that any necessary reductions are made in those grades of paper and paperboard not listed in paragraph (d) below.

(b) Producers. If a producer is unable during any calendar quarter to make all deliveries which he has been directed on Form WPB–699 to make, he shall reduce his deliveries to himself to the extent necessary to complete all deliveries to consumers other than himself.

(c) Consumers. If a consumer during any calendar quarter has, or anticipates that he will have, inventory and receipts of wood pulp less than the amount of wood pulp he is authorized on Form WPB–2973 to consume, he shall not use in the production of grades of paper and paperboard other than those listed in paragraph (d) below more wood pulp than the amount calculated by subtracting (1) the amount of his above-mentioned shortage of wood pulp from (2) the total amount of wood pulp he is authorized on Form WPB–2973 to use in the production of grades of paper and paperboard other than those listed in paragraph (d) below.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

CORDAGE FIBER, CORDAGE YARN AND CORDAGE

§ 3290.221 General Conservation Order M–86—(a) Allocation of cordage fiber and yarn. No processor shall make or accept delivery of any cordage fiber or cordage yarn contrary to directions which from time to time the War Production Board may issue. The War Production Board may from time to time allocate to processors the available supplies of cordage fibers and cordage yarns, and specifically direct the time, manner, and quantities in which deliveries to processors shall be made or withheld.

(b) Specific restrictions on processing. The War Production Board may issue specific directions to processors who have received cordage fiber or yarn by allocation under this order or any other War Production Board order or by delivery from any United States Government agency, as to the purpose for which the fiber or yarn may be processed and as to the extension of more critical fibers by mixture with less critical ones in the manufacture of any product.

(c) Provisions relating to processing of fiber into rope. (1) No processor may put into process any manila, agave, or other cordage fiber or cordage yarn to manufacture rope except:

(i) For an end use allowed for rope manufactured from that fiber or yarn in the rope end use schedule, Schedule A, attached to this order, or

(ii) To fill orders placed by or for the account of any United States Government agency having in effect a plan approved by the War Production Board, to screen its orders and requisitions for rope and to eliminate unnecessary end uses of rope manufactured from critical fibers. Only the Army, Navy, and Maritime Commission now have such approved plans in effect. Any agency having an approved plan may, however, instruct its suppliers to deliver rope in accordance with the end use restrictions of this order or any part of them, and to the extent they are thus adopted by such agency the restrictions will apply to its orders.

(2) No processor may in any calendar quarter put into process for the manufacture of rope more manila and agave fiber than the following percentages of his basic monthly poundages:

(i) Manila—111%
(ii) Agave—530%

Use of "extenders", including agave fourcroydes, and spinnable tow, shall not be charged against the permitted quantity of agave. Specific directions may be issued to exceed the above percentages, of either fiber, to permit increased deliveries to particular claimant agencies. If a processor is permitted to exceed his quota of either fiber, he may be required to accept a corresponding decrease in his quota of the other fiber.

(3) Preference Rating AA-3 is assigned to processors to get istle and jute yarns for processing into rope.

(d) Provisions relating to the processing of fiber or yarn into other products. (1) No processor may put into process any manila, agave or other cordage fiber or cordage yarn for the manufacture of products other than:

(i) Rope, as permitted in paragraph (c);

(ii) Twine, as specified in Schedule B; and

(iii) Other products to the extent and for the purposes specifically authorized or directed by the War Production Board.

However, the use of agave (other than cantala or sisalana, from Java, Africa, Haiti or Madagascar) may be authorized from time to time for binder or baler twine.

(2) Manufacturers of wire rope are assigned a rating of AA-1 to get yarn or roving for component parts of wire rope. Material delivered pursuant to this preference rating shall be charged against the processor's non-military quota referred to in paragraph (g).

(e) Restrictions on delivery of rope and twine. (1) No processor or dealer may sell, deliver, or accept delivery of rope or twine, produced in whole or in part from any cordage fiber or cordage yarn, except for the purposes for which the product may, under this order, be manufactured. However, this order does not control or restrict the sale, delivery, acceptance of delivery or use of rope:

(i) In Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands, if the rope was made outside of the United States or any of its territories or possessions.

(ii) If the rope was or will be sold by retailers from coils already cut on October 27, 1943.

(2) No person may sell or deliver binder or baler twine if he knows or has reason to believe that:

(i) The binder twine will not be used with mechanical harvesting equipment or in the growing, harvesting or delivering of agricultural crops.

(ii) The baler twine will not be used in a self-tying machine for baling hay, straw or other fodder crops.

(f) Allocation of non-military cordage. (1) The War Production Board may, in accordance with Program Determinations, state the quantity of manila, agave (sisal) and other cordage fibers which each processor must, out of his production during stated periods, process into cordage, as allowed by Schedules A and B, to be delivered or set aside for delivery only to fill non-military orders and only to the extent specified for particular non-military uses. From that quantity, the processor may not fill any other orders, except orders rated AAA. When that cordage is sold by the processor, he must inform the buyer of the particular non-military use for which it must be used. The buyer may use or sell that cordage only for the specified non-military use or an AAA order.

"Non-military" means general industrial, farm, oil field and fishing uses. It also includes cores and centers for wire rope, regardless of their ultimate use. The term does not include purchases for direct or ultimate delivery to, or for incorporation into any material for direct or ultimate delivery to the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, or orders for commercial marine uses (including harbor or river tugs, ferries or barges, or stevedoring or inland waterway operation).

(2) The War Production Board may issue directions to processors and dealers for the establishment of emergency stocks of rope for maritime use.

(g) End use information. No person may sell or deliver any product controlled by this order to any person who he knows or has reason to believe will use the product in a manner which this order does not permit. He should satisfy himself as to this in some reasonable manner before delivering. He may, but need not, require a statement in writing showing the specific purpose or use for which the item is ordered.

(h) Restrictions on the use of damaged material. Any processor or dealer who has in his possession damaged or defective cordage fiber, cordage yarn or cordage may report by letter the extent of the damage and state to the War Production Board the percentage not suitable for the manufacture of products permitted by this order. He may then upon receipt of acknowledgment, without objection from the War Production Board, use or dispose of any portion unsuitable for the manufacture of products permitted by this order, free from its restrictions. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(i) Inventory restriction. In addition to the restrictions on inventory contained in Priorities Regulation 1 (§ 944.14), no processor may accept delivery of any istle or jute yarns which will increase his inventory of istle or jute yarns beyond an amount which, to the best of his knowledge and belief, will be used by him in the next sixty days.

(j) Invalidity of oral instructions. Instructions, allocations and directions, under this order, will be by telegram or letter unless otherwise specified, and in the name of the War Production Board. No one is bound by any oral instructions.

(k) Reports. Every processor of manila and agave fiber shall report monthly supplying the information required on Form WPB 2901 (formerly PD–128). Processors of all other cordage fibers will report their sales monthly on Form WPB 2901 (formerly PD–128). Processors of all cordage fibers other than manila and agave shall report monthly, supplying other information required on Form WPB 914 (formerly PD–469). These reporting requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(l) Imports. The importation of cordage fibers, cordage yarns, and cordage shall be made in conformity with the provisions of General Imports Order M–63, as amended from time to time.

NOTE: Following paragraph (m), formerly (a), and paragraphs (a) through (l), formerly (b) through (m), redesignated Apr. 5, 1944.

(m) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

SCHEDULE A—CORDAGE END USE

NOTE: Schedule A amended Apr. 5, 1944.

This list specifies the permitted end uses for which rope may be manufactured from Manila, agave and other fibers. However, it does not restrict manufacture for and delivery to the Army, Navy, and Maritime Commission.

The left hand column lists the permitted end uses. Rope for end uses not listed may not be manufactured. The second column explains more fully the character of the end uses which are permitted. The third column indicates what products may be made of Manila, the forth, of agave, and the fifth indicates any restrictions on use of fibers other than Manila and agave, for this product. In the case of Manila and agave, the word "yes" in the appropriate column means that use of the fiber is permitted, otherwise, it is prohibited. Any restrictions on use of fibers other than Manila and agave will be specifically stated in column five. If there is a blank in column five, any fiber other than manila and agave may be used.

The second condition is that the aggregate amount received (in no case in excess of 7900 gallons) must be within the following additional quantity limitations:

(1) Where the purpose for which delivery is requested is the manufacture of any of the following products, the quantity received in any calendar quarter shall not (without specific written authorization) exceed 100% of the quantity used for the same purpose in the corresponding calendar quarter of the 12-month period ended June 30, 1941:

For the purposes of this paragraph (c) (2) all toiletry and cosmetic uses of ethyl alcohol shall be considered as a whole, and the use during the base period of ethyl alcohol in the manufacture of a particular toiletry or cosmetic product may be used to support the acceptance of delivery for use in the manufacture of a different toiletry or cosmetic prod-

(d) Special exemptions for acceptance of small deliveries and acceptance of deliveries by hospitals and scientific institutions. (1) Any person, upon giving to each supplier from whom he obtains delivery a certificate substantially in the form set forth in Appendix D, may, without written authorization of War Production Board and without any limitation based on past use, accept small deliveries as specified in this paragraph. The specified maximum quantity of either (but not both) of the following two categories of ethyl alcohol may be accepted from all sources: (i) 972 gallons, which may be comprised of proprietary solvent or completely denatured alcohol, or a portion of each, or, in the alternative (ii) 162 gallons which may be comprised of specially denatured or pure alcohol, or a portion of each. However, in computing the amount which may be so accepted, all other ethyl alcohol delivered or ordered for delivery in the same quarter pursuant to any of the provisions of this order, must be taken into account and only the difference between any amounts so delivered and ordered and either 972 gallons or 162 gallons, as the case may be, may be accepted pursuant to this paragraph. Moreover, specially denatured and pure alcohol may not be accepted under this paragraph for use in the manufacture of rubbing alcohol compound or preparation or for use in the manufacture of toiletries and cosmetics.

(2) Any hospital or scientific institution holding a permit issued by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, permitting it to acquire undenatured alcohol tax free, may, without written authorization of War Production Board and without any limitation based on past use, accept delivery of such quantity of alcohol as it is permitted to acquire tax free by such permit.

(e) Acceptance of deliveries (and use by suppliers) upon specific authorization. Each person seeking specific authorization to accept delivery of ethyl alcohol during any calendar quarter, whether for his own consumption or resale (and each supplier requiring authorization to use ethyl alcohol in any calendar quarter) shall file application therefor on or before the 5th day of the last month of the preceding quarter. The application will be made on Form WPB–2945 (formerly PD–600) in the manner set forth in the general instructions appearing on that form, subject to the special instructions appearing in Appendix A to this order. If there is any inconsistency between the general and special instructions, the special instructions must be followed.

(f) Special provisions governing deliveries by suppliers. (1) A supplier may without specific authorization of the War Production Board deliver to any person, who has filed with him the appropriate certificate substantially in the form either as set forth in Appendix C or in Appendix D, the quantity of ethyl alcohol which such person is entitled to receive under one of the paragraphs (c) (1) to (c) (6), inclusive, or under paragraph (d) (1).

(2) A supplier may, without such certificate and without specific authorization of the War Production Board, deliver to any hospital or scientific institution which holds a permit issued by the Bureau of Internal Revenue permitting it to acquire undenatured alcohol tax free, such quantity of alcohol as such hospital or scientific institution is permitted to acquire tax free by its permit.

(3) A supplier must not deliver ethyl alcohol where he knows or has reason to believe that the certificate is false, but in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe he may rely upon it.

(4) If War Production Board issues written directions to suppliers reducing the quantities of ethyl alcohol which may be delivered pursuant to paragraph (f) (1), suppliers will rateably reduce all orders for ethyl alcohol from customers wishing it for the same class of use.

(g) Deliveries by suppliers upon specific authorization. Each supplier requiring specific authorization to deliver ethyl alcohol during any calendar quarter shall file application on or before the 15th day of the last month of the preceding quarter. The application will be made on Form WPB 2947 (formerly PD–602) in the manner set forth in the general instructions appearing on that form, subject to the special instructions appearing in Appendix B. If there is any inconsistency between the general and special instructions, the special instructions must be followed.

(h) Special authorizations and directions. (1) Authorizations and directions with respect to delivery to be made or accepted in each calendar quarter (and with respect to use by suppliers in each calendar quarter) will generally be issued by War Production Board prior to the beginning of such quarter, but War Production Board may at any time in its discretion and notwithstanding any of the provisions of this order issue directions to any person with respect to:

(ii) Licensed physicians, dentists and veterinarians.

(iii) The holders of written prescriptions or orders of licensed physicians, dentists and veterinarians.

(2) The restrictions of this order shall govern delivery of ethyl alcohol to and acceptance of delivery of ethyl alcohol by any person for use in the manufacture of anti-freeze preparations, provided that:

(i) Any person may deliver or accept delivery of completed anti-freeze preparations containing ethyl alcohol without specific authorizations under this order; and

(ii) Nothing contained in this order shall be construed to permit the manufacture, delivery or acceptance of delivery of any anti-freeze preparation in violation of § 1100.1, Limitation Order L–51, as from time to time amended.

(3) No person shall deliver or accept delivery of ethyl alcohol or any compound or preparation containing ethyl alcohol for use, whether in its then form or after rectification or other treatment, for beverage purposes.

(j) Special provisions; inventories, unfilled orders. (1) Ethyl alcohol allocated for inventory shall not be used except as specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board.

(2) Ethyl alcohol allocated to fill a specified order or class of orders shall, where and to the extent that such order or class of orders is for any reason not filled, revert to inventory as though originally allocated therefor.

(k) Transactions outside the United States. This order does not apply to deliveries of ethyl alcohol which are both made and received outside of the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia, or to the use of ethyl alcohol outside such states and District, but the import of ethyl alcohol shall be subject to all the provisions hereof.

(l) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Forms. Forms WPB 2945 and WPB 2947, provided for in paragraphs (e) and (g) have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

PART 4600—RUBBER, SYNTHETIC RUBBER, BALATA AND PRODUCTS THEREOF

[Rubber Order R-1, Appendix III as Amended April 5, 1944]

Introductory. Appendix III to Rubber Order R-1 as amended is a compilation of supplementary orders and directives of general applicability which affect rubber and rubber products. In the past, these orders and directives have involved principally the conversion of products from crude rubber to synthetics and have been issued individually to the manufacturers of the particular products. The purpose of Appendix III is to issue these directives and miscellaneous supplementary orders in printed form.

The material in Appendix III is arranged in accordance with the following product classifications:

Mechanical goods: Wire and cable; Tires and tubes; Footwear; Heels and soles; Proofing and combining of fabrics; Medical, surgical, dental, drug sundries; and Miscellaneous.

Each of these product classifications has been assigned a section number commencing with § 4600.51. Supplementary orders and directives in each group are designated by letter.

§ 4600.50 Applicability of Rubber Order R-1. Supplementary orders and directives which appear in Appendix III shall govern in case of inconsistency with other provisions of Rubber Order R-1. These orders and directives may be incorporated in the Rubber Order from time to time, at the discretion of the War Production Board.

§ 4600.51 Mechanical goods. The following supplementary orders and directives are applicable to mechanical goods:

(a) Vibration mount and shock absorbers. No crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed in the manufacture of compression type mountings or insulations regardless of shore durometer reading.

No crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed in the manufacture of plate, sandwich, tubular or other types of shear mountings or insulations. This restriction covers mountings or insulations where the temperatures of applications are minus 40° F. and above. Aircraft engine and instrument mounts may be considered as falling in the applications functioning below minus 40° F.

No crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed in the manufacture of non-bonded torsional vibration dampers but bonded torsional vibration dampers may be manufactured from crude rubber until further notice.

No crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed in the manufacture of cushioning for cameras, radio and radar instruments, or fire and flight control mechanisms except on special authorization by the War Production Board.

Crude rubber may be used for bonding cements and tie-gum compounds which shall not exceed 1/32" thickness for any type of vibration mount or shock absorber.

(b) [Deleted Jan. 12, 1944]

(c) Pipe rings. After February 1, 1944, no crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed in the manufacture of pipe rings.

(d) Milking machine inflations. Crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed in the manufacture of milking machine inflations during the month of April 1944, provided the amounts of crude rubber or natural latex consumed during that month do not exceed ½ of the manufacturer's consumption for milking machine inflations during the first calendar quarter of 1944.

No crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed after April 30, 1944 in the manufacture of milking machine inflations. Consumption after April 30, 1944 may, however, be authorized by the War Production Board upon appeal for relief, but only if the manufacturer has not consumed the amounts of crude rubber or natural latex permitted for the month of April, 1944.

(f) Street car sandwich wheels. After February 1, 1944, no crude rubber may be consumed in the manufacture of street car sandwich wheels, except that crude rubber may be used for bonding cements and tie-gum not to exceed 1/32" in thickness.

(g) Hard rubber products. Rubber Order R-1 as amended permits crude rubber to be consumed in the manufacture of the following blown hard rubber products: Bottles, fittings, pistons, valves, and valve parts for use with corrosive chemicals and explosives. It also permits crude rubber and natural latex to be consumed in the manufacture of hand made component hard rubber parts of machinery for the manufacture of rayon, explosives and corrosive chemicals. (See List 19, Appendix II).

After February 15, 1944, no crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed in the manufacture of the above mentioned blown hard rubber products.

After February 15, 1944, the maximum percentage of crude rubber or natural latex by volume in any compound for hand made component parts of machinery for the manufacture of rayon, explosives and corrosive chemicals shall not exceed 10% by volume of the compound.

(e) Long range field wire. After February 1, 1944, no crude rubber or natural latex may be consumed in the manufacture of W-143 long range field wire.

§ 4600.53 Tires and tubes. The following supplementary orders and directives are applicable to tires and tubes:

(a) Fighter type and ice grip airplane tires. Rubber Order R-1, List 29, requires that all airplane tires (except beaching gear tires) be manufactured in the S-5 or S-7 synthetic construction. These provisions shall not apply to fighter type and ice grip airplane tires. All fighter type and ice grip airplane tires shall be manufactured using natural rubber compounds throughout the tire until further notice; the compound grades to be used shall be B friction and B tread on all sizes except the following which shall be A friction and A tread.

The foregoing certification shall not be required for deliveries of pressure sensitive tape to a person who has already filed the certification with his supplier.

Certification of the purchaser may be relied upon by the seller unless the seller knows or has reason to believe that the certification is false.

(b) Inflatable or pneumatic mattresses, cushions and pillows. Rubber Order R-1 as amended does not permit the consumption of rubber or synthetic rubber in the manufacture of inflatable or pneumatic mattresses, cushions or pillows, to fill civilian orders.

In addition, the consumption of rubber or synthetic rubber in the manufacture of the foregoing products to fill Government orders is hereby prohibited except upon special authorization in writing by the War Production Board. (This supersedes SA-142.)

(c) Shoe cements. Notwithstanding the provisions of any quota directive 4-A or 4-B, no crude rubber or natural latex shall be consumed in the manufacture of shoe cements after December 31, 1943 without special authorization.

In order to receive adjustments of quota directives for this purpose, manufacturers should address a letter to the Manager of Allocations, Office of Rubber Director, Washington 25, D. C.

In this connection, it should be noted that Rubber Order R-1 as amended permits shoe cements containing crude rubber or natural latex only for shoe repairing.

(d) Shoe cement inventories in hands of shoe manufacturers on January 1, 1944. Shoe manufacturers who hold inventories of shoe cements which contain crude rubber or natural latex on January 1, 1944 are hereby authorized to use the same for the following permitted shoe manufacturing operations until April 1, 1944:

Inventories of shoe cements containing crude rubber or natural latex which remain in the hands of any shoe manufacturer on April 1, 1944 shall be reported to the Office of Rubber Director, War Production Board, by letter indicating the amounts of cement by type of operation.

(e) Cements containing Neoprene for wood heels. After February 1, 1944, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of cement containing Neoprene if he knows or has reason to believe that it will be used for covering wood heels. After February 15, 1944, no person shall use any cement containing Neoprene for the covering of wood heels except to fill Government orders.

(f) Cements for non-leather shoes. Cements containing general purpose synthetics may be used in the manufacture of shoes made from materials other than leather except that cements containing Neoprene shall be used only in the shoe manufacturing operations for which Neoprene is permitted in the manufacture of leather shoes by Amendment No. 1 to Rubber Order R-1 as amended.

(i) Temporary loans of general purpose synthetics. A manufacturer may make a short term "loan" of general purpose synthetics to another manufacturer for permitted uses under Rubber Order R-1 as amended. A loan must not be made unless the person lending the material is reasonably certain that an equivalent amount of the material will be returned to him when he needs it. Full records of the loan transactions must be kept by both persons lending and persons borrowing, and the transactions must be reported as shipments or receipts on Form WPB-3410 for the calendar month in which the transactions occur. Each transaction shall be identified separately on the form under "remarks". Deliveries of material under this paragraph may be made without special authorization.

Acquisition of balata for the manufacture of products for which rubber or synthetic rubber is also needed but not permitted by Rubber Order R-1, will in no way affect the disposition of subsequent appeals for permission to consume rubber or synthetic rubber.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

General Ration Order 5 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 5.6 (c) is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "His reserve allotments will be equal to one-half of his bases for meal services and refreshments."

2. Section 10.1 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 10.1 Seasonal users. (a) An institutional user is a seasonal user with respect to an establishment which is not in operation during every month in the year.

(b) If a seasonal user applies for a regular allotment in any period, and he did not operate in both months of the preceding period, his figures for the last two calendar months (after February 28, 1943) in which he did operate instead of his figures for the preceding period, shall be used in determining his allotment. If those months were not full months of operation, his figures are converted to a full two months basis in this way:

(1) Each of those figures is divided by the number of days he operated in those months;

(2) Each result is multiplied by the number of days he would have operated in those months had both been full normal months of operation;

(3) The figures so obtained are used, for the purpose of this order, as if they were his figures for the preceding allotment period.

(c) If a seasonal user has not operated for at least two calendar months after February 28, 1943, his allotment for each rationed food shall be twice his bases.

(d) A seasonal user who will not be in operation during the entire allotment period, must notify the Board when he applies for his allotment, of the number of days he will not be in operation during that period, and his allotment shall be reduced proportionately.

(e) A seasonal user who has suspended operations temporarily may apply for an allotment for the period in which he will resume operations at any time during the (30) days before the date on which he will resume. (A seasonal user who was already granted an allotment for the allotment period following the one in which he suspended operations, under the former provisions of this order, may not, of course, be granted another allotment.)

(f) A seasonal user who has combined in one registration establishments which he does not operate during the same months in the year, shall re-register those establishments when he next applies for an allotment. He shall either register them separately or combine in one registration those operated in the same months in the year. He must file with the Board additional OPA Forms R-1307 and R-1307 Supplement, giving the information called for by those forms, separately, for each establishment or combination of establishments. Where he combines some establishments in one registration, he must attach to his forms a list showing the name and address of each and the months in which it is operated. He may apportion any remaining excess inventory of the originally combined establishments among his establishments as re-registered.

This amendment shall become effective April 8, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(c) Modification of maximum prices. Whenever a maximum price calculated and reported under this regulation is apparently based upon a miscalculation or upon the use of a wrong figure, the Office of Price Administration may require the producer to recalculate his maximum price and report the recalculated price. Pending such recalculation and report the maximum price of the producer shall be the maximum price established by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 11. Maximum prices of retailers for sales to ultimate consumers. (a) The maximum price of every retailer for the sale of any commodity listed in Appendix A to ultimate consumers shall be the maximum price of the producer to the retailer multiplied by 125 percent. If the commodity in question is unwrapped or unpackaged when received from the producer the retailer may add the cost, not exceeding any maximum price thereof, of the packaging materials furnished by the retailer.

SEC. 12. Maximum prices for new classes of sales and for new products. If the producer has not established a maximum price on any commodity listed in Appendix A pursuant to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 319 his maximum price for such commodity shall be the sum of (1) his cost of ingredients and packaging materials at the time of calculation, not exceeding any maximum price thereon, and (2) his direct labor costs and markup determined as follows:

(a) The direct labor costs and markup as computed for his similar commodity most nearly like it; or

(b) If it cannot be so determined the direct labor costs and markup for a similar commodity of his most closely competitive seller of the same class as computed by such seller in his last calculation reported under Maximum Price Regulation 319; or

SEC. 13. Calculation and reporting of maximum prices by producers—(a) Maximum prices must be calculated and reported. No producer subject to this regulation shall sell any of the commodities listed in Appendix A hereof until he has calculated and reported his maximum price to the Office of Price Administration. If such report was filed pursuant to Maximum Price Regulation 319, such report shall satisfy the requirement hereof until a further report is required under this revised Maximum Price Regulation 319. In all other cases the report shall show:

(1) The present maximum price and weight of each commodity produced and

(2) The maximum price and weight of each such commodity during the base period specified in Appendix A or, in the case of a commodity which was not produced during such base period, the maximum price and weight of such commodity as first calculated and reported pursuant to the provisions of this regulation or the original Maximum Price Regulation 319.

Maximum prices for sales to ultimate consumers shall be reported to the state or district office of the Office of Price Administration for the state or district in which the commodities are produced. Maximum prices for sales to retailers shall be reported to the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C.

(b) Recalculation of maximum prices. During the months of April and October of each year commencing with the month of April, 1944, every producer subject to this regulation shall recalculate his maximum prices for the sale of all commodities sold by him listed in Appendix A on the basis of his then existing ingredient and packaging costs, but using the previously reported direct labor costs and markup. Each producer shall report these new maximum prices to the Office of Price Administration, as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, unless he elects to continue to sell at the same maximum price by making the appropriate change in package or unit net weight as provided in paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) Modification of maximum prices. Whenever a maximum price calculated and reported under this regulation is apparently based upon a miscalculation or appears to be excessive, the Office of Price Administration may require the filing of data supporting the price as calculated and reported. After a maximum price has been calculated and reported, it may not be changed except by the written consent of the Office of Price Administration which will be given only in cases of excusable clerical error or other mistake.

(d) Price changes may be reflected in unit weight changes. If the producer elects to reflect the maximum price changes prescribed by this section by making changes in package or unit net weight he shall, at the time of recalculation, divide his existing maximum price per unit of the commodity by his maximum price as recalculated and then multiply the existing package or unit net weight of the commodity by the percentage so determined. The resulting figure shall be the new package or unit net weight for sales at the maximum price prevailing prior to the recalculation in question. Such package or unit net weight changes together with the applicable maximum prices must be reported to the Office of Price Administration as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(e) Adjustments of fraction of a cent. If the figure resulting from the calculation of any maximum price contains a fraction of one-half cent or more it shall be adjusted to the next higher cent and if it contains a fraction of less than one-half cent to the next lower cent.

(a) Any use by a "person" of "foods covered by this order" in producing or manufacturing, for sale or "transfer," a food for human consumption, which is not covered by this order, or a pharmaceutical, is an "industrial use". PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PROCESSED FOODS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Ration Order 13 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 6.3 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) However, any person may make an industrial use of processed foods which have a zero point value without registering as an industrial user.

2. Section 6.6 (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Reduction of allotment and adjustment of excess inventory based on frozen processed foods. (1) The allotment for the second allotment period of 1944 of any industrial user who used frozen processed foods during the second quarter of his base period, shall be reduced by the amount which represents that use. The amount of the reduction shall be treated as excess inventory. He may not, after April 6, 1944, use processed foods having a point value, if, before that date, he used processed foods up to the amount of that reduced allotment plus any unused parts of his prior allotments or if such use of processed foods would cause his total use, in points, during the second allotment period to exceed that reduced allotment plus any unused parts of his prior allotments.

(2) An industrial user who acquired frozen processed foods for points after March 15, 1944, from points issued to him for the second allotment period, may apply for an adjustment of his excess inventory. (An industrial user who, on March 15, 1944, had points on hand or in his ration bank account is considered to have acquired frozen processed foods from points issued to him for his second allotment period only to the extent that the point value of frozen processed foods he acquired after March 15, 1944, exceeds the points he had on hand or in his ration bank account on that date.) Application shall be made on OPA Form R-315 to the board with which he is registered and must state, with respect to each such acquisition:

(i) The point value of frozen processed foods acquired for points after March 15, 1944, from points issued to him for the second allotment period;

(ii) The types and quantities of frozen processed foods acquired with those points;

(iii) The dates on which such foods were acquired; and

(iv) The names and addresses of the persons from whom such foods were acquired.

(3) If the board finds the statements made in the application are true, it shall grant the application and reduce his excess inventory by the number of such points which he used between March 16 and April 1, 1944, inclusive, to acquire frozen processed foods.

This amendment shall become effective April 6, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1418—TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS

ALASKA

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

1. Section 1418.52 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1418.52 Maximum prices for commodities not actually produced or manufactured in the Territory of Alaska. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this § 1418.52, with respect to any commodity for which a maximum price has been established in the Continental United States and which is not actually manufactured or produced in the Territory of Alaska, the maximum price to a buyer in the Territory of Alaska shall be:

(1) The direct cost to the seller of the commodity sold,

(2) Plus the amount of mark-up over the direct cost to the seller of the commodity sold during the period from November 7, 1941, to December 6, 1941, inclusive, which the seller added in his highest selling price for the same or similar commodity sold during such period to a purchaser of the same class, or if no such sale was made during that period, the amount of such mark-up added by the seller in his highest selling price of such commodity to a purchaser of the same class during the last thirty days prior to November 7, 1941, in which such a sale was made:

Provided, That in case a seller's maximum price for a commodity cannot be determined as provided above, his maximum price for such commodity shall be the same as the maximum price determined under this paragraph (a) for the same or similar commodity by his most closely competitive seller of the same class for sales to the same class of purchasers: and

Provided further, That the price determined in accordance with this paragraph (a), if not in line with the maximum prices of other similar sellers, may be adjusted by the Administrator of the Ninth Region of the Office of Price Administration, subject to review as provided in Procedural Regulation No. 7.[2]

NOTE: For the purposes of paragraph (a), one commodity shall be deemed "similar" to another commodity, if it has the same use, affords the purchaser fairly equivalent serviceability and would ordinarily sell in the same price line as the commodity being priced. Differences merely in style or design which do not substantially affect use, or serviceability, or the price line in which such commodity would ordinarily have been sold, shall not be taken into account.

(b) Where the seller's maximum price for a commodity cannot be determined under paragraph (a) of this section, the maximum price of such commodity shall be determined in accordance with the following procedure. The seller shall file in duplicate with the Territorial Office of the Office of Price Administration in Juneau, Alaska, an application containing:

(1) A description of the commodity for which a maximum price is sought.

(2) A statement of the reasons why the maximum price for such commodity cannot be determined under paragraph (a) of § 1418.52.

(3) The direct cost of the commodity to the seller.

(4) The price at which the seller intends to offer the commodity for sale.

(5) Such other facts which the seller deems relevant in the determination of a price for such commodity.

The Territorial Director in Juneau, Alaska, may authorize a price which is in line with the maximum prices established by this regulation, or may, in his discretion, forward the application to the Administrator of the Ninth Region in Washington, D. C. If a seller objects to the price authorized by the Territorial Director, he must file such objection with the Territorial Office at Juneau, Alaska, within thirty days after the date the notice of price authorization by the Territorial Director was postmarked. If, at the expiration of forty days from the date the price authorization is signed by the Territorial Director, the Administrator of the Ninth Region does not issue an order establishing a maximum price other than that authorized by the Territorial Director, the seller may thereafter continue to sell such commodity at a price not in excess of the maximum price authorized by the Territorial Director. The Administrator for the Ninth Region may, from time to time, make such changes in the authorized maximum prices as in his judgment changes in circumstances require. Such increases or decreases in maximum prices shall not have retroactive effect. If a seller objects to a price authorized by the Administrator for the Ninth Region, he may obtain review in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 7.

2. Section 1418.53a is added to read as follows:

§ 1418.53a Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets, or stock in trade of any person are or have been sold or otherwise transferred after July 30, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business or continues to deal in the same type of commodities in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which the transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record and filing provisions of the regulation.

3. Section 1418.55 (b) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) Wholesalers selling to other wholesalers, or retailers selling to other retailers, and adding to direct cost a mark-up greater than the amount added on sales during the period, November 7 to December 6, 1941, inclusive. If during this period a wholesaler sold only to retailers, or a retailer sold only to consumers, the wholesaler, or retailer, must apply to the Territorial Director of the Office of Price Administration in Juneau, Alaska, for a mark-up; a wholesaler may not use the mark-up he took on his sales to retailers and a retailer may not use the mark-up he took on his sales to consumers.

4. Section 1418.63 (a) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) "The direct cost to the seller" means the price which the seller paid for the commodity to his supplier less discounts allowed to the seller plus all costs of shipment actually incurred by the seller: Provided, That (i) the seller's supplier is a customary supplier, (ii) the price paid for the commodity is no higher than the supplier's ceiling, and (iii) shipment is by the customary means of transportation: Provided further, That in computing the costs of shipment incurred by the seller, war risk insurance costs shall not exceed the amount represented by the charge for war risk insurance by the War Shipping Administration on an identical shipment.

5. Section 1418.63 (a) (13) is added to read as follows:

(13) A seller's "most closely competitive seller of the same class" means a seller who (i) is performing the same function (for example, manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer), (ii) is of a similar type (for example, department store, mail order house, specialty shop, cut rate store), (iii) is selling the same or a similar commodity, (iv) is closely competitive in the sale of such commodities, and (v) is located nearest to the seller.

This amendment shall become effective April 11, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of April 1944.

Acting Administrator.

The preliminary estimate of the probable cost of the works and rights to be provided the District under said contract is $6,300,000;

The construction charges payable by the District to the United States on account of the above-described "new lands" of the District will be due and payable in forty (40) annual instalments, (the last thirty-five (35) of which will be equal annual instalments) and will be based upon this preliminary estimate until the actual cost of the works and rights to be provided the District under the said contract is determined and announced, and the first five (5) of which will be two dollars ($2.00) per irrigable acre per year, as the irrigable acreage is shown on the above list of lands. The first of said annual installments will be due and payable by the District to the United States on December 31, 1944, and subsequent installments will be due on December 31 of each year thereafter. The amount per acre of the thirty-five (35) equal annual instalments will be governed by the number of acres of "new land" finally to be irrigated. This amount will be determined and announced hereafter.

All interested persons are referred to said plan, which is on file in the offices of the Commission, for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed which may be summarized as follows:

1. MUA Common Voting Trust will be terminated and a single holding company (hereinafter called the Reorganized Holding Company) will be substituted for MP&L, NOBO, MUA, RIPS and NEPA to the end that all of the operating utility companies now in the NEPA holding company system, with certain exceptions, will be direct subsidiaries of the Reorganized Holding Company.

2. The Reorganized Holding Company will be a Massachusetts voluntary association, either a new association or one of the existing holding companies, and it will acquire all the assets and will assume all the obligations of MP&L, NOBO, MUA, RIPS and NEPA.

3. The capital structure of the Reorganized Holding Company will consist of funded debt, preferred shares and common shares as follows:

(a) $60,000,000 of funded debt consisting of obligations maturing not earlier than twenty years from the date of issue, with a sinking fund and secured by all, or a substantial part of, securities to be owned by the Reorganized Holding Company upon completion of the plan. The interest rate on the funded debt is anticipated by the applicants not to exceed four percent per annum. The funded debt is to be sold for cash and the proceeds used in discharging (at principal amount and accrued interest) the present funded debt of NEPA, MUA and NOBO, which debt will have been assumed by the Reorganized Holding Company;

(b) 2,594,423 shares of $2 Preferred having a par value of $27.50 per share, or an aggregate par value of $71,347,000, and being entitled to cumulative dividends at the rate of $2 per share per annum before dividends are paid on the Common Shares. Such $2 Preferred Shares will be entitled in liquidation to the par value and accrued dividends, and will be callable at any time on thirty days' notice at $33 per share and accrued dividends. If accrued dividends equal $2 per share, the $2 Preferred Shares may elect two directors, and if accrued dividends equal $4 per share, then the $2 Preferred Shares may elect a majority of the directors; and

(c) 5,227,368 shares of Common without par value, having a pro forma book value of $133,653,000. Subject to the rights of holders of $2 Preferred Shares, Common Shares will be entitled to one vote per share at all times and will be entitled to dividends when and as declared by the directors of the Reorganized Holding Company.

4. The $2 Preferred Shares and the Common Shares of the Reorganized Holding Company will be issued in exchange to the public holders (i. e., holders other than the applicant holding companies) of shares of said applicant holding companies. No fractional shares of the Reorganized Holding Company will be issued but fractional scrip exchangeable for whole shares will be delivered for such purpose. Fractionable scrip will become void six months after the date of issue. The proposed exchange will be on the following basis:

(a) As to the public shareholders of NEPA:

For each 6% Preferred Share of NEPA, including dividend arrearages thereon.	One and one-half shares of $2 Preferred and three and nine-tenths shares of Common.
For each $2 Dividend Preferred Share of NEPA, including dividend arrearages thereon.	One-half of a share of $2 Preferred and one and three-tenths shares of Common.
For each Common Share of NEPA.	One share of Common.

Outstanding fractional warrants of NEPA representing 14 of its 6% Preferred shares and 7 of its Common shares may be exchanged for whole shares (or for the new securities to be issued for such whole shares) if presented within 60 days following published notice by NEPA after a plan has become effective, and any not so presented will become void.

(b) As to the public shareholders of MP&L:

For each $2 Preferred Share MP&L, including dividend arrearages thereon.	One-half of a share of $2 Preferred and one and one-tenth shares of Common.
For each $2 Second Preferred Share of MP&L, including dividend arrearages thereon.	One-twentieth of a share of Common.
For each Common Share of MP&L.	One-fiftieth of a share of Common.

(c) As to the public shareholders of NOBO:

For each Preferred Share of NOBO.	One and one-half shares of $2 Preferred.
For each Common Share of NOBO.	Three shares of Common.

Outstanding scrip certificates representing 2¼ Preferred shares and 2⅛ Common shares of NOBO may be exchanged for whole shares (or for the new securities to be issued for such whole shares) if presented within sixty days following published notice by NOBO after a plan has become effective, and any not so presented will become void. Holders of Share Trust Certificates still outstanding of the NOBO Share Trust, which was terminated in 1931, will receive the shares of the Reorganized Holding Company issued in exchange for the shares of NOBO represented by such Share Trust Certificates.

(d) As to the public shareholders of MUA and MUA Trust:

For each Preferred Share of MUA.	One share of $2 Preferred and one share of Common.
For each Common Share of MUA.	One-fifth of a share of Common.

MUA Common Voting Trust will be terminated and liquidated and the public holders of Voting Trust Certificates will receive the shares of the Reorganized Holding Company issued in exchange for the common shares of MUA represented by such Voting Trust Certificates.

Outstanding fractional warrants representing 47 Preferred Shares of MUA and Voting Trust Certificates for 123 Common shares of MUA may be exchanged for whole shares (or for the new securities to be issued for such whole shares) if presented within sixty days following published notice by MUA after a plan has become effective, and any not so presented will become void.

(e) As to the public shareholders of RIPS:

For each Preferred Share of RIPS.	One share of $2 Preferred.
For each Class A Share of RIPS.	Two shares of $2 Preferred.

RIPS has outstanding warrants issued in 1926 providing for payments aggregating $6,190.10. These warrants will be paid if presented within sixty days following published notice by RIPS after a plan has become effective, and any not so presented will become void. In 1932 RIPS guaranteed principal and interest on certain serial promissory notes of Yellow Cab Company, a subsidiary company, maturing $15,000 a year until 1950 and $330,000 in 1951. The present holder of the notes is United Electric Railways Company, also a subsidiary company. RIPS agreed to purchase such notes at any time upon request of United Electric Railways Company on six months' notice. Under the Plan RIPS will purchase the notes at their principal amount and pay therefor through the surrender for cancellation of subordinated bonds of United Electric Railways Company now held by RIPS, said bonds to be applied to such purchase upon the basis of their then redemption price.

In 1928 RIPS agreed to deposit with a trustee annually to and including 1960, or until the earlier retirement of all of the General and Refunding Bonds of United Electric Railways Company, $100,000 plus an amount equal to interest paid on subordinated bonds. The obligations under this agreement to make future deposits and purchases will be cancelled under the plan but subordinated bonds will remain subordinated.

5. The consummation of the plan is subject to all necessary approvals by this Commission and to approval by a United States Court having jurisdiction with respect thereto, and upon such approvals having been obtained, the plan and each of the steps, terms and provisions thereof will be binding upon all security holders of NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA Common Voting Trust and MUA to the extent that their securities and their rights thereunder are affected by the plan.

Applicants request after due notice and opportunity for hearing:

1. That the Commission find said Plan and each of the steps, terms and provisions thereof fair and equitable to all persons affected thereby and appropriate and necessary to effectuate and ensure compliance with the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11 of said act, and enter an order approving said plan and requiring it to be carried out and each of the steps thereof to be taken, all in the manner therein set forth;

2. That the Commission's order herein contain the findings and recitals necessary to meet the requirements of section 371 and sub-section (f) of section 1808 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and any other sections thereof providing exemptions or benefits with respect to transactions in obedience to or in compliance with orders of the Commission;

3. That for the purpose of effectuating the said plan and of causing its said order of March 17, 1943 to be enforced and complied with in the manner set forth in said Plan, the Commission make such further findings, issue such further orders and take such further action as may be appropriate.

By an order dated February 8, 1941 (Holding Company Act Release No. 2550) the Commission instituted proceedings pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the act involving NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA Common Voting Trust and MUA. By an order dated July 1, 1941 issued for the purpose of effecting an orderly and economic disposition of the aforesaid proceeding, the Commission specified that certain issues and matters relating to MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA Common Voting Trust and MUA be taken up and considered for disposition and determination prior to other issues and matters relating to such companies and to NEPA.

In its findings, opinion and order of March 17, 1943, the Commission disposed of the issues and matters specified in its order of July 1, 1941, and reserved jurisdiction to consider any and all plans for compliance with the action ordered therein, to enter such further orders as may be necessary or appropriate to ensure that the action ordered is accomplished in a manner consistent with the public interest and with the provisions of the act, and to enter such further orders as may be necessary or appropriate with respect to any remaining issues and matters in the proceeding.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to the Plan of Simplification of the New England Power Association Holding Company System; that said plan should not be approved except pursuant to further order of the Commission; that said plan should be considered under the reservation of jurisdiction of the aforesaid order dated March 17, 1943; that it is necessary presently to determine what further orders, if any, are necessary or appropriate to ensure that the action ordered to be taken in the order of March 17, 1943, be accomplished in a manner consistent with the public interest and with the provisions of the Act; and that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that the issues and matters raised by the order of February 8, 1941 and heretofore undetermined be considered and determined in connection and together with the foregoing matters;

It further appearing to the Commission that the issues presented by said plan involve questions of law and fact common to the issues and matters with respect to which jurisdiction was reserved by the Commission in its order of March 17, 1943; that certain of the evidence in the proceedings in which said order of March 17, 1943, was entered is also relevant to the issues presented by said plan and to the issues and matters to which jurisdiction was reserved and that said plan and said proceedings should be consolidated and the issues and matters with respect thereto should be heard together; and

It further appearing appropriate, in view of the Commission's order of March 17, 1943, and of the provisions of section 11 (d) of said act with respect to court enforcement of such order, to provide opportunity for hearing, as part of such consolidated proceedings, as to whether the Commission should approve any plan of reorganization for the NEPA holding company system that may be hereafter proposed by the Commission in the first instance or by any person having a bona-fide interest in such reorganization:

It is therefore ordered, That the application for approval of the Plan of Simplification of New England Power Association Holding Company System (File No. 54–92) and the proceeding pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of said act (File No. 59–14) instituted by the order of the Commission dated February 8, 1941, be and the same hereby are consolidated for the purpose of consideration and determination of the matters and issues with respect to which jurisdiction was reserved as aforesaid, the taking of evidence with respect to said matters and issues, and the taking of evidence with respect to said plan and any other plan or plans that may be filed by any duly qualified person or persons.

It is further ordered, That a hearing be held in the consolidated proceedings at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., on the 3d day of May 1944, at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated at that time by the hearing room clerk in Room 318. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner provided by its rules of practice, Rule XVII, on or before April 28, 1944.

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said consolidated proceeding or by any other plan which may be filed by any duly qualified person or persons, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the plan as proposed or as modified is necessary and appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) (2) of the act, fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby, and in conformity with the requirements of the Commission's order of March 17, 1943;

2. Whether the securities proposed to be issued by the Reorganized Holding Company meet the requirements of section 7 of the act;

3. Whether the acquisition by the Reorganized Holding Company of the assets of NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS and MUA is detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11 of the act;

4. Whether the acquisition by the Reorganized Holding Company of the assets of NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, and MUA will serve the public interest by tending towards the economical and efficient development of an integrated public utility system;

5. Whether the proposed allocations of the Preferred Shares and Common Shares of the Reorganized Holding Company to the public shareholders of NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA and MUA Common Voting Trust are appropriate, or whether such allocations should be modified so as to provide a larger or smaller allocation of said Preferred Shares and Common Shares;

6. Whether the distribution of the Preferred Shares and Common Shares of the Reorganized Holding Company, as proposed or modified, to the public shareholders of NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA and MUA Common Voting Trust, is in all other respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the act and the rules thereunder;

7. Whether it is appropriate under the circumstances and the applicable provisions of the act for NEPA to discharge its presently outstanding Debentures at principal amount and accrued interest without payment of any call premium thereon.

8. What, if any, action in addition to that directed in our order of March 17, 1943, and that proposed in the plan, is necessary and should be required to be taken to ensure that the corporate structure or the continued existence of NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA Common Voting Trust and MUA, and each of them, does not unduly or unnecessarily complicate the tructure or unfairly or inequitably distribute voting power among security holders of their holding company system;

9. Whether the plan contains provisions with respect to fees and expenses to be paid in connection with the plan and all transactions incidental thereto which are reasonable and appropriate and in the public interest;

10. Whether, in the event that the Commission shall approve such plan as filed or as modified, the Commission shall approve such plan for purposes of section 11 (d) of the act (as well as section 11 (e)) so as to permit the Commission on its own motion and irrespective of request therefor on the part of NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA and MUA Common Voting Trust, to apply to a court for the enforcement of such plan pursuant to section 11 (d);

11. Whether, in the event that the Commission shall not approve said plan as filed or as modified, the Commission shall itself propose and approve a plan for purposes of section 11 (d) or shall approve for purposes of section 11 (d) any plan that may be proposed by any person having a bona-fide interest in the reorganization of NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA and MUA Common Voting Trust; and

12. Generally, whether the proposed transactions, including proposed accounting entries with respect thereto, are in all respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the Act and the rules thereunder, and, if not, what modifications should be required to be made therein and what terms and conditions should be imposed to satisfy the statutory standards.

It is further ordered, That notice of this hearing be given to NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA and MUA Common Voting Trust and to all other persons; such notice to be given to NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA and MUA Common Voting Trust by registered mail and to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Holding Company Act, and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That NEPA, MP&L, NOBO, RIPS, MUA Common Voting Trust and MUA shall give notice of this hearing to their respective shareholders of record as of a date not earlier than the date of this order by mailing to each of said persons a copy of this notice and order for hearing at least twenty days prior to the date of this hearing, and that NEPA shall give notice of this hearing to the indenture trustee or trustees of its presently outstanding debentures and to the registered holders of such debentures by mailing to each of said persons a copy of this notice and order for hearing at least twenty days prior to the date of this hearing and shall cause to be published in daily newspapers of general circulation in New York City and Boston at least twenty days prior to the date of this hearing a notice directed to all holders of its presently outstanding debentures stating the manner in which such debentures are to be effected by the proposed plan; and

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved to separate, whether for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions or matters hereinbefore set forth or which may arise in these proceedings, or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to said consolidated proceeding or to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economical disposition of the matters involved.

By the Commission.

GREAT LAKES UTILITIES CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF AMENDMENT AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 3d day of April 1944.

The Commission having by order dated March 31, 1942, pursuant to section 11 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, approved a section 11 (e) plan dated March 1, 1942, providing, among other things, for the liquidation of all the assets of Great Lakes Utilities Company ("Great Lakes"), a registered holding company, and for the subsequent dissolution of Great Lakes; and said order having provided that the maturity date of Great Lakes' outstanding First Lien Collateral Trust Gold Bonds, 5½% Series due 1942, be extended to May 1, 1943, and that upon a showing of due diligence and subject to the approval of the Commission and the court, Great Lakes should have the right to extend the maturity of said bonds from May 1, 1943 to May 1, 1944; and said order having further provided that Great Lakes apply to the Commission for the entry of such further orders as were necessary for that purpose, and the Commission having reserved jurisdiction to enter such further orders as might be necessary or appropriate; and

The Commission, upon application of Great Lakes, having by order dated April 28, 1943, approved the extension of the maturity of said bonds from May 1, 1943 to May 1, 1944, and the extension of the maturity of said bonds having also been approved by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania;

Notice is hereby given that Great Lakes has filed an amendment to the section 11 (e) plan heretofore approved by the Commission, to postpone the maturity date of the bonds of Great Lakes from May 1, 1944 to May 1, 1945, during which time Great Lakes will attempt to formulate and consummate a plan to wind up the affairs of the company.

Upon the approval of the proposed amendment to the plan by this Commission, Great Lakes has requested this Commission to apply to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the plan as modified.

The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11 (e) of the act, before approving any plan thereunder, to find after notice and opportunity for hearing that the plan as submitted or as modified is necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11, and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby, and it appearing appropriate to the Commission that notice be given, and that a hearing be held upon the Amendment to afford all interested persons an opportunity to be heard in respect thereto;

It is ordered, That a hearing under the applicable provisions of the Act and Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on the 20th day of April 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. On such date the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. All interested persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner provided by the rules of practice, Rule XVII, on or before April 18, 1944.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier, or any other officer or officers designated by the Commission to preside at such hearing, shall exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by these proceedings, attention will be directed at the hearing to a consideration of the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed Amendment is necessary to effectuate the provision of section 11 (b) of the act, and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

2. Whether an extension of the maturity date of the outstanding First Lien Collateral Trust Gold Bonds of Great Lakes Utilities Company from May 1, 1944 to May 1, 1945 is consistent with the public interest and the interests of investors and consumers;

3. Whether the proposed transactions comply with the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act;

4. What, if any, terms and conditions with respect to the proposed transactions should be prescribed in the public interest or for the interests of investors and consumers.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing copies of this order by registered mail to Great Lakes Utilities Company and Bank of the Manhattan Company, and that notice be given to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

It is further ordered, That Great Lakes Utilities Company give notice of this hearing to each holder of Great Lakes' First Lien Collateral Trust Gold Bonds, 5½% Series (insofar as the identity of such bondholders is known or available to Great Lakes Utilities Company) by mailing to each of said bondholders a copy of this notice at his last known place of address at least ten days prior to the date of the hearing.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Regional Manpower Director of Region No. IV by § 903.2 of War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3, "Minimum Wartime Workweek of 48 Hours," (8 F.R. 7225), and having found that such action will aid in alleviating labor shortages which are impeding the war effort, I hereby designate the Front Royal-Winchester, Virginia, Area as subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9301.

I. For the purposes of this designation, the Front Royal-Winchester, Virginia, Area shall include:

II. The effective date of this designation is May 16, 1944.

III. Not later than the effective date, each employer in the Front Royal-Winchester, Virginia, Area shall, in accordance with War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3:

(a) Extend to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours, the workweek of any of his workers whose workweek can be so extended without involving the release of any worker;

(b) If extension of the workweek of any of his workers to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours would involve the release of any workers, submit to the Area Manpower Director the number and occupational classification of the workers whose release would be involved, together with proposed schedules for their release, and thereafter extend such workweek when and as directed in schedules authorized by the War Manpower Commission;

(c) File an application for a minimum wartime workweek of less than 48 hours for those workers engaged in employment in which the employer claims that a workweek of 48 hours would be impracticable in view of the nature of the operations, would not contribute to the reduction of labor requirements, or would conflict with any Federal, State or local law or regulation limiting hours of work.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

JOSEPH LORENZETTI AND SONS

Joseph Lorenzetti, doing business as Joseph Lorenzetti and Sons, is in the trucking business on Hollow Road, Stafford Springs, Connecticut. In July, 1943, he began construction of an addition to a garage owned by him in Stafford Springs and used by him to garage his own trucks employed in his trucking business at an estimated cost of $7,500, which exceeded the $1,000 limit permitted by Conservation Order L–41. Joseph Lorenzetti had filed a War Production Board form for this construction which was not allowed, and he was aware of the War Production Board order governing construction; his violations must be deemed wilful.

These violations of Conservation Order L–41 have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.515 Suspension Order S–515. (a) Deliveries of material to Joseph Lorenzetti, doing business as Joseph Lorenzetti and Sons, or under any other name, his and its successors or assigns, shall not, directly or indirectly, be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied, or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation including allotments shall directly or indirectly be made to Joseph Lorenzetti, doing business as Joseph Lorenzetti and Sons, or under any other name, his and its successors or assigns of any material or product the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Joseph Lorenzetti, doing business as Joseph Lorenzetti and Sons, or under any other name, his and its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on April 5, 1944, and shall expire on June 5, 1944.

By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

CHENEY F. NEWTON

Cheney F. Newton, of Brimfield, Massachusetts, is a general building contractor. In July, 1943, he began construction of an addition to a garage owned by Joseph Lorenzetti, on Hollow Road, in Stafford Springs, Connecticut, and used by him to garage trucks used in his trucking business, at an estimated cost of $7,500, which exceeded the $1,000 limit permitted by Conservation Order L–41. This construction was begun with knowledge that it was in violation of Conservation Order L–41, and constitutes a wilful violation.

This violation of Conservation Order L–41 has diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.516 Suspension Order S–516. (a) Deliveries of material to Cheney F. Newton, his successors or assigns, shall not directly or indirectly be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order, and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied, or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other orders or regulations of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation including allotments shall directly or indirectly be made to Cheney F. Newton, his successors or assigns, of any material or product, the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Cheney F. Newton, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on April 5, 1944, and shall expire on June 5, 1944.

Issued this 29th day of March 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Allocation Order M–25, Revocation]

FORMALDEHYDE, HEXAMETHYLENETETRAMINE AND PENTAERYTHRITOL

Section 3293.56 Allocation Order M–25 is hereby revoked. This revocation does not affect any liabilities incurred under the order. Formaldehyde, hexamethylenetetramine and pentaerythritol are subject to allocation under General Allocation Order M–300 as Appendix A materials, subject to Schedules 9, 10 and 11, respectively, issued simultaneously with this revocation.

Use, delivery and acceptance of delivery of these materials prior to May 1, 1944, will be authorized on the basis of applications filed in the form heretofore prescribed in Order M–25.

Issued this 6th day of April 1944.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 1, Direction 26 as Amended Apr. 6, 1944]

WHEN ALLOTMENTS MAY BE RETURNED BY SECONDARY CONSUMER DIRECTLY TO CLAIMANT AGENCY OR INDUSTRY DIVISION

The following direction is issued pursuant to CMP Regulation 1:

(a) Paragraph (w) of CMP Regulation No. 1 requires a consumer to return allotments which he does not need to the person from whom he received them. In the case of a prime consumer making an A or a B product, the return is made directly to the Claimant Agency or Industry Division which made the allotment except in those cases where the return is to be made to a Field Office of the War Production Board, as explained in paragraph (d) below. In the case of a secondary consumer, the return is made to the prime or secondary consumer who made the allotment.

(b) In those cases where it is impractical for a secondary consumer to return an allotment to the person from whom he received it, he may make the return directly to the Claimant Agency whose symbol appears on the allotment or to the War Production Board in the case of allotments bearing the symbols B, F, G, J, K, S and V. This situation may occur where a secondary consumer produces the same product for a relatively large number of customers whose schedules are all identified by the same abbreviated allotment number. For example, a manufacturer of metal stampings receives orders from many manufacturers accompanied by allotments all bearing the allotment number N-6. As a practical matter, he places all of the allotments in a single allotment account designated N-6. If his requirements for the manufacture of metal stampings are reduced, for any reason, it will be very difficult for him to figure out what portion of the total allotment should be returned to each customer and furthermore the amount returned to each will probably be small. Under this direction, he is permitted to make a return directly to the Navy.

Form CMP-32, "Consumers Return of Allotments", available at all War Production Board offices, should be used in making returns under this direction, but if it is impractical to get this form, the return may be made by letter.

(d) Returns of allotments by secondary consumers under this direction bearing the symbols: B, F, (except F-5), G, J, and S should be mailed to the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C. A prime consumer should also make returns under these symbols to Washington, unless he has been notified that his case has been transferred to a Field Office, when he should make his returns to the appropriate Field Office. In case of doubt, returns of allotments bearing these symbols should be mailed to Washington. Returns of allotments under this direction bearing the symbols listed below should be mailed to the addresses indicated:

A-1	Containers Division, Temporary S Building, Room 2320, Washington 25, D. C., except cases transferred to a Field Office, when returns by prime consumers should be made to that office.

(e) Attention is called to paragraph (w) (2) of CMP Regulation No. 1 which provides that a periodic check-up must be made by consumers of their allotments to see whether they have more than they need. Returns of allotments after the expiration of a quarter should always be made directly to the industry division or Claimant Agency which originated the allotment. However, where cases have been assigned to a Field Office, returns by prime consumers should be made to the Field Office.

(f) If a secondary consumer who has returned an excess allotment under this direction directly to a Claimant Agency, discovers he miscalculated and returned too much material, he may apply directly to the Claimant Agency to which the return was made for a reallotment. The Claimant Agency will reallot to him no more than the amount which he returned and only for the same quarter for which the return was made. If he needs more material than he returned, he should apply to his customer for the additional allotment, as is explained in paragraph (w) of CMP Regulation No. 1.

LUMBER CONSUMERS REQUIREMENTS

Paragraph (b) (2) of Order L-335 (§ 3285.121) is hereby amended as follows:

(a) The first sentence of (b) (2) is amended by striking the word "who" which appears between the words "person" and "either" and inserting, "or any part of a person's operation (such as a plant, branch, or department) as to which a separate lumber inventory is regularly maintained, which".

(b) Paragraph (b) (2) is further amended by adding at the end of the paragraph the following:

If a person has two or more branches, plants, departments, or other divisions which regularly maintain separate lumber inventories and none of which comes within the above definition, then neither the person nor any of its divisions is a "Class I Consumer". If either plant consumed over 50,000 board feet of lumber during the last quarter of 1943 or expects to consume more than 50,000 board feet of lumber during either the second or third quarter of 1944, such plant would be treated as a separate "Class I Consumer" for all purposes under this order. DELIVERIES OF SOUTHERN YELLOW PINE LUMBER TO MANUFACTURERS AND REPAIRERS OF RAILROAD ROLLING STOCK AND PASSENGER CARRIERS AND MANUFACTURERS OF NEW TRUCK AND TRAILER BODIES

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order M-361:

(a) This direction which is issued in accordance with Order M-361, paragraph (g) tells how manufacturers and repairers of railroad rolling stock and passenger carriers and manufacturers of new truck and trailer bodies may get the restricted southern yellow pine lumber they need without having to file Form WPB 2720. The manufacturer or repairer may use either the procedure outlined in this direction or file on Form WPB 2720. It is not necessary for you to use one procedure to the exclusion of the other; that is, either procedure may be used from time to time as is most convenient to you.

(b) Any person who gets restricted southern yellow pine lumber under this direction for the production or repair of locomotives, cars, passenger carriers, or for the production of new truck or trailer bodies, must endorse the following certification on his purchase orders:

> All restricted southern yellow pine lumber covered by this purchase order or contract is required in order to enable me to fulfill an authorized production schedule for the production of locomotives, cars and passenger carriers, or for their repair, or for the production of new truck or trailer bodies. Delivery may be made to me under Direction 4 to Order M-361, with the terms of which I am familiar.

No one may use the certificate to get more lumber than the minimum necessary to enable him to fulfill his authorized schedules for the production of locomotives, cars and passenger carriers, for repairs of locomotives, cars and passenger carriers, or for the production of new truck and trailer bodies. For example, no one may get lumber under this direction for such purposes as bridges, buildings, grain doors, and the like, or for the repair of truck bodies. This direction does not affect purchases from firms other than producers, and does not permit distribution yards to get lumber by certificate merely because they sell to railroads or car manufacturers.

(2) "Industrial consumer" means a prospective consumer who is requesting an extension of service to a building used in whole or in part for the manufacture, processing or assembly of products or materials.

(3) "Commercial consumer" means a prospective consumer not classified in this order as "domestic" or "industrial."

(b) Permission to build certain extensions. In accordance with the provisions of paragraph (i) of Utilities Order U-1, extensions of electric, water, gas, and central steam heating facilities may be made or connected by producers when all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) If construction or remodeling by the consumer is involved, no specific direction, order, certificate or other authorization for construction has been issued by the War Production Board to authorize such construction or remodeling. If such authorization has been issued, the construction of utility facilities is governed by Supplementary Utilities Orders U-1-d or U-1-h.

NOTE: Former subparagraphs (2) and (3) deleted; former subparagraphs (4) through (7) redesignated (2) through (5) Apr. 6, 1944.

(2) Extensions, including any part built by or for the consumer, can be built within the limits of the Utilities Construction Standards, shown in Schedule I of this order. In the case of extensions of natural gas facilities to serve lessors of property on which producing natural gas wells have been completed, the portion built by or for the consumer need not be included.

(3) The cost of material for any continuous extension built in any calendar quarter, excluding the cost of material for any part built by or for the consumer, does not exceed $1,500.

(4) No other producer can render the same service with lesser amounts of critical material.

(5) The extension does not duplicate an adequate service already installed or constitute a stand-by service.

(c) Other orders. This order does not constitute a release, in the case of gas producers or consumers, from the restrictions of Utilities Order U-7 or Limitation Order L-174.

(d) Effect of amendment of this order on construction started. Construction of extensions permitted by Supplementary Utilities Order U-1-f prior to this amendment may be completed if construction other than right of way clearing has started prior to the date of this amendment.

Issued this 6th day of April 1944.

PART 4500—POWER, WATER, GAS, AND CENTRAL STEAM HEATING

[Supplementary Utilities Order U-1-h, as Amended Apr. 6, 1944]

§ 4500.9 Supplementary Utilities Order U-1-h—(a) Permission to build certain extensions. In accordance with the provisions of paragraph (j) of Utilities Order U-1, extensions of electric, gas, water, and central steam heat facilities may be made or connected by a producer, subject to the restrictions of paragraph (b) below, to serve the following types of consumer premises:

(1) Premises which are being built or remodeled under authority of a specific authorization issued pursuant to Conservation Order L-41, unless such building or remodeling is agricultural construction as defined in L-41, and

(2) Premises which will be occupied exclusively by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration or Civil Aeronautics Authority.

(3) [Deleted Apr. 6, 1944]

(b) Restrictions on construction. Extensions of the type permitted by paragraph (a) of this order may be built only if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The cost of material for any continuous extension built in any calendar quarter, excluding any part built by or for the consumer, exceeds $1500 but does not exceed $5000.

(2) The extension does not duplicate an adequate service already installed or constitute a stand-by service.

(3) No other producer can render the same service with lesser amounts of critical material.

(4) In the case of extensions to buildings which are to be used exclusively for dwelling purposes the extension (including service drop or service pipe and any portion built by or for the consumer) can be built within the limits established by the Housing Utilities Standards issued by the War Production Board.

(5) In the case of extensions to premises which are to be built or remodeled under authority of a specific authorization applied for pursuant to Conservation Order L–41, the producer has completed Form WPB–3348, and delivered it to the builder for attachment to the builder's application for L–41 approval.

(3) If taken from practical working minimum inventory it may be replaced therein only in accordance with paragraph (b) of Utilities Order U–1.

(4) It may not be ordered until either

(i) The producer has been advised that the builder of the structure to be served has received L–41 approval, or

(ii) The producer has been advised by such builder that L–41 approval is not required and has received a written request from such builder to supply the utility service.

(e) Other orders. This order does not constitute a release, in the case of gas producers or consumers, from the restrictions of Utilities Order U–7 or Limitation Order L–174.

(f) Effect of amendment of this order on construction started. Construction of extensions permitted by Supplementary Utilities Order U–1–h prior to this amendment may be completed if construction other than right of way clearing has started prior to the date of this amendment.

(v) To transport a person to enable him regularly to cultivate a garden, if an area of at least fifteen hundred (1500) square feet is devoted to the production of vegetables, and if his labor is necessary for such cultivation. The application shall state the location of the garden and the distance between the garden and the applicant's home. Any ration issued under this subdivision shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) The applicant must show that a bona fide ride-sharing arrangement has been made pursuant to which at least four persons (including the operator) will be regularly carried in the vehicle for the purpose for which the application is made, or that no such ride-sharing arrangement could reasonably be made but that the vehicle carries as many persons as could reasonably be expected in the light of the circumstances in which it is used.

(b) No ration may be issued which will provide mileage in excess of three hundred (300) miles for use during the six-month period immediately following the date of the application.

(c) No ration shall be issued unless the mileage provided by such ration, together with the mileage available in the basic ration, is adequate to permit travel to such garden an average of twice per week for the period during which the garden will be planted, cultivated and harvested.

(d) When more than one passenger automobile is used in the ride-sharing arrangement, all applications by members of such arrangement for such ration must be presented to the Board at the same time and the total ration issued for all vehicles in the group may not exceed three hundred (300) miles.

be filed by any person who is subject to a War Production Board direction pertaining to that commodity. The word "direction" here means any order to produce stated quantities within specified periods, excluding purchase orders or contracts bearing preference ratings.

(b) Amount of adjustment. An adjustment may be granted when and to the extent that, existing maximum prices are found by the Price Administrator to be (1) lower than the applicant's total unit cost of making and selling the commodity, or (2) lower than 102% of such cost if applicant's current net profit percentage before income taxes (computed in relation to reasonable net worth) realized from his total operations is either (i) less than twice the average percentage realized during the years 1936–1939 or (ii) in the case of woven goods less than 5.7%, or in the case of yarns less than 4.7%. Earnings of other companies owning, owned by, or under substantially the same ownership as the applicant may be included in comparing current profits with profits during 1936–1939. Where the War Production Board directs the production of a commodity in terms of a group of constructions or yarn counts, the adjustment will be based on the group taken as a whole.

(c) Filing of applications. Applications must be filed in accordance with Subpart B of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 and must contain, unless the data is on file with the Office of Price Administration:

(1) A designation or copy of the War Production Board direction;

(2) Balance sheets and profit and loss statements for the years 1936–1939, inclusive, the most recent calendar or fiscal year, and the most recent interim period; and

(3) A statement in detail of applicant's total unit cost of making and selling the commodity.

(d) Adjustable pricing. An applicant may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but he may not, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration upon his application after delivery. Such authorization may be given if it is necessary to promote production or distribution and if it will be in accordance with the principles of the directive issued by the Director of the Office of Economic Stabilization on November 16, 1943, and any supplements or amendments thereto. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending application or to give the authorization. The authorization may be given by order, letter, or telegram.

(e) Denial of applications. An application may be denied, notwithstanding the standards in paragraph (b), if price relief under an alternate method has been provided for the applicant or his industry or if the Price Administrator determines that granting the application would not accord with the purposes of the directive issued by the Director of the Office of Economic Stabilization on November 16, 1943, and any supplements or amendments thereto.

This supplementary order shall become effective April 12, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this supplementary order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[MPR 525]

JOBBER SALES OF STOCK MILLWORK

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are, and will be, generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

§ 1312.101 Maximum prices for jobber sales of stock millwork. Under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, Maximum Price Regulation No. 525 (Jobber Sales of Stock Millwork) which is annexed hereto and made a part hereof, is hereby issued.

ARTICLE I—SCOPE OF THE REGULATION

SECTION 1. Jobber sales of stock millwork at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after April 12, 1944, regardless of any contract or obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive any stock millwork under a "jobber's sale of stock millwork" covered by this regulation at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices, may of course, be charged or paid.

SEC. 2. Coverage of the regulation.—(a) Definition of stock millwork. The term "stock millwork" as it is used in this regulation refers to all items of millwork and mouldings which at the manufacturing level are subject to any of the following maximum price regulations: RPS 44—Douglas Fir Doors; RMPR 293—Stock Millwork; 2d. Rev. MPR 222—Northern Softwood Lumber (Table 8); MPR 253—Redwood Lumber and Millwork (Tables 12, 13, 27 and 28); MPR 402—Western Red Cedar Lumber (Table 14); and MPR 413—Tidewater Red Cypress Lumber (Tables 12 and 13).

(b) Definition of the term "jobber's sale of stock millwork." As used in this regulation the term "jobber's sale of stock millwork" means all sales out of jobbers' warehouses, and also the direct-mill sales that are specifically exempted by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 293. (Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 293 covers direct-mill sales in quantities of 12,000 pounds or more by truck delivered to one place, or of 15,000 pounds or more by rail delivered to one or more places, no matter whether the buyer is a jobber, dealer, or anyone else.) Note that sales out of jobbers' warehouses which are situated in the same locality as a manufacturing plant and which are controlled by the plant, or control it, or are under common control with it, are on the same basis as sales direct from the factory.

(c) Coverage of stock millwork items appearing on state or area stock lists. All items of stock millwork which appear on a state or an area stock list designated by an appendix to this regulation are covered by this regulation when sold by anyone making a "jobber's sale of stock millwork" for delivery in the state or area to which the state or area stock list applies.

(d) Coverage of stock millwork items appearing on individual stock lists. All items of stock millwork which are listed on a stock list or price list issued or used by anyone making a "jobber's sale of stock millwork" are covered by this regulation when the product is sold in a "jobber's sale of stock millwork" by the person who issued or used the stock list or price list on which the product is listed.

ARTICLE II—MAXIMUM PRICES AND TERMS OF SALE

SEC. 3. Maximum prices—(a) Maximum prices in areas covered in the appendices—(1) Items specifically priced. The maximum prices in any area covered by the appendices are those established in the appendix for the area in which delivery is made. If the seller's customary method of pricing is to use a list and discount sheet, he may adjust his discounts to the half point nearest to the maximum price for any item established by this regulation.

(2) Items not specifically priced. Any person whose stock list includes stock millwork items which are not shown on the stock lists specified in the appendix for the particular area in which the sale is to be made shall file with the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., a copy of his stock list, indicating which stock millwork items in it are not included in the stock lists specified for the area, and may thereafter sell these items at the maximum prices established for that area unless notified to the contrary by the Office of Price Administration within thirty days of the receipt of the filing of the list.

(3) Items not previously carried in stock. In the case of a stock millwork item which is not included in the area stock list or in the 1941, 1942 or current stock list of the jobber who now wishes to sell it, such jobber may apply to the Office of Price Administration for permission to add the item to his stock list and to sell the item at a maximum price calculated by using the method prescribed for similar items in the appendix applying to his particular area. He must provide the following information:

(i) The requested price.

(ii) A complete description of the item to be priced.

(iii) The price differential between it and the most comparable item in the price tables, between October 1, 1941, and April 1, 1942, from the seller's own records, or if that is impossible, from the experience of the trade. If no established price differential which can be used for comparison existed, a detailed analysis of the calculation of the price shall be furnished.

As soon as the request has been filed, quotations and deliveries may be made at the requested price, but final payment may not be made until the price has been approved. Action on the request may be by letter or telegram.

(b) Maximum prices in areas not included in the appendices. The maximum prices in any area not included in the appendices are for each jobber his individual selling prices under the General Maximum Price Regulation increased by the amount (dollars and cents) by which his current net cost of the item exceeds his August 1, 1943, net cost of the same item; except that wherever the price so established for a sale out of the jobber's warehouse is lower than the price established for direct-mill shipments of carload quantities, the price for direct-mill shipments of carload quantities may be used for sales out of the jobber's warehouse.

(c) How to figure inbound transportation. (1) No inbound transportation is figured on products covered by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 293 since prices in that regulation are freight allowed.

(2) Inbound transportation on products covered by Revised Price Sechdule No. 44 is to be figured according to the manufacturers' zone delivered price system in effect December 10, 1941.

(3) For products covered by Maximum Price Regulations No. 222, 253, 402 and 412 shorten discounts one-half point for each four cents of freight rate including transportation tax from the following basing points:

(i) RMPR 222 (Northern Softwood Lumber). Wausau, Wisconsin.

(ii) MPR 253 (Redwood Lumber and Millwork).

Western area: Eureka, California.

Eastern area: Direct-mill maximum prices are not f. o. b. mill but are delivered on a 57 cents rate. Therefore, for inbound transportation add only the excess of the actual rate from Eureka, California, to the seller's warehouse over the 57 cents rate. If the rate is less than 57 cents deduct the resulting difference in transportation charges from the Eastern area prices in MPR 253.

(iii) MPR 402 (Western Red Cedar Lumber). Seattle, Washington.

(iv) MPR 412 (Tidewater Red Cypress Lumber).

Ponchatoula, Louisiana: Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming. Jobbers with warehouses located in these states may make the additions allowed for Louisiana producers in calculating mill prices. (See section 24 of MPR 412.)

Albany, Georgia: Georgia and Tennessee.

Sumter, South Carolina: North Carolina and South Carolina.

SEC. 4. Cash discounts. If cash is paid the maximum price must be reduced by the seller's August 1941 cash discount. When a seller was not in business in August 1941, not less than two percent cash discount for payment in ten days shall be allowed. On specific written allocations issued by the Office of the Chief of Engineers, War Department, the terms thirty days net may be used by the seller regardless of his established practice.

SEC. 5. What the invoice must contain. All invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description of the millwork to show whether the price is proper or not. Any specification or extra which affects the maximum price must be mentioned in the description. The invoice must show whether the sale is a carload or less-than-carload sale, whether shipped by rail or truck, the total quantity and price of each item, the total value of the sale, origin and destination of the shipment, and any additions for packaging.

SEC. 6. Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which is a device to get the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the dollars-and-cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of up-grading, commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying-agreements, trade understandings, changes in discount practices, and the like.

(b) Adding commission to ceiling prohibited. It is unlawful for any person to charge, receive, or pay a commission for the service of procuring (including buying, selling or locating stock millwork, or for any related service such as "expediting") which does not involve physical handling of stock millwork, if the commission plus the purchase price results in a total payment by the buyer of the stock millwork which is higher than the maximum price of the stock millwork. For purposes of this regulation, a commission is any compensation, however designated, which is paid for the procurement of stock millwork. This prohibition has no application to the case of a bona fide employer-employee relationship where the employee serves only one employer, insofar as stock millwork procurement is concerned, and where the compensation paid by the employer is a fixed salary and is not based directly or indirectly on the quantity, price or value of the stock millwork in connection with which the service is rendered.

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 7. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery, but no person may deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery.

SEC. 8. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Government contracts. See Procedural Regulation No. 6.[2]

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 9. Records. All sellers must keep for two years records which will show a complete description of the items of stock

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

MEAT, FATS, FISH AND CHEESES

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 16 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3.1 (c) is amended by substituting the words "OPA Forms R–1606 (Revised), R–1607, or R–1626" for the words "OPA Form R–1606".

2. Section 3.2 (a) (1) is amended by substituting the words "OPA Forms R–1606 (Revised) or R–1607" for the words "OPA Form R–1606".

3. The last sentence of section 3.4 (d) is amended to read as follows:

He must, within five days after the transfer, send one copy of the certification to the board named therein, and file the other with his report on OPA Forms R–1606 (Revised), R–1607 or R–1609 (Revised) for the reporting period in which the transfer was made.

4. The first sentence of section 3.4 (e) is amended by changing the words "OPA Form R–1609 or OPA Form R–1609 (Revised)" to read "OPA Form R–1609 (Revised)".

5. Section 4.11 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every primary distributor must register with the Office of Price Administration. A primary distributor who is required to report on OPA Forms R–1606 (Revised), R–1607, or R–1626 must register by filing an additional copy of his first report along with that report. A primary distributor who is required to report on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised) is considered registered when he files his first report. A primary distributor who is already registered is not required to re-register when a change is made in the form on which he is required to report.

6. Section 4.11 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Reports. (1) Every primary distributor must file a report covering the operation of his primary distributor establishment during each reporting period ending on or after April 30, 1943. His first report must include his operations from March 29, 1943, to the end of his reporting period. However, the first report of a primary distributor of an item which is added, after March 29, 1943, to the foods covered by this order, must include his operations with respect to that item from the date it is added, to the end of his reporting period. If he has more than one primary distributor establishment, he must file a separate report for each. However, if he has registered his establishments in one or more groups, in the way permitted by paragraph (a) (2) he may file a single report for all the establishments in each such group. A primary distributor who reports on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised) must file his report within fifteen days after the end of the reporting period it covers. A primary distributor who reports on OPA Form R–1606 (Revised) or OPA Form R–1607 must file his report within thirty days after the end of the reporting period it covers, but he may not file the report before the sixteenth day after the end of that period unless he has received all points due him for the transfers reported for that period and has paid all points owed by him for the acquisitions reported for that period. A primary distributor who reports on OPA Form R–1626 must file his report within ten days after the end of the reporting period it covers.

(2) A primary distributor who reports on OPA Form R–1606 (Revised) or OPA Form R–1607 may adopt any one of the following reporting periods:

(i) Calendar months; or

(ii) Consecutive four-week periods; or

(iii) A system which divides the fiscal year into either four or five periods of five consecutive weeks and either seven or eight periods of four consecutive weeks.

(3) A primary distributor who reports on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised) or OPA Form R–1626 must adopt calendar month reporting periods. If he has not been reporting on a calendar month reporting period basis, his first report on a calendar month reporting period basis on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised) or OPA Form R–1626 must include his operations from the end of the preceding reporting period to the end of the calendar month covered in the report.

(4) The report must be signed by him or by his authorized agent, and is considered filed on time if the envelope in which it is enclosed is postmarked on or before the day it is due.

7. Section 4.11 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Form to be used. (1) A primary distributor who does not import foods covered by this order and who does not use points to acquire such foods, must report on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised), if his sales or transfers of such foods from the place where he produces them consist entirely of one or more of the following:

(i) Sales or transfers of meat he slaughtered under a War Food Administration Farm Slaughterer's Permit (including meat from his livestock which he has custom slaughtered);

(ii) Sales or transfers of lard he rendered from the carcasses of swine slaughtered for home consumption (or for consumption on his premises) or slaughtered under a War Food Administration Farm Slaughterer's Permit;

(iii) Sales or transfers of butter he made from cream (or milk) which he produced, if the cream (or milk) was not neutralized or pasteurized;

(iv) Sales or transfers of cheese he made from milk which he produced; or

(v) Sales or transfers of other foods covered by this order which he produced in an amount of not more than $200 during the month covered by the report.

(2) A primary distributor who is not required to report on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised) must report on OPA Form R–1626 for reporting periods beginning on or after March 1, 1944, for each of his primary distributor establishments from which he sells or transfers "rationed dairy products" only. ("Rationed dairy products" means any food covered by this order which is made from cow's milk or from another food made from cow's milk, as, for example, rationed cheeses, butter or canned milk.) If he is permitted to combine in a single report on OPA Form R–1626 his sales and transfers from more than one of his primary distributor establishments, he must report all those sales and transfers on OPA Form R–1626, even though some of those establishments meet the conditions described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c).

(3) Any primary distributor who is not required to report on OPA form R–1609 (Revised) or OPA Form R–1626 may report on OPA Form R–1607 for each reporting period beginning on or after December 1, 1943, if he does not sell or transfer, during the period covered by the report, more than $2,000 worth of foods covered by this order, if he does not import foods covered by this order, and if his acquisitions of such foods for his primary distributor operations during that period do not constitute more than 10 percent by weight of his total sales and transfers of such foods during the period.

(4) Any primary distributor who is not required to report on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised) or OPA Form 1626 and who does not report on OPA Form R–1607 must report on OPA Form R–1606 (Revised) for each reporting period beginning on or after December 1, 1943. If he reports on OPA Form R–1606 (Revised) for an establishment from which he sells or transfers rationed dairy products, he must attach to his report for each reporting period ending after February 29, 1944, a copy of Dairy Products Report No. 1 covering his operations at that establishment. In addition, a primary distributor who reports on OPA Form R–1606 (Revised) and who transfers canned fish, must, at the same time and in the same manner that he makes his report on OPA Form R–1606 (Revised), report on OPA Form R–1606A.

(5) A primary distributor who has more than one primary distributor establishment which are or will be registered together, may file a single report on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised) or OPA Form R–1607 for those establishments only if all of them combined meet the requirements set forth in this section for reporting on such forms; he may file a single report on OPA Form R–1626 for those establishments if all of them sell or transfer only rationed dairy products.

(6) A primary distributor need not file a report for any reporting period during which he made no transfers of foods covered by this order (other than loans permitted by section 3.1 (b)). However, once a primary distributor reports on OPA Form R–1606 (Revised), OPA Form R–1607 or OPA Form R–1626, he must continue to use one of those forms. He may not thereafter report on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised).

9. Section 4.11 (f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) Place for filing report. A primary distributor who reports on OPA Form R–1606 (Revised) or OPA Form R–1607 must file it with the district office for the place where his establishment is located or, if it is a report covering a group of establishments, with the district office at which that group is registered. If he reports on OPA Form R–1609 (Revised) he must file it with the "board" for that place. If he reports on OPA Form R–1626 he must mail it with his Dairy Products Report No. 1 to Post Office Box 6910A, Chicago, Illinois.

10. Section 4.11 (g) is amended so that the first sentence shall read as follows:

A primary distributor who wishes to adopt reporting periods other than those which he is permitted to use under paragraph (b) of this section, or to change his reporting periods to conform to his accounting periods, may apply to the district office (or to the board) with which he is registered, for permission to do so.

11. Section 4.16 (d) is amended by changing the words "OPA Form R–1606 (Revised) or OPA Form R–1607" to read "OPA Form R–1606 (Revised), OPA Form R–1607 or OPA Form R–1626."

This amendment shall become effective April 6, 1944.

(d) The manager of the registration office, and each carrier, shall prepare and maintain such records, and make such reports, as the Office of Defense Transportation may prescribe, subject to the

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Food Distribution Order No. 79 (8 F.R. 12426), issued on September 7, 1943, as amended, and to effectuate the purposes of such order, it is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 1401.177 Quota restrictions—(a) Definitions. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent hereof:

(1) Each term defined in Food Distribution Order No. 79, as amended, shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is set forth for such term in Food Distribution Order No. 79, as amended.

(2) The term "FDO 79" means Food Distribution Order No. 79, issued on September 7, 1943, as amended.

(3) The term "sub-handler" means any handler, such as a peddler, vendor, sub-dealer, or secondary dealer, who purchases in a previously packaged and processed form milk, cream, or milk byproducts for delivery.

(4) The term "industrial user" means a person, as determined by the market agent, in the capacity of a manufacturer of products using as an ingredient therein milk, cream, or milk byproducts, which products are disposed of for resale to consumers off the premises where made.

(5) The term "base" means the total pounds of milk solids delivered by a handler within the sales area during the base period (i) in the form of milk, or (ii) in the form of cream and milk byproducts, minus the milk solids in quota-exempt deliveries of milk, and cream and milk byproducts, as described in (j) hereof. (For the purpose of this order, the milk solids content of milk, milk byproducts, and cream shall be computed as follows: Each hundredweight of milk, cream, or milk byproducts other than cottage, pot, or baker's cheese, shall be considered the equivalent of 9.375 pounds of milk solids plus the number of pounds of milk solids calculated by multiplying the pounds of butterfat in such milk, and cream and milk byproducts by .906; and each hundredweight of cottage, pot, or baker's cheese shall be considered the equivalent of 62.5 pounds of milk solids plus one pound of milk solids for each one percent of butterfat content of such cheese.)

(b) Milk sales area. The following area is hereby designated as a "milk sales area" to be known as the St. Petersburg, Florida, milk sales area, and is referred to hereinafter as the "sales area":

The city of St. Petersburg, and the election precincts numbered 1 to 21, inclusive, 21–A, and 22 to 47, inclusive, in Pinellas County, Florida.

(c) Base period. The calendar month of June 1943 is hereby designated as the base period for the sales area: Provided, That the month of May may be used as the base period for computing base and quota for deliveries to elementary, junior high, and high schools; and Provided further, That in the computations set forth in (e) hereof the total deliveries to elementary, junior high, and high schools in the base period shall be divided by the number of days such schools were in session in lieu of the total number of days in the base period as set forth in (e) (1) and the average daily deliveries so determined shall be multiplied by the number of days such schools are in session in each quota period in lieu of the number of days in the quota period as set forth in (e) (2).

(d) Quota period. The remainder of the calendar month in which the provisions hereof become effective and each subsequent calendar month, respectively, is hereby designated as the quota period for the sales area.

(e) Handler quotas. Quotas for each handler other than a sub-handler or producer-handler shall be determined as follows:

(1) Divide his respective bases by the number of days in the base period;

(2) Multiply the foregoing result by the number of days in the quota period; and

(3) Multiply the aforesaid resulting amounts in the case of the base for milk as follows:

	Percent		Percent
January	110	July	80
February	120	August	80
March	130	September	85
April	110	October	90
May	100	November	100
June	90	December	105

And, in the case of the base for cream and milk byproducts as follows:

	Percent		Percent
January	82.50	July	60.00
February	90.00	August	60.00
March	97.50	September	63.75
April	82.50	October	67.50
May	75.00	November	75.00
June	67.50	December	78.75

(f) Quotas for handlers who are also producers. Quotas for each handler not a cooperative association and who delivers no milk, cream, or milk byproducts, other than that produced by him from his own cows located on the premises held by him on the effective date of this order shall be computed in accordance with (e) hereof, except:

(1) His base period shall be either June or December, whichever represents his larger total deliveries; and

(2) The applicable percentages shall be 100 percent in lieu of those specified in (e) (3).

(g) Quota adjustments. Each handler may increase his quota for milk within any quota period by one pound of milk solids for each one pound of milk solids he reduces his quota for cream and milk byproducts.

(h) Cream deliveries. The units of cream delivered subject to quota in any quota period shall not exceed 100 percent of the units of cream in his base, irrespective of the milk solids content of such deliveries.

(i) Handler exemptions. Quota shall not apply to any handler who is also a producer and who delivers in a quota period a daily average of less than 100 units of milk, cream, and milk byproducts.

For the purpose of this order, a unit shall be the equivalent in volume of the following: (1) One quart of milk, buttermilk, or fluid milk byproducts; (2) one-half pint of cream; and (3) one-half pound of cottage, pot, or baker's cheese.

(j) Quota exclusions and exemptions. Deliveries of milk, milk byproducts, or cream (1) to other handlers, except for such deliveries to sub-handlers, (2) to plants engaged in the handling or processing of milk, milk byproducts, cream or other dairy products from which no milk, milk byproducts, or cream is delivered in the sales area, (3) to industrial users, and (4) to the agencies or groups specified in (d) of FDO 79, shall be excluded from the computation of deliveries in the base period and exempt from charges to quotas.

(k) Transfers of bases. The market agent is empowered to transfer base from one handler to another:

(1) Upon receipt of a request in writing from both handlers; and

(2) Upon application from a handler and written notice to the Director and to both handlers, (i) to permit deliveries to a purchaser not being served by a handler whose quota reflects deliveries to such purchaser in the base period, (ii) to permit a handler to serve an account which customarily rotates among several handlers inclusive of a contract let by a public agency or institution on a bid basis, and (iii) to permit a handler to serve an account which he is serving on the effective date of this order and which was served by another handler during the base period.

(l) Consumer priorities. In the distribution of milk subject to quotas established hereunder, a handler shall give preference in the order listed, taking into consideration the type of purchasers served by him in the base period, to:

(1) The need of children, expectant mothers, and invalids requiring milk;

(2) Homes and retail stores handling milk for consumption off the premises; and

(3) Establishments serving milk for consumption on the premises.

(m) Petition for relief from hardship. (1) Any person affected by FDO 79 or the provisions hereof who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him may file with the market agent a petition addressed to the Director. The petition shall contain the correct name, address and principal place of business of the petitioner, a full statement of the facts upon which the petition is based, and the hardship involved and the nature of the relief desired.

(2) Upon receiving such petition the market agent shall immediately investigate representations and facts stated therein.

(3) After investigation, the petition shall be certified to the Director, but prior to certification the market agent may (i) deny the petition or (ii) grant temporary relief for a total period not to exceed 60 days.

(4) Denials or grants of relief by the market agent shall be reviewed by the Director and may be affirmed, modified, or reversed by the Director.

(n) Reports. Each handler shall transmit to the market agent on forms prescribed by the market agent the following reports:

(1) Within 20 days following the effective date of this order, reports which show the information required by the market agent to establish such handler's quotas;

(2) Within 20 days following the close of each quota period, the information required by the market agent to establish volumes of deliveries of milk, cream and milk byproducts during the preceding quota period; and

(3) Handlers exempt from quotas pursuant to (i) hereof shall, upon the request of the market agent, submit the information required by the market agent to establish volumes of deliveries of milk, cream, and milk byproducts.

(o) Records. Handlers shall keep and shall make available to the market agent such records of receipts, sales, deliveries, and production as the market agent shall require for the purpose of obtaining information which the Director may require for the establishment of quotas as prescribed in (b) of FDO 79.

(p) Expense of administration. Each handler shall pay to the market agent, within 20 days after the close of each calendar month, an assessment of $0.015 per hundredweight of each of milk, milk byproducts, cream, and skim milk equivalent of cottage, pot, or baker's cheese delivered during the preceding quota period and subject to quota regulations under the provisions hereof.

(q) Violations. The market agent shall report all violations to the Director together with the information required for the prosecution of such violations.

(r) Bureau of the Budget approval. The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942. (1) Divide the total deliveries of each such item made in the sales area by such handler during the base period, after excluding the quota exempt deliveries described in (i) hereof, by the number of days in the base period;

(2) Multiply the result of the foregoing calculation by the number of days in the quota period;

PART 1167—LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM GAS EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L-86, as Amended April 7, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of liquefied petroleum gas and liquefied petroleum gas equipment for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1167.1 General Limitation Order L-86—(a) Applicability of other orders. This order and all transactions are subject to all applicable orders and regulations of the War Production Board.

(b) Definitions. (1) "Liquefied petroleum gas equipment" means equipment (other than marine, rail, pipeline or truck facilities used in transportation of liquefied petroleum gas and other than equipment used in natural gasoline recovery or refining as these terms are defined in Order P-98-b), or parts thereof, used to contain, distribute or dispense propane, propylene, butanes, butenes, or any combination or dilution thereof commonly known as liquefied petroleum gas.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(3) "Maintenance and repair" means (without regard to accounting practice) the upkeep of liquefied petroleum gas equipment in a sound working condition or the restoration or fixing of any liquefied petroleum gas equipment which has broken down or is worn out, damaged or destroyed.

"Maintenance and repair" shall not include either of the following: (a) the use of material for the improvement of liquefied petroleum gas equipment through the replacement of material in the existing installation, unless the equipment which is replaced is beyond economic repair or has been rendered unusable by fire or other hazard or natural cause and is scrapped or junked; or (b) the use of material for additions to or expansions of liquefied petroleum gas equipment.

(c) Conservation of liquefied petroleum gas equipment. Unless permitted by paragraph (d), no person shall install liquefied petroleum gas equipment or deliver or otherwise supply any such equipment for installation purposes.

(d) Exceptions. Liquefied petroleum gas equipment or parts may be installed:

(1) Where material is to be used by a person for the maintenance and repair of liquefied petroleum gas equipment;

(2) Where containers of equal capacity are exchanged (or a container replaced by one of lesser capacity) on the premises of any person in the normal course of distribution of liquefied petroleum gas;

(3) Where the equipment to be installed was installed and in actual use prior to April 1, 1942 and was withdrawn from such use on or subsequent to that date. However, such equipment may not be installed under this subparagraph if it is to be installed either for the purpose of burning or consuming liquefied petroleum gas in an internal combustion engine or for operating an additional gas consuming appliance or apparatus in connection with liquefied petroleum gas equipment currently installed or in use;

(4) Where the War Production Board or the Petroleum Administration for War has determined that the use of liquefied petroleum gas equipment is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the war effort. Application for such a determination shall be made on Form WPB-809 (Revised) and filed with the Petroleum Administration for War, 855 Subway Terminal Building, Los Angeles 13, California or Petroleum Administration for War, Interior Building, Washington 25, D. C. whichever is appropriate, Ref: L-86. Only those persons who wish to install liquefied petroleum gas equipment for use in PAW District Five may file an application in Los Angeles, California.

(e) Required certification. Any person acquiring liquefied petroleum gas equipment shall endorse on all copies of each purchase order or contract for such equipment which are placed with any person, a statement in substantially the following form:

> The liquefied petroleum gas equipment which is ordered in this purchase order (or contract) is to be used in conformity with the provisions of General Limitation Order L-86, with the terms of which order the undersigned is familiar.

This certification, or any other applicable certification made available by Priorities Regulation No. 7, must be used in accordance with the provisions of that regulation. The regulation provides specifically that the certification must be signed manually or, under certain conditions, by use of a facsimile signature.

Where liquefied petroleum gas equipment is to be acquired for maintenance and repair purposes the one-time certification prescribed by Priorities Regulation No. 7 may be used.

No certification of any kind need be made where containers are replaced or exchanged as permitted by paragraph (d) (2) above.

(f) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or who willfully furnishes false information to the Petroleum Administration for War or the War Production Board in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the War Production Board.

Issued this 7th day of April 1944.

[Limitation Order L-86, Direction 1]

PLACEMENT OF ORDERS FOR LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM GAS TANKS WITH TANK MANUFACTURERS

The following direction is issued pursuant to Limitation Order L-86.

(a) What this direction covers. This direction establishes rules governing the placement of orders for liquefied petroleum gas tanks with tank manufacturers. This direction shall not apply to the placement of orders for portable compressed gas cylinders of the type commonly used for domestic or household installations.

(b) Original approval or authorization must be given to manufacturers. Before certain installations or deliveries of liquefied petroleum gas tanks can be made it is required by Order L-86 that approval be requested by an application on Form WPB-809 revised (formerly PD-397). If approval of any such application is granted on Form WPB-809 revised, Form GA-855, or other written authorization, the original authorization received from the War Production Board or the Petroleum Administration for War must be submitted to the manufacturer together with a purchase order certified in accordance with paragraph (e) of Order L-86. No tank manufacturer shall deliver and no person shall accept delivery of a tank unless the original authorization and a certified purchase order are both submitted to the tank manufacturer.

After a purchase order is accepted by the tank manufacturer, he shall endorse on the original authorization his name and the number of tanks to be delivered on the basis of the authorization which has been sent to him. He must then return the endorsed authorization to the purchaser who has ordered the tank(s).

(c) Order must be placed with tank manufacturer within 60 days: An approved Form WPB-809 revised, Form GA-855 or other authorization must be used to purchase liquefied petroleum gas tanks covered by it within 60 days of the date of approval. Unless the authorization is mailed by the applicant (purchaser) within that 60 day period, the approval shall be void and of no effect, and it will be necessary to reapply for the tanks covered by such application or other authorization.

(a) Definitions. (1) "Motor vehicle" means any rubber tired self-propelled conveyance, the motor power for which is furnished by an internal combustion engine designed for operation by motor fuel and which is built primarily for the purpose of transporting persons or property.

(2) "Passenger automobile" means any motor vehicle, other than an ambulance, hearse, taxi cab or jitney, which is built primarily for the purpose of transporting persons on the highways and has a rated seating capacity of seven or less; and includes station wagons and suburban carryalls, irrespective of seating capacity, which are not available for hire or public rental.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

PURCHASES OR SALES OF CONTROLLED MATERIALS THROUGH AN INTERMEDIARY

The following direction is issued pursuant to CMP Regulation 1.

(a) This direction explains how a person (who is called an "intermediary" in this direction) acting for either a seller or purchaser, can place purchase orders for steel, copper, or aluminum for delivery to the purchaser. It covers sales of idle or excess inventories as well as sales of controlled materials by a producer or a distributor.

(b) An intermediary receiving an order for controlled materials may order from the supplier the same quantity of material for delivery as directed by the customer, but he must furnish with his own purchase order a copy of the endorsement received from the customer, including the customer's name and CMP allotment number or symbol, or a copy of the specific permission for the purchase or sale of the material granted by the War Production Board.

(c) A purchase order so placed may, but need not, be accepted by the supplier. If accepted, it shall have the same status under War Production Board orders and regulations as if placed directly by the customer. If the supplier rejects such an order when he has material (or open space on his production schedule) available to fill it, he must immediately notify the intermediary in writing that he is prepared to fill the order direct from the customer or through another person.

(d) The intermediary may not, at any time during such a transaction, take title to the material. However, if under applicable laws the intermediary may pay the supplier and invoice his customer without himself taking title to the material, this direction permits him to do so.

(e) This direction does not apply to copper controlled material producers or warehouses when purchasing copper as intermediaries. The procedure to be followed by a copper controlled material producer or warehouse when purchasing copper as an intermediary is described in paragraph (f) (2) of CMP Regulation No. 4 and in Direction No. 9 to CMP Regulation No. 1.

PART 3296—SAFETY AND TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT[1]

[General Limitation Order L-259, as Amended Apr. 7, 1944]

PHYSICAL THERAPY EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply for defense, for private account and for export of the materials entering into the manufacture of physical therapy equipment; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3296.91[1] General Limitation Order L-259—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Physical therapy equipment" means apparatus, equipment, devices and appliances designed to produce, generate, apply or administer spectral rays (except X-rays), electrical currents, mechanical stimuli, heat, refrigerants, liquids, gases or vapors to man or other animals in a manner designed to produce therapeutic effect or to destroy body tissue. The term shall include only the following articles, as each is hereinafter defined: medical diathermy units; surgical diathermy units; fever cabinets; infra-red generators; galvanic generators; faradic generators; sinusoidal generators; low voltage generators; magnetic field generators; whirlpool baths; electric massagers; bath cabinets; passive vascular exercise apparatus; baldness treatment devices; ultra-violet radiation equipment; electric bakers; and heat applicators. The term shall not include any parts or materials for the repair or maintenance of existing equipment.

(2) "Medical diathermy unit" means any instrument designed to produce heat for therapeutic purposes within the body tissues by means of a high frequency electric current generated by a spark gap or a vacuum tube type of oscillator. The term shall include "conventional" or long wave diathermy, short wave diathermy, and ultra short wave diathermy.

(3) "Surgical diathermy unit" means a diathermy unit employing a high frequency electric current which is designed for the performance of surgical procedures by cutting, coagulation and/or dessication and which is not adaptable for medical diathermy treatment.

(4) "Fever cabinet" means a cabinet or bag designed to induce fever artificially by radiant or induced heat.

(5) "Infra-red generator" means a device consisting essentially of a heating element centered in a spherical, parabolic or similar concave reflector, which radiates infra-red rays and which is designed to produce therapeutic effect. The heating element may be either an incandescent bulb, a carbon, or a radiant cone, coil or disc. The term includes those devices commonly called "therapeutic lamps".

(6) "Galvanic generator" means a generator designed to deliver and apply direct current (galvanic current) to the body tissues or to deposit the ions of certain salts in solution into the body tissues.

(7) "Faradic generator" means a generator designed to deliver and apply induced electric current (faradic current) to the body tissues.

(8) "Sinusoidal generator" means a generator designed to deliver and apply sinusoidal current to the body tissues.

(9) "Low voltage generator" means a generator designed to deliver and apply two or all three of the following currents to the body tissues: faradic, galvanic and sinusoidal.

(10) "Magnetic field generator" means a device designed to produce therapeutic effect by creating a magnetic field in the body tissues. However, the term does not include "medical diathermy units" or "surgical diathermy units".

NOTE: Former subparagraph (9) redesignated (11) and former subparagraphs (10) and (11) deleted Apr. 7, 1944.

(11) "Whirlpool bath" means a container designed to circulate thermally controlled liquids around portions of the body to produce therapeutic effect. The term shall include, but not by way of limitation, arm and leg baths and underwater exercise tanks.

(12) "Passive vascular exercise apparatus" means apparatus designed to apply alternating negative and positive pressures to portions of the body, but the term shall not include "iron lungs" nor baldness treatment devices.

(13) "Baldness treatment device" means any device or equipment designed to check or treat baldness by applying alternating negative and positive pressures to the scalp.

(14) "Ultra-violet radiation equipment" means any generator designed to generate ultra-violet spectral energy to produce therapeutic effect. The term shall include both the carbon arc and quartz mercury types of generators.

(15) "Electric massager" means any device which is designed to massage the human body and which utilizes an electric motor, electronic tubes, oscillating tubes, or any combination thereof. The term shall include, but not by way of limitation, electric vibrators and reducing machines.

(16) "Bath cabinet" means a cabinet or box designed to enclose the body for the purpose of administering either moist or dry heat.

(17) "Electric baker" means a device designed for local and general application of radiant heat which utilizes a roof-like reflector and two or more incandescent light bulbs of electric heating elements, or in some cases both incandescent bulbs and electric heating elements.

(18) "Heat applicator" means any device, appliance or equipment which utilizes liquids, air, or any other substance or material and which is designed to apply heat to the body for therapeutic purposes, other than medical diathermy units, surgical diathermy units, fever cabinets, infra-red generators, whirlpool baths, paraffin baths, therapeutic lamps, bath cabinets, electric bakers, hot water bottles and chemical bags, and accessories used in connection with such articles.

PART 4501—COMMUNICATIONS

[Utilities Order U-8, as Amended Apr. 7, 1944]

ORDER LIMITING THE MANUFACTURE OF TELEPHONES

The purpose of this order is to conserve materials and manufacturing capacity required for the prosecution of the war by restricting the manufacture of telephones. However, because of the prime necessity for maintaining telephone service, this order is not intended to prevent the maintenance, repair or conversion of telephone sets, nor is it intended to prevent the manufacture of parts to maintain, repair or convert telephone sets.

§ 4501.26 Utilities Order U-8—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, receiver or any form of enterprise whatsoever, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Standard telephone set" means any telephone set except those on List B attached. It does not include any of the apparatus or wiring set forth on List A attached.

(3) "Wire intercommunicating telephone set" means any telephone set for use in a wire intercommunicating system which is not owned by a public telephone system and does not involve the use of substantial amounts of outside plant. Thus, it includes any telephone set for use in connection with a system contained within a building or within a group of buildings located nearby one another. It does not include a telephone set for use in a system employing large amounts of outside plant such as are required by the telephone lines of railroad or pipe line companies. Nor does it include a wire intercommunicating set which employs electronic tubes as an essential part of such set.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No person shall produce any standard telephone sets except:

(i) To fill orders of the kind shown on List C, or

(ii) To maintain an inventory specifically permitted by the War Production Board.

However, any person may maintain, repair or convert existing standard telephone sets.

(2) No person shall produce parts of standard telephone sets, except:

(i) For the maintenance, repair or conversion of existing telephone sets, or

(ii) For non-telephone use, or

(iii) For another person who regularly produces or assembles telephones for sale.

Any person producing telephone parts may produce any part in a minimum production run whenever his inventory contains less than a 60 days supply.

(3) No person shall sell parts of standard telephone sets manufactured after November 15, 1942 unless the buyer certifies in writing to the seller and the War Production Board that the parts are to be used:

(i) For maintenance, repair or conversion of existing telephone sets, or

(ii) For non-telephone use, or

(iii) To assemble telephone sets permitted by Order U-8, or

(iv) To assemble standard telephone sets permitted by a specific grant of relief from the restrictions of Order U-8 by the War Production Board.

However, parts manufactured and sold under a specific WPB permission to produce or assemble a complete telephone(s), may be resold without a certification as to use.

The requirement of this paragraph (b) (3) will be satisfied for all future purchase orders for telephone parts if the buyer makes a single written certification to his supplier and the War Production Board that all telephone parts ordered by him will be used only in ways described in this paragraph.

(4) No person shall produce or assemble any wire intercommunicating telephone sets except:

(i) To fill an order bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher for a maintenance replacement of an existing set or for additional stations within the designed capacity of an existing system.

(ii) To fill an order specifically authorized and rated by the War Production Board on Form WPB-1319 for telephones in connection with a new wire intercommunicating system or with an addition beyond the designed capacity of an existing wire intercommunicating system. Applications for such specific authorization shall be addressed to the Communications Division, Office of War Utilities, Washington (25), D. C.

(iii) To fill orders of the kinds shown on List C.

(iv) To maintain an inventory specifically permitted by the War Production Board.

(c) Records. All persons who produce telephone sets or parts shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning production and sale of telephone sets and parts. Any person who sells telephone parts manufactured after November 15, 1942 for which a buyer's certification is required by paragraph (b) (3) shall keep and preserve the buyer's certification(s) for not less than two years.

(d) Reports. All persons who produce or assemble telephone sets or parts shall make such reports as shall be required from time to time by the War Production Board, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from process or use of, materials under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(f) Appeals. Any person affected by this order may apply for relief by letter, specifying the particular provision involved and stating all the facts on which he relies.

(g) Communications. All reports required and all communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the Communications Division, Office of War Utilities, War Production Board, Washington (25), D. C., Reference: U-8.

Chapter III—War Shipping Administration

[G. O. 8, Supp. 10]

PART 302—CONTRACTS WITH VESSEL OWNERS AND RATES OF COMPENSATION RELATING THERETO

BASIS FOR REDETERMINATION AND READJUSTMENT OF TIME CHARTER HIRE

Basis for the redetermination and readjustment of time charter hire under charter parties tendered by the War Shipping Administration to owners of American-flag vessels chartered or requisitioned for use pursuant to the provisions of section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended.

Whereas: 1. The Administrator, War Shipping Administration, has chartered vessels on standard form of time Charter Agreement known as WARSHIPTIME (Form 101) or WARSHIPOILTIME (Form 102), and has requisitioned the use of other vessels for use on a time charter basis for which such forms shortly will be tendered.

2. The rates of time charter hire prescribed in the charters referred to above are subject to readjustment or redetermination as of December 1, 1943.

3. The Administrator desires by this Supplement to fix rates of hire for the purpose of such redetermination and also for the purpose of establishing time charter hire on vessels referred to above as to which no charters have as yet been tendered.

Now, therefore, the Administrator hereby establishes and adopts the following revised rates of time charter hire in conformity with the rules of the Advisory Board on Just Compensation announced on December 7, 1943.

§ 302.91 Vessels included. Time charter rates herein prescribed are applicable to all American-flag self-propelled ocean-going iron and steel dry cargo vessels, tankers and colliers chartered under terms and conditions of (1) charter parties tendered by the War Shipping Administration to owners of such vessels pursuant to the provisions of Section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, and (2) charter parties entered into between vessel owners and any other agency or department of the United States when such charters provide that the rates or conditions specified therein are subject to adjustment or alteration in accordance with orders, directions, rules or regulations of the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, except:

This allowance for the month of December, 1943 shall also be taken into account for the purposes of applying the provisions of §§ 306.10 and 306.11 of General Order 12 in lieu of the allowance of $125.00 per day per vessel included in the rates previously prescribed.

§ 302.93 Adjustments. The rates provided in § 302.92 are subject to the following adjustments:

(a) Adjustments for speed. Adjustments for speed shall be made in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph. The speed of a vessel shall be determined pursuant to Sections 302.44 and 302.48, inclusive, of General Order 10, Supp. 2. Speed added to the vessel at the cost of the United States shall be ignored for the purpose of this paragraph.

(1) Allowances for speeds of 10½ knots or over. With respect to vessels having a speed of 10½ knots or over, the amount shown in the following table shall be added to the rates of hire.

(2) Deductions for speeds of less than 9 knots. With respect to a vessel having a speed equal to or in excess of 8 knots but under 9 knots $.06 per deadweight ton per month shall be deducted from the rate of hire.

(b) Adjustments for refrigerated capacity. Where vessels have refrigerated space available for cargo in excess of 6,000 cu. ft., 2¢ per cubic foot per month will be added with respect to such excess refrigerated space, except to the extent that the cost of such space has been paid or subsidized by the United States.

(c) Adjustments for age of vessels not built under construction-differential subsidy agreements. Vessels constructed in the United States subsequent to 1928 and not built under construction-differential subsidy agreements pursuant to the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, shall receive an additional sum per dwt per month computed in accordance with the following schedule:

The date of delivery by the shipbuilder shall constitute the date of construction hereunder.

C–1 Class 10c per dwt per month.
C–2 Class 20c per dwt per month.
C–3 Class 30c per dwt per month.

Other subsidized vessels shall receive additional compensation to correspond with the foregoing amounts in accordance with the relation of the particular vessel's horsepower to that of the most comparable vessel of the three enumerated types. The adjustments provided in paragraph (c) of this section shall not apply to vessels covered by the adjustments provided in this paragraph (d).

(e) Deadweight tonnage. The rates provided in § 302.92 and adjustments provided in § 302.93, where appropriate, shall be calculated on the basis of deadweight determined in conformity with the provisions of the applicable charter party.

(f) Adjustment for class. The rates provided in § 302.92, as adjusted in accordance with the provisions of § 302.93, for vessels not classed A–1 American Bureau or equivalent shall be $0.25 per deadweight ton per month less in each instance than the appropriate rate applicable to a comparable vessel which is so classed.

§ 302.95 Basic terms and conditions. The rates and adjustments provided in §§ 302.92 and 302.93 are based upon standard form of time charter agreement approved by the War Shipping Administrator and designated Warshiptime or Warshipoiltime, Forms 101 and 102, respectively, as amended by addenda made in conformity with the terms of the Administrator's notice of revised program of ship requisition, charter and operation dated November 24, 1943, and also the "Uniform Addendum to Time Charter Covering Adjustments of Certain Disputed Questions", General Order 11, Supplement 2, § 302.57. The rates also contemplate the full absorption by the Administrator of the costs of complying with Operating Regulations No. 64.

§ 302.96 Operation of provisions of this supplement. No provision of this supplement shall apply so as to provide more aggregate charter hire for a vessel coming within a given tonnage subdivision than the minimum aggregate charter hire for a vessel substantially similar but coming within the next higher tonnage subdivision.

§ 302.97 The Administrator may modify this supplement. The Administrator reserves the right to exempt specific vessels from the scope of this supplement, or to amend, modify, or terminate this supplement, but no such action shall apply to any charter tendered and executed prior to the date of any such action except where such action is in conformity with the provisions of the applicable charter.

§ 302.98 Effective date. Sections 302.91 to 302.97, inclusive, shall become effective as of December 1, 1943, except that in the case of a vessel as to which no charter has previously been tendered the effective date shall be as fixed by the Administrator, and, as of such effective dates, General Order 8 (Revised) and all previous supplements and amendments to such Order shall be superseded insofar as rates of hire are determined in accordance with the provisions of this supplement.

PART 302—CONTRACTS WITH VESSEL OWNERS AND RATES OF COMPENSATION RELATING THERETO

UNIFORM TIME CHARTER

Section 302.50 Uniform time charter for requisitioned and other dry cargo vessels (General Order 11) is amended to read:

§ 302.50 Amended time charter for dry cargo vessels "Warshiptime (Rev.)". The Administrator, War Shipping Administration, adopts the following standard form of addendum for time charters for dry cargo vessels heretofore entered into by the United States of America, acting by and through the Administrator, to be known as "WARSHIPTIME (Rev.)":

Contract No._____
Warshiptime (Rev.)

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION

AMENDED TIME CHARTER FOR DRY CARGO VESSELS

WHEREAS, the Owner and the Charterer have heretofore entered into a charter agreement dated as of_____, 1942, providing for the charter of the Vessel upon the terms and conditions therein set forth, and

WHEREAS, the Owner and Charterer have heretofore agreed by addendum to such Charter that the rate of hire and insurance valuation, if any, may be subject to readjustment to the extent therein provided, such readjustment to be effective as of December 1, 1943, with respect to the rate of hire, and

WHEREAS, the Charterer has tendered to the Owner a statement of the rate of hire which in the judgment of the Administrator will be just compensation for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of the Charter for the period commencing from December 1, 1943, and terminating upon the effective date of this Addendum and proposes in this Addendum to tender a similarly determined rate of hire for the period commencing with the effective date of this Addendum and extending for the balance of the term of this Charter and likewise desires in the same manner to tender a valuation for the Vessel which in the opinion of the Administrator will constitute just compensation for the loss of or damage to the Vessel occurring after the effective date of this Addendum, and

WHEREAS, the Charterer has found that in order to facilitate the prosecution of the war and otherwise to benefit the interests of the United States, it is necessary and desirable that the Charter be further amended to the extent provided for by this Addendum,

Now, therefore, the Charterer and the Owner do mutually agree to amend the Charter effective upon the date hereinafter set forth so that such Charter will be as follows:

Amended time charter, hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Charter, dated as of _____, 194__, between_____

Address _____

Owner of the SS/MS _____ (herein called the "Vessel"), and United States of America, acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, CHARTERER, the terms of the Charter being as follows:

Part I (Revised)

The Vessel's particulars on which the rate of hire and valuation have been based in part by the Administrator are as follows:

DEADWEIGHT capacity, as defined in Clause 5, Part II.
CLASSED
BALE CAPACITY of refrigerated cargo space, as represented by the Owner, exclusive of ship's stores and space installed by or at the expense of Charterer _____ cubic feet
YEAR BUILT

CLAUSE A. Period of charter. From the time of delivery to the time of expiration of the voyage current at the end of the emergency proclaimed by the President of the United States on May 27, 1941: Provided, however, That either party may sooner terminate this Charter upon not less than thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice to the other. In either case, the Vessel shall be redelivered as hereinafter provided.

CLAUSE B. Trading limits. As and where the Charterer may from time to time determine, subject to normal trading limits for a Vessel of her size, type and description.

CLAUSE C. Hire. The Owner is hereby given an election either (I) to accept the rate of hire hereinafter set forth in Option I, which states the rate which in the Administrator's judgment will be just compensation for the use of the vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter; or (II) to decline to accept such rate of hire and to have the amount of just compensation judicially determined. If the Owner elects Option I, hire at the rate therein stated shall be paid by the Charterer to the Owner in the manner provided in Part II. If the Owner executes this Amended Charter but does not accept the rate of hire set forth in Option I, the right of the Owner to pursue whatever legal remedy it may have to recover just compensation under the laws and Constitution of the United States shall not be impaired or prejudiced either by the execution and delivery of this Amended Charter, or by the acceptance of 75 per centum of the rate of hire set forth in Option I, and this Charter, in any such event, shall then be deemed an agreement governing only the relations between the Owner and the Charterer in respect to matters other than the amount of just compensation for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter. Where Option II applies the Charterer reserves all rights which it may have to readjust or redetermine the rate of hire at any time.

Option I. The hire shall be $_____ per calendar month or pro rata for any portion thereof, of which the sum of $_____ per calendar month shall be compensation to the Owner for the use of the Vessel (herein sometimes referred to as the use rate) and the balance shall be compensation to the Owner for services required under the terms of this Charter (herein sometimes referred to as the service rate).

Option II. The Charterer shall pay to the Owner just compensation, to be judicially determined, for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter, and, subject to the Charterer's reservations as to readjustment or redetermination of the rate of hire, the Charterer shall pay on account of just compensation a sum equal to 75 per centum of the hire otherwise payable under the terms of this Charter, as the same may from time to time be due under the terms of this Charter, and the Owner shall be entitled to sue the United States to recover such further sum as added to such 75 per centum will make up such amount as will be just compensation. The term "just compensation" as used in this Clause C and elsewhere in this Charter shall be deemed to include interest, if any, to which the Owner would be entitled if it had not executed and delivered this Charter.

Time of election between options. The Owner shall elect between Option I and Option II at the time the Owner signs this Charter, unless a rate has not then been inserted in Option I. In the latter case, such election shall be made by the Owner in writing within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Charterer of the rate to be so inserted. In the event of the Owner's failure to elect Option I at the time of signing, or within such 30 day period, as the case may be, Option II shall apply. Provided, however, That at any time after election has been made of either Option I or Option II, but before redelivery and before commencement of suit for just compensation, the Owner, subject to the approval of the Charterer, may, if it has elected Option I herein, change such election to Option II, effective as of the date of such change and notice thereof to the Charterer, or if it has elected Option II herein, change such election to Option I, effective as of the time of delivery under this Charter or such other mutually agreeable date as the Charterer may fix. Whenever Option II is applicable, it shall be deemed to have been elected for the purpose of this proviso.

Rate revision (Option I only). At any time after July 1, 1944 but not more often than once every 120 days thereafter, either party may request a redetermination of the rate of charter hire upon thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice to the other, but no rate redetermination prior to July 1, 1945 shall involve a change in the use rate factor of the charter hire. If a revised rate is determined and agreed upon within such 30-day period, it shall become effective as of the date specified in the determination and shall continue for the balance of the period of this Charter, subject to further redetermination in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. If a revised rate is not determined and agreed upon within any such 30-day period, then the rate of hire in effect at the time of such notice shall apply only until noon (EWT) of the day after the end of such 30-day period, and the Charterer shall make a redetermination of the rate of hire, as to which the provisions of Option II of this Clause C shall apply for the balance of the period of this Charter. A change in the rate of charter hire under this paragraph shall not terminate the period of or otherwise modify the provisions of this Charter, and any such change shall be without prejudice to the rights of either party to terminate this Charter as provided in Clause A, Part I.

CLAUSE D. Valuation. The Owner shall elect betwen the following options, unless this is a Vessel subject to the provisions of Section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act 1936, as amended in which event the Owner shall not have the right to elect Option I, and Option II shall apply.

Option I. In the event of loss or damage to the Vessel due to the operation of a risk assumed by the Charterer under the terms of this Charter, the Charterer shall pay to the Owner just compensation, to be judicially determined, for such loss or damage, to the extent the person entitled thereto is not reimbursed therefor through policies of insurance against such loss or damage. In such event the amount of just compensation shall be determined and tendered by the Charterer as soon as practicable after the loss or damage, but if the amount of just compensation so determined is unsatisfactory to the person entitled thereto, the Charterer shall pay to such person 75 per centum of the amount so determined, and such person shall be entitled to sue the United States to recover such further sum as added to said 75 per centum, will make up such amount as will be just compensation for such loss or damage.

Option II. For the period ending noon, E. W. T., April 20, 1945, the agreed valuation of the Vessel for the purposes of this Charter and the insurance provided by the Charterer, is the sum of $_____. For each subsequent twelve (12) month period the valuation, unless otherwise agreed, shall be reduced by _____, but any Owner who shall be dissatisfied with such reduction shall have the option, to be exercised on or before April 1, 1945 or on or before April 1st of any year thereafter, to elect Option I for the period commencing at noon, E. W. T., of the following April 20th, and effective for the balance of the term of this Charter. In event of such election, the provisions of Option I shall control for all purposes from such effective date.

The foregoing provisions of this Option II shall not be applicable to a Vessel subject to the provisions of Section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act of 1936, as amended. For the purposes of this Charter and any insurance undertaken by the Charterer, any such Vessel shall be valued as of the date of loss at the actual depreciated construction cost of the Vessel (together with the actual depreciated cost of capital improvements thereon, but excluding the cost of national defense features), less the depreciated amount of construction-differential subsidy theretofore paid incident to the construction or reconditioning of such Vessel, or the fair and reasonable scrap value of such Vessel as determined by the Charterer, whichever is greater. In computing the depreciated value of the Vessel, depreciation shall be computed on the Vessel on the schedule adopted by the bureau of Internal Revenue for income-tax purposes.

By mutual agreement the valuation provisions of this Option II may be superseded as of the date of loss or any other mutually agreeable date in the event that the Charterer shall adopt any plan with respect to replacement of vessels which is applicable to this vessel.

Time of election between options. Except as otherwise provided in valuation Option II above, the Owner shall elect between Option I and Option II at the time the Owner signs this Charter, unless a valuation has not then been inserted in Option II. In the latter case, such election shall be made by the Owner in writing within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from the Charterer of the valuation to be so inserted. In the event of the Owner's failure to elect Option II at the time of signing or within such 30-day period, as the case may be, Option I shall apply.

CLAUSE F. Time and date of delivery.

CLAUSE G. Port of redelivery. Port of delivery, unless otherwise agreed: Provided, however, That at Owner's option, redelivery shall be made at the U. S. continental port where the Owner maintains its principal operating headquarters.

CLAUSE H. Notice of Redelivery. The Charterer shall give not less than thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice.

CLAUSE I. Uniform terms. This Charter consists of this Part I and Part II, conforming to the Amended Time Charter for Dry Cargo Vessels, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 8, 1944. The provisions of Part II shall be incorporated by reference in and need not be attached to Part I of this Charter, and unless in this Part I otherwise expressly provided, all of the provisions of Part II shall be part of this Charter as though fully set forth in this Part I.

UNIFORM TIME CHARTER TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR DRY CARGO VESSELS

(Part II)—(Revised)

CLAUSE 1. The Vessel shall be placed at the disposal of the Charterer at the port of delivery at such safe ready dock, wharf, or place as the Charterer may direct. Any time lost by the Vessel awaiting the availability of such dock, wharf, or place shall count as time on hire. The Vessel on her delivery shall be ready to receive cargo with clean-swept holds and, as far as due diligence can make her so, tight, staunch, strong, and in every way fitted for normal commercial service for a vessel of her size, type, and description, having winches and power sufficient to run all the winches at one and the same time and a Master, and a sufficient complement of officers and crew (hereinafter referred to collectively as the crew) for a vessel of her tonnage, and due diligence shall be exercised by the Owner to maintain her in such state during the currency of this Charter.

The Vessel shall be employed in carrying passengers (to the extent permitted by law and available accommodations) and lawful merchandise, including petroleum or its products in proper containers, in lawful trades between safe ports or places, as the Charterer or its agents may direct.

The Vessel may be employed to tow or may be towed, but the Charterer shall indemnify the Owner for any loss, damage, claims or expenses resulting from any such use of the Vessel.

For the purpose of this Charter the Owner shall be entitled to the benefits of all waivers in the navigation and inspection laws granted by an authorized officer or by law or regulation.

If radio or other equipment is required to enable the Vessel to comply with this Clause and such equipment is leased by the Owner, it shall pay the rental and maintenance charges therefor, or if such charges are paid by the Charterer, such charges may be deducted from the hire.

CLAUSE 2. The whole reach and burthen of the Vessel's holds, decks, and usual places of loading (but not more than she can reasonably stow and carry), shall be at the Charterer's disposal, reserving only space proper and sufficient in the opinion of the Master for Vessel's crew, Master's cabin, tackle, apparel, furniture, provisions, fresh water, stores and fuel.

CLAUSE 3. A. Commencing with the time this Amended Charter becomes effective, the Charterer shall (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Charter) pay hire for the use of the Vessel and for the services required under the terms of this Charter at the rate provided in Option I of Clause C, of Part I of this Amended Charter, or, if the Owner has not elected said Option I, make payments on account of just compensation as provided in Option II of Clause C, Part I of this Amended Charter, and in either case such hire or payments on account shall continue until the time of the redelivery of the Vessel to the Owner as in this Charter provided, unless the parties hereto otherwise agree: Provided, however, That if the Vessel shall be an actual total loss, such hire or payments on account shall continue until the time of her loss, if known, or if the date of loss cannot be ascertained, or if the Vessel is unreported, such hire or payments shall continue for one-half the calculated time necessary for the Vessel to proceed from her last known position to the next port of call, but not exceeding 14 days. If the Vessel is a constructive total loss under the terms of any insurance thereon or is declared a constructive total loss by the Charterer under the provisions of Schedule A, such hire or payments shall continue until Noon (EWT) of the day of the last casualty resulting in or causing or contributing to her loss, except as otherwise provided in Clause 31 of this Charter. Nothing in this Clause shall prohibit the Owner from instituting proceedings at any time after the effective date of this Amended Charter to recover just compensation when Option II of Clause C, Part I, is applicable.

CLAUSE 3. B. If at the time of redelivery under this Charter, the Vessel shall require repairs of any damage arising from risks insured against or assumed by the Charterer or for which the Charterer is otherwise liable, hire or payments on account as herein provided shall continue until completion by the Charterer of such repairs and of any work required of the Charterer by Clause 11, Part II, subject to the provisions of Clause 11 D hereof.

CLAUSE 3. C. On the first day of each calendar month, the hire or payments on account of just compensation provided for in this Amended Charter, and all other monies accruing during the preceding month in favor of the Owner, shall be due and payable.

CLAUSE 3. D. The Charterer or its agents may advance currency or perform any services, or furnish any supplies or equipment, which are required by the Owner and are for the Owner's account under this Charter, and the Owner, upon being furnished evidence thereof, shall reimburse or secure the Charterer for the fair and reasonable dollar value of any currency so advanced, services so performed, or supplies and equipment so furnished, or at the Charterer's election the equivalent thereof may be deducted from the hire. It is understood that any such advances made or services performed or supplies and equipment furnished by the government of any country as aid to or for the account of the United States shall be deemed currency advanced, services performed, or supplies and equipment furnished by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 3. E. If, pursuant to any applicable laws of the United States or any agreements entered into pursuant thereto, the Owner is required because of the operation of the Vessel under this Charter to make any payment to the United States by way of reimbursement for construction differential subsidy, then the Charterer shall pay to the Owner as additional charter hire, a sum equal to any amount so paid.

CLAUSE 4. In the event that the Vessel is detained because of the happening of any event caused or contributed to by another vessel, person, corporation, or others, for which detention such third parties are or may be liable (the period of such detention to include the time necessary to proceed to, survey, and effect repairs unaccomplished upon the date of redelivery of the Vessel under this Charter), then for such period of detention the Charterer's obligation to the Owner for hire and for other sums otherwise accruing hereunder shall cease: Provided, however, That the Charterer shall indemnify and save the Owner harmless from any loss whatsoever by reason of the cessation of such obligations, and nothwithstanding said cessation shall pay to the Owner a sum not less than the amount which would otherwise be payable to the Owner for such obligations in the same manner and to the same extent as if such cessation had not occurred, but on performance of this indemnity the Charterer shall immediately become subrogated, to the extent of such indemnity, to all rights whatsoever of the Owner to recover for such detention from or against such vessel, person, corporation, or others, and the Charterer shall be entitled to bring and maintain suit or suits thereon in its own name or in the name of the Owner as the Charterer may see fit: Provided, however, That on the written request of the Charterer, the Owner shall in each instance, assert and prosecute such claims in the name of the Owner, but for and on behalf of the Charterer and at the Charterer's expense, such claims to be in a sum not less than the amount of the indemnity paid by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 5. A. Insofar as it is a factor in the Vessel's rate and valuation, deadweight capacity is to be established in accordance with normal Summer Freeboard as assigned pursuant to the International Load Line Convention, 1930, and shall be her capacity (in tons of 2240 lbs.) for cargo, fuel, fresh water, spare parts and stores but exclusive of permanent ballast. Deadweight shall be calculated without deduction for weight lost by reason of cargo refrigeration installation heretofore made, if any, and weight added by installation of refrigerated cargo capacity (including offsetting permanent ballast required thereby), arming, degaussing, demagnetizing, or the installation of splinter-protection equipment or because of ice-strengthening, or other extraordinary wartime installation or equipment, including permanent ballast, heretofore or hereafter made or required by the Charterer or any other agency of the United States.

CLAUSE 5. B. In the event that the Vessel's deadweight or bale cubic refrigerated capacity, when finally determined as herein provided, shall not be in accord with the description contained in Part I hereof, the hire and valuation (if any) shall be equitably adjusted to be appropriate for the Vessel's deadweight and bale cubic refrigerated capacity. Certificates of deadweight or bale cubic refrigerated capacity, in satisfactory form, heretofore or hereafter furnished by the American Bureau of Shipping shall be accepted as final proof of deadweight capacity and bale cubic refrigerated capacity.

CLAUSE 6. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter:

(a) The Owner shall provide and pay for
(1) Wages of Master and crew;
(2) Subsistence;
(3) Galley, cabin, deck and engine room stores, supplies and equipment (except all water and fuel for any purpose);

(5) Sales or other taxes based on the foregoing items; and
(6) Owner's overhead expenses.

(b) The Charterer shall provide and pay for all other charges and expenses whatsoever reasonably and properly incurred in the use, operation or employment of the Vessel hereunder.

persons covered by Clause 7 C hereof, and shall also include board and room allowances of Master and crew in lieu of subsistence and lodging aboard the Vessel.

(3) The term "galley, cabin, deck and engine room stores, supplies and equipment" shall mean those items referred to under the headings of "(15)" and "(24)" Stores, Supplies and Equipment", page 8, of the General Financial Statement of the U. S. Maritime Commission, approved by the Budget Bureau No. 62–RO, 10–42.

(4) The term "maintenance and repair of Vessel and equipment" shall mean the items referred to under the headings "(25) Other Maintenance Expense" and "(40)" and "(49) Repairs", page 8 of said General Financial Statement.

(5) The term "overhead expense" shall include administrative and general expenses as presently itemized in General Order No. 23 of the U. S. Maritime Commission, Owner's advertising expenses, Owner's taxes (except sales and similar taxes, taxes assessed or based upon freights earned, and other taxes of any kind determined by the Charterer to be properly classifiable as voyage expenses), and the cost of employing agents or branch houses to perform any of the services required of the Owner under this Charter.

Clause 7. A. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for actual out-of-pocket expenses, including all taxes paid by the Owner with respect to such expenses, for:

(1) All war bonuses (war risk compensation (paid to the master and crew (which term as used in this Clause 7 shall refer to the actual crew on board, even though in excess of the normal complement) in the manner and to the extent provided for in applicable decisions or advices of the Maritime War Emergency Board, as amended or modified from time to time, or in judicial decisions relating thereto.

(2) All extra compensation, including overtime, paid to the crew for services performed by the crew (a) in connection with cargo, at sea or in port, (b) in connection with shifting of Vessel in port for Charterer's purposes, or (c) preparatory to loading or discharging or sailing in convoy. If the Vessel operates in the Alaska trade, the Charterer shall also pay the extra crew costs exceeding costs that would have been incurred in similar operations in other oceangoing trades.

(3) All wages, and overtime paid to any extra crew members beyond the normal complement of the Vessel, or to other persons carried, who are required to be employed by the Owner because of (a) the Vessel's service under this Charter, (b) the loading or discharging of cargo, or (c) to care for any persons covered by Clause 7 C hereof. Extra wages or overtime paid to the normal complement of the Vessel in lieu of employing extra crew members or persons for the purposes above set forth shall also be reimbursed to the Owner.

The term "normal complement" as used in this Charter shall refer to the normal peacetime complement for off shore foreign trading for the average vessel of the same size, type and description as the Vessel chartered hereunder, as determined by the Administrator.

(4) All wages and overtime paid to security watchmen provided in compliance with any security requirements of any United States or other Government agency, and all overtime or additional wages paid to the crew by reason of compliance with such requirements.

(5) All extra clothing or effects for the Master and crew necessitated by the Vessel's service under this Charter (Charterer to have title to such extra clothing and effects).

Clause 7. B. The Charterer shall, to the extent the Owner is not reimbursed under the provisions of Schedule A attached hereto, reimburse the Owner for out-of-pocket expenses or disbursements made on behalf of the Master or crew, or payments made to the Master or crew, for repatriation transportation (including return to port of shipment), and for wages and subsistence while awaiting and during such transportation, where such expenses, disbursements, or payments are assumed by the terms of the Ship's Articles, the Owner's collective bargaining agreements or found by the Owner to be reasonably necessary or desirable. The Owner shall also be reimbursed for the cost reasonably incurred in furnishing men to replace members of the crew whose employment has terminated at ports in Alaska or outside the continental United States where suitable replacements are not readily available.

Clause 7. C. The Charterer shall pay the Owner at the rate of $1.50 per day per person (not in excess of fifty (50) persons) for providing subsistence aboard the Vessel for any person carried at the request of the Charterer or any agency of the United States or the military authorities of any Allied Government, or any extra crew members beyond the Vessel's normal complement required because of the Vessel's service under this Charter, and $1.50 per day per person for providing subsistence aboard the Vessel for any extra complement thereby required. If a total of more than 50 extra persons referred to in this Clause 7 C are carried on the Vessel at any one time, the Owner shall be reimbursed for his actual costs for subsistence of the number in excess of 50, unless subsistence rates or schedules applicable to such excess number have been agreed upon between the Owner and the Charterer, in which event such rates or schedules shall govern. The term "subsistence" as used in this subsection shall include victualling, supplying with linens, bedding, laundry, and similar services, but the Owner shall not be obliged to furnish linens and bedding for such extra persons in excess of 50, unless otherwise agreed.

Clause 8. A. The Charterer may disallow in whole or in part, as may be appropriate, and deny reimbursement for any expenses for which it is required to reimburse the Owner which are in contravention of the terms of this Charter, or are otherwise improvident or excessive.

Clause 8. B. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for any additional extraordinary costs incurred which the Charterer, in its discretion, may allow upon finding that such costs are not intended to be covered in the allowance for services hereunder. In the event the Vessel is assigned by the Charterer for service between foreign ports, the Charterer for service between foreign ports, the Charterer shall make such adjustment, if any, as it deems appropriate to allow for increased cost of operation.

Clause 8. C. In the event the Vessel is physically incapable of working for a period in excess of twenty (20) days while in a Continental United States port (excluding Alaska) or for a period of thirty (30) days while in Alaska or outside the Continental United States, the charter hire otherwise payable hereunder shall be reduced for the excess period by an amount equal to twenty (20) percent of the service rate, plus eighty (80) per cent of the actual savings in wages for Master and crew during the entire period of layup. The Owner shall furnish reports of wage savings as soon as practicable after the termination of each month of such layup.

Clause 9. The Charterer shall provide necessary dunnage and shifting boards, also any extra fittings and materials requisite for a special trade or for the carriage of livestock or other unusual cargo, but the Owner shall allow the Charterer the use of any dunnage and shifting boards and fittings and materials already aboard the Vessel. The Charterer shall have the privilege of using shifting boards for dunnage. Upon redelivery of the Vessel, the Charterer shall make good any damage to or shortage of shifting boards, fittings or materials which are on board at delivery.

Clause 10. The Charterer shall pay for all fuel on board upon delivery, and the Owner shall pay for all fuel on board on redelivery not in excess of Owner's normal requirements, at market prices current at the ports and times of delivery and redelivery, respectively.

Clause 11. A. The Charterer or any agency of the United States may, at the expense of the Charterer or such agency and on the Charterer's time, install any equipment, gear or armament, and may make any alterations or additions to the Vessel. Such equipment, gear or armament so installed are to be considered Charterer's property and are to be maintained at Charterer's expense. Such work shall be done so as not to affect the seaworthiness of the Vessel or the safety of the crew, and as not to be in contravention of any applicable law of the United States or regulation made pursuant thereto. The Charterer shall, before redelivery and at its expense and on its time, remove any equipment, gear and armament installed by or at the request of the Charterer or any agency of the United States and restore the Vessel to her condition prior to any such installations, alterations, additions or changes, whether such installations, alterations, additions or changes were made under this Charter or prior to delivery under this Charter, except as may be otherwise provided herein.

Clause 11. B. Commencing with the time this Amended Charter becomes effective, the Charterer shall pay the full actual cost of providing and maintaining all equipment and installations on the Vessel, beyond normal peace-time standards, then or thereafter required by sub-chapter O of Chapter II of the Regulations of the United States Coast Guard (Title 46, U. S. C. R.), or by other wartime regulations of any agency of the United States, except that if and so long as the Vessel remains under time charter, the Owner shall provide and pay for renewals, replacements and repairs to lifeboat equipment and for minor repairs to lifeboats not belonging to the Owner, unless any such renewals, replacements or repairs are caused by subsequent increases and changes in wartime Governmental requirements. Provided, however, That if the Owner has not entered into a form of addendum to the original time charter covering this Vessel designated as "Uniform Addendum to Time Charter Covering Adjustments of Certain Disputed Questions" and has not entered into a special agreement as and if contemplated in Paragraph Fourth of said addendum, then the obligations of the Charterer under this Clause 11-B shall be limited to items hereafter required and shall not cover items heretofore required as aforesaid. All such equipment and installations installed in or relating to lifeboats belonging to the Owner shall be the property of the Owner and all other equipment or installations shall belong to the Charterer and shall be considered as equipment installed or as alterations or additions made by the Charterer pursuant to Clause 11 A of the Charter.

Clause 11. C. Any equipment, furniture, furnishings or appliances belonging to the Vessel and not required by the Charterer may be removed by the Charterer, at the Charterer's expense, and upon termination of the Charter, unless the Vessel has been lost or requisitioned for title, any such removals are to be replaced on board the Vessel or made good by the Charterer at its expense. Storage charges arising from such removal shall be paid for by the Charterer.

Clause 11. D. If, at the time of redelivery under this Charter, the Vessel shall require any work or repairs of any damage arising from risks insured against or assumed by the Charterer, or for which the Charterer is otherwise liable under this Clause, Clause 11 A or any other Clause hereunder, the Charterer may, at its option, discharge such obligations by payment to the Owner in advance of an amount for reconditioning sufficient to provide for such work or repairs, which amount shall also include compensation at the rate of hire that would otherwise have been payable under this Charter, for the time reasonably required under then existing conditions to complete such work or repairs and compensation for other expenses incident to such work or repairs. If the Owner and Charterer agree such obligations may be discharged by a mutually satisfactory agreement.

Clause 12. The Owner agrees at its expense to drydock the Vessel for the purpose of cleaning and painting her bottom, when necessary and not less than once in every nine months unless the Charterer otherwise agrees, and, when drydocking is due, the Charterer agrees to send the Vessel to a port where she can so drydock, clean and paint. All towage, pilotage, and other expenses incidental to such drydocking and all port charges incurred in connection therewith, shall be for the Owner's account regardless of whether Charterer's repairs are concurrently made.

Clause 13. The Charterer shall furnish the Master from time to time with all requisite instructions and sailing directions, in writing, and the Master, to the extent permitted by governmental orders or directions, shall keep a full and correct log of the voyage or voyages, which shall be patent to the Charterer or its agents, and furnish the Charterer or its agents, when required and to the extent permitted by governmental orders or directions, with a true copy of port and daily logs, showing the course of the Vessel, the distance run and the consumption of fuel.

Clause 14. Subject always to the directions of the Charterer the Master shall prosecute his voyages with the utmost dispatch and shall render all customary assistance with Ship's crew and boats; and shall use due diligence in caring for and ventilating the cargo. The Master (although employed by the Owner) shall be under the orders and directions of the Charterer as regards employment, agency and prosecution of the voyages; and the Charterer shall load, stow, trim and discharge the cargo at its expense under the supervision of the Master who, if requested, is to sign bills of lading for cargo as presented, in conformity with Mate's or Tally Clerk's receipts. Bills of lading are to be signed in the form and at any rate of freight that Charterer or its agents may direct, without prejudice to this Charter. The Charterer hereby agrees to indemnify the Owner against all consequences or liabilities that may arise from the Charterer or its agents (including the Master) signing bills of lading or other documents inconsistent with this Charter, or from any irregularities in papers supplied by the Charterer or its agents.

Clause 15. Cargo may be laden or discharged in any dock or at any wharf or place that the Charterer or its agents may direct, provided that the Vessel can safely lie afloat at any time of tide.

Clause 16. The Owner shall provide and maintain gear for all derricks and shall maintain the gear of the ship as fitted, and shall also provide ropes, falls and blocks customary in normal commercial operation. The Owner shall also provide on the Vessel lanterns and oil for night work, and give the use of electric lights when the Vessel is so fitted. The Charterer shall have the use of any gear on board the Vessel, including slings.

Clause 17. The vessel shall work night and day, if required by the Charterer, and all winches are to be at the Charterer's disposal during loading and discharging. Shore winchmen, when available and where required, shall be provided and paid by the Charterer.

Clause 18. All bills of lading issued hereunder shall contain, directly or by reference, substantially the following clauses:

(i) Clause paramount. "This bill of lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of United States, approved April 16, 1936, which shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed a surrender by the Carrier of any of its rights or immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under said Act. If any term of this bill of lading be repugnant to said Act to any extent, such term shall be void to that extent but no further."

(ii) Both-to-blame collision clause. "If the ship comes into collision with another ship as a result of the negligence of the other ship and any act, neglect or default of the master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the carrier in the navigation or in the management of the ship, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the carrier against all loss or liability to the other or non-carrying ship or her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever of the owners of said goods, paid or payable by the other or noncarrying ship or her owners to the owners of said goods and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying ship or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying ship or carrier. The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any ship or ships or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding ships or objects are at fault in respect of a collision or contact."

(iii) General average clause. "General average shall be adjusted, stated, and settled, according to Rules 1 to 15, inclusive, 17 to 22, inclusive, and Rule F of York-Antwerp Rules 1924, at such port or place in the United States as may be selected by the carrier, and as to matters not provided for by these Rules, according to the laws and usages at the port of New York. In such adjustment, disbursements in foreign currencies shall be exchanged into United States money at the rate prevailing on the dates made and allowances for damage to cargo claimed in foreign currency shall be converted at the rate prevailing on the last day of discharge at the port or place of final discharge of such damaged cargo from the ship. Average agreement or bond and such additional security, as may be required by the carrier, must be furnished before delivery of the goods. Such cash deposit as the carrier or his agents may deem sufficient as additional security for the contribution of the goods and for any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods to the carrier before delivery. Such deposit shall, at the option of the carrier, be payable in United States money, and be remitted to the adjuster. When so remitted the deposit shall be held in a special account at the place of adjustment in the name of the adjuster pending settlement of the general average and refunds or credit balances, if any, shall be paid in United States money."

(iv) Amended "Jason" clause. "In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which or for the consequence of which the carrier is not responsible by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, shippers, consignees, or owners of the goods shall contribute with the carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving ship is owned or operated by the carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully as if the salving ship or ships belong to strangers."

(v) Liberties clauses. "In any situation whatsoever and wheresoever occurring and whether existing or anticipated before commencement of or during the voyage, which in the judgment of the carrier or master is likely to give rise to risk or capture, seizure, detention, damages, delay or disadvantage to or loss of the ship or any part of her cargo, or to make it unsafe, imprudent, or unlawful for any reason to commence or proceed on or continue the voyage or to enter or discharge the goods at the port of discharge, or to give rise to delay or difficulty in arriving, discharging at or leaving the port of discharge or the usual place of discharge in such port, the carrier may before loading or before the commencement of the voyage, require the shipper or other person entitled thereto to take delivery of the goods at port of shipment and upon their failure to do so, may warehouse the goods at the risk and expense of the goods; or the carrier or master, whether or not proceeding toward or entering or attempting to enter the port of discharge or reaching or attempting to reach the usual place of discharge therein or attempting to discharge the goods there, may discharge the goods into depot, lazaretto, craft or other place; or the ship may proceed or return, directly or indirectly, to or stop at any such port or place whatsoever as the master or the carrier may consider safe or advisable under the circumstances, and discharge the goods, or any part thereof, at any such port or place; or the carrier or the master may retain the cargo on board until the return trip or until such time as the carrier or the master thinks advisable and discharge the goods at any place whatsoever as herein provided; or the carrier or the master may discharge and forward the goods by any means at the risk and expense of the goods. The carrier or the master is not required to give notice of discharge of the goods or the forwarding thereof as herein provided. When the goods are discharged from the ship, as herein provided, they shall be at their own risk and expense; such discharge shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. For any service rendered to the goods as herein provided the carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation.

"The carrier, master and ship shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, under the terms of the war risk insurance on the ship, the right to give such orders or directions. Delivery or other disposition of the goods in accordance with such orders or directions shall be a fulfillment of the contract voyage. The ship may carry contraband, explosives, munitions, warlike stores, hasardous cargo, and may sail armed or unarmed and with or without convoy.

"In addition to all other liberties herein the carrier shall have the right to withhold delivery of, reship to, deposit or discharge the goods at any place whatsoever, surrender or dispose of the goods in accordance with any direction, condition or agreement imposed upon or exacted from the carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and all expenses and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods."

This Charter shall also be subject to the provisions of (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Clause 18.

CLAUSE 19. The Vessel, her Master and Owner shall not, unless otherwise in this Charter expressly provided, be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performing under this Charter, arising or resulting from: Any act, neglect, default or barratry of the Master, pilots, mariners or other servants of the Owner, in the navigation or management of the Vessel; fire, unless caused by the personal design or neglect of the Owner; collision, stranding, or peril, danger or accident of the sea or other navigable waters; saving or attempting to save life or property; wastage in weight or bulk, or any other loss or damage arising from inherent defect, quality or vice of the cargo; any act or omission of the Charterer, the owner, shipper or consignee of the cargo, their agents or representatives; insufficiency of packing; insufficiency or inadequacy of marks; explosions, bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts, or any latent defects in hull, equipment or machinery; unseaworthiness of the Vessel unless caused by want of due diligence on the part of the Owner to make the Vessel seaworthy or to have her properly manned, equipped and supplied; or from any other cause of whatsoever kind arising without the actual fault or privity of the Owner. And neither the Vessel, her Master or Owner, nor the Charterer shall, unless otherwise in this Charter expressly provided, be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performing under this Charter arising or resulting from: Act of God; act of war; act of public enemies, pirates, or assailing thieves; arrest or restraint of princes, rulers or people, or seizure under legal process; strike or lockout or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, either partial or gen-make any changes necessary in the appointment.

If the Charterer shall have reason to be dissatisfied with the conduct of any member of the crew, the Owner shall, on receiving particulars of the complaint, investigate and make any changes practicable in the appointments or practices aboard the Vessel with respect to the maintenance of proper discipline, necessary to eliminate the reasons for such dissatisfaction by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 23. Any provisions of this Charter to the contrary notwithstanding, the Owner shall have the benefit of all limitations of, and exemptions from, liability accorded to the Owner of vessels by any statute or rule of law for the time being in force. Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the Charterer's right of limitation or exemption from liability accorded under the provisions of Section 4 of Public Law 17, 78th Congress.

CLAUSE 24. Nothing herein stated is to be construed as a demise of the Vessel to the Charterer.

CLAUSE 25. Liability for nonperformance of this Charter shall be proved damages.

CLAUSE 26. The Charterer shall have the option of subletting or assigning this Charter, but the Charterer shall always remain responsible for the due fulfillment of this Charter in all its terms and conditions.

CLAUSE 27. The Charterer shall have a lien on the Vessel for all moneys paid in advance and not earned.

CLAUSE 28. The Master and the Vessel shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise however given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, and if by reason of or in compliance with any such orders or directions anything is done or is not done, such shall not be deemed a deviation or breach of orders or neglect of duty by the Master or the Vessel. Provided, however, That whenever any such orders or directions given otherwise than by the Government of the United States or its representative are contrary to sailing directions or other orders of the Charterer as to the other out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Owner subsequent to the date of and arising from an actual or constructive total loss of the Vessel to the extent not recovered or reimbursed under any insurance on the Vessel or under this Charter or otherwise. If the extent of the damage or injury is not sufficient to entitle the Owner to collect for an actual or constructive total loss under the provisions of any insurance on the Vessel in the absence of a declaration by the Charterer, then in addition to reimbursement of expenses as aforesaid, the Owner shall be entitled: (a) to charter hire at the rate of 3½ per cent per annum on the then current valuation of the Vessel under valuation Option II, commencing with the date when charter hire would otherwise terminate and ending four months thereafter or on the date of such declaration, whichever date is earlier; and (b) if the Vessel is declared a constructive total loss more than four months after the date charter hire would otherwise terminate, then to charter hire in an amount equal to the use rate payable under Part I from the end of such four months until the date of such declaration.

CLAUSE 32. The Administrator (Charterer), acting pursuant to delegation of authority by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board to the Administrator by instrument dated February 26, 1944, having found that this Agreement is in the nature of a lease contract and that the profits of the use rate and agreed valuation (if any) hereunder can now be determined with reasonable certainty, that such use rate and agreed valuation (if any) are not in excess of just compensation to which the Owner is or may be entitled, and that the provisions of this Charter with respect thereto adequately prevent excessive profits, the said use rate and agreed valuation (if any) are hereby exempted from the provisions of the Renegotiation Act, pursuant to subsection (i) (4) of the said Act. Nothing in this Clause 32 shall be construed as an admission by the Owners that the items exempted from renegotiation as aforesaid would be subject to the Renegotiation Act in the absence of the foregoing provisions. The service rate under this Charter shall be subject to renegotiation in accordance with the provisions of said Act, and with respect thereto this Charter shall be deemed to con-

posed upon or exacted from the carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and all expenses and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods."

This Charter shall also be subject to the provisions of (ii), (iii) and (iv) of this Clause 18.

CLAUSE 19. The Vessel, her Master and Owner shall not, unless otherwise in this Charter expressly provided, be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performing under this Charter, arising or resulting from: Any act, neglect, default or barratry of the Master, pilots, mariners or other servants of the Owner, in the navigation or management of the Vessel; fire, unless caused by the personal design or neglect of the Owner; collision, stranding, or peril, danger or accident of the sea or other navigable waters; saving or attempting to save life or property; wastage in weight or bulk, or any other loss or damage arising from inherent defect, quality or vice of the cargo; any act or omission of the Charterer, the owner, shipper or consignee of the cargo, their agents or representatives; insufficiency of packing; insufficiency or inadequacy of marks; explosions, bursting of boilers, breakage of shafts, or any latent defects in hull, equipment or machinery; unseaworthiness of the Vessel unless caused by want of due diligence on the part of the Owner to make the Vessel seaworthy or to have her properly manned, equipped and supplied; or from any other cause of whatsoever kind arising without the actual fault or privity of the Owner. And neither the Vessel, her Master or Owner, nor the Charterer shall, unless otherwise in this Charter expressly provided, be responsible for any loss or damage or delay or failure in performing under this Charter arising or resulting from: Act of God; act of war; act of public enemies, pirates, or assailing thieves; arrest or restraint of princes, rulers or people, or seizure under legal process; strike or lockout or stoppage or restraint of labor from whatever cause, either partial or general; or riot or civil commotion. The Vessel shall have liberty to sail with or without pilots, to tow or to be towed, to go to the assistance of vessels in distress and to deviate for the purpose of saving life or property or of landing any ill or injured person on board. No exemption afforded to the Charterer under this Clause shall diminish its obligations for hire under the other provisions of this Charter.

CLAUSE 20. The Insurance, Indemnity and Waiver program set forth in Schedule A annexed is hereby incorporated by reference in and made part of this Charter as though fully set forth in this Clause.

CLAUSE 21. All salvage moneys earned by the Vessel shall be divided equally between the Owner and the Charterer, after deducting the Master and crew's shares, legal expenses, hire of the Vessel during time lost, value of fuel consumed, repairs of damage, if any, and any other extraordinary loss or expense sustained as a result of the service, which shall always be a first charge on such moneys: Provided, however, That to the extent necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Insurance, Indemnity and Waiver program (Schedule A), claims for salvage on behalf of the Owner shall be made solely at the discretion of the Charterer.

CLAUSE 22. If the Charterer shall notify the Owner that the employment or the continued employment of the Master or any member of the crew or any agent of the Owner is prejudicial to the interests of the United States in the prosecuting of the war, the Owner shall make any changes necessary in the appointment.

If the Charterer shall have reason to be dissatisfied with the conduct of any member of the crew, the Owner shall, on receiving particulars of the complaint, investigate and make any changes practicable in the appointments or practices aboard the Vessel with respect to the maintenance of proper discipline, necessary to eliminate the reasons for such dissatisfaction by the Charterer.

CLAUSE 23. Any provisions of this Charter to the contrary notwithstanding, the Owner shall have the benefit of all limitations of, and exemptions from, liability accorded to the Owner of vessels by any statute or rule of law for the time being in force. Nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the Charterer's right of limitation or exemption from liability accorded under the provisions of Section 4 of Public Law 17, 78th Congress.

CLAUSE 24. Nothing herein stated is to be construed as a demise of the Vessel to the Charterer.

CLAUSE 25. Liability for nonperformance of this Charter shall be proved damages.

CLAUSE 26. The Charterer shall have the option of subletting or assigning this Charter, but the Charterer shall always remain responsible for the due fulfillment of this Charter in all its terms and conditions.

CLAUSE 27. The Charterer shall have a lien on the Vessel for all moneys paid in advance and not earned.

CLAUSE 28. The Master and the Vessel shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharge, destination, delivery or otherwise however given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such government or of any department thereof, and if by reason of or in compliance with any such orders or directions anything is done or is not done, such shall not be deemed a deviation or breach of orders or neglect of duty by the Master or the Vessel. Provided, however, That whenever any such orders or directions given otherwise than by the Government of the United States or its representative are contrary to sailing directions or other orders of the Charterer as to the employment of the Vessel, the Master shall, if practicable, apply to the Charterer or its agents or to a representative of the United States for consent or advice and shall not comply with such orders or directions unless such consent or advice to comply is first obtained. Provided further, however, That if it is impracticable in any case to act in accordance with the foregoing proviso, the Master's decision as to compliance with any such orders or directions shall be made with due regard to the interests of all concerned, including the Charterer, the Owner, and the Vessel, her crew and cargo.

CLAUSE 29. If after redelivery the Vessel is arrested or attached upon any cause of action arising or alleged to have arisen from previous possessions or operation of the Vessel by the Charterer, or any subcharterer, or for which the Charterer is liable, the Charterer undertakes to use its best efforts to cause the release of the Vessel under the Suits in Admiralty Act or any other special remedy available to the Charterer, subject to the approval of the Attorney General of the United States.

CLAUSE 30. The Charterer (except as to matters affecting only the stability of the Vessel) shall be exclusively responsible for proper loading, stowage and discharge of goods of an inflammable, explosive or dangerous nature, and shall comply with all applicable regulations and furnish any necessary fittings.

CLAUSE 31. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all expenses for wages, bonuses and subsistence of the Master and crew and other out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Owner subsequent to the date of and arising from an actual or constructive total loss of the Vessel to the extent not recovered or reimbursed under any insurance on the Vessel or under this Charter or otherwise. If the extent of the damage or injury is not sufficient to entitle the Owner to collect for an actual or constructive total loss under the provisions of any insurance on the Vessel in the absence of a declaration by the Charterer, then in addition to reimbursement of expenses as aforesaid, the Owner shall be entitled: (a) to charter hire at the rate of 3½ per cent per annum on the then current valuation of the Vessel under valuation Option II, commencing with the date when charter hire would otherwise terminate and ending four months thereafter or on the date of such declaration, whichever date is earlier; and (b) if the Vessel is declared a constructive total loss more than four months after the date charter hire would otherwise terminate, then to charter hire in an amount equal to the use rate payable under Part I from the end of such four months until the date of such declaration.

CLAUSE 32. The Administrator (Charterer), acting pursuant to delegation of authority by the War Contracts Price Adjustment Board to the Administrator by instrument dated February 26, 1944, having found that this Agreement is in the nature of a lease contract and that the profits of the use rate and agreed valuation (if any) hereunder can now be determined with reasonable certainty, that such use rate and agreed valuation (if any) are not in excess of just compensation to which the Owner is or may be entitled, and that the provisions of this Charter with respect thereto adequately prevent excessive profits, the said use rate and agreed valuation (if any) are hereby exempted from the provisions of the Renegotiation Act, pursuant to subsection (i) (4) of the said Act. Nothing in this Clause 32 shall be construed as an admission by the Owners that the items exempted from renegotiation as aforesaid would be subject to the Renegotiation Act in the absence of the foregoing provisions. The service rate under this Charter shall be subject to renegotiation in accordance with the provisions of said Act, and with respect thereto this Charter shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by subsection (b) of said Act, with the expressed understanding and agreement that the aggregate of the amount received or accrued to the Owner on account of the service rate under this and all other WARSHIPTIME or WARSHIPOILTIME Charters containing similar renegotiation provisions shall be treated as a unit for the purpose of such renegotiation. There shall be inserted in each subcontract, subject to the Renegotiation Act and involving an estimated amount of more than $100,000, a clause reciting in substance that such subcontract shall be deemed to contain all the provisions required by the Renegotiation Act. This Clause 32 shall be applicable only from the effective date of this Amended Charter. Nothing in this Clause 32 shall be construed as an admission or agreement by the Owner as to the applicability of the Renegotiation Act to this Charter for the period prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter or to any charter hire or other sums accruing prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter: Provided, however, That all rights, if any, which the Administrator may have to renegotiate any charter hire or other sums accruing prior to the effective date of this Amended Charter are hereby reserved by the Administrator.

CLAUSE 33. A. No member of or delegate to Congress or Resident Commissioner is or shall be admitted to any share or part of this Charter or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, except to the extent allowed by Title 18 U. S. Code, Section 206. The Owner agrees not to employ any member of or delegate to Congress or Resident Commissioner, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

CLAUSE 33. B. The Owner shall not employ any person who advocates, or who is a member of an organization that advocates, the overthrow of the government of the United States by force or violence, to perform any work under this Charter. As a condition to the employment of any person for the performance of such work, the Owner shall, if the Charterer so directs, require each person to execute and file an affidavit in such form as to satisfy the requirements of Public Law No. 678, 77th Congress, or Public Law No. 23, 77th Congress, but the execution and filing of such affidavit shall be without prejudice to the right of the Charterer to require such further evidence in the premises as may be in the possession of the Owner as the Charterer may deem desirable.

CLAUSE 33. C. The Owner agrees that in performing the work required of it by this Charter, it will not discriminate against any worker because of race, creed, color, or national origin.

CLAUSE 33. D. The Owner shall not employ any person undergoing sentence of imprisonment at hard labor.

CLAUSE 33. E. The Owner warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Charter upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the Charterer the right to annul this Charter or, in its discretion, to deduct from any sums payable under this Charter the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fees. This warranty shall not apply to commissions payable by the Owner upon agreements or sales secured or made through bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Owner for the purpose of securing business.

CLAUSE 34. Failure of the Master or Owner to protest against any act or omission of the Charterer, or any other agency of the United States, including any act, omission or order which in the opinion of the Master may affect the Vessel's seaworthiness or may be in contravention of the laws or regulations of the United States shall not prejudice the rights of the Owner under this Charter.

CLAUSE 35. Unless otherwise provided in this Charter or mutually agreed upon, all payments, notices and communications from the Charterer to the Owner, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Charter, shall be made or addressed to the Owner at the address provided in Part I, and all payments, notices and communications from the Owner to the Charterer, pursuant to the terms of or in connection with this Charter, shall be made or addressed to the Charterer at its offices in Washington, District of Columbia.

CLAUSE 36. A. In the event that this form of time charter is modified by the Charterer at any time prior to July 1, 1944, the Owner shall, at its option, have the benefit of any such modifications, subject to the assumption by the Owner, at the request of the Charaterer, of any obligations imposed in conjunction with such modifications. Said option shall be exercised within such reasonable time as the Charterer may prescribe, and, upon such exercise, the modifications shall become effective as of the date of this Charter. In the event of non-exercise by the Owner of said option, this Charter shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its original terms.

CLAUSE 36. B. This Charter may be amended, modified or terminated at any time by mutual agreement between the parties hereto.

CLAUSE 37. This Charter consists of this Part II and of Part I which incorporates this Part II therein by reference. In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Part II and those of Part I, the provisions of Part I shall govern to the extent of such conflict.

SCHEDULE A—INSURANCE INDEMNITY AND WAIVER PROGRAM

I. INSURANCE

(A) Unless otherwise mutually arranged, at all times during the currency of this Charter, the Charterer shall provide and pay for or assume as insurer:

(1) Insurance on the Vessel on the terms stated either in Plan I or Plan II below.

PLAN I. In the event the Owner has elected valuation Option I (just compensation):

Insurance on the Vessel under the terms and conditions of the full form of policy of War Shipping Administration (designated as Warshipreq, a copy of which is attached hereto) covering both marine and war risks. In the event of total or constructive total loss of the Vessel due to the operation of a risk insured against by said policy, the Charterer, as insurer, shall pay to the person entitled thereto just compensation for such loss to the extent that the person entitled thereto is not otherwise reimbursed through policies of insurance. The amount of just compensation shall be determined by the Administrator as soon as practicable after the loss, and if the amount of just compensation so determined is unsatisfactory to the person entitled thereto, the Charterer shall pay to such person 75 per centum of the amount so determined, and such person shall be entitled to sue the United States to recover such further sum, as added to said 75 per centum, will make up such amount as will be just compensation for the Vessel; or the Owner may sue the Charterer, as insurer, under the policy for an amount equivalent to that which the Owner would be entitled to as just compensation under the laws and Constitution of the United States for the loss of the Vessel, in excess of 75 per centum of the amount determined by the Charterer to be just compensation, as hereinbefore provided, which 75 per centum, forthwith on the commencement of such suit, shall be paid the Owner by the Charterer on account of liability under said policy. The Charterer shall not, however, by reason of the operation of this Clause, be liable for any damage incurred prior to the attachment of this insurance.

PLAN II. In the event the Owner has elected valuation Option II (agreed value):

Insurance on the Vessel under the terms and conditions of the full form of standard hull war risk policy of the War Shipping Administration, (designated as Warshipreq, a copy of which is attached hereto) in the amount of the agreed value under this Charter, but subject to the limitations of that policy relating to this Plan II, and covering only war risks (including malicious damage, sabotage, strikes, riots, and civil commotion). It is specially agreed, however:

(a) That the Owner, at its own expense except as provided in subparagraph (b) below will insure the Vessel with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate in an amount to be determined by the Owner, and under the conditions of American Hull Form Revised (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) which insurance shall include the interest of War Shipping Administration as Charterer.

(b) That the Charterer will reimburse the Owner for premiums paid on insurance taken out by the Owner with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate pursuant to subparagraph (a) above: Provided, however, Such reimbursement shall not exceed the amount of premiums payable on the value set forth in the Charter on the attachment of said insurance and at the time any further annual premium is due and payable. In consideration of such reimbursement, any recapture of profits from said Syndicate shall accrue to the sole benefit of the Charterer, and any return of premiums under the insurance procured by the Owner shall, to the extent that they represent premiums originally reimbursed by the Charterer, be repayable to the Charterer.

(c) That the Owner (at its option and expense) may procure excess insurance, including liability insurance, (without benefit of salvage, subrogation or right of contribution) above the limits of the insurance so procured, but such insurance shall not be on terms inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter or with the provisions of the insurance provided for above.

(d) That the insurance procured by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (a) hereof as well as any additional insurance procured by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (c) hereof, and any amount of self-insurance carried by the Owner in excess of the limits of the insurance procured pursuant to subparagraph (a) hereof, shall be subject to the provisions of Clause II of this Schedule A. In consideration of the foregoing, the Charterer hereby insures the Owner against any claim by the United States for damage to property or vessels of the United States or for loss of freight, demurrage or other claims covered by the collision clause in the American Hull Form Revised (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) policy, arising out of collision with the Vessel.

(e) That in the event of cancellation or termination of the insurance referred to in subparagraph (a) above (except for nonpayment of premium), or upon thirty (30) days written notice from Charterer to the Owner, the Vessel shall thereafter be insured for marine risks by the Charterer under the terms and conditions of the full form of standard hull policy of the War Shipping Administration (designated as Warshipreq) for the amount set forth in valuation Option II.

(f) The Charterer hereby insures the Owner for payments of (a) sue and labor charges, (b) general average and salvage, and (c) collision liabilities, not recoverable under the insurance on the Vessel taken out by the Owner with the American Marine Hull Insurance Syndicate pursuant to subparagraph (a) above solely by reason of the insured valuation of said policies being insufficient to provide complete indemnity to the vessel Owner in respect of the liabilities specifically referred to in this subparagraph (f), and not recoverable under insurance arranged pursuant to subparagraph (c) above. Provided, however, That the liability of the Charterer under this subparagraph (f), in respect of any one such class of liabilities, shall be limited for any one collision, casualty or occurrence to the amount, if any, by which the market value of the Vessel in sound condition at the date of such collision, casualty or occurrence, plus the Vessel's then pending freight, exceeds the insured value of the Vessel for total loss purposes under the insurance taken out by the Owner pursuant to subparagraph (a) above; it being understood that the amount of the Charterer's liability hereunder, if any, shall be applicable separately to each of the foregoing three classes of liabilities, with the full amount open for each.

(g) Without limiting the liability of the Charterer as insurer under this Charter, all repairs to the Vessel coming within the terms of the insurance assumed by the Charterer or procured by the Owner pursuant to this Schedule A shall be subject to the approval of the Charterer as to the extent, time and place of repairs. All repairs shall be carried out under the supervision of the Owner.

(h) In the event the Vessel is covered by a mortgage or lien held by any department or instrumentality of the United States, then any sum or sums payable by virtue of the provisions of this Clause I of Schedule A shall be payable for distribution to such department or instrumentality and/or the persons entitled thereto as their interests may appear.

(2) All insurance which the Owner may be obligated to provide, covering the crew with respect to loss of life, disability (including dismemberment and loss of function), detention, repatriation and similar situations, and loss of or damage to personal effects. Unless otherwise directed by the Charterer, the Owner shall agree with the crew to provide the war risk insurance covering such items afforded by the Decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board (as amended or modified from time to time) and the marine risk insurance covering such items afforded by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy (published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 20, 1943, as Decision 1A of the Maritime War Emergency Board), as amended from time to time, and such Decisions and Policy shall be the measure and limit of the Charterer's liability under this Clause. The Owner shall give effect to the foregoing by inserting the following language, or such other language as the Charterer may from time to time direct, in the form of a rider or otherwise, in the Ship's Articles or other contract of employment on all voyages of the Vessel under this Charter:

"It is agreed that the Master, Officers, and Members of the Crew shall be furnished the war risk insurance protection covering loss of life, disability (including dismemberment, and loss of function), detention, repatriation and similar situations and loss of or damage to personal effects, required by the Decisions of the Maritime War Emergency Board, as amended or modified from time to time, and the marine risk insurance afforded by the Second Seamen's War Risk Policy, as amended from time to time."

(3) War risk protection and indemnity insurance under the terms and conditions of the standard War Risk Protection and Indemnity policy prescribed by the War Shipping Administration, a copy of which is attached hereto, for the benefit of the Owner and the Charterer, as their interests may appear.

It is specially agreed, however,

(a) That the Owner, unless otherwise agreed, shall procure marine protection and indemnity insurance under the terms and conditions of the Wartimepandi Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) from an American Protection and Indemnity Underwriter approved by the Charterer which issues said form of policy, which insurance shall include the interests of the Charterer and its Time Charter Agents under Service Agreements, Berth Agents and Sub-Agents acting on their behalf. The Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all premiums paid on such insurance in consideration of which any readjustment of premiums and any return premium shall be for account of the Charterer.

(b) That to the extent that cargo claims are recoverable under said insurance or are reimbursable to the Owner under the terms of this Charter, the Charterer, and its duly authorized Agents are authorized by the Owner to attend to the adjustment and settlement of or otherwise dispose of cargo claims in such manner (not inconsistent with the terms of said Protection and Indemnity Insurance) as may be determined by the Charterer.

(c) That in the event of cancellation (except for non-payment of premium) of the insurance referred to in subparagraph (a) above by the Protection and Indemnity Underwriters, or upon thirty days' written notice from the Charterer to the Owner of its intention to terminate such insurance, the Charterer will then provide and pay for or assume as insurer, identical marine protection and indemnity insurance for the benefit of the Owner and the Charterer and the Charterer's Agents as their interests may appear.

(d) That the Charterer assumes as insurer any liability of the Owner or the Charterer on account of loss, damage or expense in respect of land lease cargo or cargo owned by the United States or any agency or department thereof, including but not limited to the War Department, Navy Department, Metal Reserves Company, Rubber Reserves Company, Defense Supplies Corporation, Reconstruction Finance Corporation or Foreign Economic Administration, which would be recoverable under the Wartimepandi Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) in the absence of the specific exclusion relating thereto, therein.

(e) That the Charterer hereby insures the Owner for excess protection and indemnity liabilities on said Vessel on terms and conditions identical to that provided by Wartimepandi Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) to the extent that said Wartimepandi Policy (by reason of the insured amounts in said policy) does not provide the Owner with complete protection and indemnity: Provided, however, That the liability of the Charterer under this subparagraph (e) in respect of any one accident or occurrence shall be limited to the amount, if any, by which the market value of the vessel in sound condition at the date of such accident or occurrence plus the vessel's then pending freight exceeds the insured amounts in said Wartimepandi Policy.

(f) That the Owner (at its option and expense) may procure additional insurance in excess of the limits of the insurance procured or provided pursuant to subparagraphs (a) and (e) hereof, but such insurance shall not be on terms inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter.

(g) That the Charterer shall reimburse the Owner for all claims paid by the Owner and not recoverable pursuant to the provisions of the standard War Risk Protection and Indemnity Policy, and Wartimepandi Policy (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) referred to above, solely by reason of deductible average, franchise or other similar deductions appearing in such policies.

(h) That the Charterer hereby insures the Owner for marine and war risk insurance against all carrier's liabilities with respect to cargo to be carried, carried, or which has been carried on board the Vessel directly incurred in consequence of the operation of the Vessel and not covered by the standard protection and indemnity insurance provided or procured pursuant to this paragraph (3), including, but not limited to, liability for deviation or overcarriage, liability for drydocking with cargo on board the Vessel, liability under ad valorem Bills of Lading, and liability for carrying on deck, cargo covered by under deck Bills or Lading.

(4) Marine and war risk insurance covering the Owner's actual loss (or in the case of slop chests, the actual loss of the owner thereof) as determined by the Charterer, for (i) slop chests, (ii) cash carried on board the Vessel but not in excess of $5,000 unless otherwise agreed, and (iii) consumable stores. "Consumable Stores" within the meaning of this paragraph (4) shall mean all consumable and subsistence stores (but not radio supplies, spares, expendable equipment, scrap and junk) listed in United States Maritime Commission Voyage Stores Reports, Forms 7915A, 7916A, 7918A and 7919A (Revised Forms 1960).

(B) (a) If the Charterer elects to insure with commercial underwriters any of the risks assumed or insured against by it pursuant to this Schedule A, the Owner agrees, if so instructed by the Charterer, to file with such underwriters, on behalf of the Charterer, reports, declarations, claims and the customary insurance documents, it being understood that except to the extent of any payment to the Owner by the underwriters such action on the part of the Owner shall in no way affect the Charterer's direct liability to the Owner with respect to risks assumed or insured against by the Charterer under this Charter.

(b) As soon as practicable after attachment of this insurance, the Owner shall furnish to the Charterer a statement of all unrepaired damage known to the Owner existing at the time of attachment of this insurance, together with a report of all casualties known to the Owner which may have given rise to damage subsequent to the last drydocking in a U. S. Continental Port. Upon the request of the Charterer, the Owner shall also furnish to the Charterer copies of, or at Charterer's option permit it to inspect, all deck and engine room logs, if available, and all surveys made at or subsequent to the last drydocking of the Vessel in a U. S. Continental Port.

(c) In no case shall the insurance herein provided for cover loss or damage incurred prior to the attachment of this insurance.

(d) Insurance heretofore provided by the Charterer under this Charter shall terminate upon the attachment of this insurance; provided, however, that claims for unrepaired damage under said prior insurance shall not be due and payable until the repairs are effected or if not so effected, until the termination of this insurance, but in no case shall the Charterer, as Charterer or insurer, be liable for such unrepaired damage in addition to a subsequent total or constructive total loss under this insurance or Charter.

(e) General average adjusters shall be appointed by the Owner, from a list of adjusters satisfactory to the Charterer, and shall attend to the settlement and collection of the general average, subject to customary charges. If the Vessel should put into a port of distress or be under average, she is to be consigned to the Charterer's agents who shall be entitled to receive the usual charges and commissions.

II. WAIVERS

(a) The Owner shall and does hereby waive all claims for general average, salvage, collision or demurrage against any vessel (1) owned by the United States, or (2) under charter to the United States on terms which would make the United States liable as Charterer, insurer or otherwise for such claims or (3) under charter to the United States and insured under the terms of the AMERICAN HULL FORM REVISED (Requisitioned Vessels 1943).

(b) The Owner shall and does hereby waive all claims for general average, salvage, collision or demurrage against any other vessel owned by or under charter to any Government, and against any cargo carried on any such vessel or on any vessel described in subparagraph (a) above, to the extent such waiver may be required by the Charterer in any specific case or cases in order to give effect to any agreement for mutual or reciprocal waiver of claims entered into by the United States on behalf of vessels owned by or under charter to it.

(c) The waivers provided in this Clause II of Schedule A shall be effective only as to claims relating to the vessel and arising out of her use or operation under this Charter, and such waivers shall not relieve the Charterer of any liability it may have to the Owner under the terms of this Charter.

(d) The Owner shall and does hereby waive any claim against any ship repairer, based on negligence or otherwise, arising out of repair or custody of the vessel during the period of this Charter, to the extent that such claim, if not waived, would ultimately be borne by the United States under contract or insurance arrangement between the United States and the repairer: Provided, however, That such waiver shall not preclude recovery by the Owner against the repairer for amounts less than the customary contractual limit of $300,000 on the repairer's liability, nor for any claim by the Owner for proper replacement of defective workmanship or material in connection with any repairs which are for the Owner's account under the terms of this Charter.

(e) The Owner shall and does hereby waive any claim for loss of or damage to the vessel against any stevedore to the extent that such claim, if not waived, would ultimately be borne by the United States under contract or insurance arrangement between the United States and the stevedore, except with respect to claims which the Owner cannot recover under the provisions of Clause I, (A), (1) (a) of this Schedule A, by reason of the franchise in the insurance provided pursuant to said Clause.

III. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

(a) The Charterer shall insure the Owner for and against any loss or damage suffered, or liabilities incurred, by the Owner for which claim is waived under the provisions of Clause II of this Schedule A (except claims for salvage in excess of actual costs in connection therewith), and which is not recovered by the Owner under any other provision of this Charter: Provided, however, That if a valuation of the Vessel has been agreed to this indemnity shall not entitle the Owner to recover for loss or damage to the Vessel in an aggregate sum in excess of the agreed valuation, or if no valuation of the Vessel has been agreed to, in excess of the amount of compensation payable in the event of loss of the Vessel; and Provided further, That this indemnity shall not entitle the Owner to recover for any period of detention or loss of use of the Vessel an aggregate sum in excess of the amount which would be payable to the Owner under the other terms of this Charter for such period.

(b) The Charterer shall reimburse, indemnify, and hold harmless the Owner, the Master and the Vessel for or from all consequences, losses and liabilities whatsoever directly resulting from compliance with or efforts to comply with any orders or directions of the Charterer, its agents, representatives or employees, or any other agency of the United States or of any allied government, or orders or directions given as provided in Clause 28 of this Charter, unless properly chargeable to the Owners under this Charter or Schedule, or recoverable under (or within the franchise of) any of the insurance procured pursuant to the terms of this Schedule A. The Owner shall, as far as may be practicable, keep the Charterer currently informed in writing as to any oral orders (involving substantial delay, expense or risk to the Vessel or her cargo) not promptly confirmed in writing by the person giving such orders.

(c) The Charterer hereby assumes and indemnifies the Owner for any loss or liability, if not covered by the terms and conditions of any of the insurances provided for in this Schedule A, arising out of performance of services under any towage or pilotage contract customarily in use in the trades in which the Charterer uses the Vessel or which is specially agreed to by the Owner upon request or instructions of the Charterer.

IV. CONSTRUCTIVE TOTAL LOSS DECLARATION BY CHARTERER

If the Charterer finds, in case of casualty or serious damage or injury to the Vessel during the period of this Charter, not constituting an actual or constructive total loss under the insurance provided in this Schedule A, that the continuation of the Charter is inadvisable because of the probable high cost of repairs or indefinite loss of use of the Vessel then the Charterer nonetheless shall have the option of declaring her a constructive total loss by so notifying the Owner in writing as soon as practicable after the occurrence causing such damage or injury. In the event of such a declaration by the Charterer, the Charterer as insurer, shall forthwith pay or cause to be paid to the Owner an amount to be determined in accordance with the valuation provisions of this Charter as though the Vessel were an actual total loss. Provided, however, If insurance Plan II is applicable and the Vessel is in fact a constructive total loss within the terms of the insurance provided by the Owner pursuant to Plan II of said Clause I of this Schedule A, no such payment shall be made by or on behalf of the Charterer, or if the Owner shall have elected to recover for the estimated cost of repairing the damage to the Vessel under the terms and conditions of American Hull Form Revised (Requisitioned Vessels 1943) the amount payable by the Charterer to the Owner shall be reduced by the amount payable under such insurance. If the Owner does not so elect or shall not have so elected within ninety (90) days of declaration of a constructive total loss by the Charterer then the Charterer shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the Owner under such insurance. Against any such payments received by the Owner from the Charterer or the Owner's assurer, as the case may be, the Owner will, if the Charterer elects to take title, give such releases and instruments granting the Vessel or the property of her remaining to the Charterer as the Charterer may require and that are not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of the American Hull Form Revised (Requisitioned Vessels 1943).

V. ATTACHMENT OF INSURANCE

This Schedule shall be effective simultaneously with the effective date of this Amended Charter (Addendum) to which it is affixed, and the insurance to be provided by the Charterer hereunder, shall attach as of Noon, (EWT) of such effective date.

If an Owner who has elected Valuation Option II thereafter elects Valuation Option I in accordance with the terms of the Amended Charter (Addendum), then the insurance provided by the Charterer under Insurance Plan II shall terminate as of the effective date and hour that Valuation Option I becomes effective and the insurance provided by the Charterer under Insurance Plan I shall attach simultaneously therewith.

Pending an election by the Owner of Valuation Option I or II, as the case may be, as provided in Clause D of Part I of this Amended Charter (Addendum), Insurance Plan I of this Schedule shall be effective unless and until the Owner shall thereafter, in accordance with the provisions of said Clause D, elect Valuation Option II and shall notify the Charterer of his election and of the placing of marine hull insurance with the Syndicate as provided in subparagraph (a) of Clause 1A of this Schedule, in which event Insurance Plan II shall be effective retroactively to Noon (EWT) of the effective date of this Amended Charter (Addendum), notwithstanding that prior to the date of said election the Vessel or its Owner may have sustained loss, damage, or expense covered by the insurance provided by the Charterer under said Insurance Plan I.

In a sum as provided for in the Charter Party referred to above, or if no such sum be provided for in said Charter Party, in the amount of Just Compensation arrived at pursuant to the provisions of said Charter Party.

At and from ---------- to the day and hour of redelivery of the Vessel under, or to the termination of, the Charter referred to above, whichever shall first occur.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

A. The following conditions shall apply to all vessels insured hereunder:

1. (a) This policy shall respond for payments of general average, salvage, and collision liabilities incurred by the vessel, if covered hereby, even though the amount of such charges or liabilities may exceed the sum insured hereby or the contributory value or limitation of liability value may be greater than the value named herein: Provided, however, Except as provided in subparagraph (b) hereof, the total amount payable hereunder in respect of all claims arising out of any one occurrence or disaster, for liabilities under the Collision Clause and liabilities for salvage and general average shall not exceed, in the aggregate, double the amount insured on the vessel, plus any expenses of litigation incurred with the written consent of the War Shipping Administration; but (in addition to the foregoing limitation on the aggregate amount payable) in the case of vessels built in 1934 or thereafter neither (a) the amount recoverable in respect of liabilities under the Collision Clause nor (b) the aggregate amount recoverable in respect of salvage and general average shall (in respect of any one occurrence or disaster), exceed 110% of the amount insured, plus the amount of any such expenses of litigation.

(b) It is further agreed that the limits of liability as stated above and sue and labor charges recoverable under this policy shall be increased by the amount, if any, by which the market value of the vessel in sound condition at the time of such collision, casualty or occurrence, plus the vessel's then pending freight, exceeds the insured value hereunder for total loss purposes; it being understood that the amount of such additional coverage shall be applicable separately to (a) sue and labor charges, (b) general average and salvage, and (c) collision liabilities, with the full amount open for each.

(c) Nothing contained in this Clause I shall be construed as increasing the amount recoverable in respect of claims for physical loss of or damage to the insured vessel.

2. This insurance shall not be prejudiced by the participation of the Assured in any agreement as to the Waiver of claims entered into by the United States on behalf of vessels owned by or under charter to it.

3. With respect to the risks and perils insured against hereunder, it is warranted that no insurance in excess of the value hereinafter provided for, whether for hull, machinery, disbursements, or other similar interests however described, exists or will be placed during the currency of this insurance except as permission to place additional insurance is granted by the Administrator, and then only in accordance with the terms of such permission. Provided always that a breach of this warranty shall not afford the assurers any defense to a claim by mortgagees or other third parties who may have accepted this Policy without notice of such breach of warranty, nor shall it restrict the right of the Assured and/or their managers to insure in addition General Average and/or Salvage Disbursements whilst at risk, or general average, salvage or collision liabilities.

4. This insurance shall be subject to the following clauses:

(a) With leave to sail or navigate with or without pilots, to go on trial trips and to assist or tow vessels or craft whether customary or in distress or not, and whether under a pre-arranged contract or not, or be towed, all at no additional premium.

(b) This insurance shall not be subject to any Trading Warranties.

(c) Any notice required by the terms of this policy shall be transmitted by the Assured to the Director of Wartime Insurance as soon as may be reasonably practicable. In transmitting such notice the Assured shall comply with all relevant Security Orders of the War Shipping Administration.

(d) Radio apparatus and equipment and other apparatus or equipment used for the purposes of communication or as aids to navigation or safety devices shall be covered by this insurance and included within the amount insured on the vessel as hereinbefore set forth, even when not owned by the vessel owner, provided the vessel owner has prior to date of loss assumed liability therefor; but the liability of underwriters (either as to amount or as to the risks covered) shall not exceed the vessel owner's liability or the liability to which underwriters would be subject if the property were fully owned by the vessel owner, whichever shall be the lesser.

5. In the event of claims arising from collision between the insured vessel and a sister-ship, or in the event of claims for salvage services rendered to the insured vessel by a sister-ship the sister-ship salvage clause and the sister-ship collision clause contained in the attached form of policy shall be deemed deleted therefrom in any case where the assured by any charter, or other agreement entered into by the War Shipping Administration and binding upon the Assured, would be bound to waive such claims if the vessels were not sister-ships.

6. This policy is issued pursuant to the obligation assumed by the War Shipping Administration in Clause I of Schedule A of the Charter Party referred to herein, and shall not be deemed to govern the relationship between the War Shipping Administration and the owner except as to such obligation nor to override any other provisions of the Charter Party.

7. It is agreed that liability for damage to cargo arising under any agreement to which the War Shipping Administration is a party or is bound, for the waiver or adjustment of collision claims, shall be among the liabilities covered by the Collision Clause herein, subject, however, to the same limitations and conditions which apply to other liabilities covered by the same clause. It is further agreed that where, under any such agreement, cargo's liability for General Average is waived, the cargo's proportion of any General Average sacrifices and expenses incurred by the vessel shall be payable under this policy as part of the hull's proportion of General Average, to the extent provided in Special Condition No. 1 hereinabove.

8. As between this Policy and any other policy covering the same or similar risks on the insured Vessel, such other policy shall be deemed primary and this insurance secondary. It is agreed, nevertheless, that any losses which would be payable hereunder in the absence of such other insurance shall be advanced under this Policy if the Assured is unable to collect them under such other policy within 60 days after filing the usual proofs of loss and interest. Thereafter the Assured shall, at the expense and under the direction of the Administrator, take whatever steps the Administrator may deem necessary or advisable for the collection of such loss under such other policy; and the net recovery under such other policy shall be applied, so far as necessary to the reimbursement of the amount advanced by the Administrator.

9. Where, under the terms of the Charter Party, the Administrator has a right to declare and does declare the vessel a constructive total loss as between himself and the Assured, the Assurer shall not be liable for unrepaired damage.

B. The following condition shall be effective only with respect to vessels to which insurance plan II of the Charter Party applies, but with respect to such vessels it shall be paramount and shall override any other provision of this policy which may be in conflict therewith.

1. During the time that Insurance Plan II of the Charter Party is effective, this insurance covers only those risks which would be covered by this policy (including the Collision Clause) in the absence of the F. C. & S. Warranty contained herein but which are excluded by that warranty (such insurance being subject to the warranties and additional clauses contained in the War Risk Clauses).

C. The following condition shall be effective only with respect to vessels to which insurance plan I of the charter party applies but with respect to such vessels it shall be paramount and shall override any other provision of this policy which may be in conflict therewith.

1. This policy shall respond to claims for partial losses covered hereby and repaired by the Owner with the approval of the War Shipping Administration (subject to the franchise warranty) even though the cost of such repairs may exceed the sum insured hereby.

D. Said Vessel, for so much as concerns the Assured, by agreement between the Assured and Underwriters in this policy, is and shall be valued at the amount in accordance with the provisions of the Charter Party, referred to above, or, if no such amount is set forth in said Charter Party, in the amount of just compensation arrived at pursuant to the provisions of said Charter Party.

Unless deleted or superseded by the Underwriters the following warranty shall be paramount, and shall supersede and nullify any contrary provision of the policy:

F. C. & S. CLAUSE

(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Policy, this insurance is warranted free from any claim for loss, damage, or expense caused by or resulting from capture, seizure, arrest, restraint, or detainment, or the consequences thereof or of any attempt thereat, or any taking of the vessel, by requisition or otherwise, whether in time of peace or war and whether lawful or otherwise; also from all consequences of hostilities or warlike operations (whether there be a declaration of war or not), piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom.

(2) For the purpose of this warranty the term "consequences of hostilities or warlike operations" shall be deemed to include the following:

(a) Collision caused by failure, in compliance with wartime regulations, of the insured vessel or any vessel with which she is in collision to show the usual full peacetime navigation or anchorage lights.

(b) Stranding caused by the absence of lights, buoys, or similar peacetime aids to navigation consequent upon wartime regulations.

(c) Stranding caused by the failure of the insured vessel to employ a pilot in waters where a pilot would ordinarily be employed in peacetime but in which the employment of a pilot is dispensed with in compliance with military, naval or other Governmental orders, or with a view to avoiding imminent enemy attack.

For the purposes of this Paragraph (2) any such failure to show lights, or absence of lights, buoys, or similar peacetime aids to navigation, or failure to employ a pilot, shall be presumed to be the cause of the collision or stranding unless the contrary be proved, and stranding shall include sinking consequent upon stranding or contact with any part of the land.

(d) Collision with another vessel in the same convoy or collision with any military or naval vessel, that is to say, a vessel manned by and under the control of military or naval personnel and designed to be employed primarily in armed combat service.

(e) Stranding, collision or contact with any external substances other than water (ice included) as a result of deliberately placing the vessel in jeopardy in compliance with military, naval or other Governmental orders in order to avoid imminent enemy attack, or as an act or measure of war taken in actual process of embarking or disembarking troops or material of war.

(3) The fact that the insured vessel or any vessel with which she is in collision is carrying troops or military or other supplies, or is proceeding to or from a war base, or is manned or operated by military or naval personnel, shall not alone be sufficient to exclude from this policy any claim which is not excluded under the terms of Paragraph (2) above.

(4) Where by reason of any of the foregoing provisions damage sustained by the insured vessel in collision would not be payable under this policy, it is understood and agreed that liability of the assured for damage caused in such collision shall not be covered by the Collision Clause in the Policy.

(5) It is agreed for the purposes of subdivision (2) (d) above all vessels manned and operated by the Department of the Navy of the United States of America shall be treated as though designed to be employed primarily in armed combat service.

This Policy is made and accepted subject to the foregoing stipulations and conditions and to the printed conditions on the following pages which are specially referred to and made part of this policy, it being understood and agreed in the case of any conflict or inconsistency the foregoing shall prevail over those which follow.

In no case shall the insurance herein provided for cover loss or damage incurred prior to the attachment of this insurance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the War Shipping Administration has caused this Policy to be signed by the Administrator, but it shall not be valid unless countersigned by or on behalf of the Director of Wartime Insurance.

Administrator

Beginning the Adventure upon the said Vessel, as above, and so shall continue and endure during the period aforesaid, as employment may offer, in port and at sea, in docks and graving docks, and on ways, gridirons and pontoons, at all times, in all places, and on all occasions, services, and trades whatsoever and wheresoever, under steam, motor power, or sail; with leave to sail or navigate with or without pilots, to go on trial trips and to assist and tow vessels or craft in distress, but if without the approval of Assurers the Vessel be towed, except as is customary or when in need of assistance, or undertakes towage or salvage services under a prearranged contract made by Owners and/or Charterers, the Assured shall pay an additional premium if required by the Assurers, but no such premium shall be required for customary towage by the Vessel in connection with loading and discharging. With liberty to discharge, exchange and take on board goods, specie, passengers, and stores, wherever the Vessel may call at or proceed to, and with liberty to carry goods, live cattle, etc., on deck or otherwise. Including all risks of docking, undocking, changing docks, or moving in harbor and going on or off gridiron or graving dock as often as may be done during the currency of this Policy.

In the event of accident whereby loss or damage may result in a claim under this Policy, notice shall be given in writing to the Assurers, where practicable, prior to survey, so that they may appoint their own surveyor if they so desire. All repairs shall be subject to the approval of the Assurer as to the extent, time and place of repairs and without limiting the foregoing the Assurers shall be entitled to decide the port to which a damaged Vessel shall proceed for docking or repairing (the actual additional expense of the voyage arising from compliance with Assurers' requirements being refunded to the Assured) and Assurers shall also have a right of veto in connection with the place of repair or repairing firm proposed and whenever the extent of the damage is ascertainable the majority (in amount) of the Assurers may take or may require to be taken tenders for the repair of such damage.

Touching the Adventures and Perils which the Assurers are content to bear and take upon themselves, they are of the Seas, Men-of-War, Fire, Enemies, Pirates, Rovers, Thieves, Jettisons, Letters of Mart and Counter-Mart, Surprisals, Takings at Sea, Arrests, Restraints, and Detainments of all Kings, Princes, and Peoples, of what nation, condition, or quality soever, Barratry of the Master and Mariners and of all other like Perils, Losses, and Misfortunes that have or shall come to the Hurt, Detriment, or Damage of the said Ship, etc., or any part thereof; excepting, however, such of the foregoing perils as may be excluded by provisions elsewhere in the policy or by endorsement, And in case of any Loss or Misfortune, it shall be lawful for the Assured, their Factors, Servants, and Assigns, to sue, labor, and travel for, in, and about the Defense, safeguard, and Recovery of the said Vessel, etc., or any part thereof, without prejudice to this Insurance, to the Charges whereof the Assurers will contribute their proportion as provided below. And it is expressly declared and agreed that no acts of the Assurers or Assured in recovering, saving, or preserving the property insured shall be considered as a waiver or acceptance of abandonment.

This insurance also specially to cover (subject to the Average Warranty) loss of or damage to hull or machinery directly caused by the following: Accidents in loading, discharging or handling cargo, or in bunkering or in taking in fuel; Explosions on Shipboard or elsewhere; Bursting of boilers; breakage of shafts or any latent defect in the machinery or hull (excluding, however, the cost and expense of repairing or renewing the defective part); Contact with Aircraft; Negligence of Master, Charterers, Mariners, Engineers, or Pilots: Provided, Such loss or damage has not resulted from want of due diligence by the Owners of the Vessel, or any of them, or by the Managers, Masters, Mates, Engineers, Pilots, or Crew not to be considered as part owners within the meaning of this clause should they hold shares in the vessel.

And it is further agreed that in the event of salvage, towage or other assistance being rendered to the Vessel hereby insured by any vessel belonging in part or in whole to the same Owners or Charterers, the value of such services (without regard to the common ownership or control of the Vessels) shall be ascertained by arbitration in the manner below provided for under the Collision Clause, and the amount so awarded so far as applicable to the interest hereby insured shall constitute a charge under this Policy.

General Average, Salvage, and Special Charges payable as provided in the contract of affreightment, or failing such provision, or there be no contract of affreightment, payable in accordance with the law and Usages of the Port of New York: Provided always, That when an adjustment according to the laws and usages of the port of destination is properly demanded by the owners of the cargo, General Average shall be paid in accordance with same.

When the contributory value of the Vessel is greater than the valuation herein, the liability of the Assurers for General Average contribution (except in respect to amount made good to the vessel) or Salvage shall not exceed that proportion of the total contribution due from the Vessel that the amount insured hereunder bears to the contributory value; and if because of damage for which the Assurers are liable as Particular Average the value of the Vessel has been reduced for the purpose of contribution, the amount of the Particular Average claim under this policy shall be deducted from the amount insured hereunder and the Assurers shall be liable only for the proportion which such net amount bears to the contributory value.

In the event of expenditure for Salvage, Salvage Charges, or under the Sue and Labor Clause, this Policy shall only be liable for its share of such proportion of the amount chargeable to the property hereby insured as the insured value, less loss and/or damage, if any, for which the Assurers are liable, bears to the value of the salved property. Provided, That where there are no proceeds or there are expenses in excess of the proceeds, the expenses, or the excess of the expenses, as the case may be, shall be apportioned upon the basis of the sound value of the property at the time of the accident and this policy without any deduction for loss and/or damage shall bear its pro rata share of such expenses or excess of expenses accordingly.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, this Policy is warranted free from Particular Average under 3 percent, or unless amounting to $4,850; but nevertheless when the Vessel shall have been stranded, sunk, on fire, or in collision with any other Ship or Vessel, the Assurers shall pay the damage occasioned thereby, and the expense of sighting the bottom after stranding shall be paid, if reasonably incurred, even if no damage be found.

Grounding in the Panama Canal, Suez Canal, or in the Manchester Ship Canal or its connections, or in the River Mersey above Rock Ferry Slip, or in the River Plate (above a line drawn from the North Basin, Buenos Aires, to the Mouth of the San Pedro River) or its tributaries, or in the Danube or Demerara Rivers, or on the Yenikale Bar, shall not be deemed to be a stranding.

Average payable on each valuation separately or on the whole, without deduction of thirds, new for old, whether the Average be Particular or General.

No claim shall in any case be allowed in respect of scraping or painting the Vessel's bottom.

The Warranty and conditions as to Average under 3 percent to be applicable to each voyage as if separately insured, and a voyage shall be deemed to commence at one of the following periods to be selected by the Assured when making up the claim, viz: at any time at which the Vessel (1) begins to load cargo or (2) sails in ballast to a loading port. Such voyage shall be deemed to continue during the ensuing period until either she has made one outward and one homeward passage (including an intermediate ballast passage, if made) or has carried and discharged two cargoes, whichever may first happen, and further in either case, until she begins to load a subsequent cargo or sails in ballast for a loading port. When the Vessel sails in ballast to effect damage repair such sailing shall not be deemed to be a sailing for a loading port although she loads at the repairing port. In calculating the 3 percent above referred to, Particular Average occurring outside the period covered by this Policy may be added to Particular Average occurring within such period provided it occur upon the same voyage (as above defined), but only that portion of the claim arising within such period shall be recoverable hereon. The commencement of a voyage shall not be so fixed as to overlap another voyage on which a claim is made on this or the preceding policy.

No recovery for a Constructive Total Loss shall be had hereunder unless the expense of recovering and repairing the Vessel shall exceed the insured value.

In ascertaining whether the Vessel is a Constructive Total Loss, the insured value shall be taken as the required value, and nothing in respect of the damaged or break-up value of the Vessel or wreck shall be taken into account.

In the event of Total or Constructive Total Loss, no claim to be made by the Assurers for freight, whether notice of abandonment has been given or not.

In no case shall the Assurers be liable for unrepaired damage in addition to a subsequent Total Loss sustained during the term covered by this Policy.

And it is further agreed that if the Vessel hereby insured shall come into collision with any other ship or vessel and the Owners or Charterers in consequence thereof or the Surety for either or both of them in consequence of their undertaking shall become liable to pay and shall pay by way of damages to any other person or persons any sum or sums in respect of such collision, the Assurers will pay the Owners or Charterers such proportion of such sum or sums so paid as the Assurers' subscription hereto bears to the value of the Vessel hereby insured. Provided always, That their liability in respect of any one such collision shall not exceed their proportionate part of the value of the Vessel hereby insured. And in cases where the liability of the Vessel has been contested, or proceedings have been taken to limit liability, with the consent in writing of a majority (in amount) of the Underwriters on the hull and/or machinery, the Assurers will also pay a like proportion of the costs which the Owners or Charterers shall thereby incur, or be compelled to pay; but when both vessels are to blame, then unless the liability of the Owners or Charterers of one or both of such vessels becomes limited by law, claims under the Collision Clause shall be settled on the principle of Cross-Liabilities as if the Owners or Charterers of each Vessel had been compelled to pay to the Owners or Charterers of the other of such Vessels such one-half or other proportion of the latter's damages as may have been properly allowed in ascertaining the balance or sum payable by or to the Owners or Charterers in consequence of such collision. And it is further agreed, That the principles involved in this clause shall apply to the case where both Vessels are the property in part or in whole, of the same Owners or Charterers, all questions of responsibility and amount of liability as between the two Vessels being left to the decision of a single Arbitrator, if the parties can agree upon a single Arbitrator, or failing such agreement, to the decision of Arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Managing Owners or Charterers of both Vessels, and one to be appointed by the majority (in amount) of Hull Underwriters interested; the two Arbitrators chosen to choose a third Arbitrator before entering upon the reference, and the decision of such single, or of any two of such three Arbitrators, appointed as above, to be final and binding. Provided always, That this clause shall in no case extend to any sum which the Owners or Charterers may become liable to pay or shall pay for removal of obstructions under statutory powers for injury to harbors, wharves, piers, stages and similar structures, consequent on such collision, or in respect of the cargo or engagements of the Insured Vessel, or for loss of life, or personal injury. And provided also, That in the event of any claim being made by the Charterers under this clause they shall not be entitled to recover in respect of any liability to which the Owners of the Vessel, if interested in this Policy at the time of the Collision in question, would not be subject, nor to a greater extent than the Shipowners would be entitled in such event to recover.

WAR RISK CLAUSES

It is agreed that this insurance also covers those risks which would be covered by the attached policy (including the Collision Clause) in the absence of the F. C. & S. Warranty contained therein but which are excluded by that Warranty.

This insurance, insofar as it relates to war risks, is also subject to the following warranties and additional clauses:

The Adventures and Perils Clause shall be construed as including the risks of piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, floating and/or stationary mines and/or torpedoes whether derelict or not, and/or military or naval aircraft and/or other engines of war including missiles from the land, and warlike operations and the enforcement of sanctions by members of the League of Nations, whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise; but excluding arrest, restraint, or detainment under customs or quarantine regulations, and similar arrests, restraints, or detainments not arising from actual or impending hostilities or sanctions.

If the vessels be insured under marine policies which include the risks of pirates, claims arising from piracy shall nevertheless be paid under this policy and the underwriters hereof shall have no right to contribution from the underwriters of such marine policies it being understood that as between the two sets of policies losses due to piracy are payable under marine policies only to the extent that such losses are not collectible under the war risk policies.

The Franchise warranty in the attached policy is waived and average shall be payable irrespective of percentage and without deduction of new for old. The provisions of the attached policy with respect to constructive total loss shall apply only to claims arising from physical damage to the insured vessel.

Warranted free of any claim for delay or demurrage and warranted not to abandon in case of capture, seizure, or detention, until after condemnation of the property insured. Also warranted not to abandon in case of blockade and free from any claims for loss or expense in consequence of blockade or of any attempt to evade blockade; but in the event of blockade to be at liberty to proceed to an open port and there end the voyage.

Warranted free of any claim based upon loss of or frustration of the insured voyage or adventure caused by arrests, restraints, or detainments, of kings, princes or peoples.

Warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation, preemption, or confiscation by the Government of the United States of America or any State or political subdivision thereof or any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact", promulgated on or about January 2, 1943.

This insurance also covers damage to or destruction of the property insured directly caused by strikers, locked out workmen, or persons taking part in labor disturbances or riots or civil commotions including damage caused by persons acting maliciously, but this paragraph shall not be construed to include damage caused by or resulting from (a) civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, or (b) delay, detention, or loss of use.

Where, as a result of a risk or peril hereby insured against, damage sustained by the insured vessel in collision would be payable under the provisions of this policy, liability of the Assured for damage caused by such collision shall be deemed to be covered hereunder subject to the terms and provisions of the Collision Clause of this policy.

WAR RISK ONLY CLAUSES

The following War Risk only Clauses (Clauses A, B and C) shall be deemed to override P. & I. Clauses (Articles 1 to 25 inclusive) wherever they may be in conflict.

CLAUSE A. This insurance covers only those liabilities which would be covered by this Policy under Articles 1 to 25 inclusive in the absence of the F. C. & S. Clause (Article 25 (d)), but which are excluded by that Clause. The Assurer agrees to indemnify the Assured against loss, damage or expense as aforesaid which the Assured shall become liable to pay and shall pay by reason of the fact that the Assured is the owner, or charterer, or the general or time charter agent or agent or birth-agent or sub-agent of the owner or charterer (mortgagee, trustee, or receiver thereof as the case may be) of the insured vessel.

CLAUSE B. The Assurer shall also indemnify the Assured against losses arising as a result of the Assured's contractual liability, or against costs incurred by the Assured at the direction or in conformity with the wishes of the War Shipping Administration or any other Governmental agency, for repatriation of the crew to a United States port, as required, resulting from capture, seizure, arrest, restraint or detainment, or the consequences thereof or of any attempt thereat, or the consequences of hostilities or warlike operations, whether before or after declaration of war.

CLAUSE C. This Policy is warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation by the Government of the United States of America, or any state or political subdivision thereunder, or any Government which is, or may become a party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" promulgated on or about January 2nd, 1942.

"F. AND I. CLAUSES"

(1) Liability for life salvage, loss of life of, or personal injury to, or illness of, any person, not including, however, unless otherwise agreed by endorsement hereon, liability to an employee (other than a seaman) of the assured, or in case of his death to his beneficiaries, under any compensation act. Liability hereunder shall also include burial expenses not exceeding $200, where reasonably incurred by the assured for the burial of any seaman. The term Person as aforesaid shall include any Person or Persons carried on the insured vessel.

(a) Insurance hereunder shall cover the liability of the assured for claims under any compensation act (other than hereafter excepted) in respect of employees (i) who are members of the crew of the insured vessel, or (ii) who are placed on board the insured vessel with the intention of becoming a member of her crew, or (iii) who, in the event of the vessel being laid up and out of commission, or engaged in the upkeep, maintenance or watching of the insured vessel, or (iv) who are engaged by the insured vessel or its Master to perform stevedoring work in connection with the vessel's cargo at ports in Alaska and ports outside the Continental United States where contract stevedores are not readily available. This insurance, however, shall not be considered as a qualification under any Compensation Act, but, without diminishing in any way the liability of the Assurer under this policy, the Assured may have in effect policies covering such liabilities. All claims under such Compensation Acts for which the Assurer is liable under the terms of this policy are to be paid without regard to such other policies.

(b) Insurance hereunder shall not cover any liabilities under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved September 7th, 1916 and as amended, Public Act #267, Sixty Fourth Congress, known as the U. S. Employees Compensation Act.

(c) Insurance hereunder in connection with the handling of cargo for the insured vessel shall commence from the time of receipt by the Assured of the cargo on dock or wharf, or on craft alongside for loading, and shall continue until due delivery thereof from dock or wharf of discharge or until discharge from the insured vessel on to a craft alongside.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Paragraph (20), liability hereunder shall be extended to cover claims of seamen under any Workmen's Compensation Act whether the liability of the Assured for such claims arises under contract or otherwise.

(2) Liability for expenses reasonably incurred in necessarily repatriating any member of the crew or any other person employed on board the insured vessel; provided, however, that the Assurer's liability for repatriation expenses shall be no greater than if the vessel were privately owned by an American Citizen or than if the employer were a private American Shipowner, and that the Assured shall not be entitled to recover any such expenses incurred by reason of the expiration of the shipping agreement, other than by sea perils, or by reason of the voluntary termination of the agreement. Wages shall be included in such expenses when payable under statutory obligation during unemployment due to the wreck or loss of the insured vessel.

(3) Liability for loss or damage arising from collision of the insured vessel with an-

similar structures, consequent on such collision, or in respect of the cargo or engagements of the Insured Vessel, or for loss of life, or personal injury. And provided also, That in the event of any claim being made by the Charterers under this clause they shall not be entitled to recover in respect of any liability to which the Owners of the Vessel, if interested in this Policy at the time of the Collision in question, would not be subject, nor to a greater extent than the Shipowners would be entitled in such event to recover.

WAR RISK CLAUSES

It is agreed that this insurance also covers those risks which would be covered by the attached policy (including the Collision Clause) in the absence of the F. C. & S. Warranty contained therein but which are excluded by that warranty.

This insurance, insofar as it relates to war risks, is also subject to the following warranties and additional clauses:

The Adventures and Perils Clause shall be construed as including the risks of piracy, civil war, revolution, rebellion or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, floating and/or stationary mines and/or torpedoes whether derelict or not, and/or military or naval aircraft and/or other engines of war including missiles from the land, and warlike operations and the enforcement of sanctions by members of the League of Nations, whether before or after declaration of war and whether by a belligerent or otherwise; but excluding arrest, restraint, or detainment under customs or quarantine regulations, and similar arrests, restraints, or detainments not arising from actual or impending hostilities or sanctions.

If the vessels be insured under marine policies which include the risks of pirates, claims arising from piracy shall nevertheless be paid under this policy and the underwriters hereof shall have no right to contribution from the underwriters of such marine policies it being understood that as between the two sets of policies losses due to piracy are payable under marine policies only to the extent that such losses are not collectible under the war risk policies.

The Franchise warranty in the attached policy is waived and average shall be payable irrespective of percentage and without deduction of new for old. The provisions of the attached policy with respect to constructive total loss shall apply only to claims arising from physical damage to the insured vessel.

Warranted free of any claim for delay or demurrage and warranted not to abandon in case of capture, seizure, or detention, until after condemnation of the property insured. Also warranted not to abandon in case of blockade and free from any claims for loss or expense in consequence of blockade or of any attempt to evade blockade; but in the event of blockade to be at liberty to proceed to an open port and there end the voyage.

Warranted free of any claim based upon loss of or frustration of the insured voyage or adventure caused by arrests, restraints, or detainments, of kings, princes or peoples.

Warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation, preemption, or confiscation by the Government of the United States of America or any State or political subdivision thereof or any government which is or may become party signatory of the "United Nations Pact", promulgated on or about January 2, 1943.

This insurance also covers damage to or destruction of the property insured directly caused by strikers, locked out workmen, or persons taking part in labor disturbances or riots or civil commotions including damage caused by persons acting maliciously, but this paragraph shall not be construed to include or cover any loss, damage, or expense caused by or resulting from (a) civil war, revolution, rebellion, or insurrection, or civil strife arising therefrom, or (b) delay, detention, or loss of use.

Where, as a result of a risk or peril hereby insured against, damage sustained by the insured vessel in collision would be payable under the provisions of this policy, liability of the Assured for damage caused by such collision shall be deemed to be covered hereunder subject to the terms and provisions of the Collision Clause of this policy.

WAR RISK ONLY CLAUSES

The following War Risk only Clauses (Clauses A, B and C) shall be deemed to override P. & I. Clauses (Articles 1 to 25 inclusive) wherever they may be in conflict.

CLAUSE A. This insurance covers only those liabilities which would be covered by this Policy under Articles 1 to 25 inclusive in the absence of the F. C. & S. Clause (Article 25 (d)), but which are excluded by that Clause. The Assurer agrees to indemnify the Assured against loss, damage or expense as aforesaid which the Assured shall become liable to pay and shall pay by reason of the fact that the Assured is the owner, or charterer, or the general or time charter agent or agent or birth-agent or sub-agent of the owner or charterer (mortgagee, trustee, or receiver thereof as the case may be) of the insured vessel.

CLAUSE B. The Assurer shall also indemnify the Assured against losses arising as a result of the Assured's contractual liability, or against costs incurred by the Assured at the direction or in conformity with the wishes of the War Shipping Administration or any other Governmental agency, for repatriation of the crew to a United States port, as required, resulting from capture, seizure, arrest, restraint or detainment, or the consequences thereof or of any attempt thereat, or the consequences of hostilities or warlike operations, whether before or after declaration of war.

CLAUSE C. This Policy is warranted free from any claim arising from capture, seizure, arrests, restraints, detainment, condemnation, preemption, requisition or confiscation by the Government of the United States of America, or any state or political subdivision thereunder, or any Government which is, or may become a party signatory of the "United Nations Pact" promulgated on or about January 2nd, 1943.

"F. AND I. CLAUSES"

(1) Liability for life salvage, loss of life of, or personal injury to, or illness of, any person, not including, however, unless otherwise agreed by endorsement hereon, liability to an employee (other than a seaman) of the assured, or in case of his death to his beneficiaries, under any compensation act. Liability hereunder shall also include burial expenses not exceeding $200, where reasonably incurred by the assured for the burial of any seaman. The term Person as aforesaid shall include any Person or Persons carried on the insured vessel.

(a) Insurance hereunder shall cover the liability of the assured for claims under any compensation act (other than hereafter excepted) in respect of employees (i) who are members of the crew of the insured vessel, or (ii) who are placed on board the insured vessel with the intention of becoming a member of her crew, or (iii) who, in the event of the vessel being laid up and out of commission, or engaged in the upkeep, maintenance or watching of the insured vessel, or (iv) who are engaged by the insured vessel or its Master to perform stevedoring work in connection with the vessel's cargo at ports in Alaska and ports outside the Continental United States where contract stevedores are not readily available. This insurance, however, shall not be considered as a qualification under any Compensation Act, but, without diminishing in any way the liability of the Assurer under this policy, the Assured may have in effect policies covering such liabilities. All claims under such Compensation Acts for which the Assurer is liable under the terms of this policy are to be paid without regard to such other policies.

(b) Insurance hereunder shall not cover any liabilities under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved September 7th, 1916 and as amended, Public Act #367, Sixty Fourth Congress, known as the U. S. Employees Compensation Act.

(c) Insurance hereunder in connection with the handling of cargo for the insured vessel shall commence from the time of receipt by the Assured of the cargo on dock or wharf, or on craft alongside for loading, and shall continue until due delivery thereof from dock or wharf of discharge or until discharge from the insured vessel on to a craft alongside.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Paragraph (20), liability hereunder shall be extended to cover claims of seamen under any Workmen's Compensation Act whether the liability of the Assured for such claims arises under contract or otherwise.

(2) Liability for expenses reasonably incurred in necessarily repatriating any member of the crew or any other person employed on board the insured vessel; provided, however, that the Assurer's liability for repatriation expenses shall be no greater than if the vessel were privately owned by an American Citizen or than if the employer were a private American Shipowner, and that the Assured shall not be entitled to recover any such expenses incurred by reason of the expiration of the shipping agreement, other than by sea perils, or by reason of the voluntary termination of the agreement. Wages shall be included in such expenses when payable under statutory obligation during unemployment due to the wreck or loss of the insured vessel.

(3) Liability for loss or damage arising from collision of the insured vessel with another ship or vessel insofar as such liability is excluded from the liabilities insured under the Four-fourths Collision Clause in the American Institute Hull Form of policy: "And it is further agreed that if the vessel hereby insured shall come into collision with any other ship or vessel and the Assured or the Charterers in consequence thereof or the Surety for either or both of them in consequence of their undertaking shall become liable to pay and shall pay by way of damages to any other person or persons any sum or sums in respect of such collision, we, the Underwriters, will pay the Assured or Charterers such proportion of such sum or sums so paid as our respective subscriptions hereto bear to the value of the vessel hereby insured: Provided always, That our liability in respect of any one such collision shall not exceed our proportionate part of the value of the vessel hereby insured. And in cases where the liability of the vessel has been contested, or proceedings have been taken to limit liability, with the consent in writing of a majority (in amount) of the Underwriters on the hull and/or machinery, we will also pay a like proportion of the costs which the Assured or Charterers shall thereby incur, or be compelled to pay; but when both vessels are to blame, then, unless the liability of the Owners or Charterers of one or both of such vessels becomes limited by law, claims under the Collision Clause shall be settled on the principal of Cross-Liabilities as if the Owners or Charterers of each vessel had been compelled to pay to the Owners or Charterers of the other of such vessels such one-half or other proportion of the latter's damages as may have been properly allowed in ascertaining the balance or sum payable by or to the Assured or Charterers in consequence of such collision; and it is further agreed that the principles involved in this clause shall apply to the case where both vessels are the property, in part or in whole, of the same Owners or Charterers, all questions of responsibility and amount of liability as between the two vessels being left to the decision of a single Arbitrator, if the parties can agree upon a single Arbitrator, or failing such agreement, to the decision of arbitrators, one to be appointed by the Managing Owners or Charterers of both vessels, and one to be appointed by the majority (in amount) of Hull Underwriters interested; the two Arbitrators chosen to choose a third Arbitrator before entering upon the reference, and the decision of such single, or of any two of such three Arbitrators, appointed as above, to be final and binding. Provided always, That this clause shall in no case extend to any sum which the Assured or Charterers may become liable to pay or shall pay for removal of obstructions under statutory powers, for injury to harbors, wharves, piers, stages and similar structures, consequent on such collision, or in respect of the cargo or engagement of the insured vessel, or for loss of life, or personal injury."

Provided, however, That insurance hereunder shall not extend to any liability, whether direct or indirect, in respect of the engagements of or the detention or loss of time of the insured vessel.

(a) Claims hereunder shall be settled on the principles of Cross-Liabilities to the same extent only as provided in the four-fourths Collision Clause above mentioned.

(b) Claims hereunder shall be separated among the several classes enumerated in this policy and each class shall be subject to the special conditions applicable in respect to such class.
